CONTRACTS FOR SALT BEEF AND SALT PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-House, August 18, 1860.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 27th September next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at the undermentioned Ports, the following quantities of

SALT MEAT,

all of the cure of the present season, viz. :—

	NAVY BEEF.		NAVY PORK.
	Tierces.	Barrels.	Tierces.	Barrels.
Deptford ...	2,500 ...	2,300 ...	10,000 ...	10,500
Gosport ...	1,000 ...	1,000 ...	2,500 ...	2,500
Plymouth ...	1,000 ...	1,000 ...	2,500 ...	2,500
Haulbowline	1,500 ...	1,500 ...	3,000 ...	3,000

When to be delivered :

The Beef and Pork to be delivered into the respective Stores as follows ; viz. : one-third of each quantity for each place by the 31st day of January, 1861 ; another third thereof by the 20th day of March, 1861 ; and the remainder thereof by the 15th day of May, 1861 ; or any greater portion, or the whole, at any earlier period, if preferred by the party tendering, and to be paid for by bills at seven days after date, which will be sent to parties as usual.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any ; and also an unlimited power of selection.

A separate tender must be given for the beef, and a separate tender for pork, and every tender must specify where the meat is intended to be cured.

Tenders for pork, of the cure of the United States of America, will not be admitted.

Persons tendering for more than one Port must give a separate tender for each Port.

Parties tendering are desired to take special notice that the use of wooden hoops is abolished, and that iron hoops only will be required for the casks, in accordance with the conditions of the contract.

A form of the tender may be obtained, and the conditions of the contracts, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at this office, at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth, or by applying to the Agent Victualler at Haulbowline, or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Bristol, Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary to the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or to the Commander conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender will be admitted for a less quantity than 100 tierces, or 100 barrels.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose ; but it will not be necessary that the party tendering, or an agent appointed by him, should attend at this Office, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner of the envelope the words "Tender for Salt Meat," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

CONTRACT FOR RAISINS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 27, 1860.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 13th September next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Raisins, 20 tons ; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the raisins.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The raisins to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where they are lying.

Samples (not less than 3 lbs.), must be produced by the parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office.

Particular attention is called to the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen at the said office.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary to the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Raisins," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

CONTRACT FOR LIGNUM VITÆ.

In Her Majesty's Court of Probate.
To Edward Wemyss, now residing at Algoa Bay, South Africa.

TAKE notice that a citation hath issued against you under seal of Her Majesty's Court of Probate, bearing date the 1st day of September, 1860, at the instance of John Soden and William McAdam, executors of the alleged last will and testament, with two codicils of Thomas James Wemyss, late of No. 3, Green-park-buildings, in the city of Bath, and county of Somerset, a Lieutenant General in Her Majesty's Army, and a Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, deceased, who died on or about the 19th day of July, 1860, citing you to appear either personally or by your Proctor, Solicitor, or Attorney, in a cause now depending in our Court of Probate, intituled Soden and McAdam v. Wemyss, wherein the said John Soden and William McAdam are proceeding to prove in solemn form of law, the said alleged last will and testament and codicils, with an intimation that in default of your so appearing the Judge of our Court of Probate would proceed to hear the said will and codicils proved in solemn form of law, and pronounce judgment in the said cause, your absence notwithstanding.—Dated this 3rd day of September, 1860.

In the Matter of ELIZA BUSHELL, Deceased.
Pursuant to the Act of Parliament of the 22nd and 23rd years of the reign of Queen Victoria, cap. 35, intituled "An Act to further amend the Law of Property and to relieve Trustees."

ALL creditors and other persons having any claims or demands against or upon the estate of Eliza Bushell, late of the city of Worcester, Spinster, deceased, (who died on the 27th day of January, 1860, intestate) are hereby required to send the particulars of their claims to Mr. William Bushell, the uncle of the deceased, acting under letters of administration of her estate, at the office of me the undersigned, Solicitor to the said administrator, on or before the 7th day of October next, after which time the said administrator will proceed to distribute the assets of the said deceased, among the parties entitled thereto, having regard to the claims only of which the said administrator shall then have had notice.—Stratford-upon-Avon, September, 7th 1860.

WM. JAS. HOBBS, Solicitor to the Administrator.

JOSEPH SYKES, Deceased,

Pursuant to an Act of Parliament made and passed in the 22nd and 23rd years of the reign of Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to further amend the Law of Property, and to relieve Trustees."

NOTICE is hereby given, that all creditors and others having any claims or demands upon the estate of Joseph Sykes, late of No. 96, West-street, Leeds, in the county of York, Grocer, who died on the 18th day of August, 1860, are required to send to us the undersigned Butler and J. E. Smith, the Solicitors of Esther Sykes, the widow and executrix of the said Joseph Sykes, the particulars of such claims and demands on or before the 15th day of October, now next, after which time the said executrix will proceed to distribute the estate of the said deceased, among the parties entitled thereto, having regard to the claims only of which she the said executrix shall then have had notice.—No. 4, Park-row, Leeds, 1st September, 1860.

By Order

BUTLER and J. E. SMITH, Solicitors to the Executrix.

In the Matter of Miss JANE BURRELL, Deceased.

Pursuant to the Act passed in the Session of Parliament, holden in the 22nd and 23rd years of Her present Majesty's reign, "To further amend the Law of Property, and to relieve Trustees."

ALL creditors and others having claims against the estate of Jane Burrell, late of Wakefield, in Yorkshire, Gentlewoman, deceased (who died on the 9th day of March, 1860, and whose will was proved on the 30th day of March, 1860, by Samuel Secker and Benjamin Laurence Clarkson, both of Wakefield aforesaid, the Executors thereby appointed), are hereby required to send in particulars of their claims to the said executors, at the office of their Solicitors, Messrs. Janson and Banks, in Barston-square, Wakefield aforesaid, on or before Saturday, the 13th day of October, 1860, after which time the executors will, pursuant to the Act, distribute all the assets of the said testatrix among the parties entitled thereto, having regard to the claims of which the said executors shall then have had notice, and will not be liable for the assets so distributed to any person of whose claim they shall not then have had notice.—Dated this 4th day of September, 1860.

JAMES DAVIES, Deceased.

Pursuant to the Act of the 22nd and 23rd Victoria, cap. 35, intituled "An Act to further amend the Law of Property and to relieve Trustees."

WHEREAS the said James Davies carried on the business of an Ironmonger, at Shrewsbury, in the county of Salop, in his own name, and also under the names or style of Davies and Son, and also as a partner in the firm of Davies and Lawrence: And whereas the said James Davies died on or about the 22nd day of July, 1859, and his will, with a codicil thereto, was proved by Henry Keate, of Shrewsbury aforesaid, Surgeon, one of the executors thereof, in the Principal Registry of Her Majesty's Court of Probate on the 16th day of September, 1859, now notice is hereby given, that all creditors or other persons, having any claims or demands upon or against the estate of the said James Davies, either in his individual or partnership capacity, are required, on or before the 3rd day of November next, to send particulars of such claims or demands to the undersigned at his office, situate on Dogpole, in Shrewsbury aforesaid, or in default thereof the said executor will, at the expiration of the above time, proceed to distribute the whole of the assets of the said testator among the parties entitled thereto, of whose claims he shall then have had notice, and that all creditors and other persons, as aforesaid, of whose claims the said executor shall not have received notice prior to the said 3rd day of November next, will be excluded from all claim upon or against the said executor, in respect of the assets of the said James Davies, deceased.—Dated this 4th day of September, 1860.
