NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 24.)—ENGLAND.—WEST COAST.

Bann Shoal, off the Lands End.

THE Bann Shoal is a narrow rocky ridge, about three-quarters of a mile long in a N.N.E., and S.S.W. direction, with irregular depths of 8 to 20 fathoms on it at low water springs. From the least depth, 8 fathoms, which is near the south-west end of the shoal, St. Ives Head or Battery point bears S.E. by S. and is distant 12½ miles; Gurnards Head S. by E. ¼ E., 10 miles; and Sennen church is in line with the extreme of the high-water mark at Cape Cornwall, S. by W. ¼ W., 12 miles.

Cape Cornwall Bank, which was discovered by Captain Sheringham, R.N., in 1839, lies S.W. ¼ W. 6 miles from the Bann Shoal. It is a narrow ridge, about 3 miles long, N.N.E. and S.S.W., and, like the Bann, has irregular depths on it, varying from 13 to 20 fathoms at low water.

Caution.—As the sea breaks heavily both on the Bann Shoal and Cape Cornwall Bank in bad weather, particularly during north-west gales, their locality should at that time be avoided, especially by small and heavily-laden vessels. The coast being so far distant, no good marks can be given for clearing them; but in proceeding round the Lands End to the northward, if the weather be clear, the Longships lighthouse kept on a S. ¼ E. bearing will lead a mile to the westward of the Cape Cornwall Bank; the Brisons islets S. by W., or at night the Longships light dipping and bearing S. by W. ½ W. will lead between the Shoals; and Cape Cornwall S.S.W. will lead a mile to the eastward of the Bann Shoal.

Bristol Channel, North Shore.

A ledge of rocks has lately been discovered in the Nash Passage, between the Nash Sands and Dunraven Head, on the northern shore of the Bristol Channel. It has only 1½ to 2 fathoms on it at low water, and should be carefully avoided by the vessels which have hitherto hugged the shore to avoid the Nash Sands.

A rock, with 5½ fathoms on it, has also been found, lying a few fathoms to the southward of the line of the Nash lights nearly in one, S.E. by E. ¼ E., and distant from them 5½ miles.

East Breaker, Rockall.

Information has reached the Admiralty, that a breaker, lying E.S.E. from 5 to 10 miles from Rockall, off the west coast of the Hebrides, Scotland, has recently been observed. The breaker is laid down in an Admiralty chart of the Rockall Bank, made in H. M. S. Leonidas, in the year 1812.

The Mariner is cautioned to give this danger a wide berth.

[All bearings are Magnetic. Variation at the Bann Shoal  $24^{\circ} 20'$ , and in Nash Passage  $23\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$  West in 1860.]

By command of their Lordships,
John Washington, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
20th June, 1860.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—English Channel, No. 2675a; West Coast of England, Sheet 1, No. 2565; Nash Sands, No. 1183; England, West Coast, Sheet 4, No. 1180; and Banks of Soundings Westward of the British Islands, No. 2.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 28.) NORWAY.—WEST COAST.

THE Royal Norwegian Marine Department at Christiania has given notice, that the light apparatus at Gletta has been removed to Gittero, where in future the light will be exhibited from the 1st of October to the 1st of April,

The light will be shown from a position one mile to the north-east of the old lighthouse at Gletta, and should be visible from north round easterly to S.W.  $\frac{1}{4}$  W. from a distance of four miles.

Its position is stated to be in lat.  $59^{\circ} 26' N.$ , long.  $55^{\circ} 30' E.$  of Greenwich.

[The bearings are Magnetic. Variation in 1860,  $20^{\circ} W.$ ]

By command of their Lordships,
John Washington, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
19th September, 1860.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Norway and Lapland Index Chart, No. 2303; Coast of Norway, sheet 2, No. 2304. Also, Norwegian Lights List, No. 283.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 31.) BALTIC—GULF OF BOTHNIA.

Revolving Light on Agön Island.

THE Royal Administration of Maritime Affairs at Stockholm has given notice, that on and after the 10th of September, 1860, a light would be exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected on the eastern point of Agön Island, off Hudikswall.

The light revolves every two minutes, showing during the interval three short but vivid flashes, and should be seen in clear weather from N.N.W. round by north and east to S.W.  $\frac{1}{4}$  W., from a distance of 12 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is catoptric, or by reflectors.

The lighthouse consists of a dwelling-house, surmounted by a wooden tower and lantern, 95 feet above the level of the sea. The tower is painted white and the base red; there are also two out-buildings, the one painted red, the other whitewashed, and serve as good landmarks by day. Its position is in lat.  $61^{\circ} 33' N.$ ; long.  $17^{\circ} 29' E.$  of Greenwich.

[The Bearings are Magnetic. Variation in 1860,  $12^{\circ} 50' W.$ ]

By command of their Lordships,
John Washington, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
22nd September, 1860.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Coast of Norway and Lapland. No.

2303; Gulf of Bothnia, Index Chart, No. 2252; and Gulf of Bothnia, sheet 1, No. 2296. Also, Swedish Lights List, No. 211*.

CONTRACT FOR IRON TANKS, &c.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-House, September 18, 1860.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 11th October next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, all such as shall from time to time be demanded, under a contract for three years certain, and afterwards until the expiration of three months' warning.

Patterns of the tanks and articles may be seen at the Victualling Yard at Deptford.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which, together with the conditions of the contract, may be obtained on application at the said office.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Tanks," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

CONTRACT FOR WINE BOTTLES.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-House, September 18, 1860.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Monday the 1st October next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford, Wine Bottles, 10,000 number; one-third to be delivered in two months, another third in three months, and the remainder in four months, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

A sample bottle may be seen at the said office, and tenders may be made for the whole, or any portion of the bottles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only, as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the recent modification of the conditions of the contract, which may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half-past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his sureties in writing.

OXEN FOR SALT BEEF,

shall from time to time be demanded between the 11th October next, and the 31st March, 1861, both days inclusive.

Particular attention is called to the recent modification of the conditions of the contract, which may be seen at the said office, or by applying to the Superintendent of the Victualling Establishment at Deptford.

A form of the tender may be obtained at the said office and at Deptford.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock, on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office.

Every tender must be delivered at the above office, and signed by two responsible persons engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £500 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR COOPERS' FLAGS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-House, September 24, 1860.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 4th October next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Coopers' Flags, 700 bolts; to be delivered by the 31st December next, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Samples of the coopers' flags (not less than a bolt), must be produced by the parties tendering.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of the revised contract, which may be seen at the said Office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half-past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Coopers' Flags," and must also be delivered at Somerset-house.

CONTRACTS FOR RUM AND TOBACCO.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-House, September 25, 1860.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 9th October next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles, viz.:

Rum, 50,000 gallons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tobacco, 50 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the above articles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The articles to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where they are respectively lying.

Each tender for tobacco must specify the several trade marks and numbers, and the countries or places of its growth or produce, and a fresh drawn dock sample of each cask or package must be produced by the parties tendering, and any cask or package that is found not to be of the same mark, number, or quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

Samples of the rum to be sent in pints for each Import Mark, and the average strength of each Mark Ex to be stated, and not an average of different marks or strengths of several imports; and any parcel of rum that is found not to be of the same quality, mark, or average strength of the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.
