CONTRACT FOR IRON TANKS, &c.

Department of the Comptroller for
Victualling and Transport Services,
Somerset-House, September 18, 1860.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom
of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice,
that, on Thursday the 11th October next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Vic-tualling Stores at Deptford, all such

Iron Tanks for Oil and Bread and Spare
Articles, and Articles for Repairs of Water Tanks,

as shall from time to time be demanded, under a contract for three years certain, and afterwards
until the expiration of three months' warning.

Patterns of the tanks and articles may be seen at the Victualling Yard at Deptford.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which, together with the conditions of the contract, may be obtained on application at the said office.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day
of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner
the words "Tender for Tanks," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

CONTRACT FOR OXEN FOR SALT BEEF FOR HER MAJESTY'S NAVY.

Department of the Comptroller for
Victualling and Transport Services,
Somerset House, September 20, 1860.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom
of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice,
that, on Thursday the 11th October next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's Victualling Yard at Deptford, with all such

OXEN FOR SALT BEEF,

s shall from time to time be demanded between the 11th October next, and the 31st March, 1861, both days inclusive.

Particular attention is called to the recent modification of the conditions of the contract, which may be seen at the said office, or by applying to the Superintendent of the Victualling Establishment at Deptford.

A form of the tender may be obtained at the said office and at Deptford.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock, on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office.

Every tender must be delivered at the above office, and signed by two responsible persons engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £500 for the due performance of the contract.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose and which may be obtained on application at the said office, and at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth.

Tenders will be admitted for any portion of the above quantities.

Samples of the articles may be seen at the said office between the hours of ten and two only, and also at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of the revised contracts, which may be seen at the said office, and at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth.

No tender will be received after half-past one o'clock, on the day of treaty; and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at Somerset House.

CONTRACTS FOR RUM AND TOBACCO.

Department of the Comptroller for
Victualling and Transport Services,
Somerset-House, September 25, 1860.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 9th October next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles, viz.:

Rum, 50,000 gallons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tobacco, 50 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the above articles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The articles to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where they are respectively lying.

Each tender for tobacco must specify the several trade marks and numbers, and the countries or places of its growth or produce, and a fresh drawn dock sample of each cask or package must be produced by the parties tendering, and any cask or package that is found not to be of the same mark, number, or quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

Samples of the rum to be sent in pints for each Import Mark, and the average strength of each Mark Ex to be stated, and not an average of different marks or strengths of several imports; and any parcel of rum that is found not to be of the same quality, mark, or average strength of the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

CONTRACT FOR BRACES FOR THE ROYAL MARINES.

Department of the Comptroller for Vitualling and Transport Services,
Somerset-Place, September 29, 1860.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom
of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice,
that, on Thursday the 18th October next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Vic-tualling Stores at Deptford, all such

BRACES

as shall from time to time be demanded, under a contract for twelve months certain, and further
until the expiration of three months' warning.

A pattern pair of braces may be seen at the Royal Marine Office, No. 15, Duke-street, Westminster, between the hours of eleven and two o'clock.

No tender will be received unless made on the
printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of the contract, which may be seen at the said office.

No tender will be received after half past one
o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on
his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day
of contract, as the result of the offer received from
each person will be communicated to him and his
proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary
of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner
the words "Tender for Braces," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £100 for the due performance of the contract.
