FRIDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1860.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 27th day of August, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Act of the Session of Parliament of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign (Chapter 94), intituled "An Act to remove doubts as to the exercise of power and jurisdiction by Her Majesty within divers countries and places out of Her Majesty's dominions and to render the same more effectual," herein-after called The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, it was enacted (amongst other things), that it was and should be lawful for Her Majesty to hold, exercise, and enjoy any power or jurisdiction which Her Majesty then had or might at any time thereafter have within any country or place out of Her Majesty's dominions, in the same and as ample a manner as if Her Majesty had acquired such power or jurisdiction by the cession or conquest of territory :

And whereas Her Majesty has had and now has power and jurisdiction in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte :

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased on the second day of October, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, the nineteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, the twenty-fourth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and the twenty-seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to make, by several Orders in Council dated the said days respectively, provision for the exercise of Her power and jurisdiction aforesaid :

And whereas it hath seemed to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to be expedient at the present time to revise and consolidate the provisions of the said Orders, and to make further provision for the due exercise of Her Majesty's power and jurisdiction aforesaid, and for the more regular and efficient administration of justice and the better maintenance of order among all classes of Her Majesty's subjects and of persons enjoying Her Majesty's protection resident in or resorting to the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers in this behalf by The Foreign Jurisdiction

Act or otherwise in Her vested, is pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

I.—PRELIMINARY.

1. The present Order shall come into operation on the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and shall be read as if made and dated on that day.
2. The said four Orders shall be repealed. The repeal shall not affect anything done under the said Orders or any of them. Pending proceedings shall be regulated by the present Order as far as the nature and circumstances of each case will admit.
3. In the present Order, and in any Rules made under it, words importing the plural or the singular may be construed as referring to one person or thing, or more than one person or thing, and words importing the masculine as referring to females (as the case may require.)

II.—GENERAL PROVISIONS AS TO HER MAJESTY'S JURISDICTION IN THE DOMINIONS OF THE SUBLIME OTTOMAN PORTE.

4. All Her Majesty's jurisdiction exercisable in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte for the judicial hearing and determination of suits or matters in difference between British subjects, or between British subjects and subjects of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, or between British subjects and subjects or citizens of any other State, or for the administration or control of the property or persons of British subjects, or for the repression or punishment of crimes or offences committed by British subjects, or for the maintenance of order among British subjects, or for any purpose connected therewith respectively, shall be exercised under and according to the provisions of the present Order, and not otherwise.
5. Subject to the other provisions of the present Order, the civil and criminal jurisdiction aforesaid may and shall, as far as circumstances will admit, be exercised upon the principles of and in conformity with the Common Law, the Rules of Equity, the Statute Law, and other Law, for the time being in force in and for England, and with all the powers vested in and pursuant to the course of procedure and practice observed by and before Courts of Justice and Justices of the Peace in England, according to their respective jurisdictions and authorities.

6. Except as to offences against the Capitulations, Articles of Peace, and Treaties between Her Majesty and the Sublime Ottoman Porte, or against any rules and regulations for the observance thereof or the maintenance of order among British subjects in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte made by or under the authority of Her Majesty, or against any of the provisions of the present Order, or any rule made under it, and except as to offences expressly made such by the present Order, or any other Order for the time being in force,—

No act done by a British subject in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte or on board a British vessel within the same dominions, which would not by a Court of Justice having criminal jurisdiction in England be deemed to be a crime or offence rendering the person doing the act amenable to punishment in England, shall, in the exercise of criminal jurisdiction under the present Order be deemed to be a crime or offence rendering the person doing the act amenable to punishment.

III.—CONSTITUTION OF HER MAJESTY'S CONSULAR COURTS.

i.—The Supreme Consular Court at Constantinople.

7. There shall be a Court styled "Her Britannic Majesty's Supreme Consular Court for the Dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte."

8. The Supreme Consular Court shall hold its ordinary sittings at Constantinople; but may, in case of emergency, sit at any other place within the district of the Consulate-General of Constantinople, and may at any time hold its ordinary sittings at any such place within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may approve.

9. There shall be one Judge of the Court.

He shall be appointed by Her Majesty by warrant under her Royal sign manual.

He shall be, at the time of his appointment, a member of the Bar of England, Scotland, or Ireland, of not less than seven years' standing; or a British subject who shall have filled the office of Legal Vice-Consul Cancellier in the Levant, or the office of Law Secretary to the Supreme Consular Court.

He shall hold by special commission from Her Majesty the appointment of Vice-Consul, but shall have rank and precedence as if he held the appointment of Consul-General.

He may, in case of his being absent from the district of the Consulate-General of Constantinople, either in the discharge of his duty, or with permission of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or in case of illness, appoint, by writing under his hand and seal, a fit person to be his Deputy.

During the vacancy of the office of Judge, or on any emergency, any fit person, approved by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, may temporarily be and act as Acting Judge, with all the power and authority of Judge.

10. There shall be attached to the Court—

- (1.) One Legal Vice-Consul Cancellier:
- (2.) One Law Secretary:
- (3.) So many officers and clerks as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may from time to time think fit.

11. The Legal Vice-Consul Cancellier and the Law Secretary shall be appointed by Her Majesty.

They shall respectively hold by special commission from Her Majesty the appointment of Vice-Consul; but the Legal Vice-Consul Cancellier shall always have rank and precedence above the Law Secretary.

The Legal Vice-Consul Cancellier shall act as Registrar of the Court.

The Law Secretary shall discharge such duties in connection with the conduct of criminal prosecutions, as the Judge may from time to time direct.

The Legal Vice-Consul Cancellier shall hear and determine in a summary way such criminal charges as may under the present Order be properly so heard and determined, and as may be specially referred to him by the Judge.

The Law Secretary shall hear and determine in a summary way such criminal charges as may, under the present Order, be properly so heard and determined, and as the Judge may from time to time think necessary for the despatch of urgent business to refer specially to him.

Where a suit or proceeding of a civil nature, originally instituted in the Supreme Consular Court, relates to money, goods, or other property, or any civil right or other matter at issue of a less amount or value than one hundred pounds sterling, or is instituted for the recovery of damages of a less amount than one hundred pounds sterling, it shall be lawful for the Judge to refer such suit or proceeding specially to the Legal Vice-Consul Cancellier to be heard and determined by him, or if it shall appear to the Judge necessary for the despatch of urgent business so to do, to refer any such suit or proceeding specially to the Law Secretary to be heard and determined by him; and the Legal Vice-Consul Cancellier, or Law Secretary (as the case may be) shall hear and determine the same accordingly; but in all such cases an appeal shall lie as of course to the Judge.

ii.—The Consular Courts in the Provinces.

12. Each of Her Majesty's Consuls-General, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls, resident in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte (with the exception of Her Majesty's Consul-General at Constantinople, and with such other exceptions as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may at any time think fit to make) for and in his own Consular district shall hold and form a Court styled "Her Britannic Majesty's Consular Court at [Smyrna, or as the case may be]."

Provided always, that no Vice-Consul shall be competent to hold a Consular Court unless he holds a commission as Vice-Consul from Her Majesty; but any person acting temporarily, with the approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as Consul-General, Consul, or Vice-Consul, shall be competent to hold a Consular Court.

IV.—JURISDICTION AND POWERS OF THE CONSULAR COURTS.

i.—In General.

13. All Her Majesty's jurisdiction, civil and criminal, exercisable in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte shall, for and within the district of the Consulate-General of Constantinople, be vested exclusively in the Supreme Consular Court as its ordinary original jurisdiction.

14. All Her Majesty's jurisdiction, civil and criminal, exercisable in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte beyond the district of the Consulate-General of Constantinople, and not under the present Order vested exclusively in the Supreme Consular Court, shall, to the extent and in the manner provided by the present Order, be vested in the several Provincial Consular Courts each for and within its own district.

15. Where a suit or proceeding of a civil nature instituted in a Provincial Consular Court does not relate to money, goods, or other property of the amount or value of three hundred pounds sterling, or upwards, or does not relate to or involve, directly or indirectly, a question respecting any civil right or other matter at issue of the amount or value of three hundred pounds sterling, or upwards, or is not brought for the recovery of damages of the amount of three hundred pounds sterling or upwards, the Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the case without Assessors.

In all cases other than those hereinbefore described, the Court shall hear and determine the case with Assessors.

16. The Supreme Consular Court shall have, in all matters civil and criminal, a concurrent jurisdiction with the several Provincial Consular Courts; such jurisdiction to be exercised subject and according to the other provisions of the present Order.

17. The Judge of the Supreme Consular Court may, as and when he thinks fit, visit, or appoint the Legal Vice-Consul Cancellier, or the Law Secretary of the Supreme Consular Court to visit, in a judicial or magisterial capacity, any Provincial Consular Court, and there inquire of, hear, and determine any case, civil or criminal, pending in that Court, or arising within its jurisdiction.

18. A Provincial Consular Court may of its own motion, or on the application of any person concerned, report to the Supreme Consular Court the pendency of any case, civil or criminal, which appears to the Provincial Consular Court fit to be heard and determined by the Supreme Consular Court. The Supreme Consular Court shall thereupon direct in what mode and where the case shall be heard and determined, and the same may and shall be so heard and determined accordingly.

19. The Supreme and every other Consular Court shall, in the exercise of every part of its respective jurisdiction, be a Court of Record.

20. Each Provincial Consular Court may and shall execute any writ or order issuing from the Supreme Consular Court, and take security from any person named in any writ or order for his appearance personally or by attorney, and may, in default of such security being given, or when specially ordered by the Supreme Consular Court so to do, send the person named to Constantinople on board one of Her Majesty's vessels of war, or if there shall be no such vessel available for the purpose then on board any British or other fit vessel.

The order of the Supreme Consular Court shall be sufficient authority to the commander or master of any such vessel of war or other vessel to receive and detain such person, and carry him to and deliver him up at Constantinople in obedience to and in pursuance of such order.

21. The Supreme and every other Consular Court shall be auxiliary to one another in all particulars relative to the administration of justice, civil or criminal.

ii.—In Civil Matters.

22. The Supreme Consular Court and its several officers and every other Consular Court shall, as far as there may be proper opportunity, promote reconciliation and encourage and facilitate the settlement in an amicable way, and without recourse being had to litigation, of matters in difference between persons over whom the Court has jurisdiction.

23. The Supreme and every other Consular Court may promote reconciliation, and encourage and facilitate the settlement, in an amicable way, of any suit or proceeding pending before it.

24. The Supreme or other Consular Court may, with the consent of the parties, refer to arbitration the final determination of any suit or proceeding pending before it, or of all matters in difference between the parties to the suit or proceeding, on such terms and with such directions as to appointment of an arbitrator and other things as may seem fit, and may, if it thinks fit, take from the parties, or any of them, security to abide by the result of the reference.

In any such case the award shall be final and conclusive.

On the application of any party a decree of the Court may be entered in conformity with the award, and no such decree shall be open to any appeal or re-hearing whatever.

25. Every agreement for reference to arbitration or submission to arbitration by consent between or by British subjects, may, on the application of any party, be made a rule of the Supreme or other Consular Court having jurisdiction in the matter of the reference or submission, which Court shall thereupon have power and authority to enforce the agreement or submission, and the award made thereunder, and to control and regulate the proceedings, before and after the award, in such manner and on such terms as may be just.

26. The Supreme and every other Consular Court shall be a Court of Law and of Equity; and (subject to the other provisions of the present Order) shall have and may exercise all jurisdiction, power, and authority, legal, equitable, or other, which any Consul of Her Majesty by custom has or may exercise in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte.

27. The Supreme and every other Consular Court shall be a Court of Bankruptcy and Insolvency, and as such shall, as far as circumstances will admit, have, each for and within its own district, with respect to British subjects and to their debtors and creditors, being British subjects, or being subjects of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, or subjects or citizens of any other State, and submitting to the jurisdiction of the Court, all such jurisdiction as for the time being belongs to the Court of Bankruptcy, the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, and the County Courts respectively, in England, or to such other judicial authority or authorities as for the time being has or have jurisdiction in England in matters of Bankruptcy, Insolvency, or Protection.

28. The Supreme Consular Court shall, as far as circumstances will admit, have in itself exclusively for and within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, with respect to British subjects, all such jurisdiction relative to the custody and management of the persons and estates of idiots, lunatics, and persons of unsound mind, as for the time being belongs to the Lord Chancellor or other person or persons in England intrusted by virtue of Her Majesty's sign manual with the care and commitment of the custody of the persons and estates of persons found by inquisition in England, idiot, lunatic, or of unsound mind.

29. The Supreme Consular Court shall be a Court for Matrimonial Causes, and as such shall, as far as circumstances will admit, have in itself exclusively, for and within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, with respect to British subjects, all such jurisdiction, except the jurisdiction relative to dissolution or nullity or jactitation of marriage, as for the time being belongs to the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes in England.

30. The Supreme Consular Court shall be a Court of Probate, and as such shall, as far as circumstances will admit, have for and within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, with respect to the property of British subjects having at the time of death a fixed place of abode within such dominions, all such jurisdiction as for the time being belongs to Her Majesty's Court of Probate in England.

Provided always, that a Provincial Consular Court shall have power to grant probate or administration where there is no contention as to the right to the grant, and it is proved on oath that the deceased had at the time of his death a fixed place of abode within the jurisdiction of the particular Court.

Every probate or administration granted by a Provincial Consular Court, shall have effect over all the property of the deceased within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, and shall under all circumstances effectually discharge all persons paying to or dealing with an executor or administrator thereunder, notwithstanding that any defect may afterwards appear in the grant; and no such grant shall be impeached by reason only that the deceased had not at the time of his death a fixed place of abode within the particular jurisdiction.

Any person having in his possession or under his control any paper or writing of the deceased being or purporting to be testamentary, shall forthwith bring the original to the Supreme or other Consular Court, and deposit it there.

Any person neglecting so to do for fourteen days after having knowledge of the death of the deceased, shall be liable to such penalty, not exceeding fifty pounds sterling, as the Court may think fit to impose.

Where it is shown to the satisfaction of the Supreme or other Consular Court, that any paper purporting to be testamentary is in the possession or under the control of any person, the Court may, in a summary way, whether a suit or proceeding as to probate or administration is pending or not, order him to produce and bring into Court such paper.

Where it appears to the Supreme or other Consular Court, that there are reasonable grounds for believing that any person has knowledge of any paper purporting to be testamentary, (although it is not shown to the satisfaction of the Court that the paper is in his possession or under his control,) the Court may, in a summary way, whether a suit or proceeding for probate or administration is pending or not, order him to attend for the purpose of being examined respecting the same in open Court or on interrogatories, and after examination to produce the paper and bring it into Court.

Any person failing to attend or to be examined, or to produce and bring in the paper accordingly, shall be liable to the same consequences as he would be liable to if he were a party to a suit in the Court, and had made like default.

From and after the death of an intestate having at the time of death a fixed place of abode within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, and until administration granted, the personal property of the intestate within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, shall be vested in the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court, as the personal property of an intestate in England is vested in the Judge of Her Majesty's Court of Probate there.

If any person, other than one of Her Majesty's Consular officers, takes possession of, and in any manner administers any part of the personal property of any person deceased without obtaining probate or administration within three calendar months after the death of the deceased, or within one calendar month after the termination of any suit or dispute respecting probate or administration (if there shall be any such which shall not be ended within two calendar months after the death of the deceased), he shall be liable to forfeit a sum not exceeding one hundred pounds sterling.

31. Where a British subject, not having at the time of death a fixed place of abode in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, dies in those dominions, the Supreme or other Consular Court, within whose district he dies, shall, where the circumstances of the case appear to the Court so to require, forthwith on the death of the deceased, or as soon after as may be, take possession of his personal property within the particular jurisdiction, or put it under the seal of the Court, (in either case, if the nature of the property or other circumstances so require, making an inventory), and so keep the property until it can be dealt with according to law.

32. Where any decision of a Provincial Consular Court, sitting with or without Assessors, is given in a civil case in respect of a sum or matter at issue of the amount or value of fifty pounds sterling or upwards, or determines, directly or indirectly, any claim or question respecting property or any civil right to the amount or value of fifty pounds sterling, or upwards, but not in any other case, any party aggrieved by the decision may apply to the Provincial Consular Court for leave to appeal to the Supreme Consular Court.

The terms on which the person applying shall be entitled to leave, and the procedure on appeals, shall be regulated by the Rules to be made under the present Order.

In any case, other than the cases hereinbefore described, the Provincial Consular Court may, if it considers it just and expedient so to do, give leave to appeal on the like terms.

iii.—In Criminal Matters.

33. The Supreme and every other Consular Court shall have power and authority to cause to be apprehended and brought before it any British subject being within the district of the Court and charged with having committed any crime or offence within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, or on board any British vessel being within the same dominions, and to deal with the accused according to the jurisdiction of the Court and in conformity with the provisions of the present Order; or where the crime or offence is triable, and is to be tried, in England, to take the preliminary examination, and to commit the accused for trial and cause or allow him to be taken to England.

34. The Supreme and every other Consular Court may promote reconciliation and encourage and facilitate the settlement in an amicable way of proceedings for assault or any other offence of a private or personal character, on terms of payment of compensation or other terms that may seem reasonable or expedient, and may thereupon order the proceedings to be stayed.

35. Whenever any person shall be convicted before the Supreme Consular Court of the crime of murder, the proper officer of the Court, under its direction, shall, in open Court, require the offender to state if such offender hath or knoweth anything to say why judgment of death should not be recorded against such offender; and in case such offender shall not allege any matter or thing sufficient in law to prevent such judgment if the offence had been committed and the trial had taken place in England, the Court may order the same to be entered on record, and thereupon such proper officer as aforesaid shall enter judgment of death on record against such offender, as if judgment of death had been actually pronounced in open Court against such offender by the said Court.

The Supreme Consular Court shall have power to impose the punishment of imprisonment for any term not exceeding twenty years, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine not exceeding five hundred pounds sterling, or the punishment of a fine alone not exceeding five hundred pounds sterling.

36. All crimes which in England are capital shall be tried by the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court with a jury.

Other crimes and offences above the degree of misdemeanour, tried before the Judge or any officer of the Supreme Consular Court and not heard and determined in a summary way, shall be tried by jury.

Any crime or offence tried before the Judge or any officer of the Supreme Consular Court may be tried by jury where the Judge or other officer so directs.

Subject to the foregoing provisions, such classes of cases within the original jurisdiction of the Supreme Consular Court as the Judge, having regard to the law and practice existing in England, may from time to time direct, shall be heard and determined in a summary way.

A jury shall consist of six indifferent British subjects of good repute resident in the district of the Consulate-General of Constantinople, or in the other Consular district in which the Judge or other officer of the Supreme Consular Court, is, for the time being, sitting for criminal trials (as the case may require).

37. The Judge of the Supreme Consular Court shall forthwith send a report of every sentence of death recorded by such Court, together with a copy of the minutes of proceedings and notes of evidence and any recommendation that he may desire to make, to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, for his direction as to the amount and nature of the punishment to be actually imposed, as and by way of a commuted punishment, such actual or commuted punishment not to exceed the measure of imprisonment and fine mentioned in Article 35.

38. Where a Provincial Consular Court is held before a resident Legal Vice-Consul Cancellier, it shall have power to impose the punishment of imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds sterling, or the punishment of a fine alone not exceeding one hundred pounds sterling.

In other cases a Provincial Consular Court shall not have power to impose punishment exceeding imprisonment for twelve months, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine of fifty pounds sterling, or a fine of fifty pounds sterling alone.

39. The Supreme and every other Consular Court in imposing punishments shall have regard, as far as circumstances may allow, and subject to the other provisions of this Order, to the punishments legally imposed by the law of England for the like offences.

40. Where the crime or offence with which any person is charged before a Provincial Consular Court appears to the Court to be such that, if proved, it would not be adequately punished by such punishment as the Court has power to impose, and the accused is not to be sent for trial to England or Malta, the Court shall reserve the case to be heard and determined by or under the special authority of the Supreme Consular Court.

The Provincial Consular Court shall take the depositions, and forthwith send them, with a minute of other evidence, if any, and a report on the case, to the Supreme Consular Court.

The Supreme Consular Court shall direct in what mode and where the case shall be heard and determined, and the same may and shall be heard and determined accordingly.

41. Where the crime or offence with which any person is charged before a Provincial Consular Court is not assault endangering life, cutting, wounding, arson, or housebreaking, and appears to the Court to be such that, if proved, it would be adequately punished by imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for not more than three months, or by a fine of not more than twenty-five pounds sterling, the Court shall hear and determine the case in a summary way and without Assessors.

In all cases other than those hereinbefore described, the Court shall hear and determine the case on indictment and with Assessors.

42. Where a person charged with a crime or offence escapes or removes from the Consular district within which the crime or offence was committed and is found within another Consular district, the Supreme or other Consular Court within the district of which he is found may proceed in the case to examination, trial, and punishment, or in a summary way (as the case may require), in the same manner as if the crime or offence had been committed in its own district; or may, on the requisition or with the consent of the Court of the district within which the crime or offence was committed, send him in custody to the last-mentioned Court, or require him to give security for his surrender to that Court, there to answer the charge and be dealt with according to law.

Where any person is to be so sent in custody a warrant in that behalf shall be issued by the Supreme or other Consular Court within the district of which he is found, and every such warrant shall be a sufficient authority to any person to whom it is directed to receive and detain the person therein named, and carry him to and deliver him up to the Court of the district within which the crime or offence was committed, in obedience to and in pursuance of such warrant.

43. The Supreme or other Consular Court may order any person convicted before it of any crime or offence to pay all or any part of the expenses of his trial and imprisonment or other punishment, and, where it appears to the Court that a charge is malicious, or frivolous and vexatious, may order all or any part of the expenses of the prosecution to be paid by the prosecutor.

44. Where the circumstances of the case render it just or expedient, the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court may report to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State in favour of and recommending a mitigation or remission of any punishment awarded by the Supreme or any other Consular Court; and on such recommendation any such punishment may be mitigated or remitted.

Provided always, that no such recommendation shall be made with reference to any punishment awarded by a Provincial Consular Court, except on the recommendation of that Court, or on the dissent of the Assessors or Assessor, if any, from the conviction, or from the amount of punishment awarded.

45. Malta shall be and is hereby (in pursuance of The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, section iv) appointed as the British Colony to which any person may be sent for trial who is charged with the commission of any crime or offence the cognizance whereof appertains to the Supreme or other Consular Court within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, where it is expedient that the crime or offence should be inquired of, tried, determined, and punished within Her Majesty's dominions.

The Judge of the Supreme Consular Court may, where it appears to him expedient as aforesaid, by warrant under his hand and seal and under the seal of the Supreme Consular Court, cause the person so charged to be sent for trial to Malta accordingly.

Such warrant shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it is directed to receive and detain the person therein named, and carry him to and deliver him up at Malta, in obedience to and in pursuance of such warrant.

Where any person is to be so sent to Malta, the Supreme or other Consular Court before which he is charged, shall take the preliminary examination, and shall bind over such of the proper witnesses as may be British subjects in their own recognizances to appear and give evidence on the trial.

46. The Supreme Consular Court shall forthwith send to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State a report of the sentence passed by the Judge or any officer of the Court in every case not heard and determined in a summary way, together with a copy of the minute of proceedings and notes of evidence, and any observations that the Court may think fit to make on the case.

Every Provincial Consular Court shall forthwith send to the Supreme Consular Court a report of the sentence passed by it in every case not heard and determined in a summary way, together with a copy of the minutes of proceedings and notes of evidence and any observations that the Court may think fit to make on the case. The Supreme Consular Court shall forthwith transmit the same, together with any observations the Court may think fit to make on the case, to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

47. Malta shall be and is hereby (in pursuance of the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, section v.) appointed as the British Colony to which any offender sentenced to suffer imprisonment for or in respect of any crime or offence of which he has been lawfully convicted before any Consular Court may be sent, where it is expedient that the sentence passed in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte should be carried into effect within Her Majesty's dominions.

The Judge of the Supreme Consular Court may, where it appears to him so to be expedient as aforesaid, by warrant under his hand and seal and the seal of the Supreme Consular Court, cause such offender to be sent to Malta, in order that the sentence passed upon him may be there carried into effect accordingly.

Such warrant shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it is directed to receive and detain the person therein named, and carry him to and deliver him up at Malta, in obedience to and in pursuance of such warrant.

48. The Judge of the Supreme Consular Court may, where it seems to him expedient, by warrant under his hand and the seal of the Supreme Consular Court, cause any offender convicted before any Consular Court and sentenced to imprisonment, to be sent to and imprisoned at any such place in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may, from time to time, approve.

Such warrant shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it is directed, to receive and detain the person therein named, and carry him to and deliver him up at such place, in obedience to and in pursuance of such warrant.

49. If any British subject shall be guilty of publicly deriding, mocking, or insulting any religion established or observed within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte,—or of publicly offering any insult to any religious service, feast, or ceremony established or kept in any part of such dominions, or to any place of worship, tomb, or sanctuary belonging to any such religion, or to the ministers or professors thereof,—or shall wilfully commit any act tending to bring any such religion, or its ceremonies, mode of worship, or observances into ridicule or contempt, and thereby to provoke a breach of the public peace,—every such British subject shall, on conviction thereof, be liable to punishment (in the discretion of the Court) by imprisonment for not more than two years, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine of not more than one hundred pounds sterling, or a fine of not more than one hundred pounds sterling alone.

Notwithstanding anything in the present Order contained, every charge against a British subject of having committed any such offence shall be heard and determined in a summary way, and any Provincial Consular Court shall have power to impose the punishment aforesaid.

Her Majesty's Consular Officers shall take such precautionary measures as may seem to them proper and expedient for the prevention of such offences.

50. (i.) Where it is shown on oath, to the satisfaction of the Supreme or other Consular Court, that there is reasonable ground to apprehend that any British subject in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte is about to commit a breach of the public peace, or that the acts or conduct of any such British subject are or is likely to produce or excite to a breach of the public peace, the Court may cause him to be brought before it and require him to give security to the satisfaction of the Court, to keep the peace, or for his future good behaviour, as the case may require.

(ii.) Where any British subject is convicted of any crime or offence before the Supreme or other Consular Court, or before a Court, in the sentence of which the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court, or any of Her Majesty's Consuls-General, Consuls, or Vice-Consuls concurs, the Supreme or other Consular Court for the district in which he happens to be may require him to give security to the satisfaction of the Court for his future good behaviour.

In either of the cases aforesaid, if the person required to give security fails so to do, the Court may order that he be deported from the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte to such place as the Court may direct: Provided always, that the Court shall not, without the consent of the person to be deported, direct the deportation of a native of Malta or any of its dependencies to any place other than Malta, or of a native of Gibraltar to any place other than Gibraltar, or of a native of any part of Her Majesty's dominions other than Malta, its dependencies, or Gibraltar, to any place other than England.

Each Provincial Consular Court shall forthwith report to the Supreme Consular Court any order of deportation made by it, and the grounds thereof. The Supreme Consular Court may reverse the order, or may confirm it with or without variation, and in case of confirmation, shall direct it to be carried into effect, and shall issue its warrant in that behalf.

The person to be deported shall be detained in custody until a fit opportunity for his deportation occurs.

He shall, as soon as may be practicable, (and in the case of a person convicted as aforesaid, either after execution of the sentence or at any time while the sentence is in course of execution), be embarked in custody under the warrant of the Supreme Consular Court on board one of Her Majesty's vessels of war, or, if there shall be no such vessel available for the purpose, then on board any British, Maltese, Ionian, or other fit vessel, bound to the place of deportation.

The warrant of the Court shall be sufficient authority to the commander or master of such vessel of war, or other vessel, to receive the person to be deported and convey him in custody to the place of deportation.

The Supreme or other Consular Court may order the person to be deported to pay all or any part of the expenses of his deportation. Subject thereto, the expenses of deportation shall be defrayed as the expenses relating to distressed British subjects are defrayed, or in such other manner as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may from time to time direct.

The Supreme Consular Court shall forthwith report to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State any order of deportation made or confirmed by it and the grounds thereof, and shall also inform Her Majesty's Ambassador, Minister, or Chargé d'Affaires at the Sublime Ottoman Porte of the same.

If any person deported returns to the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte without the permission of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, (which permission the Secretary of State shall have power to give) he shall no longer be entitled to be protected as a British subject in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte.

V. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

51. Where a Consular Court proceeds to hear and determine any case, civil or criminal, with Assessors, the Court shall nominate and summon as Assessors not less than two and not more than four indifferent British subjects of good repute resident in the district of the Court.

Where, nevertheless, by reason of local circumstances, the Court is able to obtain the presence of one fit person only as Assessor, the Court may sit with him alone as Assessor, and where for like reasons it is not able to obtain the presence of any fit person as Assessor, it may sit without an Assessor; but in every such case the Court shall record in the minutes of proceedings its reasons for sitting with one Assessor only, or without an Assessor.

An Assessor shall not have voice or vote in the decision of the Court in any case, civil or criminal, but an Assessor dissenting in a civil case from any decision of the Court, or in a criminal case from any decision of the Court or the conviction or the amount of punishment awarded, may record in the minutes of proceedings his dissent and the grounds thereof, and an Assessor dissenting shall be entitled to receive gratis a certified copy of the minutes.

52. In every case, civil or criminal, heard before the Supreme Consular Court, or any officer thereof, or any other Consular Court, a proper minute of the proceedings shall be drawn up, and shall be signed by the Judge or Consular officer before whom the proceedings are taken, and sealed with the seal of the Court, and shall, where Assessors are present, be open for their inspection and for their signature if concurred in by them.

The minute, together with depositions of witnesses and notes of evidence taken at the trial by the Judge or Consular officer, shall be preserved in the public office of the Court.

53. In a civil proceeding the Supreme or other Consular Court may order such costs, or costs, charges, and expenses as to the Court seem reasonable to be paid by any party to the proceeding, or out of any fund to which the proceeding relates.

54. The Supreme or other Consular Court, either of its own motion, or, in civil cases, on the application of any party to any suit or proceeding or reference to arbitration, may summon as a witness any British subject within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte.

Any British subject, duly served with such a summons and with reasonable notice of the time and place at which his attendance is required, failing to attend accordingly and not excusing his failure to the satisfaction of the Court, shall, over and above any other liability to which he may be subject, be liable to a fine of not more than one hundred pounds sterling, or to imprisonment for not more than thirty days, at the discretion of the Court.

55. In civil cases the Supreme or other Consular Court may, where the circumstances of the case appear to justify it, order that the expenses of a witness, on his appearing to give evidence, shall be defrayed by the parties to the suit, proceeding, or reference, or any of them.

56. Any person appearing before the Supreme or other Consular Court to give evidence in any suit or proceeding, civil or criminal, or on any reference, may be examined or give evidence on oath, or in such form and with such ceremony as he may declare to be binding on his conscience.

57. Any British subject wilfully giving false evidence in any suit or proceeding, civil or criminal, or on any reference, shall, on conviction, be liable to the penalties of wilful and corrupt perjury.

58. All costs and all charges and expenses of witnesses, prosecutions, punishments, or deportations or other charges or expenses, and all fees, fines, forfeitures, and pecuniary penalties payable under the provisions of the present Order, may be levied by distress and seizure and sale of ships, goods, and lands; and no bill of sale, or mortgage, or transfer of property, made with a view to security in regard to crimes or offences committed, or to be committed, shall be of any avail to defeat the provisions of the present Order.

59. All fees, pecuniary penalties, fines, and forfeitures levied under the present Order (except moneys accruing from a percentage on the estates of bankrupts or insolvents or deceased persons, or on moneys deposited with a Consular officer) shall be carried to the public account, and be applied in diminution of the public expenditure on account of the Consular service in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Port.

60. Each Provincial Consular Court shall every six months furnish to the Supreme Consular Court a full and faithful report of every case, civil and criminal, brought before it, in such form as the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court may from time to time direct.

61. The provisions of the present Order, relating to British subjects, shall extend and apply to all subjects of Her Majesty whether by birth or by naturalization, and also to all persons enjoying Her Majesty's protection in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte.

The provisions of the present Order, relating to British subjects, shall also extend and apply to subjects of the United States of the Ionian Islands resident in or resorting to the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, save so far as any of such provisions confer or relate to the power of deporting from the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, or the power of imposing punishment of an amount greater than that which, at the time of the making of the present Order, can be lawfully awarded, in the case of an Ionian subject, by a Consular Officer of Her Majesty resident in such dominions. And the provisions of the present Order relating to British vessels shall extend and apply to all vessels navigating under the national commercial flag of the United States of the Ionian Islands.

62. Every British subject arriving at any place within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte where a British Consular Office is maintained, except a British subject borne on the muster-roll of a British ship there arriving, shall, within a reasonable time after his arrival (a notification of which time shall be kept exhibited in some conspicuous place in the Consular office), register himself in a register to be kept, by the Consular Officer.

Any British subject failing so to register himself, and not excusing his failure to the satisfaction of the Consular Officer, shall not be entitled to be recognized or protected as a British subject in any difficulties in which he may be involved in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte.

The Consular Officer may issue to any person so registered, on the request of such person, a certificate of registration under his hand and Consular seal, and, subject to such regulations as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may from time to time approve of, may charge upon each such certificate a fee of such amount, not exceeding five shillings, as the Secretary of State may from time to time direct.

36. In any case in the decision of which, under the Capitulations, Articles of Peace, and Treaties with the Sublime Ottoman Porte, any of Her Majesty's Consuls may or ought to concur, the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court or any Consul-General, Consul or Vice-Consul exercising jurisdiction under the present Order, shall be competent to act and shall exclusively act on the part and on behalf of Her Majesty.

64. The Supreme or other Consular Court, according to its respective jurisdiction, original or appellate (as the case may require), and in conformity with the rules relating to suits between British subjects and appeals therein, may hear and determine any suit, proceeding, or question of a civil nature, instituted, taken, or raised by a British subject against a subject of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, or a subject or citizen of any other State in amity with Her Majesty, or by a subject of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, or a subject or citizen of any other State in amity with Her Majesty against a British subject:

Provided that the subject of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, or the subject or citizen of such other State as aforesaid, obtains and files in such Court the consent in writing of the competent local authority on behalf of the Sublime Ottoman Porte or of the Consul of such other State (as the case may be) to his submitting, and does submit, to the jurisdiction of the Supreme or other Consular Court, and, if required, gives security to the satisfaction of the Court, by deposit or otherwise, to pay fees, damages, costs, and expenses, and abide by and perform any such decision as may be given by the Supreme or other Consular Court originally or on appeal (as the case may require).

65. Where it is shown to the Supreme or other Consular Court that the attendance of a British subject to give evidence, or for any other purpose connected with the administration of justice, is required in a Court or before a judicial officer of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, or in a Court or before a judicial officer in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte of any State in amity with Her Majesty, the Supreme or other Consular Court may, in cases and under circumstances which would require the attendance of such British subject before one of Her Majesty's Consular Courts in the Ottoman dominions, and if it seems to the Supreme or other Consular Court, just and expedient so to do, issue a compulsory order for the attendance of such British subject in such Court or before such judicial officer and for such purpose as aforesaid.

Any British subject, duly served with such an order and with reasonable notice of the time and place at which his attendance is required, failing to attend accordingly and not excusing his failure to the satisfaction of the Court making the order, shall be liable to a fine of not more than one hundred pounds sterling, or to imprisonment for not more than thirty days, at the discretion of the Court.

66. The Judge of the Supreme Consular Court may from time to time frame Rules for the effectual execution of the present Order, and for the observance of the Capitulations, Articles of Peace, and Treaties between Her Majesty and the sublime Ottoman Porte, and for the maintenance of order among British subjects in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, and for the regulation of procedure and pleading, forms of writs, and other proceedings, expenses of witnesses and prosecutions, costs and fees, in civil and criminal cases, in the Supreme Consular Court and other Consular Courts, and the regulation of appeals to the Supreme Consular Court from the other Consular Courts.

The Rules shall be so framed as to secure, as far as may be, that cases shall be decided on their merits according to substantial justice without excessive regard to technicalities of pleading or procedure, and without unnecessary delay.

No Rules shall take effect unless and until approved by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

A copy of the present Order and of the Rules for the time being in force shall be affixed and kept open and exhibited in some conspicuous place in the Supreme Consular Court and other Consular Courts respectively, and in every British Consulate in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, and printed copies shall be provided and sold at such reasonable price as the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court may from time to time direct.

No penalty shall be enforced for the breach of any Rule until the Rule has been so affixed, kept open, and exhibited for one calendar month in the Court of the district within which the breach of the Rules is committed.

For the purpose of convicting any person committing a breach of any Rule, and for all other purposes of law, a printed copy of the same, purporting to be certified under the hand of the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court, and the seal of the Court or under the hand and consular seal of one of Her Majesty's Consuls-General, Consuls, or Vice-Consuls, shall be taken as conclusive evidence of the same, and no proof of the handwriting or seal purporting to certify the same shall be required.

67. Nothing in the present Order or in the Rules to be made under it shall be deemed to deprive the Supreme or any other Consular Court of the right to observe and to enforce the observance of any reasonable custom obtaining within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, or to deprive any person of the benefit thereof, except where the present Order or any Rule contains some express and specific provision incompatible with the observance of such custom.

68. No suit or proceeding shall be commenced in the Supreme or other Consular Court against any person for anything done or omitted under the present Order, or any Rule made under it, unless notice in writing is given by the intending plaintiff to the intended defendant one calendar month at least before the commencement of the suit or proceeding, nor unless it is commenced within six calendar months next after the act or omission complained of, or in case of a continuation of damage within six calendar months next after the doing of such damage has ceased.

The plaintiff shall not succeed in any such suit or proceeding if tender of sufficient amends is made by the defendant before the commencement thereof; and in case no tender has been made the defendant may by leave of the Court at any time pay into Court such sum of money as he may think fit, whereupon such proceeding and order shall be had and made in and by the Court as may be had and made on the payment of money into Court in an ordinary suit.

VI.—APPEAL TO HER MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

69. Where any decision of the Supreme Consular Court is given in a civil case in respect of a sum or matter at issue of the amount or value of five hundred pounds sterling or upwards, or determines directly or indirectly any claim or question respecting property or any civil right of the amount or value of five hundred pounds sterling or upwards, any party aggrieved by the decision may, within fifteen days after the same is given, apply by motion to the Supreme Consular Court for leave to appeal to Her Majesty in Council.

In case leave to appeal is applied for by a party adjudged to pay money or perform a duty, the Supreme Consular Court shall direct either that the decision appealed from be carried into execution, or that the execution thereof be suspended, pending the appeal, as the Court may consider to be the more consistent with real and substantial justice.

In case the Court directs the decision to be carried into execution, the party in whose favour it is given shall, before the execution of it, give security to the satisfaction of the Court for the due performance of such Order as Her Majesty in Council may think fit to make.

In case the Court directs the execution of the decision to be suspended pending the appeal, the party against whom the decision is given shall, before any order for suspension of execution, give security to the satisfaction of the Court for the due performance of such order as Her Majesty in Council may think fit to make.

In all cases security shall also be given by the appellant to the satisfaction of the Court to an amount not exceeding five hundred pounds sterling for the prosecution of the appeal, and for payment of all such costs as may be awarded to any respondent by Her Majesty in Council, or by the Lords of the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council.

If the last-mentioned security be given within one calendar month from the filing of the motion-paper for leave to appeal, then, and not otherwise, the Supreme Consular Court shall give leave to appeal, and the appellant shall be at liberty to prefer and prosecute his appeal to Her Majesty in Council according to the rules for the time being in force respecting appeals to Her Majesty in Council from Her Colonies, or such other rules as Her Majesty in Council may from time to time think fit to make concerning appeals from the Supreme Consular Court.

In any case other than the cases hereinbefore described, the Supreme Consular Court, if it considers it just or expedient so to do, may give leave to appeal on the terms and in the manner aforesaid.

The present Order shall not affect the right of Her Majesty at any time, on the humble petition of a party aggrieved by a decision of the Supreme Consular Court, to admit his appeal thereon on such terms and in such manner as Her Majesty in Council may think fit, and to deal with the decision appealed from in such manner as may be just. And the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, and the Most Noble the Duke of Newcastle, two of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint Henry Grant Foote, Esq., now Her Majesty's Consul at Salvador, to be Her Majesty's Consul at Lagos.

Whitehall, September 29, 1860.

The Queen, taking into Her Royal consideration that upon the decease of John, late Baron Elphinstone, of that part of the United Kingdom called Scotland, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, without issue, which happened on the nineteenth day of July last, the title and dignity of Baron Elphinstone devolved upon John, now Baron Elphinstone, as eldest son and heir of the late Charles Fleeming, Esquire, commonly called the Honourable Charles Fleeming, Admiral of the Blue Squadron of Her Majesty's Fleet, second son of John, Baron Elphinstone, and that, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the sister of the said John, now Baron Elphinstone, cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to her had her father, the said Charles Fleeming survived his nephew the said John, last Baron Elphinstone, and had thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Elphinstone, Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare that Anne Elizabeth, the wife of William Cunninghame Bontine, of Ardoch, in the county of Dumbarton, Esquire, the sister of the said John, now Baron Elphinstone, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, preeminence, and precedence, as if her late father, the said Charles Fleeming, had survived his nephew, the said John, late Baron Elphinstone, and had succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Elphinstone :

And to command that the said Royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

By virtue of an Act, passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts made in the tenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, as authorizes the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out writs for the election of Members to serve in Parliament, in the manner therein mentioned, and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes:"

I do hereby give notice, that the death of John Dunn, Esq., late a Member serving in this present Parliament, for the borough of Dartmouth, hath been certified to me in writing, under the hands of two Members, serving in this present Parliament, and that I shall issue my warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for the election of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said borough, at the end of fourteen days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.
