

CONTRACT FOR BRACES FOR THE ROYAL MARINES.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, September 29, 1860.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 18th October next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Vic-tualling Stores at Deptford, all such as shall from time to time be demanded, under a contract for twelve months certain, and further until the expiration of three months' warning.

BRACES

A pattern pair of braces may be seen at the Royal Marine Office, No. 15, Duke-street, Westminster, between the hours of eleven and two o'clock.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of the contract, which may be seen at the said office.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Braces," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £100 for the due performance of the contract.

may be obtained on application at the said office.

fication of the conditions of the contract, which may be seen at the said office.

No tender will be received after half past one
o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on
his behalf, should attend at the office on the day

proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for" and must be delivered at Somerset-House, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500 for the due performance of each of the contracts.
