LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

CARTWORTH, YORKSHIRE.

WHEREAS notice in writing was duly given to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that the Local Government Act, 1858, was adopted on the 4th day of July, 1860, by such part of the township of Cartworth, in the parish of Kirkburton, in the county of York, as maintains its own highways, such part having known and defined boundaries; and whereas it has now been duly certified to me, that a copy of such notice has been advertised for three successive weeks in the Huddersfield Chronicle and the Huddersfield Examiner, those being two of the local newspapers published and circulated in the aforesaid part of such township, and that copies of such notice have also been affixed to the principal doors of each church and chapel in such part of such township to which notices are usually affixed; and whereas an appeal has been duly made to me, under the provision of the said Act, by owners and ratepayers within the aforesaid part of such township, setting forth grounds on which they dispute the validity of the vote for the adoption of the said Act therein, and praying for the exclusion of such part of such township from the operation of such Act; and whereas inquiry has been duly directed by me into the circumstances of the case, and such inquiry has been made, and the result thereof reported to me.

Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as aforesaid, do hereby, under the provisions of the said Act, issue the following order, and do determine the questions arising on such appeal as follows—

That the vote for the adoption of the Local Government Act, 1858, within the said part of the said township of Cartworth, was not valid.

Given under my hand this 18th day of October, 1860.

Southwark and Vauxhall Water Company.

(Amendment of Acts; Extension of Limits for Supply.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for an Act to amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the 15th and 16th years of Her Majesty, intituled "The Southwark and Vauxhall Water Act, 1852," and of a certain other Act, passed in the 18th year of Her present Majesty, intituled "Southwark and Vauxhall Water Act, 1855," and by the said Act it is intended to extend the limits of the Southwark and Vauxhall Water Company for supplying water, to all or certain parts of the following parishes, districts, or places, or some of them; that is to say: Putney, Barnes, Mortlake, East Sheen, Kew, Richmond, Petersham, Ham, Wimbledon, and Roehampton, all in the county of Surrey; and to confer upon the said Company all requisite and necessary powers for breaking up highways and other places, laying mains and pipes, and otherwise, for the purposes of such supply.

And it is also intended to apply for power to levy rates, rents, or charges in respect of such supply of water, and to vary or extinguish existing rates, rents, or charges, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from the payment of rates, rents, or charges, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with the carrying into effect of the purposes of the said intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby also given, that printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 23rd day of December next.

Dated the 15th day of October, 1860.

CONTRACT FOR BLACKING FOR THE ROYAL MARINES.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, October 12, 1860.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 25th instant, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, all such quantities of as shall from time to time be demanded for the use of the Royal Marines, under a contract for twelve months certain, and further until the expiration of three months' warning.

A sample of the blacking may be seen at the Royal Marine Office, New-street, Spring-gardens, between the hours of one and four o'clock.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application in this Department.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of the contract, which may be seen in the said Department.

No tender will be received after half-past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Blacking," and must be delivered at Somerset-House, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £100 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR BLACK IRON-MONGERY.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, October 12, 1860.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 6th November next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock Yards, with BLACK IRONMONGERY ARTICLES, under a contract for twelve months certain, and afterwards until the expiration of six months' warning.

Patterns of the articles may be seen at Her Majesty's Dock Yard at Deptford, and a form of the tender and conditions of the contract may be obtained at the said Office.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Black Ironmongery," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £2,000 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS FOR MEDICAL COMFORTS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, October 12, 1860.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 1st November next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, all such quantities of

CALVES FOOT JELLY, PRESERVED MILK,

OR

as shall from time to time be demanded, under contracts for twelve months certain, and further until the expiration of three months' warning.

Four samples of each article must be produced by the parties tendering.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office.

Particular attention is called to the recent modification of the conditions of the contract, which may be seen at the said office.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for" and must be delivered at Somerset-House, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500 for the due performance of each of the contracts.

CONTRACT FOR BRAZIERS', FOUNDERS', AND COPPERSMITHS' GOODS.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, October 16, 1860.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 13th November next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock Yards with under a contract for twelve months certain, and afterwards until the expiration of three months' warning.

Patterns of the articles may be seen, and a form of the tender, schedule, and conditions of the contract obtained, at the said office.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for Braziers', Founders', and Coppersmiths' Goods," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £1,000, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR BRIGHT IRON-MONGERY.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, October 12, 1860.
