AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of October, 1860.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for uniting the office of Lecturer of the parish of Saint Nicholas, in the city of Durham, with its emoluments and endowments to the Perpetual Curacy of the same parish, and for annexing to the said Perpetual Curacy the reversion of certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments now forming part of the emoluments and endowments of the said office of Lecturer.

"Whereas the perpetual right of patronage, presentation, or nomination to the said Perpetual Curacy of the said parish of Saint Nicholas, is duly vested in the Most Honourable Frances Anne, Dowager Marchioness of Londonderry, as tenant for life under certain limitations contained in an indenture of settlement, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, and the right of patronage, presentation, or nomination to the office of Lecturer of the said parish of Saint Nicholas is duly vested in George Townshend Fox, Clerk, and the said George Townshend Fox has been duly nominated and licensed to and is now the incumbent or perpetual curate of the said perpetual curacy, and has been duly nominated and licensed to and now holds the office of Lecturer aforesaid.

"And whereas the emoluments and endowments of the said office of Lecturer, consist of a stipend or annual payment of four pounds, charged upon a messuage or tenement and land situate in or near the Market Place in the city of Durham, and the other emoluments and endowments of the said office of Lecturer consist of the rents and profits arising from certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments comprised in two several indentures of lease, bearing date respectively the twelfth day of May, in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and the eighteenth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty, and particularly described in the Schedule hereunto annexed; the reversion of which lands, tenements, and hereditaments expectant on the determination of the said indentures of lease of the twelfth day of May, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven; and the eighteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and thirty, is now vested in us.

"And whereas the said Frances Anne, Marchioness of Londonderry, and the said George Townshend Fox, as such patrons as aforesaid, are desirous of uniting the said Perpetual Curacy and office of Lecturer with all emoluments and endowments to the same respectively belonging.

"And whereas we are of opinion that the arrangements hereinafter proposed by us would, if carried into effect, conduce to the better cure of souls within the said parish of Saint Nicholas, in the city of Durham.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Henry Montagu, Bishop of Durham, as Bishop of the Diocese, of the said Most Honourable Frances Anne, Dowager Marchioness of Londonderry, and the said George Townshend Fox, Clerk, testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any other conveyance or assurance in the Law, the said office of Lecturer of the said parish of Saint Nicholas, in the city of Durham, with all the emoluments and endowments thereto belonging or in anywise appertaining or usually heretofore held, used, or enjoyed therewith, shall be and become forthwith permanently united to the said Perpetual Curacy of the said parish of Saint Nicholas, so that the exercise of the right of patronage, presentation, or nomination to the said Perpetual Curacy of Saint Nicholas shall operate as a presentation or nomination to the said office of Lecturer, and so that the avoidance, either by death, or resignation, or otherwise of either one of the said offices of Lecturer of Saint Nicholas and Perpetual Curate of Saint Nicholas shall operate as an avoidance of the other.

"And we further recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date of the publica-
