

the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint John, Hey, shall belong to and be exercised by the rector or incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Ashton-under-Lyne.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order, in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John, Hey, being :—

"All that portion of the parish of Ashton-under-Lyne, in the county of Lancaster, and diocese of Manchester, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the east of the boundary dividing such portion of the said parish from the new parish of Waterhead, and to the north of the boundary dividing the same portion of such parish from the new parish of Leesfield.

"And also, all that portion of the new parish of Saint Anne Lydgate, in the county of York, and diocese of Manchester, which is situate to the north and west of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary dividing the said new parish from the new parish of Leesfield aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the Standedge and Oldham trust road, and extending thence eastward along the middle of such road, as far as a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of Walker's-lane, and extending thence in a direction generally northward to and along the middle of such lane, and of a foot-path leading therefrom to the middle of the southern end of the Spring Head occupation road, and extending thence in the same direction along the middle of the last named road, and along the middle of Back-lane to the middle of Den-lane, and extending thence in the same direction along the middle of the last named lane (crossing Wood Brook-lane), and along the middle of Turt-lane (crossing the Wakefield and Austerlands trust road), to the middle of the Old Delph-road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned road, as far as a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of Dirty-lane, and extending thence in the same direction to and along the middle of the last named lane, and across the White Gates-road, to the middle of the southern end of the ancient foot-path which connects the last named road with a certain occupation road leading to Edge-lane, and extending thence in the last named direction along the middle of the said ancient foot-path, and of the occupation road aforesaid, and of Edge-lane, to the boundary dividing the said new parish of Saint Anne Lydgate, from the new parish of Friarmere."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned, for the consecrated church of Saint John the Baptist, situate at Hey, in the Parish of Ashton-under-Lyne, in the county of Lancaster be accordingly formed, and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation, with respect to the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate, to serve the said church, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and that the said right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church, shall belong to, and be exercised by, the rector or incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Ashton-under-Lyne; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Manchester.

At the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of October, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twelfth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Thomas, situate at Kilnhurst, in the parish of Wath-upon-Dearne, in the county and diocese of York.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Wath-upon-Dearne and of the parish of Rawmarsh, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous parts of the said parishes should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Thomas, situate at Kilnhurst, in the parish of Wath-upon-Dearne aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Charles Thomas, Archbishop of York, and the Right Honourable John Baron Campbell, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the patron on behalf of the Crown of the rectory and parish of Rawmarsh aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), and of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Christ in Oxford (of the foundation of King Henry the Eighth), the patrons of the vicarage and parish of Wath-upon-Dearne aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have hereunto affixed their common or capitular seal), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous parts of the said parishes of Wath-upon-Dearne and Rawmarsh, which are described in the Schedule here
