

under written, all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Thomas, situate at Kilnhurst aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Kilnhurst.'

"And we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said John Baron Campbell and the said Dean and Chapter (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Thomas, Kilnhurst, shall belong to and be exercised by the Right Honourable William Thomas Spencer, Earl Fitzwilliam, his heirs and assigns for ever.

"We therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of SAINT THOMAS, KILNHURST, being:—

"All that part of the township of Swinton, in the parish of Wath-upon-Dearne in the county and diocese of York, which is situate to the south of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary between such parish and the parish of Rawmarsh, in the same county and diocese at a point in the middle of the road leading from Wentworth to Hooton Roberts, and extending thence eastward along the middle of such road, as far as a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of Piccadilly-road, and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of such last-named road to a point opposite to the middle of Birdwell Brook, and extending thence in a direction generally eastward, along the middle of such brook and across the Dearne and Dove Canal to the middle of the western end of the fence which divides the inclosure, numbered 282 on the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Wath-upon-Dearne, and on the map hereunto annexed, from the inclosure numbered 235 on the same maps (which said fence indicates the old course of the said Birdwell Brook) and thence extending northeastward along the middle of such fence, to the boundary of the last-named parish.

"And also that part of the parish of Rawmarsh aforesaid, which is situate to the east and north of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary between such parish and the parish of Wath-upon-Dearne aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the ancient footpath leading from Swinton to Rawmarsh, and extending thence in a direction generally southwestward along the middle of such footpath to the middle of 'Ryecroft-lane,' (formerly called 'Kilnhurst-way'), and extending thence eastward along the middle of such lane, as far as a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of 'Clay-pit-lane,' (formerly called 'Wheatcroft-way'), and extending thence southward to and along the middle of such last-named lane, to a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of the fence which divides the inclosure, numbered 30 on the map attached to the award of the inclosed lands, in the said parish of Rawmarsh, and on the map hereunto annexed, from the inclosure numbered 141 on the same maps, and extending thence southward to and along the middle of such last-mentioned fence to the middle of Roundwood Brook, and thence extending in a direction generally eastward, along the middle of such last-named brook, to the boundary of the said parish of Rawmarsh."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church of Saint Thomas, situate at Kilnhurst, in the parish of Wath-upon-Dearne, in the county of York, be accordingly formed; and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation with respect to the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and that the said right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church shall belong to, and be exercised by, the Right Honourable William Thomas Spencer, Earl Fitzwilliam, his heirs and assigns for ever; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of October, 1860.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twelfth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Pleck, in the parish of Walsall, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Pleck aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Bishop of Lichfield, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Walsall described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be
