AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of October, 1860.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy ; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven ; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five ; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation bearing date the twelfth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy ; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven ; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five ; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew, situate at Paddock Wood, in the parish of Brenchley, in the county of Kent, and diocese of Canterbury.

" Whereas, at certain extremities of the parishes of Brenchley, Yalding, and Nettlestead, and of the new parish of Saint Margaret, Collier-street, in the said county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

" And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parishes and new parish should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Andrew, situate at Paddock Wood, in the parish of Brenchley aforesaid.

" Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend John Bird, Archbishop of Canterbury, of George Campion Courthope, of Whiligh, near Hurst-green, in the county of Sussex, Esquire, the patron of the vicarage and parish of Brenchley aforesaid, of James Ramsay Warde, of Yalding aforesaid Esquire, the patron of the vicarage and parish of Yalding, and of the perpetual curacy and new parish of Saint Margaret, Collier-street aforesaid, and of the Reverend William Francis Cobb, of Nettlestead, clerk, the patron of the said rectory and parish of Nettlestead (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parishes of Brenchley, Yalding, and Nettlestead, and of the new parish of Saint Margaret, Collier-street, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Andrew, situate at Paddock Wood aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Paddock Wood.'

" And, we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said George Campion Courthope, James Ramsay Warde, and William Francis Cobb (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Andrew, Paddock Wood, shall belong to and be exercised by the said George Campion Courthope, his heirs and assigns.

" We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

" The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

" The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Paddock Wood, being :—

" All that portion of the parish of Brenchley, in the county of Kent and diocese of Canterbury, which is situate to the north of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary between such parish and the parish of Horsemouden, at a point in the middle of Surrey-lane, and extending thence south-westward, in a direct line to a boundary stone marked 'C.C. P.W. 1860, No. 1,' placed on the eastern side of the road leading from Pierson's-green to Castle-hill, at a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of a footpath, leading from the last mentioned road through Daw's farm to Apps-lane, and extending thence north-westward across the same road to and along the middle of the said footpath and of Apps-lane aforesaid, to the middle of the high road leading from Brenchley to Yalding at a point opposite to a boundary stone placed on the western side of the last mentioned road, and inscribed 'C.C. P.W. 1860. No. 2.' and extending thence in a direct line north-westward to a point in the middle of Chantler's-lane opposite to the middle of the northern end of Waterman's-lane, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Chantler's-lane aforesaid, to the middle of the East Peckham turnpike-road, and extending thence southward along the middle of such turnpike-road for a distance of 355 yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of a certain private road belonging to Miss Sarah Catherine Warde, which intersects Gedge's Wood and leads past the farmhouse and premises called Gedges, and extending thence in a direction either generally westward or south-westward to and along the middle of the said private road and across Crittenden-lane to a boundary stone marked 'C.C. P.W. 1860, No. 3' placed on the western side of such last mentioned lane, and extending thence north-westward in a direct line to the boundary dividing the said parish of Brenchley from the parish of Pembury and the parish of Capel in the same county and diocese, at or near the cottages and premises known as the Old Seven Stars.

" And also all those detached portions of the parish of Nettlestead in the said county and diocese, wherein the present incumbent now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which are respectively comprised within the hamlets of Keylands and High Lees.
