

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of October, 1860.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section sixty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section sixty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"We humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us out of the Common Fund in the said Act mentioned, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices or churches described in the First Schedule hereunto annexed, the annual sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice or church in the last column of the same Schedule, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year.

"And we further recommend and propose that the lands and premises, tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, annual rents or money payments, and other hereditaments, particularly described in the Second and Nine following Schedules hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances, now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the several spiritual persons hereinafter mentioned; that is to say,—that the messuage, lands, hereditaments, and premises described in the Second Schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parish of Emneth, in the county of Norfolk and diocese of Ely, part of which formerly belonged to the sinecure rectory of Elm-cum-Emneth, in the same diocese, and is now vested in us, and the remainder was conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the twenty-ninth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, shall, together with any tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes at present payable to us in respect of the same, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Emneth; that the lands and premises described in the Third Schedule hereunto annexed, situate at Shadforth, in the parish of Pitlington, in the county and diocese of Durham, formerly belonging to the bishopric of Durham, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Shadforth, except and reserved unto us, all mines, quarries, and beds of coal, stone, clay, sand, and minerals whatsoever, together with full power of working and getting the same, and rights of wayleave; that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes described in the Fourth Schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands

situate within the parish of Llangwm, in the county of Denbigh and diocese of St. Asaph, with their appurtenances, formerly belonging to the sinecure rectory of Llangwm, in the same county and diocese, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Llangwm; that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes described in the Fifth Schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the township of Sheraton and Hulam, in the parish of Monk Heselden, in the county and diocese of Durham, with their appurtenances, formerly belonging to the tenth canonry in the cathedral church of Durham, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Monk Heselden; that the messuages, lands, hereditaments, and premises described in the Sixth Schedule hereunto annexed, and therein numbered I., situate within the parish of Barmby Moor, in the county and diocese of York, with their appurtenances, formerly belonging to the prebend of Barmby Moor, in the cathedral church of York, and now vested in us, and also the annual rents or money payments described in the same Schedule, and therein numbered II., arising out of or upon lands situate within the same parish, with their appurtenances, formerly belonging to the deanery of the said cathedral church of York, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Barmby Moor; that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes described in the Seventh Schedule hereunto annexed, and therein numbered I., arising out of or upon lands situate within the parish of Fangfoss, in the last-mentioned county and diocese, with their appurtenances, and also the annual rents or money payments in lieu of the tithe of wool and lamb to accrue and renew within the lordship of Fangfoss, which rents or money payments are particularly described in the same Schedule, and are therein numbered II., formerly belonging to the deanery of the cathedral church of York aforesaid, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Fangfoss; that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes described in the Eighth Schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the parish of Saint Michael, Lichfield, in the county of Stafford and diocese of Lichfield, with their appurtenances, formerly belonging to the prebend of Freeford, in the cathedral church of Lichfield, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Hammerwich, in the same county and diocese; that the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes described in the Ninth Schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the parish of Saint Chad, Lichfield, otherwise Stowe, in the last mentioned county and diocese, and within the said parish of Saint Michael, Lichfield, with their appurtenances, formerly belonging to the prebend of Freeford aforesaid, and to the prebend of Gaia Minor, also in the said cathedral church of Lichfield, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Christchurch, Lichfield, in the same county and diocese; that all our right, title, and interest, whether reversiory or
