"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said perpetual curacy of Middlesborough is at present ill-endowed, and that it is desirable that some additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the said parish of Middlesborough;

"And whereas the said Thomas Hustler has signified to us his desire to exchange the patronage of the said perpetual curacy of Middlesborough for the patronage of the said perpetual curacy of West Acklam, and has undertaken to convey to us, immediately upon the gazetting of an Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme, and without further consideration, one acre of valuable land suitable for the erection thereon of a house of residence for the incumbent, for the time being, of the said perpetual curacy of Middlesborough;

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the registrar of the diocese of York.

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments; and after due consideration it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell, or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Chichester, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chichester.
