PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section seventy-three, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, section twenty-two, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls within the parish of Middlesborough, in the North Riding of the county of York, and in the diocese of York;

"Whereas the patronage of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Middlesborough is vested in Thomas Hustler, of Acklam Hall, near Middlesborough, Esquire, and the patronage of the perpetual curacy of West Acklam, in the same riding, county, and diocese, is vested in the Archbishop of York and his successors in the see;

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said perpetual curacy of Middlesborough is at present ill-endowed, and that it is desirable that some additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the said parish of Middlesborough;

"And whereas the said Thomas Hustler has signified to us his desire to exchange the patronage of the said perpetual curacy of Middlesborough for the patronage of the said perpetual curacy of West Acklam, and has undertaken to convey to us, immediately upon the gazetting of an Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme, and without further consideration, one acre of valuable land suitable for the erection thereon of a house of residence for the incumbent, for the time being, of the said perpetual curacy of Middlesborough;

"And whereas the said Charles Thomas, Archbishop of York, has also signified to us his desire that the patronage of the said benefices may be exchanged as hereinafter recommended and proposed;

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Charles Thomas, Archbishop of York, and the said Thomas Hustler, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the patronage of or right of nomination to the said perpetual curacy of Middlesborough shall be assigned and transferred from the said Thomas Hustler, and shall become and be vested in, and shall and may be exercised by, the said Charles Thomas, Archbishop of York, and his successors in the said see, and that in exchange for the same the patronage of or right of nomination to the said perpetual curacy of West Acklam shall, in like manner, be assigned and transferred from the said Charles Thomas, Archbishop of York, and his successors, and shall become and be vested in, and shall and may be exercised by, the said Thomas Hustler, his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the registrar of the diocese of York.
