CHAPTER of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

ELECTION and INVESTITURE of the DUKE OF NEWCASTLE.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, December 17, 1860.

A CHAPTER of this Most Noble Order was held this day at three o'clock.

The Knights Companions following, in their mantles and collars; viz.: His Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge, the Marquess of Exeter, the Marquess Camden, the Earl of Clarendon, the Marquess of Normanby, the Earl of Carlisle, Viscount Palmerston, the Earl Granville, the Marquess of Westminster, the Duke of Devonshire, and the Earl of Harrowby, attended by the following Officers of the Order; viz.: the Prelate, the Chancellor, Garter, and Black Rod, assembled in the Waterloo Gallery, where they were called over by Garter.

Her Majesty, His Royal Highness The Prince Consort, and His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, having passed into the Chapter Room, the Knights Companions and Officers proceeded into the presence of the Sovereign.

The Sovereign and Knights Companions being seated, and the Officers standing in their respective places, the Chancellor signified to the Chapter Her Majesty's royal will and pleasure that a vacant stall in St. George's Chapel should be filled.

Then, by command of the Sovereign, the Duke of Newcastle was introduced by Garter and Black Rod, and being conducted to Her Majesty, received the honour of Knighthood, and having had the honour to kiss Her Majesty's hand, withdrew.

The Knights Companions then proceeded to an election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Chancellor, were by him presented to the Sovereign, who commanded him to declare, and he accordingly declared, that the Most Noble Henry Pelham, Duke of Newcastle, had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

Then, by command of the Sovereign, his Grace was received at the door of the Chapter-room by the Duke of Devonshire and the Earl of Harrowby, the two junior Knights present, and conducted between them to Her Majesty, preceded by Garter, bearing the ensigns of the Order, and by Black Rod. The Duke of Newcastle, kneeling near the Sovereign, Garter, on his knee, presented the Garter, and Her Majesty, assisted by His Royal Highness The Prince Consort and His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, the two senior Knights Companions, buckled it around his Grace's left leg, the Chancellor pronouncing the usual admonition.

Garter next presented, in like manner, the Ribband and George, and Her Majesty, assisted as before, put the same over his Grace's left shoulder, the Chancellor pronouncing the admonition. His Grace then again had the honour to kiss Her Majesty's hand, and having received the congratulations of each of the Knights Companions, retired.

The Chapter being concluded, Garter, by Her Majesty's command, again called over the Knights Companions, who, together with the Officers, withdrew from the presence of the Sovereign with the usual reverences.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, December 17, 1860.

THE Queen, as Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, has been graciously pleased by letters patent, under Her Royal Sign Manual and the Great Seal of the Order, bearing date this day, to dispense with all the Statutes and Regulations usually observed in regard to Installations, and to grant unto the Most Noble Henry Pelham, Duke of Newcastle, Knight of the said Most Noble Order, and duly invested with the ensigns thereof, full power and authority to exercise all rights and privileges belonging to a Knight Companion of the Most Noble Order of the Garter in as full and ample a manner as if he had been formally installed, any decree, rule, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of December, 1860.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis;" it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification; it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation, shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish;

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Cornewall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications;

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twenty-sixth day of October last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the tenth day of December instant; and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any of the under mentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued, with the following modifications, from and after the twenty-seventh day of December instant (except as is herein otherwise directed), as follows; viz.:

MARGATE.—Forthwith in the Cemetery adjoining Zion Chapel, except in so far as they can be conducted in accordance with the fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth Clauses of the Official Regulations for new Burial Grounds.

WARRINGTON.—Forthwith beneath Cairo-street Chapel, Warrington, and that the existing graves beneath the said chapel be closed, in an airtight manner, with stone-work, asphalt, or concrete, and that the entire surface beneath the floor of the chapel be covered with a layer of fresh soil, not less than four inches thick, mixed with charcoal.

DENTON, SUSSEX.—Forthwith beneath the Parish Church, and from and after December thirty-first, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the Churchyard, with the exception of now-existing brick graves, and family earthen graves, which can be opened without disturbing human remains, and in which no body shall be buried without a covering of four feet of earth, measuring from the top of the coffin to the general level of the ground.

COTTINGHAM, YORKSHIRE.—Forthwith beneath the Parish Church, and also in that part of the Churchyard which is within five yards of any dwelling; also, from and after January first, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the Churchyard, except in graves not less than five feet deep, which are free from water, and can be opened without the exposure of bones.

Arthur Helps.

At the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of December, 1860,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England" it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards and burial-grounds hereinafter mentioned from the time mentioned in such Orders respectively; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed, as follows; viz.:

In the Old and New churchyards of the parish of ALMONDBURY, Yorkshire, from the first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, to the first of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

In the parish churchyard of DALSTON, Cumberland (with the exception and on the conditions contained in an Order in Council of the seventh March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty), from the first of January to the thirtieth of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

In the churchyard of PITTINGTON, Durham, from the first of January to the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

In the new part of the churchyard of Saint Helen's, ABINGDON, and in the other parts of that churchyard, provided, no human remains be exposed; and in the Baptist Burial-ground, Saint Helen's, ABINGDON, from the first of January to the thirty-first of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

In Christ Church Burial-ground, Every-street, Ancoats, in MANCHESTER, from the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, on condition that all the regulations prescribed by certain Orders in Council of the seventh of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and twenty-second of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in reference to this burial-ground, be strictly observed.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the thirty-first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, burials were directed to be discontinued, with certain exceptions, from and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the churchyard of ILLINGWORTH, in the parish of Halifax, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be forthwith discontinued in ILLINGWORTH Churchyard within three yards of all dwelling-houses, and also in the old part of the churchyard, with the exception of now existing vaults and walled graves; and, from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, in the whole of the churchyard, with the exception of now existing vaults and walled graves, which shall be used in accordance with the regulations contained in the said Order in Council of the thirty-first July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.

Council Office, Whitehall, December 17, 1860.

WHEREAS the CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY COMMISSIONERS, appointed for the purposes of the Act of the 19th and 20th Vict., cap. 88, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the said Act, have framed the following Statute, dated the 16th day of May, 1860, for the future regulation of the Craven, Battie, Davies, and Pitt Scholarships in the said UNIVERSITY; and whereas the said Statute has been laid before the Council of the Senate of the said University for the space of two calendar months, in the manner required by the said Act, and no objection has been made thereto, and has been this day laid before Her Majesty in Council, the same is published in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act: AND NOTICE is hereby given, that it is lawful for the bodies or persons mentioned in the 39th section of that Act, within one month after this publication, to petition Her Majesty in Council against the approbation of the said Statute, or of any part thereof.

A 2

Statute above referred to.

WE, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act passed, in the session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intitled "An Act to make further provision for the good government and extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," do hereby, in execution of the powers vested in us by the said Act, make the following Statute for the future regulation of the Craven Scholarships in the University of Cambridge, the Battie Scholarship, the Davies' Scholarship, and the Pitt Scholarship, in the same University in common.

1. The University shall have power to alter and determine, from time to time, by grace of the Senate, the regulations respecting the persons who are to examine the Candidates and elect the Scholars; and also the regulations respecting notice of the vacancy of any Scholarship, the academical standing of Candidates, the notice to be given by Candidates of their intention to present themselves for examination, the time, mode, and subjects of examination, and the time of election.

2. In the election to any Scholarship the electors shall not be required to take into consideration the pecuniary circumstances of the candidates.

3. In the election to any Scholarship the electors shall not be required to take into consideration the relation of the Candidates to the Founder in name or kindred.

4. Each Scholarship shall be tenable for seven years, if the Scholar shall continue a Member of the University, but no longer.

5. No student shall hold more than one of the Scholarships governed by this Statute at the same time.

6. The University shall have power to regulate, from time to time, by grace of the Senate, the conditions of residence of the Scholars; and if any Scholar fail to comply with such conditions, the electors shall be at liberty to declare his Scholarship vacant.

7. The University shall have power, by grace of the Senate, to augment, out of any funds at their disposal, the stipends of the Davies and Battie Scholarships, respectively.

Given under our Common Seal this sixteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

Council-Office, Whitehall, 17th December, 1860.

WHEREAS the Cambridge University Commissioners, appointed for the purposes of the Act of the 19th and 20th Vict., cap. 88, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the said Act have framed the following Statutes, numbered 1 to 3, dated 16th day of May, 1860, for the future regulation of the several bye foundations at Jesus College, in the said University of Cambridge; and whereas the said Statutes have been laid before the Governing Body of the said College, and before the Visitor thereof, and no objection has been made thereto, and have been this day laid before Her Majesty in Council, the same are published in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act. And notice is hereby given, that it is lawful for the bodies or persons mentioned in the 39th section of that Act, within one month after this publication, to petition Her Majesty in Council against the approbation of the said Statutes, or any part thereof.

Statutes above referred to.

STATUTES CONCERNING BYE FOUNDATIONS AT JESUS COLLEGE.

WE, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further Provisions for the good Government and Extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," do hereby, in execution of the powers vested in us by the said Act, make the four Statutes next following with respect to the Ley Fellowships at Jesus College, in the said University, and to the several other Fellowships and Scholarships at the same College in the same Statutes more particularly described.

1. Ley Fellowships.

From the date of the confirmation of this Statute there shall be no further election to any of the three Bye Fellowships at Jesus College founded in the year 1840, under the will of Mrs. Sarah Jones, and called "Ley Fellowships."

All the emoluments derived by the College from the funds left to the College by the said Mrs. Sarah Jones for the purpose of founding the said three Fellowships shall (subject and without prejudice to existing interests therein) be carried to the general funds of the College, to be applied towards the maintenance of Open Scholarships, in the manner directed by the Statutes of the College.

Six of the Open Scholarships thus created shall bear the name of "Ley Scholarships," but shall be in all other respects on the same footing with the other Scholarships of the College.

2. Mr. Marshall's and other Scholarships.

From the date of the confirmation of this Statute there shall be no further election to any of the several Scholarships at Jesus College hereinafter enumerated; that is to say:—

One Scholarship founded by Mr. William Marshall.

Two Scholarships founded by Lady Price.

One Scholarship founded by The Rev. John Sykes.

One Scholarship founded by Dr. John Mawhood.

All the emoluments derived by the College from the Foundations of the said several Benefactors for the maintenance and support of the several Scholarships above enumerated (subject and without prejudice to existing interests therein) shall be carried to the general funds of the College, to be applied towards the maintenance of Open Scholarships in the manner directed by the Statutes of the College.

3. Sterne Scholarships.

From the date of the confirmation of this Statute there shall be no further election to any of the four Scholarships at Jesus College founded by Archbishop Sterne.

All the emoluments derived by the College from the said Foundation shall be carried to the general funds of the College, to be applied towards the maintenance of Open Scholarships in the manner directed by the Statutes of the College.

Two of the Scholarships thus created shall bear the name of "Sterne Scholarships," but shall be in all other respects on the same footing with the other Scholarships of the College.

Given under our Common Seal this sixteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

L. S.

Council-Office, Whitehall, December 17, 1860.

WHEREAS the CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY COMMISSIONERS, appointed for the purposes of the Act of the 19th and 20th Vict., cap. 88, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the said Act, have framed the following Statutes, numbered from 1 to 9, from 11 to 13, and from 15 to 32, and supplemental Statutes numbered 2 and 3 respectively, dated the 16th day of May, 1860, for the future government and regulation of Corpus Christi College, in the said University of Cambridge; and whereas the said Statutes and Supplemental Statutes have been laid before the Governing Body of the said College, and before the Visitor thereof, and no objection has been made thereto, and have been this day laid before Her Majesty in Council, the same are published in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act: AND NOTICE is hereby given, that it is lawful for the bodies or persons mentioned in the 39th section of that Act, within one month after this publication, to petition Her Majesty in Council against the approbation of the said Statutes and Supplemental Statutes, or any part thereof.

Statutes above referred to.

WHEREAS the Statutes given to the College of Corpus Christi and of the Blessed Mary, in the University of Cambridge, by Henry Duke of Lancaster, the Founder of the same, commencing with the following preamble,— Præfatio Domini Fundatoris.

"Ad perpetuam rei memoriam. Cum nos, Henricus Dux Lancastriæ Aldermannus et Confratres Gildæ Corporis Christi et Beatæ Mariæ in Canteburgia, ob specialem devotionem et recordationem quam habemus in institutione divinissimi Sacramenti Corporis et Sanguinis Domini, ab Excellentissimo Principe Edwardo, Dei gratia Angliæ et Franciæ Rege, licentiam impetravimus, quod in quodam messuagio nostro cum pertinentiis in Canteburgia prædicta Eliensis Dioceseos, ubi vigere dinoscitur studium generale, quandam Domum sive Collegium Sociorum, Scholarium, et aliorum, sub nomine Domus sive Collegii Corporis Christi et Beatæ Mariæ, per quendam Magistrum ejusdem Domus regendam, juxta ordinationem nostram infra scriptam, instituire et fundare possimus;—Nos igitur Aldermannus et Confratres antedicti, cum consilio proborum et doctorem virorum de provida et pia gubernatione dictæ domus, cupientes recte

“ et salubriter ad Dei gloriam et divini cultus augmentum providere, sic statuendum et ordinandum duximus,”

—have become in various respects obsolete through lapse of time, or unsuited to the altered character of the times; and it is expedient that the same should be revised and altered, and that Statutes should be made for the government of the College, with a view to promote the main designs of the Founder and the interests of the College as a place of Learning and Religious Education, in such manner as may be best adapted to the circumstances of the present time, We, the Commissioners appointed for the Purposes of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled “ An Act to make further provision for the good Government and Extension of the University of Cambridge of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton,” do hereby, in execution of the powers vested in us by the said Act, make the following Statutes for the future government and regulation of the College of Corpus Christi and of the Blessed Mary, in the University of Cambridge.

STATUTA COLLEGII CORPORIS CHRISTI.

STAT. I.

De Numero eorum qui in Collegio sustentabuntur.

Imprimis statuimus et ordinamus quod sint perpetuo in dicto Collegio unus Magister sive Custos ejusdem Collegii; duodecim Socii; duo Bibliotistæ; sex Scholares. Qui quidem omnes juxta Statuta et Ordinationes subsequentes eligantur et habeantur in Collegio prædicto in perpetuum. Quem quidem numerum tam Sociorum quam Bibliotistarum et Scholarium augeri volumus juxta sanum judicium Magistri et Sociorum omnium, cum consensu Visitoris, prout pro utilitate dictæ domus et pro statu reddituum et possessionum ejusdem commodum eis visum fuerit et necessarium.

STAT. II.

De Qualitatibus et Electione Magistri.

Statuimus et ordinamus ut Magister sive Custos sit Presbyter Ecclesiæ Anglicanæ; bonæ famæ et vitæ honestæ; providus et circumspectus; Sacræ Theologiæ Professor, vel Sacræ Theologiæ Baccalaureus, vel ad minimum cui gradum Sanctæ Theologiæ Baccalaurei juxta statuta Academiæ infra triennium electionis suæ suscipere licebit. Qui quidem Magister sive Custos teneatur gradum Sanctæ Theologiæ Professoris suscipere quam primum per statuta et ordinationes Academiæ licuerit, nisi ob gravem causam per majorem partem Sociorum approbandam. Cum autem contigerit officium dicti Magistri per mortem, resignationem, privationem, vel cessionem, aut alio quovis modo imposterum vacari; Volumus ut alius Magister idoneus per Socios ejusdem, seu per majorem partem eorum, de seipsis aut aliis eligatur, prout secundum Deum et pro commodo dictæ domus melius viderint expedire. Et hujusmodi electio Cancellario sive Procancellario notificetur per duos Socios Collegii, qui in electione præsentem fuerint, simpliciter approbanda, sed non examinanda nec impugnanda quovis modo. Nec per hoc habeat Cancellarius sive Procancellarius dictæ Universitatis potestatem sive jurisdictionem dictam electionem cassandi seu impugnandi, sive de statu dictæ domus aliquo modo ordinandi, contra formam ordinationis nostræ prædictæ.

STAT. III.

De Modo eligendi Magistri.

Statuimus quod, vacante ut supradictum est officio Magistri, immediate infra tres dies ejusdem vacationis cognitæ et perspectæ, senior Socius, qui tunc domi in Collegio fuerit, sub pœna amissionis vocis suæ in electione sequenti, faciat omnes Socios ejusdem Collegii convocari in villa præsentem. Quibus sic convocatis, assignabit diem et horam electionis futuræ, quam volumus post hujusmodi convocationem omnino ante diem tricesimum, non autem ante diem decimum tertium fieri; Socios etiam absentes, quantum fieri poterit, de die et hora electionis futuræ certiores faciat. Quod si infra illos tres dies significare diem electionis prædictus Senior noluerit, vel per negligentiam omiserit, tunc statim die sequente post hos tres dies sic elapsos liberum sit proximo Socio seniori tunc præsentem diem et horam constituere electionis secundum formam prædictam.

Proviso semper quod septem ex Sociis prædictis ad minimum intersint hujusmodi electioni, si tot Socii eo tempore superfuerint. In qua quidem Electione,—invocata prius gratia Spiritus Sancti, habitaque brevi exhortatione per seniore præsentem ut eum Magistrum præficiendum curent, quem putaverint Collegio fore maxime commodum et idoneum,—volumus illum seniore adjungere sibi proxime seniore, qui sua ipsorum suffragia suis manibus scripta primi ferent, deinde omnium Sociorum præsentium etiam suis ipsorum manibus suffragia scripta accipiant. Quibus bene consideratis inter se, illum Magistrum senior Socius, vel ille alter, qui cum seniore in scrutinio stetit, statim absque dilatione, sub pœna amissionis sodaliti sui, sic electum pronuntiabit, quem major pars Sociorum præsentium suffragiis elegerit. Quod si contigerit ut æquales voces sic eligentium fuerint, tunc illa pars, cui Socius ille maxime senior inclinaverit, præponderet in electione prædicta.

Proviso quod, si in primo scrutinio in electione Magistri major pars Sociorum præsentium non convenerit, tunc iterum ac tertio ad simile scrutinium accedant, donec aliquis in Magistrum per majorem partem electus fuerit. Quod si in tertio scrutinio non congruerint, tunc volumus illum in Magistrum præfici, quem Cancellarius vel eo absente Procancellarius ex personis per Socios nominatis duxerit maxime idoneum. Postquam autem hujusmodi electio facta fuerit et pronunciata, tunc teneatur prædictus senior eandem Magistro sic electo significare, cum primum commode fieri potest, cumque coram Societate personaliter præsentare. Quibus sic peractis, antequam ad administrationem aliquam se intromittat, volumus eum præstare professionem, seniore Socio illam proponente sub hac forma verborum quæ sequitur.

Professio Magistri.

Profiteberis quod officium Magistri sive Custodis pro tempore gubernationis tuæ fideliter præstabis. Statuta, Ordinationes, et Consuetudines laudabiles hujus Collegii, quantum in te est, salva observabis, eademque Statuta diligenter et fideliter exequeris; et ab aliis, quantum in te est, observari procurabis. Bona et Possessiones dicti Collegii fideliter custodies, custodiri que facies. Ita fidem dabis. Qua professione præstita admittatur a Socio seniore, sed in propria persona in ipso Collegio, sub hac forma verborum quæ sequitur; Auctoritate mihi commissa admitto te Magistrum hujus Collegii in nomine Patris et Filii et Spiritus Sancti. Amen.

STAT. IV.

De Officio Magistri.

Quoniam Magistrum vigilantem esse decet, velut oculus in corpore, qui reliquis corporis membris diligenter prospiciat;—Statuimus et volumus ut Magister, qui pro tempore fuerit, cum omni sollicitudine præsit, Socios et Scholares Collegii aliosque quoscunque in dicto Collegio commorantes moneat, increpet, arguat, obsecret, ut singuli suas partes et officio præsentent.

Ad hæc statuimus et ordinamus, ut Magister ipse, vel substitutus suus, una cum Senescallo ad hoc munus annuatim deputando, de triennio in triennium supervideat domos, tenementa, ædificia, terras, cæterasque possessiones Collegii prædicti, et ita diligenter observet quæ reparanda et ædificanda fuerint, sive per Tenentes et Firmarios, sive per expensas Collegii, ut in nullo eorum ruinæ, destructiones, vel deteriorationes reddituum, aut firmarum diminutiones, ob defectum debitæ supervisionis accidisse inveniatur.

Præterea volumus Magistrum prædicti Collegii terras aut tenementa ulli locare sine consilio et consensu majoris partis Sociorum; aut bona Collegii mobilia vendi quovismodo absque expresso consensu Magistri et majoris partis Sociorum; aut possessiones et bona immobilia dicti Collegii permutari vel alienari, nisi propter magnam utilitatem vel necessitatem vel Collegii a Concellario vel Procancellario, dicto Magistro, et octo Sociis ad minimum approbandum. Et si quid locatum vel dimissum fuerit per Indenturam, prius scribatur in Registro ad hoc deputato.

STAT. V.

De Qualitatibus eligendorum in Socios.

Statuimus et ordinamus quod in electione Sociorum Collegii prædicti Magister et Socii ejusdem Collegii, qui per scrutinium Socios co-optant, eligant simpliciter meliores, non habendo respectum ad aliquam affectionem carnalem, nec instantiam seu requisitionem aliquorum, aut procuracionem, sed quos cognoverint esse honestos, castos, humiles, pacificos, et modestos, graduatos, et qui proxima determinatione post electionem suam actualiter procedant.

Volumus etiam ut in electione Sociorum talis ratio habeatur, ut eorum tres ad minimum sint in Presbyteratus ordine constituti. Socios etiam omnes Magistro volumus et ordinamus, una cum cæteris omnibus in dicta domo commorantibus, subesse, et eidem in licitis et honestis, pro statu, utilitate, et regimine dictæ domus salubriter in omnibus obedire.

STAT. VI.

De Electione Sociorum.

Electionem autem Sociorum ad hunc modum fieri volumus. Sodalitio jam vacante, Magister, ubi ad utilitatem Collegii prædicti conducere judicaverit, Socios in villa præsentibus convocandos curet; quibus sic convocatis, assignabit diem et horam electionis futuræ, quam volumus post hujusmodi convocacionem omnino ante diem quindecimum fieri; Socios etiam absentes, quantum fieri poterit, de die et hora electionis futuræ certos faciat. Quo facto, Magister et Senior Socius tunc præsens vel in Sacello vel in conclavi Magistri seorsim a cæteris Sociis stabunt, et primo suffragia sua in scriptis ferent, deinde reliqui Socii in ordine omnes sua quisque vota similiter in scriptis ferent. Et in quem ex omni numero sic præsentium major pars (vel etiam dimidia pars, si in ea includatur Magister), consenserint, is pro

Socio habeatur. Quod si vota alio quovis modo divisa fuerint, tunc volumus ut bis aut ter infra triduum ad eligendum conveniant. Et si in tertio scrutinio non possunt juxta modos præscriptos consentire, tunc ille ex nominatis per Socios in Socium eligatur quem Magister nominaverit. Proviso semper quod Magister et sex Socii ad minimum intersint hujusmodi electioni, si tot Socii eo tempore superfuerint. Proviso etiam quod sodalitio vacante, hujusmodi electio semper intra annum post vacationem ejus fiat vel saltem ante diem primum mensis Maii post annum a tempore vacationis finitum proximo sequentis.

STAT. VII.

De Admissione Sociorum.

Hi autem Socii singuli in admissionibus suis talem præstabant professionem ut sequitur.

Ego (M. N.) profiteor me veram Christi religionem secundum regulam et doctrinam Ecclesiæ Anglicanæ ex animo amplecti; Auctoritatem Regiam in omnibus hominibus et causis ejus dominationis summam, et externorum Episcoporum Principum et Potestatum quarumcunque jurisdictioni nullo modo subjectam æstimare. Ita do fidem.

Profitetur quod observabo omnia Statuta et laudabiles Consuetudines Collegii nostri quamdiu in eo versatus fuerim. Et quod Magistro sive Custodi hujus Collegii obediens ero in omnibus licitis et honestis. Et quod Collegii honorem et utilitatem, quantum in me est, meo consilio et auxilio juvabo. Et quod secreta Collegii, quæ in damnum infamiam sive præjudicium ejusdem cedere possint, nulli extra societatem revelabo, nisi legitima auctoritate coactus. Ita fidem do.

Qua Professione præstita admittatur a Magistro sub hac forma verborum quæ sequitur: Auctoritate mihi commissa admitto te Socium hujus Collegii in nomine Patris et Filii et Spiritus Sancti. Amen.

STAT. VIII.

De Residentia Magistri et Sociorum.

Statutum est ut Magister Collegii resideat in dicto Collegio singulis annis per spatium sex mensium inter primum diem mensis Octobris et ultimum diem mensis Julii conjunctim vel divisim, nisi rationabilis causa ipsum excuset per majorem partem sociorum approbanda. Quo tempore volumus illum præsentem esse in Collegio, nisi gravis infirmitas, regia, aut magna et urgentia Collegii negotia impederint.

Socio extra Universitatem abesse permittatur, si Magistro postulanti causam absentiæ justam et honestam reddiderit; ita tamen ut, quodcumque Magistro propter Collegii commodum et utilitatem visum fuerit, redire teneatur. Nemini autem Sociorum munus quodvis intra Collegium gerenti, abesse liceat, si vel Magistro vel majori parti Sociorum absentia ejus Collegio detrimenti causa videatur.

Si quis Sociorum revocatus in Collegium a Magistro non redierit; vel si quis, munus gerens, revocatus in Collegium vel a Magistro vel a majore parte Sociorum non redierit, a Collegio et omnibus ejus emolumentis amoveatur et pro non Socio habeatur.

Proviso semper quod Magister diligenter caveat ne omnes Socios simul et eodem tempore in ipsius absentia extra Universitatem abesse permittat, nisi in gravi pestis infectione, quæ etiam tempore de Collegii securitate et custodia diligenter provideatur.

STAT. IX.

De Magistri, si res exigat, Amotione.

Si Magister a fide et communione Ecclesiæ Anglicanæ, uti legibus regni stabilita extat, aperte secesserit, tunc Visitor, re quam primum commode possit investigata ac demonstrata, illum a Magistratu absque mora amoveat.

Si porro Magister cujuscunque criminis coram Judge legitime damnatus fuerit, licebit Visitori, si ei videatur, rem investigare; et, si ita e Collegio esse censeat, Magistrum omnino amovere.

Si octo ad minimum ex Sociis coram Visitatore Magistrum accusent de turpi conversatione, aut malegesta administratione, aut gravi negligentia, unde Magister esse indignus factus sit, tunc Visitor, quam primum commode possit, accusationem audiet, et, re demonstrata, licebit ei, si ita e Collegio esse censeat, Magistrum amovere.

STAT. XI.

De Salario Magistri.

Volumus etiam ut Magister habeat principalem mansionem in dicto Collegio, cum horto eidem annexo, cum stabulo pro equis suis, et aliis locis necessariis pro fæno imponendo, ad hunc usum ordinatis, sive impofterum ex consensu omnium Sociorum ordinandis.

Desinat autem in posterum jus omne Magistri quoad Rectoriam de Abchurch Londini: accipiat vero Magister e redditibus Collegii pro jure quod hactenus habuit ad ecclesiam supradictam stipendium annuum centum librarum pecuniæ.

STAT. XII.

De Mensa Communi.

Volumus insuper quod Magister et Socii mensam communem habeant in Domo prædicta impensis Collegii: ubi se quiete et honeste gerent. Et quod singulis diebus sumptus cujuslibet eorundem duos solidos, nisi ex necessaria causa et honesta, non excedant. Volumus etiam ut Magister, Socii ac cæteris perhendinantibus, cameras juxta arbitrium et judicium suum assignet.

STAT. XIII.

De Redditibus Collegii dividendis.

Statuimus etiam quod post annum Computum, —stipendiis Officialium et Scholarium primum solutis, omnibus etiam solutionibus quæ per hæc Statuta vel per aliam legitimam auctoritatem præscribentur rite factis, et cæteris necessariis sumptibus juxta morem Collegii suppeditatis, —quod superest de redditibus Collegii in quatuordecim partes dividatur, quarum duas Magister, singulas singuli Socii percipiant.

STAT. XV.

De Causis Sodalitii vacandi.

Si quis Sociorum aliunde substantiam ad annum valorem dupli sodaliti in temporalibus consequutus fuerit; cesset tunc omnino in ejus persona exhibitio in domo prædicta: ita quod nihil inde percipiet in futurum, nisi per dictos Magistrum et Socios dictæ domus, ex causa rationabili, et pro profectu domus, secum fuerit dispensatum. Si vero aliquis Sociorum prædictorum Beneficium Ecclesiasticum ad valorem annum sodaliti assecutus fuerit; aut ad quodvis Beneficium Ecclesiasticum, extra villam Cantabrigiam, a Magistro et Sociis præsentatus fuerit; tunc statim, finito primo anno postquam institutus fuerit in illud Beneficium, cesset omnino in ejus persona exhibitio in domo prædicta. In valore autem annuo proventuum sive temporalium sive ecclesiasticorum æstimando, prius deducatur quicquid ex iis per necessitatem Legis sit solvendum. Item si quis Socius uxorem duxerit, sodalitiū ejus statim vacet ipso facto. Si quis autem Sociorum munus Professoris Academici gerat, ex quo non ultra quingentas libras communibus annis percipiat, licebit ei sodalitiū retinere, etiam si uxorem duxerit, quamdiu idem munus gerat. Proviso tamen quod non sint ultra duos Socios eodem tempore qui sic uxores duxerint: nec liceat Socio, qui uxorem duxerit, cameram habere vel habitare in Collegio.

STAT. XVI.

Propter quæ Crimina et Delicta Socii debeant penitus amoveri.

Si quis Sociorum palam a fide et communione Ecclesiæ Anglicanæ, uti legibus regni stabilita extat, secesserit, Magister Socios, excepto illo de quo res agitur, quamprimum fieri potest convocet; et si post inquisitionem diligenter factam, Magistro et Sociis ita convocatis rem ita se habere constiterit omne jus et emolumentum societatis ex eo tempore amittat Socius prædictus et alius in ejus locum eligatur.

Si quis Sociorum coram tribunali legitimum auctoritatem habente de crimine cujuscunque generis convictus fuerit, Magister Socios, excepto illo de quo res agitur, quamprimum fieri potest convocet; et si, post inquisitionem diligenter factam, Magistro et Sociis ita convocatis rem ita se habere constiterit, liceat Magistro, cum consensu majoris partis Sociorum ita convocatorum, Socium prædictum a Collegio et omnibus ejus emolumentis amovere.

Si cuivis Sociorum coram Magistro crimen aliquod probrosum objiciant duo Socii quicunque, a quo infamia prædicto Socio oritura sit ita ut non Collegii societate frui dignus censeatur, Magister Socios, exceptis tribus prædictis, quamprimum fieri potest convocet; et si, post inquisitionem diligenter factam, Magistro et Sociis ita convocatis rem ita se habere constiterit liceat Magistro, cum consensu majoris partis Sociorum ita convocatorum, Socium prædictum hujusmodi infamia notatum a Collegio et omnibus ejus emolumentis amovere.

Si quis Sociorum, Magistri judicio, crimen aliquod probrosum commiserit, a quo infamia ipsi oritura sit ita ut non Collegii societate frui dignus censeatur, Magister, si ei visum fuerit, Socios, excepto illo de quo de quo res agitur, convocet; et si, post inquisitionem diligenter factam, Magistro et Sociis ita convocatis rem ita se habere constiterit, liceat Magistro, cum consensu majoris partis Sociorum ita convocatorum, Socium prædictum a Collegio et omnibus ejus emolumentis amovere.

STAT. XVII.

De Extraneis non inducendis.

Hoc autem Socii dictæ domus diligenter attendant inter se, ut nullus ipsorum extraneos aut propinquos inducendo dictæ suæ societati onerosus existat, ne per hoc aliorum turbetur tranquillitas, seu contentions aut jurgiorum materia minas provide suscitetur.

STAT. XVIII.

De Contentionibus sedandis.

Contentiones vero et dissidia inter Socios dictæ domus suborta studeat Magister qui pro tempore fuerit; juxta consilium sanioris partis eorundem, caute et diligenter corrigere et sedare viis et modis quibus poterit opportunis. Sed ingravescente super hoc correptionis seu correctionis importunitate, Dominus Cancellarius vel Procancellarius

Universitatis prædictæ, juxta factorum contingentium et excessuum compertorum qualitatem, si necesse fuerit, consulatur et convocetur de super-videndo statu ejusdem, cum per Magistrum et Socios dictæ domus debite fuerit requisitus.

Et, si quid corrigendum idem Cancellarius sive Procancellarius invenerit, emendari faciat, juxta consuetudinem Universitatis prædictæ; nihil tamen novi attemptet, statuatur, ordinet, seu introducat, per quod nostræ ordinationi prædictæ in aliquo derogetur seu valeat derogari quoquo modo.

STAT. XIX.

De Computo.

Item statuimus et ordinamus quod quolibet anno, infra Quindenam ante vel post festum Purificationis Beatæ Mariæ, Magister, Senescallus, Œconomus, Ballivi reddant fidelem Computum de omnibus bonis et proventibus Collegii receptis per eos de anno terminato in festo Michaelis præcedente. Et quod sex ad minimum Socii ejusdem Collegii huic computo intersint. Eligantur autem duo ex Sociis qui vice Auditorum fungantur, quibus officium erit ante computum prædicto modo reddendum, expensa et accepta relata inspicere, et si justa videantur nomina sua in schedulis inspectis subscribere; quibus Magister et Socii summam pecuniæ huic labori parem et æquam assignent. Quodque idem Senescallus tradat in fine computi sui nova rentalia, cum omnibus acquiescentiis et aliis necessariis scriptis per se receptis, ut salve custodiantur in cistis Collegii prædicti. Item statutum est ut bona Collegio nostro spectantia diligenter in Inventariis (qualitatem et quantitatem eorum habentibus) scribantur; quorum unum exemplar volumus in cista communi servari, et de triennio in triennium per Magistrum et Socios ejusdem Collegii supervideri et renovari: et aliud penes Magistrum remanere.

Item statutum est ut Senescallus Ballivi et alii Ministri Collegii (si Magister et Socii dicti Collegii dubitent de sufficientia eorum) faciant securitatem eis de fidei computo reddendo, et arragiiis suis (si quæ fuerint) solvendis, et hoc ante admissionem suam.

STAT. XX.

De Senescallo.

Eligatur etiam singulis annis unus ex Sociis a Magistro in Senescallum Collegii. Proviso quod si quando Sociis videatur propter male gestam aut neglectam administrationem negotiorum Collegii, vel a Magistro ipso, vel a Senescallo per eum nominato, tunc licebit Sociis (duabus partibus eorum in hoc consentientibus) Socium alium ab ipsis designandum in locum Senescalli eligere.

STAT. XXI.

De Decano et Lectoribus.

Statuimus et ordinamus quod quolibet anno ante festum Nativitatis Beatæ Mariæ eligantur Decanus et Lectores, qui moderari et prælegere teneantur discipulis Collegii juxta morem aliorum Collegiorum. Qui quidem Decanus et Lectores habeant annuatim pro labore suo justum stipendium, juxta moderationem Magistri et majoris partis Sociorum in hujusmodi electione præsentium.

STAT. XXII.

De Tutoribus.

Tutores etiam in Collegio sint, unus vel plures, per Magistrum ipsum constituendi, cui etiam licebit Tutorem vel aliquem Tutoribus opem ferentem ab officio amovere, si ob causam justam et idoneam ita e Collegio esse censent. Proviso tamen quod Socio ab officio Tutoris sic amoto sit jus provocandi ad Visitatorem.

STAT. XXIII.

De Lectionibus præscribendis.

Volumus insuper ut liceat Magistro et majori parti Sociorum, si quod genus Lectionis vel exercitii Literarii præter ea quæ in Statutis præscribuntur plurimum ad eruditionis amplificationem valere judicabitur, illud cuique vel Sociorum perbendinantium vel discipulorum, quem vel quos ad illud præstandum maxime idoneum vel idoneos existimabunt præscribere; quod si quisquam eorum cui tale aliquid sit constitutum illud efficere noluerit, puniatur juxta arbitrium Magistri et majoris partis Sociorum.

STAT. XXIV.

De Electione, Qualitatibus, Numero, Stipendio, Bibliotistarum et Scholarius.

Statuimus et ordinamus quod sint in dicto Collegio sex Scholares et duo Bibliotistæ, per Magistrum et Socios eligendi, ingeniosi, ac honestis moribus præditi, sufficienterque in Grammatica instructi. Bibliotistarum autem officium erit in Sacello legere sacra Biblia et aliter subministrare secundum assignationem et moderationem Magistri vel substituti sui.

Qui quidem Bibliotistæ cum cæteris Scholaribus ita se gerent in studiis et exercitiis suis scholasticis cæterisque officiis et moribus conversationis suæ, prout Magistro et Sociis juxta exigentiam status sui et pro honore et utilitate dicti Collegii de tempore in tempus semper videbitur magis expedire.

Recipiant autem dicti Scholares pro sustentatione sua singuli singulis annis triginta libras pecuniæ.

Proviso semper quod quilibet eorum actualiter gradum Baccalaureatus Artium infra quatuor annos immediate post ejus admissionem in hoc Collegium suscipiet, sub poena amissionis hujus nostræ exhibitionis ipso facto, nisi Magister et Socii ei longius tempus concesserint. Et quod nullus prædictorum gaudeat exhibitione et sustentatione prædicta, post talem gradum susceptum, ultra tres integros annos proxime sequentes.

STAT. XXV.

De Disciplina Collegii.

Scholares atque alii omnes qui in statu pupillari sint ad debitam reverentiam et obedientiam erga Magistrum et cæteros Officiarios Collegii exhibendam teneantur; quiete et decore se gerant; Statuta omnia, atque ordinationes a Magistro et Sociis de tempore in tempus ad Collegium regendum faciendas observent. Si quis eorum Statuta vel ordinationes prædictas observare neglexerit, aut culpam aliquam contra disciplinam Collegii et bonos mores in se admiserit, per Magistrum, vel ejus vicem gerentem aut Decanum eorum vice fungentem, puniatur secundum arbitrium eorum. Proviso quod nemo a Collegio aut in tempus aut penitus amoveatur, neque Scholaris emolumentis suis privetur, nisi a Magistro et Sociis in hoc convocatis.

STAT. XXVI.

De Cista communi et de Sigillo.

Volumus etiam et ordinamus ut sit in Collegio nostro una magna Cista, cum tribus clavibus diversæ fabricæ. Quarum unam custodiat Magister domus prædictæ, et alias claves custodiant alii duo Socii, quos præfatus Magister et Socii ad hoc duxerint unanimiter eligendos. In qua quidem cista volumus Sigillum commune Collegii reservari, cum Chartis Regiis, et aliis scriptis et evidentiis quæ sunt maximi momenti, ultra alias etiam cistas pro aliis evidentiis custodiendis Collegio nostro pertinentibus.

Sigillum autem commune Collegii ne unquam scripto qualicumque apponatur, nisi præsentibus et consentientibus Magistro et tribus ad minimum ex Sociis Collegii.

STAT. XXVII.

De celebranda Memoria Benefactorum.

Statutum est ut Magister Collegii, vel qui in celebranda memoria Benefactorum circa finem Termini S. Michaelis ad concionandum fuerit ab eodem constitutus, recipiet a Senescallo Collegii pro singulis concionibus quadraginta solidos. Quo tempore autem memoriæ Benefactorum celebrantur, convivium præbeatur impensis Collegii; modo sumptus ne sit immodicus. Omnisque Eleemosina quæ antiquitus distribui post exequias solebat, hoc tempore pauperibus dividatur juxta discretionem Magistri et Sociorum præsentium.

STAT. XXVIII.

De Cultu Dei.

Singulis diebus, nisi siquando perpauca ex Sociis, Discipulis, et Pensionariis in Collegio adesse contingat, officium Divini Cultus, horis congruis per Magistrum assignandis, celebretur in Capella Collegii, juxta formam in Ecclesia Anglicana, uti legibus regni stabilita extat, receptam et usitatam.

Licebit Magistro et Sociis identidem ordinationes de Cultu Dei rite celebrando facere, et statuere qui adesse celebrationi debeant, et quibus abesse permittatur: et ordinationes mutare vel antiquare, prout optimum illis visum est.

STAT. XXIX.

De Lectione et Interpretatione Statutorum.

Statuimus ut singulis annis in principio computus in Collegio nostro hæc Statuta nostra prædicta clare legantur, tota societate tunc præsentem. Et quod singuli Socii intersint lectioni prædictæ a principio usque ad finem sub pœna duodecim denariorum communiis applicandorum, nisi impediti fuerint legitima causa per Magistrum sive ejus deputatum approbata. Item volumus Magistrum vel Socios prædictos dicta Statuta vel eorum aliquod aliter interpretari vel declarare quam sensus grammaticalis præ se ferat.

STAT. XXX.

De Dubiis interpretandis.

Quod si dubium aliquod vel obscurum emerit, quod iudicio Magistri vel majoris partis Sociorum nequeat determinari; tunc volumus illud ambiguum iudicio Cancellarii vel Procancellarii et duorum Doctorum (vel duorum in Sacra Theologia Baccalaureorum) in gradu maxime seniorum tunc in Universitate commorantium declarari et definiri.

STAT. XXXI.

De Nummorum Valore mutat.

Si aliquando, pro nummorum valoris, ut solet, mutationibus, pecuniarum summæ his Statutis assignatæ, vel posthac legitima auctoritate assignandæ, vel tenuiores vel ampliores, quam pro rei exigentia, Magistro et Sociis videantur ita ut injuria vel incommodum sive Collegio ipsi, sive cuivis intra Collegium, exinde oriturum sit, liceat eis per scriptum Sigillo communi rite sigillandum, et a Visitatore Collegii approbandum, alias pecuniarum summas substituere, prout eorum iudicio res exigere videatur.

No. 22462.

B

De Sociis certioribus faciendis.

Ubiunque in his Statutis provisum est ut Sociorum aliquis de electione futura aut alia re urgente certior fiat, satis erit si literæ ad eum de tali re modo consueto mittantur. Unusquisque autem Sociorum teneatur statim post admissionem suam et identidem postea in registro quodam ad hoc designato et in Collegio servando, locum domicilii sui indicare, ad quem locum mittantur epistolæ omnes de negotiis Collegii.

Postremo omnes hujus Collegii Socios et Studiosos vehementer in Domino hortamur, ut memores Beneficiorum quæ hujus rei gratia a Domino acceperint optimis studiis et omni pietati se totos consecrent. Statuta nostra diligenter et fideliter observent; nullam callidam aut sinistram interpretationem, contra ipsarum ordinationum sensum et mentem, adhibeant; sed firmas ac ratas habeant, suam et Ecclesiæ Dei utilitatem quærentes; sed firmas ac ratas habeant, suam et Ecclesiæ Dei utilitatem quærentes; et omnes conatus ad Domini ac Servatoris nostri gloriam illustrandam conferentes. Cui cum Patre et Sancto Spiritu sit omnis honor, gloria, et imperium in sæcula sæculorum. Amen.

WE, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament, holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further Provision for the Good Government and Extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton." do hereby in execution of the powers vested in us by the said Act make the three following Supplemental Statutes for the future regulation of Corpus Christi College, in the University of Cambridge.

SUPPLEMENTAL STATUTES.

II.—Preservation of Rights of the Existing Master and Fellows.

The emoluments, tenure of office, and other interests of a pecuniary nature of the present Master, and of all Fellows elected before the confirmation of these Statutes by Her Majesty in Council, shall be regulated by the previously existing Statutes: provided that if the Master or any such fellow shall elect to be placed in these respects under the operation of the present Statutes, it shall be lawful for him to signify such election to the Master and Fellows by writing under his hand, and his rights in such respects shall be thenceforth governed by the present Statutes accordingly.

III.—As to bringing these Statutes into operation.

When and so soon as the interests to be regulated by the previously existing Statutes shall have expired or otherwise determined to such an extent as may in the judgment of the Master and Fellows enable the distribution herein-before described to be partially carried into effect without prejudice to such of those interests as may not have expired or otherwise determined; the Master and Fellows shall from time to time, as circumstances will permit, bring into operation so much and such part or parts of the prescribed distribution as they shall deem most expedient.

Given under our Common Seal this sixteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

Council Office, Whitehall, December 17th, 1860.

WHEREAS the CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY COMMISSIONERS, appointed for the purpose of the Act of the 19th and 20th Vict., cap. 88, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the said Act have framed the following Statutes, dated respectively, the 13th day of June and the 17th day of July, 1860, concerning the scholarships founded by Mr. Thomas Cave, and the Bye Fellowships and other Scholarships at Clare College, in the said University of Cambridge; and whereas the said Statutes have been laid before the Governing Body of the said College, and before the visitor thereof, and no objection has been made thereto, and have been this day laid before Her Majesty in Council, the same are published in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act: AND NOTICE is hereby given, that it is lawful for the bodies or persons mentioned in the 39th section of that Act, within one month after this publication, to petition Her Majesty in Council against the approbation of the said Statutes, or any part thereof.

Statutes above referred to.

WE, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled, "An Act to make further Provision for the good Government and Extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," do hereby, in execution of the powers vested in us by the said Act, make the following statute with respect to the scholarships founded by Mr. Thomas Cave, at Clare College in the said University.

From the date of the confirmation of this Statute the two Scholarships founded by Mr. Thomas Cave, at Clare College, Cambridge, with a right of preference in the election to the same for scholars educated in the Free Grammar School of Wakefield, and born within the town or parish of Wakefield, shall be converted into two exhibitions

In the election to these exhibitions, the same right of preference shall be enjoyed by scholars from Wakefield Grammar School, and among such scholars by persons born in the town or parish of Wakefield to which they are now entitled in respect to the said scholarships.

The net annual proceeds of the property bequeathed by Mr. Thomas Cave to the Master and Fellows of Clare College, for the maintenance of the said scholars, shall be equally divided between the persons holding the two exhibitions.

The candidates for such exhibitions shall be subject to such examination as the Master and Fellows of Clare College shall think proper, in order to ascertain their fitness to become students of the College.

Whenever a vacancy of any such exhibition shall occur, notice of such vacancy, and also of the time and place of the examination and election for the same shall be given by the Master and Fellows of Clare College to the Head Master of Wakefield Grammar School, at least two calendar months before the election to such vacancy.

If no duly qualified candidate shall present himself from Wakefield School, or none such of sufficient merit to deserve, in the opinion of the Master and Fellows of Clare College to be elected to such exhibition, the exhibition then vacant shall be treated as open to general competition.

Every exhibitor shall be subject to such regulations as to residence, instruction, and discipline as the Master and Fellows shall from time to time determine, and may be deprived of, or suspended from, his exhibition by the Master and Fellows for any misconduct which shall, in their judgment, merit such deprivation or suspension.

Each of the exhibitions shall be tenable until the person holding it shall be of standing to take the degree of Bachelor of Arts, or if the Master and Fellows of Clare College think fit, until he is of standing to take the degree of Master of Arts but no longer.

No person shall be entitled to preference in the election to any such exhibition in respect to his having been educated at Wakefield School, unless he shall have been educated at such school for two years at the least next preceding the election, or next preceding his matriculation in the University.

Given under our Common Seal, this thirteenth day of June, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

STATUTE CONCERNING BYE FOUNDATIONS AT CLARE COLLEGE.

WE, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further Provision for the good Government and Extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," do hereby, in virtue of the powers given to us by the said Act make the following Statute with respect to the several Fellowships and Scholarships at Clare College, in the University of Cambridge, enumerated therein.

General Statute concerning Bye-Fellowships and Scholarships.

From the date of the confirmation of this Statute there shall be no further election to the Fellowship at Clare College, founded by Mr. John Borage, nor to either of the two Fellowships at the same College, founded by Mr. Thomas Philpot, and known as "Kentish Fellowships," nor to any of the Scholarships enumerated in the Schedule hereunto annexed.

The funds of the various Scholarships enumerated in the Schedule hereunto annexed, together with the funds of the Borage Fellowship and the two Kentish Fellowships (above enumerated), and also so much of the funds of the Foundations of the Earl of Exeter, of Mr. Freeman, and Mr. Diggon, respectively, as shall remain after paying the stipend of the existing Fellows on such Foundations at the same rate as at present, shall be carried to the general funds of the College to be distributed in the manner directed by the Statutes of the College.

Schedule to the above.

The Earl of Exeter's six Scholarships.
The Countess of Exeter's two Scholarships.

Mr. Freeman's two Scholarships.
 Mr. Diggon's four Scholarships.
 Dr. Leeds' ten Scholarships.
 Mr. Scrivener's Scholarship.
 Mr. Marshall's Scholarship.
 Mr. Pyke's two Scholarships.
 Mr. Wilson's two Scholarships.
 Dr. Green's six Scholarships.
 Sir John Trott's Scholarship.
 Mr. Cherry's Scholarship.
 Mr. Hinman's Scholarship.
 Mr. Stephenson's Scholarship.

Given under our Common Seal, this seventeenth day of July, in the year of Our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

Council Office, Whitehall, December 17, 1860.

WHEREAS the CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY COMMISSIONERS, appointed for the purposes of the Act of the 19th and 20th Vict., cap. 88, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the said Act, have framed the following Statutes, dated the 4th day of August, 1860, (numbered 10 and 31) (in substitution for two Statutes previously made and objected to), for the future government and regulation of Jesus College; two Statutes for the future regulation of the Brunsell Scholarships, and for the distribution of the General Scholarship fund at that College; and a Statute for the future regulation of the foundation of Mr. Tobias Rustat at the said College, in the said University of Cambridge: and whereas the said Statutes have been laid before the Governing Body of the said College, and before the Visitor thereof, and no objection has been made thereto, and have been this day laid before Her Majesty in Council, the same are published in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act; And NOTICE is hereby given, that it is lawful for the bodies or persons mentioned in the 39th section of that Act, within one month after this publication, to petition Her Majesty in Council against the approbation of the said Statutes, or of any part thereof.

Statutes above referred to.

WE, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Nineteenth and Twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further Provision for the good Government and Extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," do hereby, in execution of the powers vested in us by the said Act, make the two following Statutes (numbered Cap. X and Cap. XXXI respectively), for the future government and regulation of Jesus College, in the University of Cambridge; that is to say,—

CAP. X.

De Scholaribus in Collegio exhibendis.

Item statuimus, ordinamus, et volumus quod in Collegio sint quindecim Scholares quos in Elementis Religionis tam Naturalis quam divinitus patefactæ, Disciplinis Mathematicis et Physicis, Literis Humanioribus, aliaque Studiorum materia per Ordinationem aliquam Academiae præscripta, continue studere volumus.

Dictos vero Scholares per Magistrum et Socios modo et forma quæ in Sociis eligendis præscripta sunt eligi et admitti volumus, quoties locus alicujus Scholaris vacaverit, quamprimum illis commodum visum fuerit; ita tamen ut electio non differatur ultra spatium unius anni a vacatione prædicta.

Proviso semper quod nullus horum Scholarium gaudeat emolumento suo ultra terminum post matriculationem suam decimum, nisi Magistro et Sociis aliter visum sit; quod si contingat aliquem istorum Scholarium super ullo crimine diffamari notabili unde Collegio nascatur infamia, juxta judicium Magistri vel, eo absente, Præsidentis et majoris partis Sociorum, expellatur a Collegio ipso facto. Proviso insuper quod si aliquis Scholaris, sine legitima causa per Magistrum vel, eo absente Præsidentem et majorem partem Sociorum approbata, sese per majorem partem unius termini a Collegio absentaverit, licebit Magistro vel, in ejus absentia, Præsidenti et Sociis, in ejusdem locum alium Scholarem eligere et admittere.

CAP. XXXI.

Quid et quantum Magister Socii et Scholares percipient de bonis Collegii.

Item statuimus, ordinamus, et volumus ut ex redditibus, proficuis, aliisque annuis Collegii receptis provideatur;

1. De solutione omnium pensionum quæ per hæc Statuta, vel per quodlibet legitimum decretum jam editum vel in futurum edendum, persolvendæ requirantur;

2. De reparationibus ædium necessariis, salariis Servientium Collegii, aliisque cujuscumque fuerint generis, ordinariis oneribus;

3. De communis Magistri, et Sociorum prout eadem secundum judicium Magistri vel, in ejus absentia, Præsidentis et majoris partis omnium Sociorum fuerint constitutæ; et his omnibus rite peractis et persolutis, vicesima pars summæ tum restantis in usum et emolumentum Collegii cedat; altera etiam vicesima pars summæ ejusdem in usum et emolumentum Scholarium Collegii cedat. Quod vero deinde ex præfatis redditibus, proficuis, et receptis supererit, id volumus ut inter Magistrum et Socios pro tempore existentes dividatur, ea tamen lege ut Magistro duplum, ut solet, ejus quod quisque Socius percipiat, assignetur.

Volumus insuper ut Magister cameram seu cameras eas habeat quas Magistri hactenus habere consueverint; habeant vero Socii cameras, eis per Magistrum vel, eo absente, Præsidentem, secundum eorum senioritatem assignandas.

Given under our Common Seal, this fourth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

WE, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the Good Government and Extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," do hereby, in execution of the powers vested in us by the said Act, make the two Statutes next following, with respect to the Brunsell Scholarships at Jesus College, in the University of Cambridge, and with respect to the General Scholarship Fund, at the same College, respectively.

1. Brunsell Scholarships.

From the date of the confirmation of this Statute there shall be no further election to any of the three scholarships at Jesus College, founded by Dr. Henry Brunzell.

Out of the emoluments derived by the College from the benefaction of the said Dr. Henry Brunzell, the sum of forty pounds shall be annually carried to the general funds of the College, to be applied towards the maintenance of open Scholarships in the manner directed by the Statutes of the College.

Two of the Scholarships thus created shall bear the name of "Brunzell Scholarships," but shall be in all other respects on the same footing with the other Scholarships of the College.

2. Distribution of General Scholarship Fund.

All such of the emoluments derived by the College from the foundations of Mrs. Sarah Jones, Mr. William Marshall, Lady Price, the Rev. John Sykes, Dr. John Mawhood, Archbishop Sterne, and Dr. Henry Brunzell, respectively, as shall be, in pursuance of the several Statutes made with regard to those foundations respectively, carried to the general funds of the College, to be applied towards the maintenance of open Scholarships in the manner directed by the Statutes of the College, together with that one-twentieth part of the net divisible revenues of the College, which is directed by Cap. XXXI of the Statutes of the College to be set apart for the use and emolument of the Scholars of the same, shall be united into one general fund for the maintenance of open Scholarships in the College.

Out of the fund thus constituted, there shall be paid to the fifteen Scholars of the College the following sums, namely:—

To five of the said fifteen Scholars not less than fifty pounds per annum each.

To six of the fifteen Scholars not less than thirty pounds per annum each.

To four of the said fifteen Scholars not less than twenty pounds per annum each.

Given under our Common Seal, this fourth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

STATUTE FOR MR. RUSTAT'S FOUNDATION IN JESUS COLLEGE.

WE, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further Provision for the good Government and Extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," do hereby, in execution of the powers vested in us by the said Act, make the following Statute concerning the Scholarships on the Foundation of Mr. Tobias Rustat, in Jesus College:

1. Candidates for Scholarships on the Foundation of Mr. Tobias Rustat shall be the Orphans, or, in default of such Candidates, the sons of Clergymen who have been ordained Priests according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland; provided that such Candidates have received a competent classical education, and do not moreover possess sufficient means for supporting themselves at the University.

2. The Scholars on this Foundation shall be called "Rustat Scholars," and shall be elected by the Master and Fellows of Jesus College, in the same manner as the Scholars of the College.

3. The Scholars on this Foundation shall be required to attend College Lectures and College Examinations like the rest of the Scholars and Students of the College, and in addition they shall annually pass a special examination both in Classics and Mathematics. The particular subjects of such examination shall be regulated from time to time by the Master and Fellows.

4. Every Scholar on this Foundation shall proceed to the degree of Bachelor in Arts, and shall (except in case of sickness, or for other reasonable cause to be approved by the Master and Fellows) be required to pass at the proper time or times all examinations prescribed by any Statute or Ordinance of the University in order to that Degree, otherwise he shall forfeit his Scholarship.

5. The stipend of each Scholar on this Foundation shall commence from the day of his election: and the Scholarship shall be tenable (subject to the regulations herein-before contained) until the Michaelmas next following the term when the Scholar proceeds to the degree of Bachelor of Arts, provided that he continue to reside in the University; otherwise his Scholarship shall become vacant at the end of that quarter in which he proceeds to the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

6. Except as otherwise directed in these Statutes, the Scholars on this Foundation shall be subject to the provisions of the College Statutes with respect to Scholars and other persons in statu pupillari.

7. The Master of Jesus College, the Vice-Chancellor, the Provost of King's College, and the Master of Trinity College, for the respective times being, shall continue as heretofore to be Visitors of this Foundation, But in case any of those three persons happen to be Vice-Chancellor, or be unable to attend the annual audit of this Foundation, then the Master of St. John's College, for the time being, shall act for that year in the place of whichever of the above-named Visitors may be absent.

8. There shall be a Bursar to be appointed by the Master of Jesus College, for the time being, to be called the "Rustat Bursar," whose office shall be to receive all rents and profits, and to make all payments connected with this Foundation, and who shall receive such an annual stipend as the Visitors may think it just to assign to him.

9. The duty of the Visitors shall be to audit all accounts connected with this Foundation, and to give such directions as may be requisite with regard to the disposal of such surplus money as may remain from year to year after all lawful demands upon the funds of this Foundation have been satisfied.

Given under our Common Seal this Fourth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

Council Office, Whitehall, 17th December, 1860.

WHEREAS the Cambridge University Commissioners, appointed for the purposes of the Act of the 19th and 20th Vict., cap. 88, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the said Act, have framed the following Statutes, numbered 1 to 5, dated the 4th day of August 1860, for the future regulation of Mr. Baker's and other Scholarships and Exhibitions at St. John's College, in the said University of Cambridge; and whereas the said Statutes have been laid before the Governing Body of the said College, and before the Visitor thereof, and no objection has been made thereto, and have been this day laid before Her Majesty in Council, the same are published in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act; And notice is hereby given, that it is lawful for the bodies or persons mentioned in the 39th section of that Act, within one month after this publication, to petition Her Majesty in Council against the approbation of the said Statutes or any part thereof.

Arthur Helps.

Statutes above referred to.

WE, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the good Government and Extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," do hereby, in execution of the powers given to us by the said Act, make the following Statutes respecting the several Scholarships and Exhibitions at the College of Saint John the Evangelist, in the University of Cambridge, mentioned in the same, that is to say:—

1. Mr. Baker's Foundation.

In lieu of the Scholarships or Exhibitions in St. John's College founded under or in pursuance of the provisions of the last Will and Testament of George Baker, of Crooke, in the county of Durham, and of a deed bearing date the 15th day of May, 1710, executed for the purpose of giving effect to the testamentary directions of the said George Baker, so far as the said Scholarships or Exhibitions were concerned, there shall be established at St. John's College so many Exhibitions as the funds from time to time applicable under the provisions of the Deed of the 15th of May, 1710, shall suffice to maintain at the rate of thirty pounds per annum for each Exhibition.

Whenever there shall be any surplus of the funds so applicable (after payment of the Exhibitioners at the rate aforesaid) not amounting to the sum of thirty pounds per annum, such surplus shall be divided in equal shares amongst the existing Exhibitioners.

The Exhibitions shall be tenable for four years from the day of election, and no longer.

In the election to the said exhibitions no preference shall be given to any candidate in respect of his being of the blood, affinity, or surname of the said George Baker, nor in respect of his place of birth, but all candidates who have been scholars at the Free School of the City of Durham by the space of one year at the least, shall retain the same preference as they now enjoy under the provisions of the said Deed of the 15th of May, 1710.

The candidates for the said Exhibitions shall be subject to such examination as the Master and Senior Fellows of St. John's College shall think proper, in order to ascertain their fitness to be elected to such exhibitions.

If, on the occurrence of a vacancy of any Exhibition on this foundation, no duly-qualified candidate shall present himself from the said Free School of the city of Durham, or none such of sufficient merit to deserve, in the opinion of the Master and Senior Fellows of St. John's College, to be elected to such Exhibition, the Exhibition then vacant shall be treated as open to general competition.

Every Exhibitioner shall be subject to such regulations as to residence, instruction, discipline, and attendance on Divine Worship, as the Master and Senior Fellows shall from time to time determine, and may be deprived of his Exhibition by the Master and Senior Fellows for any misconduct which shall in their judgment merit deprivation, but with liberty to appeal against such deprivation to the Visitor of the College.

It shall be lawful for the Master and Seniors, with the consent of the said Visitor and of the Governing Body of the said Free School of the City of Durham, to regulate from time to time the number and value of the above-mentioned exhibitions.

2. Mr. Munsteven's Foundation.

In lieu of the Scholarships or Exhibitions in St. John's College, founded under or in pursuance of the provisions of the last will and testament of Edmund Munsteven, of Paston, in the county of Northampton, dated the 9th of February, 1635, three shall be established at St. John's College so many Exhibitions as the funds from time to time applicable under the provisions of the said will shall suffice to maintain at the rate of thirty pounds per annum for each exhibition.

Whenever there shall be any surplus of the funds so applicable (after payment of the exhibitioners at the rate aforesaid) not amounting to the sum of thirty pounds per annum, such surplus shall be divided in equal shares amongst the existing Exhibitioners.

The Exhibitions shall be tenable for four years from the day of election, and no longer.

All candidates for these Exhibitions coming from the Cathedral School of Peterborough, or from the Free School at Oundle, in Northamptonshire, shall retain the same preference as they now enjoy under the provisions of the said will.

The candidates for the said Exhibitions shall be subject to such examination as the Master and Senior Fellows of St. John's College shall think proper, in order to ascertain their fitness to be elected to the said Exhibitions.

If on the occurrence of a vacancy of any exhibition on this foundation no duly qualified candidate shall present himself from either of the said schools, or none such of sufficient merit to deserve, in the opinion of the Master and Senior Fellows of St. John's College, to be elected to such exhibition, the Exhibition then vacant shall be treated as open to general competition.

Every Exhibitioner shall be subject to such regulations as to residence, instruction, discipline, and attendance on divine worship as the Master and Senior Fellows shall from time to time determine, and may be deprived of his Exhibition by the Master and Senior Fellows for any misconduct which, in their judgment, shall merit deprivation, but with liberty to appeal against such deprivation to the Visitor of the College.

It shall be lawful for the Master and Senior Fellows, with the consent of the said Visitor, and of the governing bodies of the said Schools of Peterborough and Oundle, to regulate from time to time the number and value of the above-mentioned Exhibitions.

3. Dr. Gwyn's Foundation.

From the date hereof there shall be no further election to any of the three Scholarships upon the foundation of Dr. John Gwyn, in St. John's College.

In lieu of the said three Scholarships there shall from time to time be elected one exhibitioner in the said College.

The said Exhibition shall be tenable for three years from the day of election, and no longer.

In the election to the said Exhibition, no preference shall be given to any candidate in respect of his place of birth; but all candidates who have been of the school of Bangor, or of the school of Ruthyn, in the county of Denbigh, shall retain the same preference as is provided by the will of the said Dr. John Gwyn.

The candidates for the said Exhibition shall be subject to such examination as the Master and Senior Fellows of St. John's College shall think proper, in order to ascertain their fitness to be elected to the said Exhibition.

If on the occurrence of a vacancy of this Exhibition, no duly qualified candidate shall present himself from either of the said schools, or none such of sufficient merit to deserve, in the opinion of the Master and Senior Fellows of St. John's College, to be elected to the Exhibition, the Exhibition shall be treated as open to general competition; provided that in that case it be tenable for one year only.

Every Exhibitioner on this foundation shall be subject to such regulations as to residence, instruction, discipline, and attendance on divine worship, as the Master and Senior Fellows shall from time to time determine, and may be deprived of his Exhibition by the Master and Senior Fellows for any misconduct, which shall in their judgment merit deprivation, but with liberty to appeal against such deprivation to the Visitor of the College.

4. Dr. Newcome's Foundation.

In lieu of the two Exhibitions founded in St. John's College, under or in pursuance of the will of Dr. John Newcome, formerly Master of the said College, there shall from time to time be elected one Exhibitioner, who shall be entitled to receive from the funds of the said College the yearly sum of forty pounds.

The said Exhibition shall be tenable for three years from the day of election and no longer.

In the election to the said Exhibition all candidates who have been admitted from the Free Grammar School of Grantham in Lincolnshire, shall retain the same preference as is provided by the will of the said Dr. John Newcome.

The candidates for the said Exhibition shall be subject to such examination as the Master and Senior Fellows of St. John's College shall think proper, in order to ascertain their fitness to be elected to the said Exhibition.

If on the occurrence of a vacancy of this Exhibition no duly qualified candidate shall present himself from the said school, or none such of sufficient merit to deserve, in the opinion of the Master and Senior Fellows of St. John's College, to be elected thereto, the Exhibition shall be treated as open to general competition; provided that in that case it be tenable for one year only.

Every Exhibitioner on this foundation shall be subject to such regulations as to residence, instruction, discipline, and attendance on Divine Worship, as the Master and Senior Fellows shall from time to time determine, and may be deprived of his Exhibition by the Master and Senior Fellows for any misconduct which shall in their judgment merit deprivation, but with liberty to appeal against such deprivation to the Visitor of the College.

5. Mr. Robins' Foundation.

In lieu of the two exhibitions founded in St. John's College, under or in pursuance of the will of Mr. Francis Robins, Clerk of the parish of Sutton Valence, in the county of Kent, and formerly Senior Fellow of the said College, there shall from time to time be elected one Exhibitioner, who shall be entitled to receive from the funds of the said College the yearly sum of twenty pounds.

The said Exhibition shall be tenable for four years from the day of election, and no longer.

In the election to the said exhibition, no preference shall be given to any candidate in respect of his name or kindred, or in respect of his place of birth, but all candidates who have been educated in the Grammar School of Sutton Valence aforesaid shall retain the same preference as is provided by the will of the said Mr. Francis Robins.

The candidates for the said Exhibitions shall be subject to such examination as the Master and Senior Fellows of St. John's College shall think proper, in order to ascertain their fitness to be elected to such Exhibition.

If on the occurrence of a vacancy of this Exhibition no duly qualified candidate shall present himself from the said school, or none such of sufficient merit to deserve, in the opinion of the Master and Senior Fellows of St. John's College, to be elected thereto, the Exhibition shall be treated as open to general competition; provided that in that case it be tenable for one year only.

Every Exhibitioner on this foundation shall be subject to such regulations as to residence, instruction, discipline, and attendance on Divine Worship, as the Master and Senior Fellows shall from time to time determine, and may be deprived of his Exhibition by the Master and Senior Fellows for any misconduct which shall in their judgment merit deprivation, but with liberty to appeal against such deprivation to the Visitor of the College.

The Master of the Rolls, at Chambers.

The 18th day of December, 1860.

In the Matter of the "Joint Stock Companies' Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849," and of the Nantlle Vale Slate Company.

BY the direction of the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, to whose Court this matter is attached, notice is hereby given, that the said Judge purposes on the 15th day of January next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at his chambers in Rolls-garden, Chancery-lane, London, to proceed to make a call on all the contributories of this Company, and that the Judge purposes that such call shall be for 1s. 6d. per share. All persons interested are entitled to attend at such day, hour, and place to offer objections to such call.

The Vice-Chancellor Wood at Chambers.

In the matter of the "Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849," and the "Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Amendment Act, 1857," and in the matter of the Mercantile Guarantee and Assurance Company.

BY direction of the Vice-Chancellor, Sir William Page Wood, the Judge to whose Court this matter is attached, notice is hereby given, that the said Judge will proceed on Wednesday, the 9th day of January, 1861, at one o'clock precisely, at his chambers, No. 11, New-square, Lincoln's-inn, in the county of Middlesex, to settle the list of contributories of this Company, and that after such list shall have been settled no party affected thereby will be allowed to dispute the same without leave of the High Court of Chancery first obtained.—Dated this 15th day of December, 1860.

CONTRACT FOR SUET.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, December 11, 1860.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 27th instant, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford, 50,000 lbs. of SUET.

5,000 lbs. to be delivered by the 15th January next, and the remainder by the 19th March next, in equal weekly deliveries of 5,000 lbs. each, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders will be made for the whole or any portion of the suet.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of the contract, which may be seen at the said office.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner, the words "Tender for Suet," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

Corn Department, Board of Trade.

Published by Authority of Parliament.

HENRY FENTON JADIS, Comptroller of Corn Returns.

CONTRACT FOR EAST INDIA RICE.

Office of the Director-General of the Medical Department of the Navy, Somerset-Place, December 19, 1860.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 15th January next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into the Medical Stores at Her Majesty's Victuallery Yard at Deptford, all such quantities of as may from time to time be demanded, under a contract for twelve months certain, and further until the expiration of three months' warning.

A sample of the rice must be produced by the party tendering.

A form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.
