TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and to fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law on the transmission, by the post, of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates, which may be payable, are to be paid.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office."

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by a certain Warrant under their hands bearing date the 13th day of August, 1858, did order and direct that on every letter posted in the United Kingdom addressed to the East Indies, and on every letter posted in the East Indies addressed to the United Kingdom, the postage thereof should be paid at the time of the same being posted, and that if any letter should be posted in the United Kingdom addressed to the East Indies, without any postage having been paid thereon, or having thereon or affixed thereto a postage stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less in amount than the single rate of postage to which such letter, if not exceeding half an ounce in weight, would be liable under the regulations in force relating thereto, every such letter should be detained and opened, and should be either returned or given up to the sender thereof.

And whereas it is expedient that a further regulation should be made as to the letters hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this present Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided, order and direct as follows, that is to say:

1. If any letter shall be posted in the United Kingdom addressed to the East Indies, or shall be posted in the East Indies addressed to the United Kingdom, without any postage having been paid thereon, or having thereon or affixed thereto a postage stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such letter would be liable under the regulations in force relating thereto, every such letter shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the postage to which it would have been liable if the postage had been paid when posted, together with the further and additional rate of postage of sixpence.

2. The term "East Indies" used in this Warrant shall be construed to mean every port or place in Her Majesty's dominions in Asia, (China, Hong Kong, Ceylon, The Mauritius, Java, Borneo, and Australia excepted), and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

3. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands duly made, at any time hereafter alter, repeal, or revoke any of the orders, directions, or regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other orders, directions, or regulations in lieu thereof.

4. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of February, 1861.

Whitehall Treasury Chambers, the nineteenth day of January, 1861.

THE DEFENCE ACT, 1860.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has, in pursuance of the Defence Act, 1860, made a declaration, bearing date the 15th day of January, 1861, stating therein and showing, with the aid of a map or plan thereto annexed, that certain lands situate in the parishes of Yaverland and Brading, in the county of Southampton, are required to be taken absolutely for the construction of works under the powers and provisions of the said Act.

And notice is also given that copies of such declaration, and of the map or plan thereto annexed, have been deposited with and may be seen on application to any or either of the under-mentioned parties, namely :

1. The clerk of the peace for the said county of Southampton.

2. The parish clerks of the said parishes of Yaverland and Brading.

Dated this 18th day of January, 1861.

By order of the said Principal Secretary,

Chas. M. Clode, Solicitor to the War Department.

LOCAL TAXATION RETURNS.

WHEREAS the Local Government Act, 1858, sec. 76, requires that every Local Board shall make an annual report in such form and at such time as the Secretary of State may from time to time direct, of all works executed by them during the preceding year, and of all sums received and disbursements made under and for the purposes of that Act, and publish the same in some newspaper circulating in the district, and shall send a copy to the Secretary of State: Now, I, the Right Honourable Sir George Cornewall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do, in pursuance of the 5th section of the Act of the 23rd and 24th Vict., c. 51, by this my order published in the London Gazette, direct that so much of the said reports so required to be made by Local Boards as aforesaid, as relates to the sums received and disbursements made, shall in future be made under the last-mentioned Act, and shall be subject to the provisions and penalties thereof.

CONTRACT FOR MEXICAN MAHOGANY TIMBER.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, January 18, 1861.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 5th February next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock Yards with

5500 loads of MEXICAN MAHOGANY TIMBER; to be delivered in the years 1861, 1862, and 1863, according to a distribution which, with a form of the tender and conditions of contract, together with a specimen of the timber, may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Mexican Timber," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £5000 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR FEARNOUGHT.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, January 22, 1861.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 5th February next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock Yards, with under a contract for twelve months certain, and further until the expiration of three months' warning.

A sample of the fearnought, and a form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Fearnought," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £400 for the due performance of the contract.

Ritton Castle Mining Company (Limited).
Voluntary Winding up.

NOTICE is hereby given that at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Shareholders of the Ritton Castle Mining Company (Limited), holden in conformity with the provisions of the articles of association of the said Company, on the 15th day of November, 1860, a resolution for winding up the said Company, under and in conformity with the provisions of the aforesaid articles of association, was passed unanimously, and that such resolution was in the words following, that is to say:

"That the affairs of the Company be forthwith wound up voluntarily, and that Mr. J. B. Balcombe be appointed liquidator, in conformity with the provisions of the Joint Stock Companies Acts."
