

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of February, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, situate at Tibberton, in the parish of Edgmond, in the county of Salop, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of All Saints, situate at Tibberton aforesaid

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lichfield, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those portions of the said parish of Edgmond, described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of All Saints, Tibberton.'

"And with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of Lichfield, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of All Saints, Tibberton, being:—

"All those portions of the parish of Edgmond, in the county of Salop, and diocese of Lichfield, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which are comprised within the townships of Cherrington and Tibberton.

"And also all that portion of the same parish wherein such incumbent now possesses the same cure of souls which is comprised within that portion of the township of Caynton which is situate to the west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such last-named township from the township of Calvington, at a point opposite to the middle of the northern extremity of the fence which divides the close numbered 29 upon the Tithe Commutation Map of the parish of Edgmond, and upon the map hereunto annexed from the close numbered 30 upon the same maps, and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of the said fence and of the fence which divides the close numbered 26 upon the said maps from the close numbered 40 upon the same maps, to a point in the middle of the northern extremity of the fence which separates part of the said close numbered 26 as aforesaid and also the closes numbered 25 and 24 upon the said maps, from the road leading from Old Caynton to Edgmond, and extending thence in the same direction along the middle of the last-mentioned fence and across the said road leading from Old Caynton to Edgmond to a point in the middle of the northern extremity of the fence which divides the closes numbered respectively 57 and 56 upon the aforesaid maps from the closes numbered 55 and 49 upon the same maps, and extending thence first south-eastward and then eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned fence as far as a point opposite to the middle of the northern extremity of the fence which divides the close numbered 19 as aforesaid from the close numbered 59 upon the said maps, and extending thence southward to and along the middle of the last-named fence to the middle of the fence which divides the close numbered 59 as aforesaid, and also the close numbered 64 upon the said maps from the close numbered 48 upon the same maps, and extending thence first south-eastward and then south-westward along the middle of the last-mentioned fence to the boundary dividing the said township of Caynton from the township of Tibberton aforesaid."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, situate at Tibberton, in the parish of Edgmond, in the county of Salop, to be called "The District Chapelry of All Saints, Tibberton," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.
