AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of February, 1861,

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section sixty-six; of an Act passed in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, section twenty; and of another Act passed in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy-seven, sections one, two, three, six, and fourteen; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme bearing date the twenty-second day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England;' and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for regulating the Cathedral Churches of Wales,' have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for regulating the incomes of the dean and canons residentiary of the cathedral church of Bangor, and for permanently annexing a canonry residentiary to each of the arch-deaconries of Bangor and Merioneth, in the diocese of Bangor.

"Whereas it was by the last recited Act enacted, inter alia, that all the provisions of the two firstly recited Acts should (subject to the further enactments therein contained) extend and apply to the cathedral church of Bangor, and to the dignities, offices, canonries, and prebends of the same church, and the respective holders thereof.

"And whereas it was by the said last recited Act further declared and enacted that in the chapter of the said cathedral church of Bangor there should be four canonries residentiary and no more, and that the average annual incomes of the dean and canons residentiary of the said cathedral church should be of the same amounts respectively as are fixed as the average annual incomes of the deans and canons respectively of the cathedral churches of Saint David's and Llandaff, by the hereinbefore first recited Act; namely: to the dean an average annual income of seven hundred pounds, and to each of the canons an average annual income of three hundred and fifty pounds.

"And whereas it was by the said last recited Act further enacted that the provisions of the two firstly recited Acts, respecting the augmentation of the incomes of deans and canons should be construed to authorise the augmentation of the incomes of the dean and canons residentiary of the said cathedral church of Bangor, out of the common fund in the said first recited Act mentioned, and that so soon as conveniently might be after the passing of the said Act, arrangements should be made by the authority in the firstly mentioned Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and a duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying the same), for permanently annexing two of such four canonries residentiary in the said cathedral church to two archdeaconries in the diocese of Bangor.

"And whereas, by two several Orders of your Majesty in Council, bearing date respectively the thirty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and the nineteenth day of June, in the same year, and duly published in the London Gazette on the sixth day of February, and the fifth and sixteenth days of July in the same year respectively, it was provided that the archdeaconries aforesaid should be temporarily endowed by augmentation out of the common fund in the hereinbefore firstly named Act mentioned, until arrangements should be proposed by us, and ratified by your Majesty in Council under the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, for permanently annexing canonries residentiary in the said cathedral church of Bangor to the said archdeaconries.

"And whereas, two of the four canonries residentiary in the said cathedral church are now held by the present archdeacons of the said archdeaconries of Bangor and Merioneth respectively.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that, until the said dean and chapter shall have been put into the possession of real estates sufficient to yield the average annual incomes contemplated by the said recited Act, there shall be paid by us on the first day of May, and the first day of November in every year to every dean of the said cathedral church of Bangor hereafter to be appointed, an annual sum of seven hundred pounds; and to each and every canon residentiary of the said cathedral church appointed subsequently to the passing of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, an annual sum of three hundred and fifty pounds.

"And we further recommend and propose with the consent of the Venerable John Jones, Archdeacon of Bangor, testified by his having signed and sealed his scheme, that, immediately upon and from the day upon which any order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be duly published in the London Gazette, the canonry residentiary in the cathedral church of Bangor now held by the said John Jones, shall become and be permanently annexed and united to the said archdeaconry of Bangor, and be held by the archdeacon for the time being of the said archdeaconry; and also with the consent of the Venerable Henry Weir White, Archdeacon of Merioneth, testified by his having also signed and sealed this scheme, that upon and from the day last mentioned, the canonry residentiary in the same church, now held by the said Henry Weir White, shall in like manner become and be permanently annexed and united to the said archdeaconry of Merioneth, and be held by the archdeacon for the time being of the said last mentioned archdeaconry, and that every future archdeacon of the Archdeaconry of Bangor or Merioneth, as the case may be, shall, as such archdeacon, be entitled to installation to the canonry so proposed to be annexed to his archdeaconry, and shall be invested with and so long as he shall remain archdeacon of such archdeaconry and no longer, shall hold and enjoy all the rights, privileges, and emoluments of a canon of the same church.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts or either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Bangor.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of February, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Luton, in the county of Bedford, and diocese of Ely.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Luton hereinafter mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship) should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in manner hereinafter set forth:

"And whereas by a deed, bearing date the thirtieth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and expressed to be made between the Reverend Thomas Williamson Peile, Doctor of Divinity, Vicar of the vicarage and parish church of Luton aforesaid, of the first part, John Forster Baird, of the Inner Temple, in the city of London, Esquire, the patron of the same vicarage, of the second part, the Right Reverend Thomas, Lord Bishop of Ely, within whose diocese the said vicarage and parish church are situate, of the third part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, for England, of the fourth part, which deed is intended to be enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery, certain tithe commutation rents charge or portions of tithe commutation rents charge, amounting in gross to the sum of two hundred and three pounds and one shilling per annum, issuing, arising, and payable out or in respect of certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments, situate in the hamlet of Stopsley, within the said parish of Luton, and being portions of the tithe commutation rents charge belonging to the said vicarage of Luton, have been granted and secured to the minister of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted so soon as one shall be appointed and licensed, and to his successors, ministers thereof, and so soon as such district shall have become, under the provisions of the herein named Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, then to the perpetual curate of the said new parish.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us by the said Thomas Williamson Peile, and it appears to us to be expedient, that, in consideration of such grant of tithe commutation rents charge as aforesaid, the whole right of patronage of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister of the same, and so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid, then of the said new parish and of the perpetual curate thereof, should be assigned to Thomas Sowerby, of Putteridge Bury, in the county of Hertford, Esquire, his heirs and assigns, in manner hereinafter mentioned:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Thomas Bishop of Ely, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Luton which is described in the schedule hereunto annexed, (all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed,) shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Stopsley.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and so soon as the same shall become a new parish as aforesaid, then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereto, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Thomas Sowerby, his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The district of Stopsley, being:—

"All that part of the hamlet of Stopsley, in the parish of Luton, in the county of Bedford and diocese of Ely, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the north of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said hamlet of Stopsley from the township of Luton, within the same parish at a point in the middle of the road leading from Luton past Turner's Knoll to Rameridge End, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of another road leading from Rameridge End aforesaid to Cockernhoe and Mangrove, and extending thence in a direction generally south-eastward to and along the middle of the last-mentioned road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of an occupation road leading therefrom past Hostler's Wood to Putteridge Bury, and extending thence first northward and then north-eastward to and along the middle of the said occupation road as far as the boundary dividing the said parish of Luton from the parish of Offley, in the county of Hertford, and diocese of Rochester."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the Incumbent and to the Patron of the said parish of Luton (out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted, shall be taken), and such incumbent and patron have respectively consented to the said scheme.

ROYAL WARRANT GRANTING DELHI PRIZE MONEY.

VICTORIA R.

VICTORIA, by the grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, to all to whom these presents shall come; greeting.

WHEREAS it has been represented unto Us, by the Commissioners of Our Treasury, that on the twelfth of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, an insurrection broke out in the city of Delhi, in the East Indies; that the Indian Garrison and the inhabitants joined the mutinous Indian Troops which arrived there from Meerut, and made an insurrection and rebellion, and levied War against Us and Our authority, and forcibly took possession of the said city of Delhi, and its dependencies; that a force for the coercion of the said insurgents and mutineers, and for the capture of the said city and its dependencies was immediately organised by the then Commander-in-Chief of Our forces in India, composed of Our troops and of European and Indian troops of the East India Company, which operated against and besieged the said city and its dependencies; that, on the fourteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, the said troops, then under the command of Brigadier-General Wilson (now Major-General Sir Archdale Wilson, Baronet, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath), took by assault and storm the said city and the dependencies thereof and especially the fort of Jhujjur (then held by the Chief of Jhujjur) which were subsequently occupied by the said troops; that booty, consisting, amongst other things, of crown and other jewels, coin, shawls, arms, elephants, horses, ordnance, and other property, was then captured in the said city and its dependencies, and in the said fort of Jhujjur, which has been since duly sold; and the sale proceeds of which have been realized by the Prize Agents employed for collecting, selling, and realizing the said booty, or have been otherwise realised, or are about to be realised, amounting, or computed to amount to, the sum of thirty-five lacs forty-seven thousand nine hundred and seventeen rupees, six annas, and eight pie, or thereabouts: And whereas the sum of eighty-six thousand and seven hundred and four rupees, a portion of the said sum of thirty-five lacs forty-seven thousand and nine hundred and seventeen rupees, six annas, and eight pie, has been claimed by an inhabitant of Delhi, in respect of property taken from him by the Prize Agents, which sum it is expedient at present to withhold from distribution, leaving the sum of thirty-four lacs sixty-one thousand and two hundred and thirteen rupees, six annas, and eight pie, now to be distributed: And whereas it has also been represented unto Us by the said Commissioners of Our Treasury, that four General Officers, videlicet: Major-General Sir Henry Barnard, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath (since deceased), Major-General Reed, Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, now Lieutenant-General Reed, the said Major-General Sir Archdale Wilson, Baronet, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, and Major-General Penny (since deceased), held, for various periods, chief command of the forces so operating against and besieging and taking the said city of Delhi and its dependencies, and the said fort of Jhujjur: And whereas the said Commissioners of Our Treasury have recommended unto us to grant the said booty and the proceeds thereof for the use of the Commanders, officers and men belonging to the forces engaged in the said operations against the said city, and its dependencies, and the said fort, in consideration of their gallant and meritorious services; which operations began with the action at Ghazeeood-deen-nuggur, on the thirtieth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and ended with the capturing or taking possession of the said fort of Jhujjur, and to give such directions as to the appropriation and distribution thereof, as to Us should seem fit, to which We are graciously pleased to condescend. Now We do hereby give and grant to Our Secretary of State for India, in Council for the time being, all the aforesaid booty, hereinbefore mentioned to have been captured at or in the said city of Delhi, and its dependencies, and in the said fort of Jhujjur, and the proceeds thereof, as aforesaid, in trust for the use of the said Commanders, officers, and men, belonging to the forces engaged in the said operations, such booty and proceeds to be distributed by Our Secretary of State for India in Council for the time being, or by any other
