

Council Office, Whitehall, February 4, 1861.

WHEREAS the CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY COMMISSIONERS, appointed for the purposes of the Act of the 19th and 20th Vict., cap. 88, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the said Act, have framed the two following Statutes, dated the 31st day of July, 1860, respecting the Fellowship founded by the Reverend Drue Drury, and respecting the two Fellowships founded by the Reverend Dr. Millington, respectively, at MAGDALENE COLLEGE, in the said University of Cambridge; and whereas the said Statutes have been laid before the Governing Body of the said College, and before the Visitor thereof, and no objection has been made thereto, and have been this day laid before Her Majesty in Council, the same are published in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act; AND NOTICE is hereby given, that it is lawful for the bodies or persons mentioned in the 39th section of that Act, within one month after this publication, to petition Her Majesty in Council against the approbation of the said Statutes, or any part thereof.

Arthur Helps.

WE, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the good government and extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," do hereby, in execution of the powers vested in us by the said Act, make the following Statutes with respect to the Fellowship founded by the Reverend Drue Drury, at Magdalene College, in the University of Cambridge.

In any future election to the Fellowship founded by the Reverend Drue Drury, such election shall be made by the Governing Body of Magdalene College; and it shall not be necessary for them in any such election to have regard to any special restriction or limitation upon their choice contained in the will of the Founder; but the election shall be made in all respects in the same manner as that to the Foundation Fellowships of the College.

Any Fellow hereafter elected upon the Foundation of the Reverend Drue Drury, shall be subject to the same rules and conditions as to residence and tenure of his Fellowship as the Fellows on the Foundation of the College, and shall not be subject to any other restrictions or limitations than the other Fellows of the College.

The emoluments derived by the College from the Benefaction of the Reverend Drue Drury shall (subject and without prejudice to any existing interest in the same) be carried to the general funds of the College to be applied in the manner directed by the Statutes of the College.

Given under our common seal this thirty-first day of July, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

WE, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the good government and extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," do hereby, in execution of the powers vested in us by the said Act, make the following Statute concerning the two Fellowships at the College of Saint Mary Magdalene, in the University of Cambridge, founded by the Reverend Dr. Millington.

The right of preference in the election to the two Fellowships founded by the Reverend Dr. Millington, at Magdalene College, in the University of Cambridge, heretofore enjoyed by persons educated at the Grammar School of Shrewsbury, is hereby abolished.

The two Fellowships on the Foundation of the Reverend Dr. Millington shall (after the expiration of existing rights) be consolidated into one Fellowship, the election to which shall be made in the same manner as that to the Foundation Fellowships of the College, and such Fellowship shall thenceforth be considered as an Open Fellowship on the Foundation of the College.

Given under our Common Seal this thirty-first day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

Council Office, Whitehall, February 4, 1861.

WHEREAS the CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY COMMISSIONERS, appointed for the purposes of the Act of the 19th and 20th Vict., cap. 88, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the said Act, have framed the two following Statutes, dated the first and fourth of August, 1860, respectively, concerning the Scholarship founded by Mr. John Stock, at Corpus Christi College, in the University of Cambridge, and for the future government and regulation of that College; and whereas the said Statutes have been laid before the Governing Body of the said College, and before the Visitor thereof, and no objection has been made thereto, and have been this day laid before Her Majesty in Council, the same are published in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act: AND NOTICE is hereby given, that it is lawful for the bodies or persons mentioned in the 39th section of that Act, within one month after this publication, to petition Her Majesty in Council against the approbation of the said Statutes, or of any part thereof.

Arthur Helps.

WE, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the good government and extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," do hereby, in execution of the powers vested in us by the said Act, make the following Statute respecting the Scholarship founded by Mr. John Stock, at Corpus Christi College, in the University of Cambridge:

From the date of the confirmation of this Statute by Her Majesty in Council, there shall be no further election to the Scholarship at Corpus Christi College founded by Mr. John Stock, in 1780, for a Scholar from St. Paul's School.

In lieu thereof, there shall be established at the said College, an Exhibition of the value of Thirty pounds a-year, for a Scholar educated at St. Paul's School, and recommended by the Head Master.
