TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1861.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 2, 1861.

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold Levees, at St. James's Palace, upon the following days, at two o'clock, viz.:

Wednesday the 20th instant.
Wednesday the 13th of March next.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED WITH REGARD TO THE QUEEN'S LEVEES AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command, that no presentations shall be made at the Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

ADDRESSES.

The same regulations apply to the presentation of Addresses or Petitions.

A card containing a statement of the object of the addresses or Petitions, with the names of the persons who are to present them, must be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, two clear days before the Levee. Two other cards, containing similar information, are to be taken to the Levee, one to be delivered to The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to the Lord Chamberlain, who shall read its contents to The Queen.

On these occasions no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

The members of a Deputation, who have not previously attended Court, must be presented to The Queen.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 7, 1861.

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Drawing Room at St. James's Palace, upon Thursday the 21st of March next, at two o'clock.

THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS.

DRAWING ROOMS, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE,

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Rooms, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to the Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that a letter from the Lady who is to make the presentation, stating it to be her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to the Queen, for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no Presentations shall be made at the Drawing Rooms, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House, February 12, 1861.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the tonnage bounty awarded for the dhow, Name Unknown, captured on the 30th July, 1858, by Her Majesty's ship Lyra.

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any captor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House."

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

THE DEFENCE ACT, 1860.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has, in pursuance of the Defence Act, 1860, made a declaration, bearing date the 15th day of February, 1861, stating therein and showing, with the aid of a map or plan thereto annexed, that certain lands situate in the parish of Saint James, in the Isle of Grain, in the county of Kent, are required to be taken for the construction of works under the powers and provisions of the said Act.

And notice is also given that copies of such declaration, and of the map or plan thereto annexed, have been deposited with, and may be seen on application to, any or either of the under-mentioned parties :

1. The clerk of the peace for the said county of Kent.

2. The parish clerk of the said parish of Saint James, in the Isle of Grain.

Dated this 18th day of February, 1861.

By order of the said Principal Secretary,

Chas. M. Clode, Solicitor to the War Department.

Bicester Union—Township of Bicester Market End.

To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the township of Bicester Market End, in the county of Oxford;

To the Clerk or Clerks to the Justices of the Petty Sessions held for the division or divisions in which the said township is situate ;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the population of the township of Bicester Market End, in the county of Oxford, according to the last census, exceeds two thousand persons :

And whereas, at a meeting of the Vestry, held in the parish church in Bicester Market End, after public notice in that behalf, on Thursday the second day of August last, it was resolved :—

“That the Poor Law Board be requested to “issue an Order under their seal of Office, “directing that the Act passed on the 5th “August, 1850 (13 and 14 Vict., c. 57), “entitled ‘An Act to prevent the holding of “vestry or other meetings in churches, and “for regulating the appointment of vestry “clerks,’ shall be applied to and put in “force within this township.”

And whereas the Overseers of the Poor of the said township have made their application in writing to the Poor Law Board, pursuant to the above resolution ;

Now, therefore, we, the Poor Law Board, under the authority of the several Statutes in that behalf made and provided, hereby order and direct as follows :

ARTICLE 1.—That the said Act, passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled “An Act to prevent the holding of Vestry or other Meetings in Churches, and for regulating the Appointment of Vestry Clerks,” shall forthwith be applied to, and be put in force within, the said township.

ARTICLE 2.—That a copy of this order shall be published in the London Gazette.

Given under our hand and seal of office, this fifth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

C. P. Villiers, President.

C. Gilpin, Secretary.

Persons wishing to view the lots must apply to the Superintendent for notes of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here and at the Yard.

CONTRACTS FOR SUGAR AND TEA.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services,
Somerset-House, February 6, 1861.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 21st instant, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:

Sugar, 198 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tea, 50,000 lbs.; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The sugar and tea to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where they are respectively lying.

No. 22481.

Samples of the tea (not less than two pounds from the Bonded Warehouse), must be produced by the parties tendering.

Each tender for sugar must specify the mark and landing number of each cask or package, the ship in which imported, and the country or place of its growth or produce, and an average sample (not less than 2 lbs. for each import mark) must be produced by the parties tendering, and not an average of different marks or several imports, and any parcel that is found not to be of the same mark or average quality as the samples tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

CONTRACT FOR CANDLES.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services,
Somerset-Place, February 9, 1861.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 7th March next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Vic-tualling Stores at Deptford, Gosport, and Plymouth, all such quantities of

STEARINE CANDLES

as shall from time to time be demanded under a contract for twelve months certain, and further, until the expiration of three months' warning.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, and at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Sample of the candles must be produced by the parties tendering.

Particular attention is called to the recent modification of the conditions of the contract, which may be seen at the said office, at the Vic-tualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth, as well as at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words, "Tender for Stearine Candles," and must also be delivered at Somerset-house, accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £1,500 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR COALS FOR BATHURST, RIVER GAMBIA.

Department of the Storekeeper-
General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, February 15, 1861.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 26th instant, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Store at Bathurst, River Gambia, a cargo of from 300 to 400 tons of SOUTH WALES COALS, fit for the service of Her Majesty's Steam Vessels.

A form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Coals," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £200 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS FOR OATS, SOAP AND TOBACCO.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services,
Somerset-House, February 15, 1861.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 28th instant, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:

Oats, 500 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Soap, 100 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tobacco, 50 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The tobacco to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Samples of the oats (not less than two quarts), and of the soap (not less than a bar), must be produced by the parties tendering.

Each tender for tobacco must specify the several trade marks and numbers, and the countries or places of its growth or produce, and a fresh drawn dock sample of each cask or package must be produced by the parties tendering, and any cask or package that is found not to be of the same mark, number, or quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to the officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the recent modification of the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half-past one o'clock, on the day of treaty; and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset House.

In Chancery.—Anson v. Towgood.

WHEREAS a deed of trust, dated the 19th July, 1803, was executed by Messrs. Strange, Dashwood, Agnew, and Peacocke, theretofore carrying on business as bankers in New Bond-street, Middlesex, under the style or firm of Strange, Dashwood, and Co., for the benefit of such of the joint creditors of the partnership firm as should execute the said deed. And whereas, by an order made in a cause pending in the High Court of Chancery, entitled Anson v. Towgood, dated the 24th of June, 1859, an enquiry was directed whether any, and which, of the joint creditors of the copartnership of Strange, Dashwood, Agnew, and Peacocke, mentioned in the Master's Report, made in the said cause, dated the 6th day of February, 1827, as not having executed or acceded to the said deed of trust, had been, or ought to be, excluded from any benefit of the trusts thereof: And whereas the several persons and firms named and set forth in the schedule hereto, are such of the persons and firms mentioned in the said Master's Report, as the joint creditors of the said copartnership who have not executed or acceded to the said deed of trust: Pursuant, therefore, to the said Order, dated the 24th day of June, 1859, the several joint creditors of the said copartnership, in the schedule hereto annexed named: And also any holders of promissory notes of the said copartnership, who have not executed or acceded to the said deed of trust, or the legal personal representatives of any such creditors or holders of notes who may now be dead, and all other persons claiming to be interested in, or entitled to, the debts in such schedule, set opposite to the names of such joint creditors or secured by such notes, are, on or before the 16th day of March, 1861, to come in before the Vice-Chancellor, Sir Richard Torin Knudley, (the Judge to whose Court the said cause is attached) at his chambers, No. 3, Stone-buildings, Lincoln's Inn, in the county of Middlesex, to show cause why they should not be peremptorily excluded from all benefit of the trusts of the said deed of trust, and to establish their claims to participate therein.—Thursday, the 21st day of March, 1861, at twelve of the clock at noon, at the said chambers. It is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the said claims.—Dated this 15th day of February, 1861..
