Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1861.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 2, 1861.

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Levee, at St. James's Palace, upon Wednesday the 13th of March next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED WITH REGARD TO THE QUEEN'S LEVEES AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command, that no presentations shall be made at the Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

ADDRESSES.

The same regulations apply to the presentation of Addresses or Petitions.

A card containing a statement of the object of the addresses or Petitions, with the names of the persons who are to present them, must be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, two clear days before the Levee. Two other cards, containing similar information, are to be taken to the Levee, one to be delivered to The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to the Lord Chamberlain, who shall read its contents to The Queen.

On these occasions no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

The members of a Deputation, who have not previously attended Court, must be presented to The Queen.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 7, 1861.

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Drawing Room at St. James's Palace, upon Thursday the 21st of March next, at two o'clock.

THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED WITH REGARD TO THE QUEEN'S
DRAWING ROOMS, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE,

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Rooms, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to the Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that a letter from the Lady who is to make the presentation, stating it to be her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to the Queen, for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no Presentations shall be made at the Drawing Rooms, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

Whitehall, February 20, 1861.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Zachariah Mellor, of Rochdale, in the county palatine of Lancaster, Gentleman, to be a Commissioner to administer oaths in the High Court of Chancery in England.

The Lord Chancellor has also appointed George Augustus Bragg, of Moretonhampstead, in the county of Devon, Gentleman, to be a Commissioner to administer oaths in the High Court of Chancery in England.

Exchequer Bills.Office of Her Majesty's Paymaster-General, Whitehall, February 22, 1861.

The Exchequer Bills, dated in the month of March, 1860 (per Act 22 Victoria, cap. 22, anno 1859), with the interest due thereon, will be paid off on the 11th March, 1861, when the interest will cease.

Such bills will be received at this Office daily, from half past ten till three o'clock, until the 4th day of March, 1861, inclusive.

Printed forms, containing instructions for the preparation of the lists and the arrangement of the bills, may be obtained on application at this Office.

The bearers must write or stamp their names on the face of each bill, and they must insert their names and addresses in each list; but where the names of holders are inserted in the bills, the indorsements of such holders must be obtained previously to their lists and bills being left for examination.

New bills, bearing interest at the rate of two pence by the day, upon every one hundred pounds, and dated the said 11th day of March, 1861, may be obtained in payment of the principal of the whole, or part, of the Exchequer Bills issued under the Act above mentioned, on the claimants specifying, in their lists, the amount of new bills required by them.

The new bills, together with the interest on the bills left on or before the said 4th day of March for exchange, will be issued on the 12th day of March, 1861; the bearers must attend at this Office to sign receipts for the payment of principal and interest.

Payment, in money, may be obtained at this Office for any of the said Exchequer Bills, previously to the said 11th day of March, 1861, upon the claimants leaving the bills for examination one day prior to that on which such payment is desired.

N.B.—All Exchequer Bills dated prior to March, 1860, have been previously advertised to be paid off.

THE DEFENCE ACT, 1860.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has, in pursuance of the Defence Act, 1860, made a declaration, bearing date the 19th day of February, 1861, stating therein and showing, with the aid of a map or plan thereto annexed, that certain lands situate in the parish of East Tilbury, in the county of Essex, are required to be taken absolutely for the construction of works under the powers and provisions of the said Act.

And notice is also given that copies of such declaration, and of the map or plan thereto annexed, have been deposited with, and may be seen on application to, any or either of the under-mentioned parties, namely:

1. The clerk of the peace for the said county of Essex.
2. The parish clerk of the said parish of East Tilbury.

Dated this 22nd day of February, 1861.

By order of the said Principal Secretary,
Chas. M. Clode, Solicitor to the War Department.

Bridgwater Union.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Ebenezer Primitive Methodist Chapel, situated at Catcott Burtle, in the parish of Moorlinch, in the county of Somerset, in the district of Bridgwater, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 21st day of February, 1861, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 22nd day of February, 1861.

Robert Underdown, Superintendent Registrar.

In Parliament.—Session 1861.

Swansea and Neath Railway.

(Application to Parliament for Alteration in proposed Branch Railway from the proposed Swansea and Neath Railway to the South Wales Mineral Railway, near Briton Ferry.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is about to be made to Parliament for leave to insert in the Swansea and Neath Railway Bill, now before Parliament, the necessary provisions for enabling the Company to be incorporated by the said Bill to abandon the application for powers to construct the branch railway described in the said Bill as commencing from and out of the proposed main line of the Swansea and Neath Railway, near the Red Jacket Copper Works, and terminating in the parish of Briton Ferry, by a junction with the South Wales Mineral Railway, at or near the lane leading to the Court Sart Farm-house out of the turnpike-road from Neath to Briton Ferry, and instead thereof to make and maintain a branch railway, with all necessary works, sidings, and conveniences connected therewith, to be wholly situate in the county of Glamorgan, and commencing by a junction with the said proposed main line of railway, in the hamlet of Coedfrank, in the parish of Cadoxton-juxta-Neath, or in the hamlet of Llansamlet Higher, in the parish of Llansamlet, at or near to a point shown on the plans deposited for the said proposed main line of railway, at four miles two furlongs from the commencement thereof, and nearly opposite to a public-house called Burrow's Lodge, passing thence through or into the following parishes and places, or one of them, that is to say: Llansamlet Higher, Llansamlet, Coedfrank, Cadoxton-juxta-Neath and Briton Ferry, and terminating in the said parish of Briton Ferry by a junction with the South Wales Mineral Railway, about ten chains north of the bridge which carries the said South Wales Mineral Railway over the South Wales Railway; and also terminating by a fork or branch commencing at a point on the proposed substituted railway, about seventeen chains eastward from the east bank of the River Neath, where the proposed substituted railway will cross that River, and terminating in a field belonging to the Dowager Countess of Jersey, at or near the new road leading from the Briton Ferry and Neath Turnpike-road, towards the Gas Works at Briton Ferry, where such new road crosses the South Wales Railway, all which said fork or branch is in the said parish of Briton Ferry.

To extend to the deviation all the powers for the compulsory purchase of lands, houses, and other property, and for the levying of tolls, rates, and charges, and the varying and extinguishment of rights and privileges as now form part of the said Swansea and Neath Railway Bill, and are thereby extended to such of the works thereby authorized as are not sought to be altered.

Duplicate plans and sections of the deviation, shewing the line and levels thereof with a book of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the property shewn on the plans, a published map with the line of railway shewn thereon, and a copy of this notice will be deposited for public inspection at the office of the Clerk of the Peace, for the county of Glamorgan, at Cardiff, on or before the 28th day of this instant February, and on or before the same day a copy of so much of the plans, sections, and books of reference, as relates to each parish, in or through which the deviation will or may pass, will, with a copy of the said notice be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish at his residence, and in the case of any extra-parochial place with the parish clerk of some adjoining parish at his place of abode.

Dated this 23rd day of February, 1861.

Baxter, Rose, and Co., 6, Victoria-street, Westminster.

John R. Tripp, Swansea, Solicitor for the Bill.

CONTRACT FOR ROUND TOWELS FOR THE ROYAL MARINES.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, February 23, 1861.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 14th March next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, all such quantities of

for the use of the Royal Marines, as may be from time to time demanded, under a contract for twelve months certain, and further until the expiration of three months' warning.

A pattern towel may be seen at the Royal Marine Office, New-street, Spring-gardens, between the hours of eleven and two o'clock.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application as the said Office.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after half-past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Round Towels," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £100 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR CANDLES.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, February 9, 1861.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 7th March next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Gosport, and Plymouth, all such quantities of as shall from time to time be demanded under a contract for twelve months certain, and further, until the expiration of three months' warning.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, and at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Sample of the candles must be produced by the parties tendering.

Particular attention is called to the recent modification of the conditions of the contract, which may be seen at the said office, at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth, as well as at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words, "Tender for Stearine Candles," and must also be delivered at Somerset-house, accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £1,500 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS FOR OATS, SOAP AND TOBACCO.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-House, February 15, 1861.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 28th instant, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:

Oats, 500 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Soap, 100 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tobacco, 50 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The tobacco to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Samples of the oats (not less than two quarts), and of the soap (not less than a bar), must be produced by the parties tendering.

Each tender for tobacco must specify the several trade marks and numbers, and the countries or places of its growth or produce, and a fresh drawn dock sample of each cask or package must be produced by the parties tendering, and any cask or package that is found not to be of the same mark, number or quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to the officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the recent modification of the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half-past one o'clock, on the day of treaty; and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at Somerset House.

CONTRACT FOR COALS FOR BATHURST, RIVER GAMBIA.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, February 15, 1861.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 26th instant, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Store at Bathurst, River Gambia, a cargo of from 300 to 400 tons of SOUTH WALES COALS, fit for the service of Her Majesty's Steam Vessels.

A form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Coals," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £200 for the due performance of the contract.
