FRIDAY, APRIL 12, 1861.

Whitehall, April 12, 1861.

THE following Addresses of Condolence to the Queen, on the occasion of the death of Her late Royal Highness the Duchess of Kent, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Cornewall Lewis, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation, have been presented accordingly to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive them very graciously.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Leeds, in the county of York, in special Council assembled, humbly approach your Majesty to tender our deep and heartfelt sympathy on the great bereavement your Majesty has sustained by the death of Her Royal Highness The Duchess of Kent.

In approaching your Majesty with this our most sincere expression of condolence, we humbly add our belief that to Her late Royal Highness we are more especially indebted for that judicious care and training of your Majesty's early years, which have resulted in the development of those great principles and virtues which, under Divine Providence, have tended to make your Majesty's reign a blessing not only to your own people, but to the whole civilized world.

In conclusion, we beg to assure your Majesty that the Corporation of this borough is animated by the most devoted feelings of loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Throne and person, and will ever feel the deepest interest in any event that may affect the domestic happiness of your Majesty and the Royal Family.

Given under our common seal the 26th day of March, 1861.

OLD STORES;

Consisting of Old Rope, Shakings, Spun yarn, Sacking, Canvas, &c., Oakum, Old Cast Iron and Coal Sacks, &c., &c., &c., all lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots must apply to the Superintendent for notes of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here and at the Yard.

CONTRACTS FOR OILS AND SOFT SOAP.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, March 23, 1861.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 16th April next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock Yards with

LINSEED OIL, GALLIPOLI OIL, SPERMACE'TTI OIL, NEATSFOOT OIL, AND SOFT SOAP.

Distributions of the articles, a sample of the soap, and forms of the tenders, may be seen at the said office.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £25 per cent. on the value for the due performance of each of the contracts for Linseed Oil and Gallipoli Oil, and by one responsible person in the sum of £25 per cent. on the value for each of the other contracts.

CONTRACT FOR BARRACK STORES FOR THE ROYAL MARINES.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, April 6, 1861.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 25th instant, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, all such quantities of

for the use of the Royal Marines, as may from time to time be demanded under a contract for twelve months certain, and further until the expiration of three months' warning.

Patterns of the articles may be seen at the Royal Marine Office, New-street, Spring-gardens, between the hours of eleven and two o'clock.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application to the above Department.

Particular attention is called to the recent modification of the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen in the said Department.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Barrack Stores," and must also be delivered at Somerset-house, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £200 for the due performance of the contract.
