TUESDAY, APRIL 23, 1861.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 18, 1861.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince Consort will, by the desire of The Queen, hold Levees at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on the following days at two o'clock, viz.:—

Saturday the 4th of May next.
Wednesday the 15th of May next.

It is The Queen's pleasure, that presentations to His Royal Highness at these Levees shall be considered as equivalent to presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED WITH REGARD TO THE LEVEES
AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend the Levees, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon; one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness The Prince Consort.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before each Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command, that no presentations shall be made at the Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

Whitehall, April 23, 1861.

THE following Address of Condolence to the Queen, on the occasion of the death of Her late Royal Highness the Duchess of Kent, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation, has been presented accordingly to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive it very graciously.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty:

Most Gracious Sovereign;

WE, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Oxford, beg to approach your Majesty with feelings of profound veneration and respect.

We desire to offer to your Majesty our sincere condolence on the heavy affliction sustained by your Majesty in the decease of Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Kent, your Majesty's Royal Mother.

When we call to mind the many virtues which shone forth in the public and private life of that Illustrious Princess, we can appreciate the poignancy of the sorrow which your Majesty must feel at this grievous bereavement; whilst we are not insensible also of considerations which may in some measure enable your Majesty to bow with resignation to the Divine Will.

Pre-eminent amongst these consolations is the reflection that Her Royal Highness was permitted to witness in your Majesty's wise and beneficent rule the bright fulfilment of her most dearly-cherished hopes—the reward of many anxious years of unintermitted maternal care.

We reflect, also, that length of years has afforded Her Royal Highness the gratification of beholding in the dawning character of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and the other members of the Royal Family, those noble qualities which form the surest guarantee of their future happiness.

It will continue to be our earnest prayer that the blessing of God may rest upon all your Majesty's undertakings, and that it may be the will of a Merciful Providence to preserve for many years a life not only most precious in our eyes, but of unspeakable value to the countless inhabitants of your Majesty's mighty empire.

Given at our House of Convocation, under our Common Seal, this 15th day of April, in the year of our Lord God, 1861.

Whitehall, April 23, 1861.

THE following Address of Condolence to the Queen, on the occasion of the death of Her late Royal Highness the Duchess of Kent, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Cornewall Lewis, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation, has been presented accordingly to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive it very graciously.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, humbly beg leave to approach the Throne with the expression of our sincere condolence upon the melancholy occasion of the death of Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Kent.

It would scarcely become us, in addressing your Majesty, to dwell upon the virtues of that August Lady; but we may be permitted to express how deeply, in common with all England, we revere the memory of her who taught your Majesty to know, and to love your faithful people.

If under so heavy an affliction, human sympathy can convey any consolation, we can sincerely assure your Majesty, that in no body of your Majesty's subjects is there a sympathy more deep and genuine than in the University of Cambridge.

It is consoling to reflect that the Royal Lady whose loss we deplore, did not fail of her just reward. For more than twenty years she beheld her highest hopes fulfilled: she saw your Majesty blest as a wife and mother beyond the common lot of humanity: as a Queen beyond the common lot of Royalty, and she has left your Majesty secure in the affections of an united and a loyal people.

We heartily pray that the Divine blessing may continue to rest upon your Majesty, and that the pain of your Majesty's late bereavement may be soothed by witnessing the growing virtues and increasing happiness of each one of your Royal children, more particularly of the illustrious Prince whom the favour of your Majesty has confided to our care, and in whom we rejoice to think that your Royal House will be strengthened and adorned.

May God bless and preserve your Majesty and your Royal Consort, and may He be pleased to grant you many happy years to reign over a contented and religious people.

Whitehall, April 23, 1861.

Sir George Cornewall Lewis, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation, have been presented accordingly to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive them very graciously.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Liverpool, approach your Majesty with the expression of our heartfelt sympathy in the affliction your Majesty has sustained by the death of your Royal Mother.

It will be consolatory to your Majesty to reflect that Her late Royal Highness had secured the grateful affection and esteem of all your subjects; and this we venture to say arose, not only from her own excellent qualities, but from the recollection that it was from her that you received those principles which have produced in your Majesty so brilliant an example of public and private virtue.

Feeling the deepest interest in all that concerns the happiness of your Majesty and all the Royal Family, we add to our condolences on the present occasion our fervent prayer, that your Majesty may long be spared to reign over a happy and united people, and in the enjoyment of every possible domestic felicity.

14. Articles of great size or weight, the placing of which will require considerable labour, must be sent before Saturday the 1st of March 1862; and manufacturers wishing to exhibit machinery, or other objects, that will require foundations or special constructions, must make a declaration to that effect on their demands for space.

101. Her Majesty's Commissioners will consider that to be the Central Authority in each case which is stated to be so by the Government of its country, and will only communicate with Exhibitors through such Central Body.

102. No articles of foreign manufacture, to whomsoever they be belong, or wheresoever they may be, can be admitted for exhibition, except with the sanction of the Central Authority of the country of which they are the produce. Her Majesty's Commissioners will communicate to such Central Authority the amount of space which can be allowed to the productions of the country for which it acts, and will also state the further conditions and limitations which may from time to time be decided on with respect to the admission of articles. All articles forwarded by such Central authority will be admitted, provided they do not require a greater aggregate amount of space than that assigned to the country from which they come; and, provided also, that they do not violate the general conditions and limitations. SECTION IV.—MODERN FINE ARTS.

Class 37. Architecture.

„ 38. Paintings in Oil and Water Colours and Drawings.

„ 39. Sculpture, Models, Die-sinking and Intaglios.

„ 40. Engravings and Etchings.

111. The object of the Exhibition being to illustrate the progress and present condition of Modern Art, each country will decide the period of Art which in its own case will best attain that end.

112. The Exhibition of British Art in this Section will include the works of artists alive on or subsequent to the 1st of May 1762.

113. It is not proposed to award Prizes in this Section.

114. PRICES will not be allowed to be affixed to any Work of Art exhibited in this Section.

115. One half of the space to be allotted to Section IV. will be given to Foreign Countries, and one half will be reserved for the works of British and Colonial Artists.

116. The subdivision of the space allotted to Foreign Countries will be made, after consideration of the demands received from the Commission, or other Central Authority, of each Foreign Country. It is, therefore, important that these demands should be transmitted to Her Majesty's Commissioners at the earliest possible date.

117. The arrangement of the works of Art within the space allotted to each Foreign Country will be entirely under the control of the accredited representatives of that country, subject only to the necessary general regulations.

118. For the purposes of the Catalogue, it will be necessary that the Central Authority of each Foreign Country should furnish Her Majesty's Commissioners, on or before the 1st of January, 1862, with a description of the several Works of Art which will be sent for exhibition, specifying in each case the name of the artist, the title of the work, and (when possible) the date of its production.

119. The space at the disposal of Her Majesty's Commissioners for the display of British Art being limited, and it being at the same time desirable to bring together as careful and perfect an illustration as possible, a selection of the works to be exhibited will be indispensable.

120. The selection of Exhibitors, the space and number of works to be allowed to each, and the arrangement of them will be entrusted to Committees to be nominated by Her Majesty's Commissioners.

121. In the case of living artists, Her Majesty's Commissioners would desire to consult the wishes of the artists themselves as to the particular works by which they would prefer to be represented. The selection of works so made by the artists will not necessarily be binding upon Her Majesty's Commissioners, but, in no case will any work by a living artist be exhibited against his wish, if expressed in writing, and delivered to the Commissioners on or before the 31st of March, 1862.

The Royal Scottish Academy,
The Royal Hibernian Academy,
The Society of Painters in Water Colours,
The Society of British Artists,
The New Society of Painters in Water Colours,
The Institute of British Artists,
The Institute of British Architects.

123. Intending Exhibitors in the British Division of Section IV., who are not members of any of the preceding Institutions, may at once receive Forms of Demand for Space, by applying to the Secretary to Her Majesty's Commissioners. These Forms must be filled up and returned before the 1st of June, 1861.
