[The following Order in Council is substituted for that which appeared in the Gazette of the 16th ultimo.]

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 16th day of April, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "an Act for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is, among other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining) into districts; and to order that the County Court should be holden for the recovery of debts and demands, under the said Act, in each of such districts; and, from time to time, to alter such districts, as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit; and from time to time, with the advice aforesaid, to declare by what name, and in what towns and places the County Court should be holden in each district:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council, of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, and the same was put in force accordingly:

And whereas by certain other Acts, made and passed in the thirteenth, in the fourteenth, in the sixteenth, in the twentieth; and in the twenty-second years of the reign of Her Majesty, the provisions of the said recited Act have been amended and extended:

And whereas it hath been represented, that it would be of advantage to the public, if certain alterations were made in some of the districts of the Courts specified and set forth in the aforesaid Order:

Her Majesty, having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the second day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one:

The parish of Salehurst, now in the district of the County Court of Kent, holden at Tunbridge Wells, shall be in the district of the County Court of Sussex, holden at Hastings.

The parishes of Loddon, Chedgrave, and Heckingham, now in the district of the County Court of Norfolk, holden at Norwich, shall be in the district of the County Court of Suffolk, holden at Beccles and Bungay.

The parishes of Carlton, Kelsale, Knodishall, Aldringham, and Leiston, now in the district of the County Court of Suffolk, holden at Halesworth, shall be in the district of the County Court of Suffolk, holden at Framlingham and Saxmundham.

The parishes of Marton and Kirkleatham, and the townships of Redcar, Marske, Ormesby, Eston, and Normanby, now in the district of the County Court of Yorkshire, holden at Stokesley, shall be in the district of the County Court of Durham, holden at Stockton-on-Tees and Middlesborough.

The township of Bredbury, now in the district of the County Court of Cheshire, holden at Hyde, shall be in the district of the County Court of Cheshire, holden at Stockport.

The township of Romiley or Chadkirk, now in the district of the County Court of Cheshire, holden at Stockport, and the townships of Mellor and Ludworth, now in the district of the County Court of Derbyshire, holden at Glossop, shall be in the district of the County Court of Cheshire, holden at Hyde.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of April, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the Justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled; representing that the number of polling places for such county riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the Justices of the Peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the division of counties and the limits of cities and boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the Justices of the Peace for the county palatine of Lancaster, in general quarter sessions assembled at Kirkdale, on the twenty-
