

the Duke of Lorraine to receive his Orders before he goes to the Army in Croatia, which is in the mean time upon their march towards Darda, under the Command of Count Scherfenberg. The Grand Visier we hear is still at Belgrade, and the Ottoman Troops encamped at Peter Waradin; And therefore General Hausler continues at Segedin, with the Detachment from the Body of the Imperial Troops, encamped near Zolnock under the Orders of General Caraffa, to prevent any designs the Enemy may have either of attempting upon that place, or of sending relief into Agria, which is in great want of it. The Letters from Segedin of the 21th past give an Account, that several of our Wagons laden with Bread and Corn, had been set upon not far from that place, by a Party of 100 Turks and Tartars, which were vigorously defended by 30 Ruffians, and brought safe thither. And that the Heydukes of Chonod meeting with a Party of 1000 Turks sent from the Garrison of Lippa to intercept some of our Convoys, they had routed them, killing 200 upon the place, and pursuing the rest even to the Town of Lippa, which they entered, and set fire to it, and had like to have taken Teckelej himself (40 Heydukes having broke into the house where he was) but that two Turks by a private way conveyed him into the Castle; They took one of his Domestick Servants, who is brought Prisoner to Segedin, with 100 Turks besides. The Answer to the Solicitations made by the Princeps Ragotzi that she may have Passports to send hither her Deputies, is, That in case she delivers up Mongatz without delay, The may hope to find Favour from his Imperial Majesty, withou which, no Propositions she can make will be accepted of.

The Elector of Bavaria will part from hence in few days for Hungary. We have Advice by Letters of the 8th Instant from the Imperial Army, of their march that day towards the River Sarwitz; And that part of the Artillery was sent down the Danube towards Darda. They write from Zolnock, that Colonel Sempell who commands a Regiment of Hussars, marching with a Party of 300 Horse towards Agria, had drawn part of that Garrison into an Ambuscade, by sending 50 of his Men to drive away some Cattle from under their Walls, and that the Turks pursuing them in their Retreat, fell among the rest of the Hussars, who were in a readiness to receive them, and killed 174 of the Turks, and brought away with them 37 Prisoners besides Cattle. And that a Letter had been intercepted written by the Bassa of Agria to the Grand Visier, giving him an Account, that that place was in so ill a Condition through the want of Provisions, that he should not be able to defend it long in case of a Siege; And the same is confirmed by the report of the Prisoners lately taken.
