

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JUNE 21, 1861.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 7, 1861.

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Drawing Room at St. James's Palace, on Thursday, 27th June next, at two o'clock :

THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED WITH REGARD TO THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE,

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Rooms, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that a letter from the Lady who is to make the presentation, stating it to be her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen, for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no Presentations shall be made at the Drawing Rooms, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 7, 1861.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Wednesday the 10th of July next.

Whitehall, June 21, 1861.

THE following Address of Condolence to the Queen, on the occasion of the death of Her late Royal Highness the Duchess of Kent, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation, has been presented accordingly to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive it very graciously.

Town of Tunbridge Wells, 5th June, 1861.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Commissioners of the town of Tunbridge Wells, for ourselves, and as representing our fellow-townsmen, beg leave to approach the Throne with the expression of our deep regret for the sorrow which has befallen your Majesty in the death of Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Kent.

While the distinguished virtues of Her Royal Highness claim the high admiration of all your Majesty's subjects, the former residence of Her Royal Highness in this town, and her kind and generous support of its numerous charities, particularly endear Her memory to its inhabitants, and deeply impressed with these recollections, we desire to join with all your Majesty's subjects, in offering to your Majesty and the Royal Family the expression of our heartfelt sympathy in your late affliction.

[Here follow the Signatures.]

Whitehall, June 4, 1861.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto William Lloyd-Flood, of Farmley, in the county of Kilkenny, and of Woollas Hall, in the parish of Elkington, in the county of Worcester, Esquire, in the Commission of the Peace, and a Deputy-Lieutenant for the said county of Kilkenny, Her Royal licence and authority that he may discontinue to use his paternal surname of Lloyd, and take and use that of Hanford, in addition to and immediately before that of Flood, and that he may be called and known by the names of William Hanford-Flood, and that the surnames of Hanford-Flood only may, in like manner, be taken, borne, and used by his issue :

And to command that the said Royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.

Board of Trade, Whitehall, June 20, 1861.

*Copyhold Inclosure and Tithe Commission,
No. 3, St. James's-Square, London,
June 20, 1861.*

THE Copyhold Inclosure and Tithe Commissioners having, on the 15th day of April, 1861, appointed George Archibald Leach, Lieutenant-Colonel, Unattached (late of the Royal Engineers), to be an Assistant Commissioner under "The Acts for the commutation of Tithes in England and Wales," and "The Acts for the Inclosure, Exchange, and Improvement of Land," the said George Archibald Leach did, on the 19th day of June, 1861, make a declaration before Sir William Whiteman Knight, one of the Judges of Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench, for the due execution of his duties under the said Acts.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the 54th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, cap. 159, intitled "An Act for the better regulation of the several ports, harbours, roadsteads, sounds, channels, bays, and navigable rivers, in the United Kingdom, and of His Majesty's docks, dock-yards, arsenals, wharfs, moorings, and stores therein, and for repealing several Acts passed for that purpose;" it is enacted (among other things) that no person or persons shall take any ballast or shingle from the shores or banks, or any portion of the shores or banks, of any port, harbour, or haven of this Kingdom, from which the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom for the time being shall find it necessary for the protection of such port, harbour, or haven, or the works thereof, by order, under their hands, or the hand of their Secretary, and published in the London Gazette, shall prohibit the taking or removing of such shingle or ballast, upon pain of forfeiting for every such offence the sum of ten pounds.

And whereas we, as Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, have found it necessary, for the protection of the harbour and port of South Yarmouth, in the Isle of Wight, in the county of Southampton, to prohibit the taking or removing of any ballast or shingle from the shores or banks, or any portion of the shores or banks, between the east side of the entrance of the said harbour and the Yarmouth turnpike or toll-gate, half a mile eastward therefrom. And we do hereby order that no person or persons shall take or remove any ballast or shingle from such shores or banks, or any portion of the shores or banks, aforesaid.

Given under our hands this 17th day of June, 1861.

*Charles Frederick,
Saml. Whithead,*

Two of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom.

THE DEFENCE ACT, 1860.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has, in pursuance of the Defence Act, 1860, made a declaration, bearing date the 14th day of June, 1861, stating therein and showing with the aid of a map or plan thereto annexed, that certain lands situate in the parishes of Queenborough and Minster, in the county of Kent, are required to be taken absolutely for the construction of works under the powers and provisions of the said Act, and that certain other lands, situate in the said parishes of Queenborough and Minster are required to be kept free from buildings and other obstructions for the purposes of the said Act.

And notice is also given that copies of such declaration, and of the map or plan thereto annexed, have been deposited with and may be seen on application to any or either of the under-mentioned parties, namely:

1. The clerks of the peace for the said county of Kent.
2. The parish clerks of Queenborough and Minster aforesaid.

Dated this 20th day of June, 1861.

By order of the said Principal Secretary,
Chas. M. Clode, Solicitor to the War Department.

VAN SANDAU and CUMMING, No. 13, King-street, Chapside, Solicitors for the Executors.

In Chancery.—Master of the Rolls.

In the Matter of an Act of Parliament passed in the session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty the Queen, intitled "An Act to facilitate leases and sales of settled-estates." And in the Matter of a close of land containing 4 acres 2 roods 12 poles, situate in the township of Little Chilton; in the parish of Church Merrington, in the county of Durham, and which has been conveyed to the uses, and is subject to the trusts limited and declared in and by the will of the Right Honourable John, first Earl of Eldon, deceased, of and concerning freehold estates of the said Earl, in the county of Dorset, thereby devised and settled.

NOTICE is hereby given that a Petition in the above-mentioned Matter has been presented to the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, by the Right Honourable John, present and third Earl of Eldon, of No. 1, Hamilton-place, Piccadilly, in the county of Middlesex by Oliver William Farrer, of Hamilton-place, aforesaid, Esquire, the guardian of the said John, Earl of Eldon, appointed for the purposes of the said Petition, under the provisions of the above-mentioned Act, for an order, that a certain agreement in the said Petition mentioned, and dated the 15th day of August, 1859, may be approved and confirmed by the said Court of Chancery. That the sale and conveyance of the said close of land in the said Petition, particularly mentioned and comprised in the said agreement, to Ralph Ward Jackson (in the said Petition named), may be authorized and directed by the said Court of Chancery. That Alfred Bell and Oliver William Farrer (in the said Petition also respectively named), or the trustees or trustee for the time being, acting under the will of the said John, first Earl of Eldon, may be directed to execute the deed of conveyance of the said close of land to the said Ralph Ward Jackson, such conveyance to be settled by the Judge to whose court the said matter is attached. That the purchase money of the said close of land may be paid to the said Alfred Bell and Oliver William Farrer, or such trustees or trustee as aforesaid. That the costs as between solicitor and client of all parties of and incidental to the application for the said order may be taxed. That the said costs when taxed, may be paid by the said Alfred Bell and Oliver William Farrer, or such trustees or trustee as aforesaid, out of the purchase money in the said agreement and petition respectively mentioned. That the residue of the said purchase money may be holden by the said Alfred Bell and Oliver William Farrer, or such trustees or trustee as aforesaid, upon the same trusts as are declared in and by the said will of the said John, first Earl of Eldon, of and concerning the monies to arise from the sale thereby authorized of any part of the said estates thereby devised, in strict settlement, as in the said petition mentioned.

And notice is hereby also given that the said Petitioner may be served with any order of the said Court, or notice relating to the subject of the said petition at the office of Messieurs Bell, Steward, and Lloyd, Solicitors, situate at No. 49, Lincoln's Inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 17th day of June, 1861.

In Chancery.

In the Cause of Triston v. Mellor and others, and in the Matter of the Act of Parliament passed in the 19th and 20th Vict., chap. 120, intitled "An Act to facilitate leases and sales of settled estates." And in the Matter of a certain leasehold estate settled under the will of Margaret Booth, deceased, situate at Ecclesfield, in the parish of Ecclesfield, in the county of York, consisting of a certain dwelling-house held by the said testatrix under a lease thereof granted by the late Duke of Norfolk.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition in the above-mentioned cause and matters was, on the 6th day of June, 1861, presented to the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain by the defendants Margaret Booth Mellor, by her next friend, the defendant, Charles Matthias Mellor, and of the defendants Cecilia Binns and Sarah Kay Binns, and of the said defendant Lucy Binns, now Lucy Blakey, the wife of Walter William Blakey, by the said Walter William Blakey, her next friend, praying that it may be referred to the Judge at Chambers to enquire whether it will be for the benefit of all parties interested in the said leasehold estate, to sell the same, and if so, whether the same should be sold by public auction or private contract, and if by private contract then whether the offer of your petitioner, the said Margaret Booth Mellor, to purchase the same for the sum of £200 should be accepted; and if so that proper provision may be made for the payment of the costs of the said purchase money of £200; and that the trustee may execute a proper assignment of the said leasehold estate to your said petitioner Margaret Booth Mellor, or to such person as she may appoint or direct; and that such further and other order may be made as the nature of the case may require. And notice is hereby also given that the said petition will come on in due course, to be heard before His Honour, the Vice-Chancellor Sir John Stuart; and that the place where the petitioners may be served with any petition or notice relating to the subject of the said petition is the office of their Solicitor, Mr. Thomas Binns, situate at No. 1, Trinity-square, Southwark, in the county of Surrey.—Dated this 17th day of June, 1861.
