PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

And whereas, Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county Palatine of Lancaster, in annual general session of the peace assembled, have presented a petition to Her Majesty in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, duly certified to Her Majesty under the hands and seals of three of the Justices present when such petition was agreed to, setting forth that it appeared to the petitioners to be expedient that the county Palatine of Lancaster should be forthwith divided into six districts for the purposes of the said Act; that is to say,— subject to any rights or privileges which the Coroner for the Manor or Liberty of Hale, and the Coroner for the Manor or Liberty of Prescott, may have within the townships comprised in such Manors or Liberties respectively, and subject also to any rights or privileges which the Coroners for the boroughs of Liverpool and Wigan may have within the said boroughs respectively; that the said county of Lancaster had been customarily divided into the several districts hereinbefore described for the purpose of holding inquests during the space of more than seven years before the passing of the said Act; and in the opinion of the petitioners it was expedient that the same division of the said county should be made under the said Act, and that each of such districts should be assigned to the Coroner then usually acting in and for the same. And in such Petition, the reasons upon which the same was founded, were and are fully stated; and it was and is also stated therein that the notices to the Coroners, required by the said Act, had been duly given; and the Petitioners in and by the said Petition humbly prayed that Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, would please to order that the county Palatine of Lancaster shall be divided into the several districts hereinbefore described for the purposes of the said Act; and also to give a name to each of such districts; and also to determine at what place within each district the Court for the election of Coroner for such district shall be holden. And whereas no such other Petition, as in the said Act mentioned, has been presented to Her Majesty.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty having taken the said Petition into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the county Palatine of Lancaster be divided into six districts for the purposes of the above-recited Act, and in the manner in the said Petition proposed.

And Her Majesty is also pleased to order, by and with the advice aforesaid, that the Coroner's district, comprising the townships and places above-named in Lonsdale Hundred, shall be named "The District of Lancaster;" and that the Court for the election of a Coroner for such district shall be holden at Lancaster, and that the poll shall be taken in respect of any such election at Lancaster aforesaid, and at such other places as may be appointed pursuant to the said Act.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to order, by and with the like advice, that the districts comprising the townships and places above named, in Amounderness Hundred and Leyland Hundred, shall be named "The District of Preston," and that the Court for the election of a Coroner for such district shall be holden at Preston, and that the poll shall be taken in respect of any such election at Preston aforesaid, and at such other places as may be appointed pursuant to the said Act.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to order, by and with the like advice, that the district comprising the townships and places above-mentioned, in Blackburn Hundred, shall be named, "The District of Blackburn;" and that the Court for the election of a Coroner for such district shall be holden at Blackburn, and that the poll shall be taken, in respect of any such election, at Blackburn aforesaid, and at such other places as may be appointed pursuant to the said Act.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to order, by and with the like advice, that the district comprising the township and places in Salford Hundred first above named, the townships and places in West Derby Hundred first above named, shall be named "The District of Salford;" and that the Court for the election of a Coroner for such district shall be holden at Salford, and that the poll shall be taken in respect of any such election at Salford aforesaid, and at such other places as may be appointed pursuant to the said Act.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to order, by and with the like advice, that the district comprising the township and places in Salford Hundred lastly above named, shall be named "The District of Rochdale;" and that the Court for the election of a Coroner for such district shall be holden at Rochdale aforesaid, and at such other places as may be appointed pursuant to the said Act.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to order, by and with the like advice, that the district comprising the towns and places in West Derby Hundred lastly above named shall be named "The District of West Derby;" and that the Court for the election of a Coroner for such district shall be holden at Ormskirk, and that the poll shall be taken in respect of any such election at Ormskirk aforesaid, and at such other places as may be appointed pursuant to the said Act.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 26th day of June, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 332nd Section of "the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted, that every pilotage authority shall have power by bye-law made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, to exempt the Masters of any ships or of any classes of ships from being compelled to employ qualified pilots, and to annex any terms or conditions to such exemptions, and to revise and extend any exemptions now existing by virtue of that Act or any other Act of Parliament, Law or Charter, or by usage, upon such terms and conditions, and in such manner as may appear desirable to such authority. And whereas by the 333rd Section of the same Act it is enacted that subject to the provisions contained in the fifth part of the said Act, it shall be lawful for every pilotage authority by Bye-law made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council from time to time to do within its district all or any of the things specified in that behalf in the said section. And whereas the Mersey Docks and Harbour Board being the pilotage authority for the Port of Liverpool, and in the Seas and Channels leading into and adjacent thereto, according to the meaning of the said recited Act, have submitted for the consent of Her Majesty in Council the several Bye-laws relating to the pilotage of their said district, of which a copy is contained in the first and second Schedules hereunto annexed. And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that all the said Bye-laws are proper and reasonable. Now, therefore, Her Majesty by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve, and doth hereby approve and signify, Her consent to the said Bye-laws, as Bye-laws of the said Mersey Docks and Harbour Board with respect to the pilotage of their said district.

Arthur Helps.

SCHEDULE I.

BYE-LAWS MADE BY THE MERSEY DOCKS AND HARBOUR BOARD WITH RESPECT TO PILOTS, PILOT BOATS, AND PILOTAGE.

123. The Office of the Pilotage Committee shall be open during the office hours of the Mersey Docks and Harbour Board, and the Secretary shall constantly attend for the purpose of receiving reports and transacting such other business as may be required of him; he shall also summon all meetings of the Committee, as well as all persons whose attendance may be required by the Committee.

124. The duties of the Superintendent shall be as follows:—To exercise a supervision and control, under the Board, over all the Master Pilots, Pilots, and Apprentices, so as to see that the Act and these bye-laws are duly observed by all in their respective departments;—to exact from the Master Pilots and Pilots a report of all occurrences affecting the Service, on which the Pilotage Committee or himself may require information; and it shall be his especial duty to see that the stations are effectively occupied day by day, and he shall have posted in the office, every day, the numbers of the boats on the several stations, and shall report to the Committee every case of misconduct, or breach of the Bye-laws that may occur. The time of the Superintendent shall be wholly devoted to the service of the Board, and his office hours shall be those of the Board.

125. Every Pilot-boat shall have three Masters, to be called the first, second and third Master, and the Masters or owners of each boat shall be jointly entitled to take ten apprentices, but they are not to have a greater number than ten in respect of one boat at any time. The Pilots shall be appointed to their respective boats by the Board, so, and in such manner, that each boat may carry an equal number, or as nearly so as is practicable; and no pilot shall be removed from a boat to which he shall have been appointed by the Board, without three months' notice in writing on the part of the Masters or the Pilot, and a copy of such notice shall be left with the Clerk of the Committee, who shall record the date when it is received.

126. The first and second Masters of each pilot-boat (and the third Master also in case of necessity), are to take command and proceed to sea in her by turns, and the Master remaining on shore shall appoint pilots to outward-bound vessels, and transact the other necessary business of the boat. Every Master shall maintain due subordination, sobriety, and good order, amongst the crew of his boat, both at sea and in port, and shall, whilst in turn for boarding vessels, always use his utmost exertions to approach and board vessels requiring pilots; and every pilot, or other person, serving on board, or belonging to the boats, shall at all times cheerfully submit to and execute all the lawful commands of the Master. The Masters shall on no occasion leave the boats when at sea, except in cases of emergency. They shall keep exact journals of the proceedings of every cruise, which shall contain, in particular, accounts of all vessels boarded or piloted inwards, and the time and place of boarding them; and shall enter in their journals, every two hours, the position of their boats. Whenever the Committee may require it, a copy of the journal of any cruise signed by the Master in command for that cruise, shall be sent into the office in time to be submitted to the Committee at their next following meeting. The Masters shall instruct their apprentices in the use of charts, and in all other matters, a knowledge of which is by the Bye-law numbered 129, required of apprentices on their applying to be licensed.

127. All pilots shall repair to their respective boats, and proceed in them to their stations, whenever and as often as they are required by the Masters, and no pilot, while on service, shall under any pretence whatever, leave his boat save on duty. Every pilot when not actually employed, shall attend daily, at such time and place as may be fixed upon and appointed for that purpose by the Master of the boat to which he belongs, to receive such orders and directions as may then and there be given by the said Master; and in case the Owners Masters and crew of any boat, shall suffer any loss by reason of the non-attendance or neglect of any pilot, such loss shall be borne by the pilot so neglecting or refusing to attend. Every pilot shall, whenever he is required, assist, as far as he is able, in performing all necessary repairs to the boat, her rigging, sails and materials; and in case of refusal or neglect, the Master may employ another person in his stead, the expense whereof shall be deducted from his share of the earnings of the said boat. He shall use his utmost care and diligence to conduct the ships and vessels under his charge without damage or doing injury to others; and shall behave himself with strict sobriety, and due respect towards the owners, masters, and officers thereof. He shall order the ensign to be hoisted on entering the port; and on his arrival from sea, either in charge of a vessel or otherwise, he shall as soon as possible give notice thereof to the Master of the boat to which he belongs; and shall not leave his vessel until she is safely anchored in the river; nor then leave her without a written permission from the Commander, or on being relieved by a pilot of equal class by order of one of the Masters of the boat. He shall duly keep the lead going when in charge of any ship or vessel while under weigh; and shall report to the Committee all accidents, which may have happened to such vessel while under his direction, within twenty-four hours after his discharge; and no pilot shall lay any vessel aground without a written order from the owner or master. He shall always have with him, when on duty, a good watch, a tide-table, a copy of Part 6 of the Mersey Dock Acts Consolidation Act, 1858, and of so many of these Bye-laws as relate to Pilots, Pilot-boats, and Pilotage, his license, and a pilot flag, as described in the Bye-law numbered 145. On taking charge of a vessel, he shall exhibit his license to the officer in command. In the case of outward-bound vessels, he shall repair on board in sufficient time before leaving the dock or basin, to ascertain if the vessel he is about to take charge of, is ready for sea, or to anchor in the river. When received on board a pilot-boat from an outward-bound ship or otherwise, he shall submit to the authority and direction of the Master while he remains on board such boat, in all respects as if he were one of her own crew. He shall obey and execute all orders received from the Board or the Committee, their Secretary, or the Superintendent.

128. Candidates for apprenticeship, will be required to prove, to the satisfaction of the Board, that they are able to read and write correctly, and that they have a competent knowledge of arithmetic, before they can be considered eligible for the Pilot service. They may then be admitted into one of the following classes:—

1. Candidates of not less than sixteen years of age, having served three years at sea, partly in square-rigged vessels, shall (if approved by the Board), after one month's probation, be apprenticed for seven years, and be eligible for examination for a third-class license, at the expiration of three years' apprenticeship.
2. Candidates of not less than fifteen years of age, having served eighteen months at sea, partly in square-rigged vessels, shall (if approved by the Board), after twelve months' probation, be apprenticed for seven years, and be eligible for examination for a third-class license, at the expiration of three years' apprenticeship.
3. All other candidates not less than fifteen years of age shall, after twelve months' probation (if approved by the Board), be apprenticed for seven years, and be eligible for examination for a third-class license, at the expiration of four years' apprenticeship.

The proposed indentures and satisfactory testimonials, including a surgeon's certificate that the candidate is of sound health, shall in every case be submitted to the Board; and after the indentures have been approved by the Board, and signed by the masters, and apprentice, they shall not be cancelled by any private agreement, without the permission of the Board; but the Board shall have the power of cancelling any such indenture either at the request of the parties, or upon any misconduct on the part of the apprentice deserving in the judgment of the Board of such punishment, and all indentures shall, by express stipulation therein contained, be made subject to the exercise of this power by the Board. The name of every candidate to be entered in the Pilots' Character Book, on his first entering the service.

129. No person having served in a Liverpool pilot-boat, according to the provisions of the preceding Bye-law, shall be licensed to act as a pilot, until he shall also have passed a creditable examination on the following subjects:—

He must be able to give a correct and seaman-like description of the harbours, docks, and piers of Liverpool, Birkenhead, Garston, Chester, Beaumaris, Holyhead, Isle of Man, Pile of Foudre, and Fleetwood; he must know the course and distance between any two places within the limits prescribed by the Board; the rise and set of the tides; the depth and character of the soundings; the best anchorages and where to stop a tide; the sand-banks, rocks, shoals, and other dangers; the landmarks, buoys, perches, and lights; the variation and deviation of the compass, and the application thereof; he must be able to set off a ship's position on the chart; he must understand the complete management of a vessel; to bring her to anchor, and to keep her clear of her anchor in a tideway; to moor, unmoor, and get under weigh; and how to handle a vessel under any circumstances.

He must further produce certificates of service as assistant pilot and leadsmen in vessels under the charge of a first-class pilot, inward and outward, for every cruise of his boat for twelve months; such certificates to be obtained after the second year of apprenticeship. He must also produce a certificate from his masters as to his conduct and sobriety; and no pilot shall receive a full licence without the production of a satisfactory certificate from his masters, unless there shall appear to the Board good reason for deviating from this regulation.

Second and third-class licences will not be granted between the 25th of September and 25th of March.

130. Second and third-class pilots are limited (except in cases of necessity) to conduct vessels of, but not exceeding, the undermentioned registered tonnage and draught of water, viz. :—

Pilots 2nd class ...	500 tons ...	16 feet
„ 3rd class ...	250 „ ...	12 „

Any vessel exceeding the given tonnage and draught which may from necessity take on board a pilot of a class not authorised to conduct her, shall, if possible, exchange him for a duly authorised pilot, out of any boat she may meet, and such boat shall make the exchange, in order that he may be forwarded to the boat on the first western station, to be put on board the first vessel requiring a pilot of the class to which he belongs, and every pilot shall inform the Master of any vessel he may be put in charge of, of his true position in the service.

131. Every pilot-boat must be of the burthen of forty tons or upwards, and must be painted in uniform colours, viz. :—black bulwarks; yellow sheer streak and gunwale; paint streak, green; black bends; white to copper or water line. She must be kept in good repair, and well found with masts, rigging, sails, anchors, cables, and every other necessary material, and shall always have on board an approved chart of the Bay of Liverpool, on which the boundary lines of the several stations hereafter mentioned shall be distinctly marked by the Superintendent; also charts of the latest survey of the River Dee, Beaumaris, Holyhead, Isle of Man, Pile of Foudre, and Fleetwood, for the use of the pilots and apprentices; a good telescope, two lanterns, and a swivel, or other small gun, for the purpose of making and answering signals. She must have her number painted on each bow, in white—in figures as large as the depth of the black paint will admit of; and the same number must be painted upon her main and foresails in black figures four feet long. The number on the sails must be painted on the third and fourth cloths from the after lee, and on the mainsail at an equal distance between the upper reef and the gaff. Her name and number, together with the name of the first Master, and the port to which she belongs, shall also be painted in large letters and figures upon her stern, one inch broad, and three inches long; and good and sufficient accommodations must be provided for the Master and crew, at the expense of the owners.

132. The boats shall be stationed as follows, viz. :—The First and Second Boats shall cruise off Point Lynas, or to the northward and eastward of it, as wind and weather may permit, or circumstances may require; but not further to the westward than the Middle Mouse, or eastward than Priestholm Island, bearing S.S.W. by compass.

The duty of the first boat shall be to offer the services of, and to furnish, pilots to all vessels inward-bound; and for that purpose the Master shall use his best endeavours to speak all such inward-bound vessels as may come within the limits of his station, without respect to their being from a foreign voyage, or otherwise. And if it become necessary for this boat to chase any vessel to the northward, or out of the fair-way track, the second boat shall remain on such station, and board all vessels wanting pilots, which vessels shall be exchanged at the end of the cruise.

The duty of the Second Boat shall be to be near the first, and to see that the Master of the first boat does his duty; and also to board and give pilots to any vessel homeward-bound, that may not have been boarded by the first boat; and, in case the Master of the first boat shall refuse, neglect, or omit to put a pilot on board any such vessel requiring one, the Master of the second boat shall furnish such vessel with a pilot, and shall note the circumstance, with all the particulars of time, place, and weather, in his journal; and immediately on his return to Liverpool shall report the same to the Committee. And as soon as the first boat has left her station, the second boat shall succeed to it.

The Third Boat shall cruise to the eastward of Point Lynas, but not further eastward than the west end of the Great Ormshead, bearing S.S.W. by compass, and board any vessels that may pass the first and second boats, and when the second boat has left her station, this boat shall succeed her.

The Fourth Boat shall cruise as far west as the eastern limit of the third boat, and eastward until Barland bears S.S.W. by compass. The duty of this boat shall be to board and furnish pilots to all vessels requiring them within the limits of her station, whenever the second and third boats may be out of sight or refuse or neglect to board, or whenever such vessels shall have passed the limit of the third boat's station; and to see that the second and third boats perform their duty, in like-manner as the second boat is to look after the first. And when the third boat has left her station, this boat shall succeed her.

The station of the Fifth Boat shall be to the westward of the N.W. Light-Ship, so far as to keep sight of it from the deck; and shall come to the Light-Ship for the purpose of being relieved, when the boat which is to relieve her arrives at the Bell Buoy or N.W. Light-Ship, and when relieved, she shall take the station of the Fourth Boat.

The duty of the Sixth Boat shall be to board all vessels that are to the eastward of a line drawn from the Point of Ayr and the N.W. Light-Ship, and all vessels to the northward, when the first boat is not within a reasonable distance, and she shall every day after high water, stretch over towards the Bell Buoy, for the purpose of taking pilots out of vessels going to sea.

The Seventh Boat shall follow and take the pilots out of vessels outward-bound; for which purpose one of the Masters, all the apprentices, and as many pilots belonging to the said boat as shall be required by the Master, shall be on board; and as soon as all the pilots are taken on board from vessels outward-bound, she is to return with them to Liverpool. This duty shall be performed by the next boat that has the turn for the second Hoylake station.

133. The other Boats shall be kept in constant readiness, to perform any extra service that may occur; the last boat upon turn for regular service to have the preference; but none of them shall without the order of the Superintendent leave the port, under any pretence whatever, save to assist vessels in distress or other pressing emergency, or for the purpose of surveying the banks for the instruction of the crews and apprentices; and in case any boat shall be absent, save as aforesaid, when required to go upon the regular service of the port, she shall forfeit her turn.

134. All boats are to take their turn or rotation for service in the same order as they arrive from sea, and in case of more boats than one leaving Liverpool, by order of the Superintendent, to proceed to the stations at the same time, it shall be lawful for the first boat upon turn to commence boarding vessels, and furnishing them with pilots, as soon as she has got to the westward of the Hoylake Boat; but it is to be clearly understood that this privilege extends only to boats actually on their passage to the westward stations, and not after they have arrived there, and that in boarding vessels, when more than one boat is in sight, the first boat upon turn is, on all occasions, to take precedence.

135. The Masters and crew of any boat convicted of boarding and piloting any ship or vessel out of her regular turn, shall forfeit every advantage gained thereby, in respect of pilotage inwards and outwards, to the Masters and crew of the boat which may be declared by the Committee to be entitled thereto.

136. All Pilot-boats, whilst upon their stations and in turn for boarding vessels, shall, during daylight, and as a signal offering the services of a pilot, keep constantly flying at the mast-head a red and white flag of large dimensions, the upper horizontal half of which shall be white, and the lower half, red; such flag to be carefully kept clean. During the night, the boat on turn for boarding, shall exhibit lights in accordance with the Admiralty regulations for the Pilot Service.

137. Every Pilot-boat in the service shall, once in each year, commencing on the first day of April, in such rotations and at such times as may be fixed by the Committee, having due regard to the interest and convenience of the Service, sail to and make an accurate examination and survey of the following ports and places, namely: Lancaster, Pile of Foudre, River Wyre, and all ports in the Isle of Man, Holyhead Harbour, Beaumaris, and Chester. The Secretary of the Committee or the Superintendent shall give notice in writing, to the master of every boat ordered on this survey, at least twenty-four hours before the time appointed for sailing, and shall go on board when the boat is ready for sea and muster the crew; when one of the masters, half of the pilots, and all the apprentices, are hereby directed and required to be present, and to proceed upon and remain on board during the survey, unless reasonable cause of absence can be shewn to the satisfaction of the Committee; and the masters and pilots shall go upon the survey by turns, so that each individual shall go once in two years. The Master shall keep an exact and accurate journal of their proceedings, which shall contain all such remarks and information as he shall make or obtain relative to the lighthouses, landmarks, buoys, perches, and other sea-marks; as well as all rocks, sandbanks, and other dangers, and the depth of water within the limits of the survey. He shall obtain a certificate from some principal officer of the revenue at each of the ports above-mentioned, that he has visited the port. The journal and certificates shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Committee or the Superintendent, within twenty-four hours after his return to Liverpool. No more time shall be spent on the survey than is necessary for the purposes above-mentioned; nor must any ship or vessel be boarded by, or furnished with, a pilot from any boat whilst on the survey, except such ship or vessel shall be in distress, in which case the particulars of her situation* shall be accurately noted in the journal.

138. Each Master is required, after each arrival of his boat from sea, to enter in the Inward Bound Book, in the office, within one hour after such arrival if in the day-time, or if in the night, by nine o'clock on the morning following the arrival of his boat, from what station the time, and where lying, and shall sign his name to such entry. And the Master on shore shall enter in the Outward-Bound Book the sailing of his boat, the number of the boat and men, the time when, and the place from which she has sailed, and to what station she is bound.

139. In the event of the first boat on turn not proceeding to its destination at the proper time, the Master in charge shall thereupon become liable to the penalty hereinafter mentioned, and the second boat shall proceed to the station; and in case the Master of the second boat shall neglect so to do, he shall thereupon become liable to the like penalty.

140. The boat following boat, or the boat sailing for the second Hoylake station, shall (when required so to do by a written order from the Superintendent) take any hands belonging to the boat next on turn for the fourth western or first Hoylake station, and also to any other of the western boats; and the first Hoylake boat, or fourth western boat, shall receive any pilots so sent, and pass them on to the next western boat, and so on, until they have joined their own boat: but if she has boarded all her hands and left the station, then the boat bringing them down shall board them on the first vessels wanting pilots.

141. After boarding all hands at the Western station, the boat to be relieved shall hoist a ball at her masthead, and keep it there until answered by telegraph, and the same signal is to be made when abreast of the N.W. Lightship, until answered by a ball at Bidston, as a signal for the next boat on turn to proceed.

142. The boat on the first western station, when she shall have boarded all her pilots except two first class or four of the second and third class, shall (in order that she may return to Liverpool) transfer them to the second boat, which boat shall receive and board them on the first vessels requiring pilots of their class.

143. No Master of a pilot-boat shall, without the sanction of the Board, carry to sea, or receive on board the boat, or in any other way assist in putting on board any ship or vessel, for the purpose of piloting or conducting her, any person either not duly licensed, or whose license shall have been suspended or withdrawn by an order of the Board, or which shall not have been renewed.

144. The earnings of each pilot-boat, including all compensations and rewards for assisting vessels in distress, shall be divided amongst the owners and crew in the following proportions, viz:—

		Shares.
Owners	For the boat	2½
	For each licensed apprentice . .	¾
	For all unlicensed apprentices . .	1½
	Masters	1
	Pilots, 1st class	1
	Do. 2nd class	¾
	Do. 3rd class	½

But the Board have power to alter such apportionments from time to time, in such manner as they shall judge most conducive to the interests of the Service; and if any pilot shall be disabled from doing his duty by sickness or bodily hurt, he shall be entitled to two-thirds of a share of the said earnings for the space of three months, provided such sickness or hurt has not been occasioned by drunkenness, gaming, or other vice, the fact to be determined by the Board, upon such evidence as may be brought before them; and provided also, that due notice be given to the Superintendent and Masters of the boat at the commencement of his sickness, accompanied by a medical certificate, if required by the Board.

Each Pilot shall deliver all money received by him for pilotage, with an account and vouchers to the Master of the boat to which he belongs, on the day following that on which they are received; or in case of such vouchers and money being received at sea, then they shall be delivered to the said Master as soon as he, the said Pilot, returns to port, or joins his boat at sea; and all claims for extra days shall be inserted in the certificate for pilotage, and signed for by the master of the vessel.

145. Every Pilot shall provide himself with a flag three feet long by two feet broad, corresponding in colour and pattern with the distinguishing number of the boat to which he belongs. On taking charge as pilot of any vessel, he shall cause his flag to be hoisted on board such vessel, at the gaff-end, under the ensign, or wherever it may be most conspicuously seen (except on the foremast), particularly by a pilot-boat in chase; and he shall keep his flag continually flying until he is discharged or relieved by another pilot. This Bye-law shall apply to all vessels, outward or inward bound, at sea or in port, under weigh or at anchor, and under all circumstances, so long as she is in charge of a pilot.

On perceiving a pilot-boat in chase by night, the Pilot in charge of the vessel so chased shall cause a light to be hoisted, where it may be best seen by the pilot-boat; and he shall direct that this light be lowered and re-hoisted every five minutes, as a signal that the vessel is provided with a pilot.

146. Pilots in charge of vessels at anchor in the river or channel, shall cause white lights to be constantly exhibited at night, one on the fore-stay, and the other at the gaff-end, to be not less than eight feet above the upper top-rail of the bulwarks, so long as at anchor in pilot water.

147. All pilots shall obey the Bye-laws of the Board; and also all orders and directions that may be given to them by the Water Bailiff, Harbour, Dock, and Pierhead Masters, relative to the docking, towing, transporting, or removing vessels under their charge.

148. The following Rates of Pilotage shall be chargeable in respect of the neighbouring Ports hereinafter mentioned, namely:—

Port of CHESTER, any part North of HILBRE ISLAND: Liverpool rates.

Port of CHESTER, any part South of HILBRE ISLAND: Liverpool rates and half as much more.

LANCASTER, FLEETWOOD, or PILE OF FOUDRE: Liverpool rates and travelling expenses.

Outward-bound foreign putting into: Liverpool outward rates, half as much more, and travelling expenses.

Outward-bound coasting putting into: Liverpool outward coasting rates, half as much more, and travelling expenses.

All Pilotage rates are to be charged for every foot of water a vessel may draw, and so in proportion for every half foot, but no allowance to be made for any draught of water above or under half a foot, and no vessel, whatever may be her draught of water to pay for less than eight feet. No vessel to be deemed a coasting-vessel so as to be liable to a reduced rate for pilotage, unless she shall bond fide have been employed in the coasting-trade for six months, and if trading outwards shall sail from the port of Liverpool on a coasting voyage.

If the pilot be not discharged and the pilotage paid within two hours after the vessel is brought to anchor, or given into the charge of the pilots of the place she is bound to, he shall be paid ten shillings and sixpence a day for every day or part of a day he may be detained afterwards. Having conducted a vessel into any of the above ports, a pilot shall not join his boat again for the purpose of piloting any other vessel during the cruise on which the boat was engaged at the time he left her. No pilot shall make any agreement for, or receive any greater sum of money for pilotage, than is allowed by the Act of Parliament and these Bye-laws.

Steamers or other vessels proceeding on an experimental trip not farther than the Bell Beacon or North West Light-ship, shall be charged full outward and half inward pilotage.

The rates for docking and transporting shall be as follows, viz:—

To or from Garston	2	0	0

The amount of compensation and travelling expenses to be allowed to pilots carried beyond limits (which are not provided for in this Bye-law), or for extra ordinary services shall, in every case, be decided by the Board.

149. Any Pilot may, upon receiving written authority from the Superintendent, proceed to any port or place in the United Kingdom, for the purpose of taking charge of, and conducting any ship or vessel to the port of Liverpool. And no vessel having a pilot on board, under this regulation, shall be obliged to take another pilot, or shall be subject to any higher or other rate of pilotage than is established by these Bye-laws or Act of Parliament.

150. The Masters of steam vessels, trading from this port to Ireland or Scotland, requiring pilots, must apply to the Superintendent, who shall thereupon cause to be appointed pilots to such vessels out of the crew of the pilot-boat having the steam turn (namely, the last but one upon turn for service), which pilots so appointed shall be at liberty, if required, to proceed and remain in such vessels during the whole of the voyage upon which they shall then respectively sail, and shall pilot them outward and inwards for which the usual and regular rates shall be paid, together with ten shillings and sixpence per day for every day of the pilot's absence from Liverpool, including the day of sailing from, and the day of arriving in, Liverpool. Every pilot, on his return from such voyage, not finding his own boat in port, shall be carried out in the next boat sailing for the station, and put on board his said boat. But in case she shall have returned to Liverpool before he arrives on the station, he shall then be boarded on the first vessel requiring a pilot.

151. Any Master of a pilot-boat sending a pilot to take charge of vessels beyond his license limit, except in cases of necessity, shall be fined in the sum of Five Pounds, subject to be reduced by the Board if they should think fit.

152. For every extension of license the sum of One Guinea shall be paid; and on the renewal of any license in place of one lost, the fine of Three Guineas shall be levied, subject to be reduced by the Board if they think fit.

153. Pilots in charge of ships or vessels, on being hailed by any pilot-boat, shall, on all occasions, give a true account of the time when they were boarded, and the number of pilots left on board the boat to which they belong. And all Masters of pilot-boats, when on any of the westward stations, are also to give a true account of the number of pilots they have on board, whenever they are required so to do by the Master of any other pilot-boat.

154. No Owner, part Owner, or Master of any Pilot-boat, nor any Pilot, or licensed apprentice, shall, at any time while acting as such, have or hold any share or interest in any Steam Tug Company, or in any Steam Tug, or in any Steamboat occasionally used for the purpose of towing vessels.

155. All instances of neglect of duty shall be brought before the Board; and no Master Pilot shall compromise any offence of a Pilot.

156. All complaints of offences against the Act of Parliament, or the foregoing Bye-laws, or any of them, with respect to Pilots, Pilot-boats, and Pilotage, shall be made in writing, signed by the party aggrieved, and delivered to the Secretary of the Pilotage Committee or left at the office, as soon as practicable; and such Secretary shall summon the party complained of, the party aggrieved, and all such persons as the Committee may desire to examine, to attend the meeting of the Committee, which shall be first held next after the expiration of forty-eight hours from the time of the receipt by him of such complaint.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew, situate at Croydon, in the district chapelry of Saint Peter, South End, in the county of Surrey, and diocese of Canterbury.

"And we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said John Bird, Archbishop of Canterbury, and John George Hodgson (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Andrew, Croydon, shall belong to, and be exercised by, the Reverend John Honeywood Randolph, of Sanderstead, in the said county of Surrey, Clerk, his heirs and assigns for ever.

"We therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter twenty-six, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain sums of stock, now standing in the name of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery, to the credit of the Dean and Chapter of Westminster, and for appropriating the proceeds of the same towards improving certain property belonging to such Dean and Chapter.

"Whereas by the first above-mentioned Act it is enacted, that by the authority therein provided, and for the purpose of carrying into effect any of the provisions thereof, any sum of money which shall have been invested in the public funds, or in other security or securities in trust for any ecclesiastical body corporate, aggregate, or sole, may, upon an application in writing to us, under the hand and seal of such body corporate, and in the case of any chapter with the consent of the Visitor thereof, be directed to be sold, and the same shall be sold accordingly, and the produce of such sale shall be applied to such purpose and in such manner as shall appear most conducive to the permanent benefit of such body corporate:

"And whereas by the secondly above-mentioned Act it is declared and enacted, that the provisions of the said first above-mentioned Act relating to the sale and application of any sum of money invested in trust for any ecclesiastical body corporate, do and shall include and apply to all moneys and securities for money, and to all stock in the Government funds or elsewhere, standing in the name of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery, or in the name or names of any other public officer, or of any individual or individuals for, or to the credit, or for the benefit of, or in trust for any dean and chapter, whether for the purpose of being laid out in land or otherwise. And that the same provisions and also the provisions of the same Act, relating to the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands or other hereditaments belonging to any bishop or chapter, shall extend, and may be applied to any of the purposes of the said Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty, chapter twenty-six:

"And whereas one of the purposes of the lastly-mentioned Act, is the improvement of the precincts of the church belonging to any dean and chapter:

"And whereas an application in writing has been made to us, under the seal of the said Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter, Westminster, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of March last past, whereby after reciting to the effect hereinbefore recited, and further reciting that there was then standing in the name of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery to the credit of the said Dean and Chapter ex parte "the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings," a sum of fourteen thousand one hundred and twenty-four pounds, and seven pence, three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities. And that the said Dean and Chapter on the recommendation of their surveyor are desirous of pulling down certain dilapidated and inconvenient premises belonging to them, being No. 1, Dean's-yard, Westminster, now unoccupied, and to erect on the site thereof two dwelling-houses, the cost of which is estimated at four thousand five hundred pounds, and which houses when completed will in the opinion of their said surveyor, yield a return of not less than five pounds per centum per annum on such expenditure, apart from the enhancement of the value of the other property in Dean's-yard belonging to the said Dean and Chapter. And that the said Dean and Chapter are also desirous on the recommendation of their said surveyor, and on the application of the lessee of the premises, No. 6, Broad Sanctuary, Westminster, also belonging to the said Dean and Chapter, of making certain additions and alterations to the said premises at an estimated expenditure of five hundred pounds, the lessee undertaking to pay an increased rental for the said premises which would yield interest on such estimated outlay, at the rate of five pounds per centum per annum, the said Dean and Chapter did, in pursuance of the directions of the firstly therein and hereinbefore mentioned Act, make their application to us in writing under their common seal, for the sale of so much of the said sum of fourteen thousand one hundred and twenty-four pounds and seven pence, three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, as will be sufficient to produce the said sums of four thousand five hundred pounds, and five hundred pounds, for the purposes aforesaid:

"And whereas after due inquiry, we have satisfied ourselves, that the appropriation of sums of money not exceeding four thousand five hundred pounds, and five hundred pounds respectively, for the purposes aforesaid, would effect an improvement of the precincts of the said collegiate church, and be conducive to the permanent benefit of the said Dean and Chapter.

"Now therefore with the consent of Her Majesty as Visitor of the said collegiate church testified by Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department having signed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that so much of the said sum of fourteen thousand one hundred and twenty-four pounds and seven pence, three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, and also such further sum as may be sufficient to defray the costs, charges, and expenses of, and attending the procuring and effecting the sale of the said stock may and shall be sold out, and that the money produced by such sale shall be paid to our account at the Bank of England, and be paid and applied by us towards the purposes aforesaid, in such manner, to such persons, and at such times as we shall see fit.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 26th day of June, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-one, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty, chapter forty-one, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for setting out and constituting a district for spiritual purposes, and annexing such district to the consecrated church of Saint Peter at Levenshulme, situate within the original limits of the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, and diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district for spiritual purposes should be set out and constituted for and annexed to the consecrated church of Saint Peter at Levenshulme aforesaid:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of Manchester, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that all those several parts of the new parishes of Heaton Norris, Saint James Gorton, and Saint James Birch-in-Rusholme respectively, (which new parishes were heretofore part of the said parish of Manchester,) which are described in the schedule hereunder written, and which are also delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be severed and disannexed from the said new parishes of Heaton Norris, Saint James Gorton, and Saint James Birch-in-Rusholme respectively, and shall be set out and constituted for and annexed to the said church of Saint Peter at Levenshulme aforesaid, and shall become and be a district for spiritual purposes, and be named "The District of Saint Peter, Levenshulme."

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-named Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Peter, Levenshulme, being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Heaton Norris (heretofore part of the parish of Manchester), in the county of Lancaster and diocese of Manchester, wherein the present incumbent of such new parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is comprised within the limits of the township of Levenshulme.

"And also all those parts of the new parish of Saint James Gorton (heretofore part of the said parish of Manchester), in the same county and diocese, wherein the present incumbent of such new parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which are severally comprised within that portion of the township of Gorton which is situate to the south and west of an imaginary line extending along the middle of Pink Bank-lane, and within that part of a detached portion of the township of Newton which is situate to the south of an imaginary line extending along the middle of Gore Brook, and to the east of another imaginary line extending along the middle of the London and North Western Railway.

"And also all that part of the new parish of Saint James Birch-in-Rusholme (heretofore part of the said parish of Manchester), in the same county and diocese, wherein the present incumbent of such new parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is comprised within that portion of the township of Rusholme which is situate to the east of an imaginary line extending along the middle of Slade-lane.

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said firstly-mentioned Act been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the churches of the several new parishes out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such incumbents and patrons have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Manchester.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 26th day of June, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the sixteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter twenty-six, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain sums of stock now standing to the credit of the dean and chapter of Norwich, and for appropriating the proceeds of the same towards improving the precincts of the Cathedral Church of Norwich.

"Whereas by the first above-mentioned Act it is enacted that by the authority therein provided, and for the purpose of carrying into effect any of the provisions thereof, any sum of money which shall have been invested in the public funds, or in other security or securities in trust for any ecclesiastical body corporate, aggregate, or sole, may, upon an application in writing to us, under the hand and seal of such body corporate, and in the case of any chapter, with the consent of the visitor thereof, be directed to be sold and the same shall be sold accordingly, and the produce of such sales shall be applied to such purpose and in such manner as shall appear most conducive to the permanent benefit of such body corporate.

"And whereas, by the secondly above-mentioned Act it is declared and enacted that the provisions of the said first above-mentioned Act, relating to the sale and application of any sum of money invested in trust for any ecclesiastical body corporate, do and shall include and apply to all monies and securities for money, and to all stock in the Government funds or elsewhere standing in the name of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery, or in the name or names of any other public officer, or of any individual or individuals for or to the credit or for the benefit of or in trust for any dean and chapter, whether for the purpose of being laid out in land or otherwise, and that the same provisions and also the provisions of the same Act, relating to the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands or other hereditaments belonging to any bishop or chapter, shall extend and may be applied to any of the purposes of the said Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty, chapter twenty-six.

"And whereas one of the purposes of the lastly-mentioned Act is the improvement of the precincts of the church belonging to any dean and chapter.

"And whereas an application has been made to us in writing, under the seal of the said dean and chapter of the Cathedral Church of Norwich, whereby, after reciting to the effect hereinbefore recited, and further reciting that the canonical house of residence, situate within the precincts of the said cathedral, heretofore occupied by the late canon Wodehouse, and by the present canon Heaviside, is attached to the fabric of the said cathedral church, the main timbers of such house being connected with the wall of the cathedral, and that by reason of their contiguity the risk of damage to the said church from fire is greatly increased, and the appearance of the same church and of the precincts thereof is much prejudiced, that the dean and chapter are therefore desirous of removing the said canonical house of residence, and of erecting a new residence house on a site detached from the cathedral according to plans prepared by their architect at an estimated cost of two thousand two hundred and ninety-five pounds, and that the removal of the said canonical house of residence will render necessary some expenditure in the restoration of that part of the cathedral against which such house now abuts, and further reciting that there was then standing to the credit of the said dean and chapter the several sums of stock particularly specified and set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed, and that it would be for the permanent benefit of the said dean and chapter if the said stock were sold, and the produce of such sale applied towards defraying the expense of such removal, and the provision of such new detached house of residence as aforesaid, the said dean and chapter did, in pursuance of the directions of the firstly therein and hereinbefore mentioned Act, make their said application to us for the sale of the said several sums of stock, and the appropriation of the proceeds thereof towards defraying the cost of the removal of the said existing house of residence, the provision of a new residence house, and the restoration of the cathedral which would thereupon become necessary.

"And whereas, after due enquiry, we have satisfied ourselves that the appropriation for the purposes aforesaid of such a sum of money as the sale of the stock in question will produce would effect an improvement of the precincts of the said cathedral church, and would be conducive to the permanent safety of the fabric of the cathedral, and to the benefit of the said dean and chapter.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Thomas, Bishop of Norwich, as visitor of the said cathedral church, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that the said several sums of stock may, and shall be sold out, and that the money produced by such sales shall be paid to our account at the Bank of England, and be paid and applied by us towards the purposes aforesaid, in such manner, to such persons, and at such times as to the said dean and chapter shall seem meet.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.

"SCHEDULE.

"The sum of eighty pounds thirteen shillings and three pence, three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, standing in the name of the dean and chapter of Norwich, being the proceeds of certain monies arising from the enfranchisement of copyhold property in the parishes of Eaton, North Elmham, and Gately, to the Norfolk Railway Company.

"The sum of four hundred and eighty-four pounds and eight shillings three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, standing in the name of the said dean and chapter, being the proceeds of certain monies received from the said Norfolk Railway Company, as compensation for abandoning the completion of certain purchases by the same Company.

"The sum of one thousand and sixty-seven pounds and eleven pence, three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, standing in the name of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery to the credit of the said dean and chapter, ex-parte "The Norfolk Railway Company," and "The Yarmouth and Norwich Railway Company," or one of them.

"The sum of three hundred and five pounds two shillings and two pence, three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, standing in the name of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery, to the credit of the said dean and chapter, ex-parte "The Middle Level Drainage and Navigation Commissioners."

And whereas, the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Norwich.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England" it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards and burial-grounds hereinafter mentioned from the time mentioned in such Orders respectively; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed, as follows; viz.:

In the parish churchyard of WANSTEAD, Essex, from the first of June to the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

In the churchyard, and in the Wesleyan and Independent burial-grounds, MIDDLEWICH, from the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

In the churchyard of KIRKBY STEPHEN, Westmoreland, from the first of July to the first of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

In the churchyard of PITTINGTON, Durham, from the first of July to the thirty-first of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

In the old and new churchyards of the parish of BRAMPTON, Cumberland, from the thirtieth of June to the thirtieth of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

In the parish Churchyard of BEAUMARIS, from the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty one, to the thirty-first of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, burials were directed to be forthwith discontinued in the parish church of ALBERBURY, Salop; and, except in then existing vaulted and walled graves, in which each coffin should be separately entombed in an air-tight manner, in all those parts of the churchyard, which do not lie to the north or the north-east of the church; and after the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the last-mentioned parts of the said churchyard, with the like, and also with the following exceptions, viz., except in then existing family graves, and in other graves for the parishioners of Alberbury alone, provided in every case, that no foul soil be disturbed, or bones exposed; now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered that the operation of the said order in council of the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, so far as regards the restriction of the use of the said churchyard of ALBERBURY, Salop, to the parishioners thereof, be suspended till the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

in Council shall be published in the London Gazette, and that such churchwardens or other persons shall do, or cause to be done, all acts ordered as aforesaid, and the expenses incurred in and about the doing thereof, shall be paid out of the poor rates of the parish; provided always, that no such representation shall be made until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the churchwardens or other persons, or one of the churchwardens, or other persons, having the care of the vaults or places of burial to which the representation relates;

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation had been duly given to the churchwardens or other persons having the care of the churchyard of the parish of ST. OLAVE, SILVER STREET, in the city of LONDON, has made a representation, stating that he is of opinion that, for the protection of the public health, an Order should be made for the adoption of the measures hereinafter set forth in respect of such churchyard;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the churchwardens, or such other person or persons as may have the care of the above mentioned churchyard do adopt, or cause to be adopted, the following measures in respect of such churchyard; viz.:

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, burials in any part or parts of the metropolis, or in any burial-ground or places of burial in the metropolis, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that from and after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such part or parts of the metropolis, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the parishes in which any burial-grounds or places of burial affected by such representation shall be situate, or on some other conspicuous places within the part or parts of the metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month at the least before such representation is so considered; provided always, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk of the parish herein-after mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials should be forthwith discontinued in the vaults belonging to the parish of SAINT BOTOLPH BY BILLINGSGATE, situated beneath the houses Nos. 9 and 10, Lower Thames-street; and that the coffins contained therein be covered with earth and powdered charcoal, and the entrance to the same closed with brickwork properly cemented.

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the sixteenth of April last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twenty-seventh of May last, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the above recited Act.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be forthwith discontinued in the vaults belonging to the parish of SAINT BOTOLPH BY BILLINGSGATE, situated beneath the houses Nos. 9 and 10, Lower Thames-street; and that the coffins contained therein be covered with earth and powdered charcoal, and that the entrance to the vaults be closed with brickwork properly cemented.

Edmund Harrison.
