THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 17th instant, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:

Wheat, 3,000 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Cocoa, 150 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Sugar, 200 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the recent modification of the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

The Linden Estate, in one lot, in the parish of Longhorsley, and county of Northumberland, containing 3,116 acres of arable, pasture, and woodlands, with spacious mansion, erected in 1812, in the park, approached from the Great North-road by an avenue drive of three quarters of a mile of splendid pines with extensive suits of offices, gardens, vineyard, and conservatory, ornamental arboriums, neat cottages and fish ponds, all in perfect order, and so well adapted to the residence of a nobleman or family of distinction, with several well cultivated farms, occupied by a respectable tenantry, excellent farmhouses, labourers cottages, and agricultural buildings of the most substantial form, fine freestone quarries, with dwelling-houses, cottages and lands, in and near the village of Longhorsley, together with tithe rent-charges upon certain adjacent estates.

This domain is situated in the centre of Northumberland, is of easy access from the first and second class stations of Morpeth and Aeklington upon the North Eastern Railway, and commands prospects of the German Ocean, the Cheviot Hills, and of the beautiful landscape within the Vale of the Coquet, from Rothbury to Warkworth.

The estate is situate in the midst of a fine sporting country, with choice coverts of its own forming, prolific game preserves in conjunction with exclusive rights of fishing upon the River Coquet. Also, in one lot, the Little Benton Estate, in the parish of Longbenton, within four miles of the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in the county of Northumberland, containing in the aggregate about 398 acres of highly productive arable, meadow, and pasture land, with good farmhouses, cottages, and appropriate buildings, colliery villages of upwards of two hundred dwellings, known by the name of Bigge's Main, together with valuable wayleaves and other advantages. Likewise, in one lot, the Willington Estate, in the township of Willington, and parish of Wallsend, county of Northumberland, consisting of highly cultivated farms, with modern and genteel farm house, and convenient offices, dwelling-houses near the village of Wallsend, gardens, cottages, and inn, containing in the whole about 296 acres of rich arable, meadow, and pasture land.
