

of the said Orders, so far as they direct that only one body shall be buried in any grave in the said cemeteries, was postponed to the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one; and whereas it seems fit that the operation of the said first-mentioned Order in Council, so far as relates to the said cemeteries, should be postponed; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the operation of the said Order in Council of the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, so far as relates to the said two cemeteries, be postponed from the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, to the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 25th day of July, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials should be forthwith discontinued in the Quakers' Burial-ground, Hanover-street, Peckham, in the parish of CAMBERWELL.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the fourth day of September next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the said parish, or on some conspicuous places within the part or parts of the metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month at the least before the said fourth day of September.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 25th day of July, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representations, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England

"beyond the limits of the metropolis, and "to amend the Act concerning the burial of the "dead in the metropolis," made certain representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and that interments in the same should be discontinued with the following modifications:

MOTTRAM IN LONGDENDALE.—Wholly in the parish church forthwith.

WONERSH, SURREY.—Forthwith in and beneath the parish church; and from and after the 1st of July, 1862, in the churchyard, with the exception of now existing family vaults and brick graves which can be opened without disturbing human remains, and in which each coffin shall be separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented.

HADDENHAM, CAMBRIDGESHIRE.—Forthwith beneath the parish church and the Baptist Chapel; and from and after the 1st of July, 1862, in the churchyard, with the exception of now existing vaults and brick graves which can be opened without exposing human remains, in which each coffin shall be separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented; and in which the only bodies interred shall be those of husbands, wives, parents, children, brothers and sisters, of persons already buried; in the burial grounds of the Wesleyan and Baptist Chapels, no interments to take place in ground already buried in, except in family vaults or graves, nor within nine feet of the chapels or schools.

HARBOROUGH MAGNA.—In the church and churchyard forthwith, except in now existing vaults in the churchyard, in which each coffin shall be enclosed in an air-tight manner.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the 4th day of September next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said fourth day of September.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 25th day of July, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the SOUTHPORT IMPROVEMENT COMMISSIONERS, appointed under a certain Act of Parliament in that behalf, for the district of Southport, in the county of Lancaster, have, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," presented a Petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that, in the month of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, an Order in Council was made for closing the burial-grounds therein
