WHEREAS, by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, dated the 20th day of July, 1861, and made in the Matter of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the Session holden in the 10th and 11th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intitled "An Act for better securing trust funds, and for the relief of Trustees;" and in the Matter of the trusts of the wills of Hannah Singer, Widow, deceased, and of her daughter, Ann Singer, Spinster, deceased, the following inquiries, among others, were ordered to be made, viz.:—"An enquiry what person was meant by the testatrix Ann Singer by the bequest in her will, in trust, for 'my first cousin Charles Lipscomb, now or formerly of Brandean, in the county of Hants.'" "An enquiry whether such person is living or dead, and if dead, when he died, and, if he died in the lifetime of the testatrix, Ann Singer, then who were his next of kin, according to the statutes for the distribution of intestates' estates, living at the death of the said Ann Singer, and whether any of them are since dead, and if so, who is, or are, their legal personal representative or representatives."

All persons, therefore, claiming under the aforesaid bequest, or claiming to be the next of kin of the said Charles Lipscomb, living at the death of the said Ann Singer; who died on the 29th day of May, 1860, or their, his, or her legal personal representative or representatives, are, by their solicitors, to come in and prove their claims, at the Chambers of the Vice-Chancellor Wood, No. 11, New-square, Lincoln's-inn, in the county of Middlesex, on or before the 10th day of November, 1861, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said order. Tuesday, the 19th day of November, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the said Chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated this 5th day of August, 1861.

PURSUANT to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in the matter of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the session holden in the 10th and 11th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intitled "An Act for better securing trust funds, and for the relief of trustees," and in the matter of the trusts of the wills of Hannah Singer, Widow, deceased, and of her daughter, Ann Singer, Spinster, deceased, all persons claiming to be the next of kin of Hannah Singer, formerly of Islington, in the county of Middlesex, and late of Dover-street, Piccadilly, in the said county, deceased, who died in the year 1810, living at the time of her death, or the legal personal representative or representatives of such of the next of kin
