TUESDAY, AUGUST 13, 1861.

Osborne House, August 9, 1861.

THIS day had audience of Her Majesty :
The Count von Görtz, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary on an Extraordinary Mission from His Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Hesse, to deliver his credentials ;

To which audience he was introduced by the Earl Russell, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

NOTICE.

India Office,
August 12, 1861.

IN the General Order of the Governor-General of India,* dated 10th April last, republished in the London Gazette of the 28th May, 1861, it was stated that the position and claims of the Field Officers of the Indian Armies, now unemployed, or for whom it may be difficult to find suitable employment under the new system, were under consideration.

It has now been determined by the Secretary of State for India in Council, that annuities, at the following rates, shall be offered on retirement to the Lieutenant-Colonels and Majors as they stand Regimentally in the Cavalry and Infantry of the three Presidencies, in addition to the pensions to which they may be entitled under the Regulations of the Service ; viz. :—

The groups have been formed with reference to the established number of Lieutenant-Colonels of Infantry in the several Presidencies, as they stand for succession to Colonel's allowance.

Any number of Lieutenant-Colonels in excess of that establishment in consequence of the promotion of Lieutenant-Colonels to be Major-Generals, will receive the pension of the last group.

Majors.

The Regimental Majors of Cavalry and Infantry of each Presidency will be thrown together into one list, according to regimental seniority, and will be divided into four groups as nearly equal as possible. Every member of each group to receive War-Office, 13th August, 1861.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the decoration of the Victoria Cross on the under-mentioned Officers and Soldiers, whose claims to the same have been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, on account of Acts of Bravery performed by them in China, on the occasion of the assault and capture of the North Taku Fort on the 21st of August, 1860, as recorded against their several names; viz.:

Regiment	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
44th Regiment ... (now of the 90th Regiment)	Lieutenant (now Captain) Robert Montresor Rogers	For distinguished gallantry in swimming the Ditches, and entering the North Taku Fort by an embrasure during the assault. They were the first of the English established on the walls of the Fort, which they entered in the order in which their names are here recorded, each one being assisted by the others to mount the embrasure.
44th Regiment ...	No. 220. Private John M'Dougall
67th Regiment ...	Lieutenant Edmund Henry Lenon	For distinguished gallantry in swimming the Ditches of the North Taku Fort, and persevering in attempting during the assault, and before the entrance of the Fort had been effected by any one, to enlarge an opening in the Wall, through which they eventually entered, and, in doing so, were both severely wounded.
67th Regiment ... (now of the 60th Regiment)	Lieutenant (now Captain) Nathaniel Burslem
67th Regiment ...	No. 612. Private Thomas Lane
67th Regiment ... (now of the 100th Regiment)	Ensign (now Lieutenant) John Worthy Chaplin	For distinguished gallantry at the North Taku Fort. This Officer was carrying the Queen's Colour of the Regiment, and first planted the Colours on the breach made by the storming party, assisted by Private Lane, of the 67th Regiment, and subsequently on the cavalier of the Fort, which he was the first to mount. In doing this, he was severely wounded.
Indian Medical Establishment	Hospital Apprentice Arthur Fitzgibbon	For having behaved with great coolness and courage at the capture of the North Taku Fort, on the 21st of August, 1860. On the morning of that day he accompanied a wing of the 67th Regiment, when it took up a position within 500 yards of the Fort. Having quitted cover, he proceeded, under a very heavy fire, to attend to a Dhoolie-bearer, whose wound he had been directed to bind up; and, while the Regiment was advancing under the Enemy's fire, he ran across the open to attend to another wounded man, in doing which he was himself severely wounded.

Raisins, 20 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tobacco, 50 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Payment for the rum will be made for the proof gallons to one-tenth of a gallon, the liquid contents being ascertained to the half gallon.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The rum, tea, raisins and tobacco to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where they are lying.

Samples of the rum to be sent in pints for each Import Mark, and the average strength of each Mark Ex to be stated, and not an average of different marks or strengths of several imports; and any parcel of rum that is found not to be of the same quality, mark, or average strength of the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

Sam^{le} of the vinegar (not less than a quart), which the parties tendering may purpose to supply, must accompany their tenders, as the delivery will be required to be made in accordance with the samples which may be accepted, and the vinegar tendered to be No. 20, trade denomination.

The vinegar to be delivered in good, sound, strong, and substantial casks, which are to be retained as long as required by the said Commissioners or their officers without payment therefor, but are to be taken back from the said Victualling Stores (when emptied) by and at the expense of the contractor.

Each tender for tobacco must specify the several trade marks and numbers, and the countries or places of its growth or produce, and a fresh-drawn dock sample of each cask or package must be produced by the parties tendering, and any cask or package that is found not to be of the same mark, number, or quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

Samples of the soap (not less than a bar), of the tea (not less than 2 lbs. from the Bonded Warehouse), and of the raisins (not less than 3 lbs.), must be produced by the parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the recent modification of the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

Railway from Charleroy to the Frontier of France.

London, August 10, 1861.

THE Directors of the above Railway beg to inform the Shareholders that the General Meeting will be held, on Wednesday the 11th September next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the Company's offices, Northern Belgian Station, Charleroy.

In order to be admitted to this General Meeting it is required to be holder of at least five shares, and to have deposited them, at least ten days previously, at the Company's offices, Charleroy, at the offices of the Northern of France Company (Bureau de Charleroy, Paris); Mr. Walter Arnold, No. 59, Harley-street, W., London; or at Mr. Lambert's, Banker, No. 20, Rue Neuve, Brussels.

The Directors beg also to inform the Shareholders that the books of the Company and the documents concerning the accounts, which are to be submitted to the approval of the General Meeting, are deposited at the Company's offices, conformably to the Art. 43 of the modified Statutes.
