

which time the said executors will proceed to distribute the assets of the said Edward Eagles deceased amongst the parties entitled thereto, having regard to those claims only of which the said executors shall then have had notice; and that the said executors will not be liable for the assets or any part thereof so distributed, to any person of whose debt or claim the said executors shall not then have had notice.—Dated this 17th day of August, 1861.

BURTON and SON, Daventry, Solicitors to the Executors.

Mr. HENRY FRAMPTON, Deceased.

Pursuant to the provisions of an Act of Parliament, passed in the 22nd and 23rd years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to further amend the Law of Property and to relieve Trustees."

NOTICE is hereby given, that all persons having claims against the estate of Henry Frampton, formerly of Newington, in the county of Oxford, and afterwards of Burghclere, in the county of Southampton, Farmer, deceased, who died on the 8th day of November, 1860, and whose will was, with the codicils thereto, proved by Henry Frampton, of Watership Farm, in the county of Southampton, Farmer, John Frampton, of Midgham, in the county of Berks, Farmer, and John Badcock, of Wick Farm, in the parish of Radley, in the said county of Berks (the executors named in and by the said will and codicils), in the Principal Registry of Her Majesty's Court of Probate, on the 27th day of March, 1861, are hereby required to send in the particulars of such claims to the said executors, at the office of me, the undersigned, as their Solicitor, on or before the 12th day of September, 1861, and in default the said executors will, at the expiration of that time, proceed to distribute the assets of the said deceased amongst the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which the said executors shall then have had notice, and that the said executors will not after that time be liable for the assets, or any part thereof so distributed, to any person whose claim they shall not have had notice.—Dated this 15th day of August, 1861.

JOHN TANNER, Speenhamland, Newbury, Berks, Solicitor to the said Executors.

I SAMUEL SWIRE PLUES, the Keeper of the Public Records of British Honduras, and Registrar under the Act for simplifying the Title to Lands in British Honduras, in pursuance of the said Act, hereby give notice to all whom it may concern, that the under-named persons have applied to me, according to the said Act, to register their title to the under-mentioned lands; and further, that I am, by warrant of the Acting Attorney-General, authorized to proceed thereon; and further, that this is the sole publication of this notice in the London Gazette; and further, that all persons, other than the applicants claiming any estate, interest, power, or right, in or affecting those lands, or any part thereof, and whether or not resident within British Honduras, and whether or not under any disability, must deliver or transmit, by themselves, their guardians, next friends, or committees, or their agents, to the Registrar under the Act aforesaid, at his office, in Belize, notice in writing, specifying the estate, interest, power, or right which they so claim, and the evidence in support thereof; and also, that every claim to any such estate, interest, power, or right, not so made, will, at the expiration of two years after the third publication of the notice in the Honduras Gazette, and for ever thereafter, be barred, extinguished, and null and void as against all aliens for valuable consideration of those lands, and will, at the expiration of ten years after the third publication of this notice, and for ever thereafter, be absolutely barred, extinguished, and null and void to all intents and purposes.

List of Applicants and Lands.

John Hodge and James Bartlet Hyde, the surviving copartners of the late firm of James Hyde and Company, of Belize, Merchants and Mahogany Cutters, apply to be registered as entitled to an estate in fee-simple of and in the following lands:—

1. The mahogany and logwood work known as Bamboo Patch or Jeffrey's Mahogany Works, situate on the left hand side of Belize River, ascending, the base of said work commencing at the upper mark of the work known as Miss Lucy Pattnett's, and extending up the river in a straight line, four and a half miles, to the lower mark of a work formerly called Miss Mary Hume's; the lower line runs on a course of S. 38° E. to Muscle Creek, and the upper line runs on a course S. 64° E. to Muscle Creek, the said creek forming the back line of said works, as delineated per diagram annexed to the application.

2. The mahogany work known as Double Headed Cabbage, situate on the right hand side of Belize River, descending, the base commencing at the lower line of the applicants' mahogany work called Erindale, and extending down the river to the upper mark of George Tompson's mahogany work known as Half Moon Work, being in a direct line about one mile and eight chains according to Lamb's survey of March, 1800. The upper line runs back a course of S. 49° E. to half way across to the river Sibun, the lower line runs back a course of S. 75° E. half way across to the Sibun, as delineated per diagram annexed to the application.

3. The mahogany work called Erindale, situate on the right bank of Belize River descending, the base commencing at the Great Falls being the lower mark of the works called Monkey Run Works, and extending down the river on a straight line to the upper mark of the applicants' Double Headed Cabbage Work, the upper side line runs back on a course of S. 55° E. half way across to the river Sibun, and the lower side line runs back on a course of S. 49° E. half way across to the river Sibun, the back line being half way across to the Sibun, as delineated per diagram annexed to the application.

4. The mahogany works situate on the left hand, ascending, of the east branch of the Rio Hondo known as Water Bank, its base commencing at the upper mark of the applicants' works known as Lamb's Penal, and extending about three miles and one half to the lower mark of the applicants' mahogany works known as Tilletts, the side lines running on a course of S. 58° E. half way across to the New River, as delineated per diagram annexed to the application.

5. The mahogany works known as Lamb's Penal, situate on the left hand, ascending, of the east branch of the Rio Hondo, the base commencing at the upper mark of the mahogany work, known as Macaulay's or Calouan's, and extending upwards to the lower mark of the applicants' mahogany work, known as Water Bank, both lower and upper side lines running back a course of S. 56° E. half way across to the New River, as delineated per diagram annexed to the application.

6. The mahogany works situate on the left hand of the right or eastern branch of the Rio Hondo, ascending, known as Mary White or Tilletts, commencing at the upper mark of the applicants' work, known as Water Bank, or G. Hyde and Co., and having a base extending up the river one mile and one eighth of a mile to the lower mark of the mahogany work, known as Maskalls, both upper and lower side lines running back on a course of S. 58° E. half way across to New River, as delineated per diagram annexed to the application.

7. The mahogany works situate on the left hand of the eastern branch of the Rio Hondo, ascending, known, as John Young's, commencing at the upper mark of the applicants' mahogany work, known as Ann Gabourels and having a base on a straight line on the river extending nearly two miles and one half to the lower mark of the work, known as Macaulay's or Calouan's, both upper and lower side lines running back on a course of S. 58° E. half way to the New River, as delineated per diagram annexed to the application.

8. The Mahogany Works called Beaver Dam, situate on the right hand side of the River Belize, descending, the base commencing at the lower mark of the applicants' Beaver Dam Creek Works, at the mouth of Beaver Dam Creek and extending down the river to the upper line of the applicants' works, called Darling Hall; the upper side line runs on a course of N. 57½° W. and extends half way to the River Sibun, the lower side line runs in a course of N. 74° W. and extends half way to the Sibun, and the back line runs S. 28° W., as delineated per diagram annexed to the application.

9. The mahogany works called Beaver Dam Creek Works and Grahams No. 1, on the left hand of Beaver Dam Creek, ascending, the base of which works commencing at the mouth of Beaver Dam Creek and extending up the creek on a straight line about 5¼ miles to the lower line of the work formerly known as P. C. Walls, the lower side line runs on a course of N. 57½° W. half way to the River Sibun, the upper side line runs on a course of due West half way to the River Sibun, as delineated per diagram annexed to the application.

10. The mahogany work called Lockwards, situate on the East side of the right bank of the Rio Hondo, otherwise known as Booth's River, descending, the base of which said Lockward's commences at the upper mark of the applicants' mahogany work formerly known as Gentle's, and extends up the said branch to the lower mark of the applicants' mahogany work known as James Forrester, the upper side line runs back on a course of S. 86° W. half way across to Belize River, the lower side line runs back in a course of S. 86° W. half way across to Belize River, as delineated per diagram annexed to the application.

11. The mahogany work called Gentle's, situate on the east side of the right branch of the Rio Hondo, otherwise known as Booth's River, descending, the base of which work commences at the upper mark of the applicants' mahogany work, formerly known as Swasey's, and extends up the said branch to the lower mark of the applicants' mahogany work, known as Lockward's, the upper side line runs back in a course of S. 86° W. half way across to Belize River, the lower side line runs back in a course of S. 87° W. half way