*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
September 17, 1861.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Naples, reporting that, by an Italian Royal Decree inserted in the official journal of the 27th ultimo, the ports of Naples and Palermo are declared to be warehousing ports, at which merchandize may be warehoused and re-exported free of charge.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
September 17, 1861.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Lisbon, enclosing a copy of a notice issued by the Portuguese Board of Health, declaring the Port of St. Nazaire to be considered free from infection with yellow fever since the 24th August last.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
September 17, 1861.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade hereby give notice that the Moniteur, of the 14th instant, contains a French Imperial Decree permitting the admission through the Custom House at Dieppe, of cotton yarns of No. 143 (No. 170, English) and upwards, as well as of long, twisted, and baked woollen yarns.

The same Decree throws open the Ports of Marseilles, Bordeaux, Nantes, Rouen, and Havre, and the Custom Houses of Lille, Mulhouse, and Lyons, equally with the Custom House of Paris, for the direct importation of English and Belgian tissues paying ad valorem duties.

The other ports of France and the other custom houses on the Belgian frontier, which are already open for the transit of unprohibited goods, may receive the same British and Belgian goods, but only in transit, or for the purpose of being despatched under seal and security to one of the above-named custom houses, which alone are authorized to verify the merchandize and to receive the duties payable.

The payment of the import duties on English and Belgian tissues imported into Algeria can only be made at the port of Algiers.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House, September 13, 1861.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the proceeds received and tonnage and slave bounties awarded for the barque, Name Unknown, captured on the 9th January, 1860, by Her Majesty's ship Triton.

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any captor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House.

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution ; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Wesleyan Methodist Chapel, situated at Northallerton, in the county of York, in the district of Northallerton, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 7th day of September, 1861, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 10th day of September, 1861.

E. H. Reed, Superintendent Registrar.

Registrar of Friendly Societies in England.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an award was made on the 31st day of August, 1861, by the Registrar of Friendly Societies in England, under the provisions of the 23 and 24 Vict., c. 58, for the dissolution and the division of the funds of the Friendly Society, called the Cookham Amicable Benefit Society, held at Cookham, in the county of Berks.

John Tidd Pratt, Registrar of Friendly Societies in England.

CONTRACT FOR SALT PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-House,
August 30, 1861.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 10th October next, at half-past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at the undermentioned Ports, the following quantities of

SALT PORK,

all of the cure of the present season, viz. :—

NAVY PORK.

	Tierces.	Barrels.
Deptford	1800	... 1800
Haulbowline	1800	... 1800

When to be delivered :

The Pork to be delivered into the respective Stores as follows; viz. : one-third of each quantity for each place by the 31st day of January, 1862; another third thereof by the 11th day of March, 1862; and the remainder thereof by the 30th day of April, 1862; or any greater portion, or the whole, at any earlier period, if preferred by the party tendering, and to be paid for by bills at seven days after date, which will be sent to parties as usual.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any; and also an unlimited power of selection.

Every tender must specify the name of the person by whom the meat is intended to be cured, the brand of the meat, and the place of cure.

Tenders for pork, of the cure of the United States of America, will not be admitted.

Persons tendering for more than one Port must give a separate tender for each Port.

Persons tendering must give a reference to a banker for each surety proposed; and they are desired to take special notice that the use of wooden hoops is abolished, and that iron hoops only will be required for the casks in accordance with the conditions of the contract.

A form of the tender may be obtained, and the conditions of the contracts, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at this office, at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth, or by applying to the Agent Victualler at Haulbowline, or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Bristol, Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary to the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or to the Commander conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender will be admitted for a less quantity than 100 tierces, or 100 barrels.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose; but it will not be necessary that the party tendering, or an agent appointed by him, should attend at this Office, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated in and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner of the envelope the words "Tender for Salt Pork," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

CONTRACT FOR SHIRTS FOR THE ROYAL MARINES.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, September 10, 1861.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 26th inst., at half-past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, all such quantities of

for the Royal Marines, as shall from time to time be demanded, for twelve months certain, and afterwards until the expiration of three months' warning.

Patterns of the articles may be seen at the Royal Marine Office, New-street, Spring-gardens, between the hours of eleven and two o'clock.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the above department.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of the contract, which may be seen at the said department.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner, the words "Tender for Shirts," and must also be delivered at Somerset House, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £200 for the due performance of the contract.
