*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
September 24, 1861.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Naples, enclosing the following translation of a Decree, published in the official journal of Naples, declaring the commerce of grain, between Italy and foreign countries, free in the whole kingdom as regards exportation and importation.

VICTOR EMMANUEL II, KING OF ITALY,

Having considered the Decree of 12th March, 1861, of the late Neapolitan Government, by which the exportation of grain was prohibited;

Having considered the predictatorial Decree of 18th October last, by which the exportation of grain from the Neapolitan provinces to other Italian provinces was prohibited;

We Decree as follows:—

ART. 1. The prohibition of the exportation of grain from the Neapolitan provinces to the other provinces of the kingdom, and that of grain, indian corn, oats, barley, potatoes, kidney beans, chickpeas, beans, and lentils, from the same Neapolitan provinces to foreign countries, will cease from the day of the publication of the present Decree.

The commerce of grain with foreign countries is declared free in the whole kingdom as regards the exportation and importation according to the terms of the Tariff of 9th July, 1859, published in Naples with the Decree of 24th September, 1860.

ART. 2. The present Decree shall be submitted to the approval of the Legislative Chambers to be carried into law.

We command that the present Decree, furnished with the Seal of State, shall be put amongst the official collection of the laws and decrees of the Kingdom of Italy, and sent to whoever it behoves to observe it, and cause the same to be observed.

Given at Turin, this 18th August, 1861.

(Signed) VICTOR EMMANUEL.
PIETRO BASTOGI.

CONTRACTS FOR RUM, SUGAR, TEA, SPLIT PEAS, COCOA, AND TOBACCO.

Department of the Comptroller of Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-House, September 24, 1861.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Friday the 4th October next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles, viz. :—

Rum, 50,000 gallons; to be delivered in three weeks from the date of contract, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Sugar, 300 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tea, 100,000 lbs.; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Split Peas, 600 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Cocoa, 200 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tobacco, 50 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Payment for the rum will be made for the proof gallons to one-tenth of a gallon, the liquid contents being ascertained to the half gallon.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The rum, sugar, tea, cocoa, and tobacco, to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where they are lying.

Samples of the rum to be sent in pints for each Import Mark, and the average strength of each Mark Ex to be stated, and not an average of different marks or strengths of several imports; and any parcel of rum that is found not to be of the same quality, mark, or average strength of the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

Each tender for sugar must specify the mark and landing number of each cask or package, the ship in which imported, and the country or place of its growth or produce, and an average sample (not less than 2 lbs. for each import mark) must be produced by the parties tendering, and not an average of different marks or several imports, and any parcel that is found not to be of the same mark or average quality as the samples tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the officers.

Each tender for tobacco must specify the several trade marks and numbers, and the countries or places of its growth or produce, and a fresh drawn dock sample of each cask or package must be produced by the parties tendering, and any cask or package that is found not to be of the same mark, number, or quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

Samples of the split peas (not less than two quarts), of the tea (not less than 2 lbs. from the Bonded Warehouse), and of the cocoa (not less than 2 lbs.) must be produced by the parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.
