TUESDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1861.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered, by Her Majesty in Council, that the Parliament which stands prorogued to Tuesday, the twenty-second day of October instant, be further prorogued to Tuesday, the seventeenth day of December next.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty in Council was this day pleased, on a representation of the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education, to appoint the Reverend Arthur Thompson Bonner, M.A., of Lincoln College, in the University of Oxford, to be one of Her Majesty's Assistant Inspectors of Schools.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirtieth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property formerly belonging to the Fourth Canonry in the Cathedral Church of Durham, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the seventh day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and duly published in the London Gazette, on the third day of March following, the lands and hereditaments particularly described in the Schedule annexed to such Order, became vested in us, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases of any part or parts thereof.

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands and hereditaments, and, after due consideration, it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable.

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time, to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands and hereditaments, heretofore belonging to the said Fourth Canonry, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herejn contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James, situate at New Brighton, in the parish of Wallasey, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint James, situate at New Brighton aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Chester, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those parts of the said parish of Wallasey, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint James, New Brighton.'

"And, with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of Chester, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Frederic Haggitt, the present rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Wallasey, shall continue to be such rector or incumbent, all the fees which shall be received in respect of the performance of the said offices in the said church of Saint James, at New Brighton, shall be paid by the incumbent thereof to the said Frederic Haggitt.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint James, New Brighton, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Wallasey, in the county of Chester, and diocese of Chester, which is situate to the east of an imaginary line commencing at a point in the middle of Marsden-lane, opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'N. B. St. J. D. C., 1861, No. 1,' and placed on the eastern side of such lane, opposite to the western end of the fence which divides the close numbered 237 on the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Wallasey, and on the map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 238 on the same maps, and extending thence, first north-westward and then north-eastward along the middle of the said lane, as far as a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of Mount-road, and extending thence in a direction, generally northward, to and along the middle of such road to its northern extremity, and extending thence westward to the fence dividing the close numbered 484 on the said maps, from the premises numbered 486 and the close numbered 485, on the same maps, and extending thence northward along the middle of such fence to its extremity, and continuing thence in the last-mentioned direction, and in a straight line to the northern boundary of the said parish of Wallasey. And which said part of the same parish is situate to the north of another imaginary line commencing at the first-mentioned point in the middle of Marsden-lane, opposite to the boundary stone aforesaid, and extending thence eastward to such boundary stone, and continuing thence in the same direction, and in a straight line across the close numbered 237 as aforesaid, to the middle of the western end of the fence which divides the close numbered 236 on the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 238A, and 277 on the same maps, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned fence, and of the fence which divides the close numbered 279 on the said maps from the close numbered 276 on the same maps, to the middle of the western end of a certain occupation road leading from the close numbered 279 as aforesaid, to Rake-lane, and extending thence first in the last-mentioned direction, along the middle of such occupation road, and then north-eastward along the middle of the Rake-lane, as far as a point in the same lane opposite to the middle of the western end of Zigzag-lane, and extending thence in the last-mentioned direction to and along the middle of the last-named lane, and along the middle of the footpath leading therefrom to the River Mersey, as far as a point opposite to a boundary stone placed on the southern side of the same footpath, and inscribed 'N. B. St. J. D. C., 1861, No. 2,' and extending thence in a straight line eastward, to the eastern boundary of the said parish of Wallasey. And also all that part of the same parish of Wallasey, which is comprised within the island known as "Rock Fort."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with a map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James, situate at New Brighton, in the parish of Wallasey, in the county of Chester, to be called "The District Chapelry of Saint James, New Brighton," be accordingly made; and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners, with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chester.

Edmund Harrison.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church or chapel, situate at Gunhouse, in the parish of West Halton, in the county of Lincoln, and diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of West Halton, and of the parishes of Bottesford and Frodingham, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parishes of West Halton, Bottesford, and Frodingham, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church or chapel, situate at Gunhouse aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lincoln, of the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas, Bishop of Norwich, the patron in right of his see of the rectory of the parish of West Halton aforesaid, and of Charles Winn, of Nostell Priory, near Wakefield, in the county of York, Esquire, the patron of the vicarage of the parish of Frodingham aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), and also with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Lincoln, the patrons, alternately, with the said John, Bishop of Lincoln, of the vicarage of the parish of Bottesford aforesaid (in testimony whereof the said Dean and Chapter have hereunto affixed their common or capitular seal), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parishes of West Halton, Bottesford, and Frodingham, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church or chapel, situate at Gunhouse aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Gunhouse with Burringham.'

"And we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said John, Bishop of Lincoln, John Thomas, Bishop of Norwich, Charles Winn, and the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Lincoln (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Gunhouse with Burringham, shall belong to, and be exercised by, the said John Thomas, Bishop of Norwich, and his successors, bishops of the same see, for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Gunhouse with Burringham, being:—

"All those several portions of the parish of Bottesford, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln, of the parish of Frodingham, in the same county and diocese, and of the parish of West Halton, in the same county and diocese, which are situate to the west of an imaginary line commencing at a boundary stone inscribed 'G with B. C. C., 1861, No. 1,' and placed at the junction of the southern and eastern boundaries of the township of Burringham, in the said parish of Bottesford, and extending thence northward along the eastern boundary of such township to its northern extremity, and extending thence in the same direction along the middle of Mid-Moor-Drain, and across a warping drain to a boundary stone inscribed 'G. with B. C. C., 1861, No. 2,' and placed on the northern side of the last described drain, and extending thence in the same direction, and in a straight line to another boundary stone inscribed 'G. with B. C. C., 1861, No. 3,' and placed on the northern boundary of the township of Scunthorpe, in the said parish of Frodingham, at a distance of two hundred and forty eight yards to the east of the middle of the fence forming the eastern boundary of the close numbered 60 on the tithe commutation map of the said parish of West Halton, and on the map hereunto annexed, and extending thence westward along the last-mentioned township boundary to its junction with the eastern boundary of the township of Gunhouse, in the said parish of West Halton, and extending thence first northward, and then north-westward along the last-mentioned township boundary to a point in the middle of the Ings Drain, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named drain (and following in part the southern boundary of a portion of the said parish of West Halton) to a boundary stone inscribed 'G. with B. C. C., 1861, No. 4,' and placed on the northern side of such drain at the southern extremity of the fence dividing the close numbered 18 on the inclosure award map of the township of Crosby, in the said parish of Frodingham, and on the map hereunto annexed from West Common, and extending thence in the last-mentioned direction along the middle of the last described fence, and of the fence dividing the close numbered 19, upon the said last-mentioned maps from West Common aforesaid, and across the Ferry-road to a boundary stone inscribed 'G. with B. C. C. 1861, No. 5,' and placed on the northern side of such road on the boundary of the said parish of Frodingham, and extending thence south-eastward along the last-mentioned parish boundary for a distance of sixty-six yards to a point in the middle of the southern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 37 on the tithe commutation map of the parish of West Halton aforesaid, and on the map hereunto annexed from the close numbered 26 on the same maps, and extending thence northward along the middle of such fence, and of the fences which divide the closes numbered respectively, 36, 35 and 34, on the said maps, from the closes numbered respectively 27, 28, and 25, on the same maps to a boundary stone inscribed 'G. with B. C. C., 1861, No. 6,' and placed at the northern extremity of the fence dividing the close numbered 34 from the close numbered 25 as last-mentioned, and near to a warping drain, and extending thence in the last-mentioned direction, and in a straight line to the boundary dividing this portion of the parish of West Halton from the parish of Flixborough, in the same county and diocese. And which said several portions of the before-mentioned parishes of Bottesford, Frodingham, and West Halton are situate to the north of another imaginary line also commencing at the boundary stone inscribed 'G. with B. C. C., 1861, No. 1,' and placed at the junction of the southern and eastern boundaries of the township of Burringham as aforesaid, and extending thence westward along the southern boundary of such township to the western boundary of the said parish of Bottesford, in the middle of the River Trent."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church or chapel, situate at Gunhouse, in the parish of West Halton, in the county of Lincoln, be accordingly formed; and that the agreement, mentioned in the said representation with respect to the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said

Acts; and that the said right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church shall belong to, and be exercised by, the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas, Bishop of Norwich, and his successors, bishops of the same see, for ever; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate at Pendlebury, in the particular district of Saint John the Evangelist, Pendlebury, in the county of Lancaster, and diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said particular district of Saint John the Evangelist, Pendlebury, and of the parish of Eccles, in the said county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the respective churches of the said particular district and parish.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said particular district of Saint John the Evangelist, Pendlebury, and of the said parish of Eccles, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church, situate at Pendlebury aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of Manchester, and of the Reverend James Pelham Pitcairn, the Vicar or Incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Eccles, Richard Watson Barton, of Springwood, in the said parish of Eccles, Esquire, Thomas Cooke, of Pendlebury aforesaid, Esquire, and Sir Benjamin Heywood, of Claremont, in the said parish of Eccles, Baronet, who, with the said James Prince, Bishop of Manchester, are the patrons of the perpetual curacy and particular district of Saint John the Evangelist, Pendlebury aforesaid; and also with the consent of the Right Honourable Richard, Baron Westbury, Lord High-Chancellor of Great Britain, the patron on behalf of the Crown of the vicarage of the parish of Eccles aforesaid, (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said particular district of Saint John the Evangelist, Pendlebury, and of the said parish of Eccles, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry, for the said church called Christ Church, situate at Pendlebury aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Christ Church, Pendlebury.'

"And we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said James Prince, Bishop of Manchester, James Pelham Pitcairn, Richard Watson Barton, Thomas Cooke, Sir Benjamin Heywood, and Richard Baron Westbury, (testified as aforesaid) that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Christ Church, Pendlebury, shall belong to and be exercised by the said James Prince, Bishop of Manchester, and his successors, bishops of the same see, for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Christ Church, Pendlebury, being :—

"All that portion of the particular district of Saint John the Evangelist, Pendlebury (heretofore part of the parish of Eccles), in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, which is situate to the west of an imaginary line extending along the middle of the City Walk, and across the Bolton and Manchester turnpike road, and along the middle of Bury-lane.

"And also all that portion of the parish of Eccles, in the county and diocese aforesaid, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is comprised within that part of the township of Worsley, which is situate to the east of an imaginary line commencing at a point in the middle of Swinton Moss-lane, opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'P. Ch. Ch. C. C., 1861,' and placed on the eastern side of the southern end of a footpath leading from such lane to Monk's Cotton Mill, and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of such footpath to the boundary dividing the said township of Worsley, from the township of Clifton in the same parish; and which said portion of the parish of Eccles is situate to the north of another imaginary line, commencing at the point in the middle of Swinton Moss-lane, opposite to the boundary stone inscribed 'P. Ch. Ch. C. C., 1861,' as aforesaid, and extending thence eastward along the middle of such lane to the boundary dividing the said parish of Eccles from the particular district of Saint John the Evangelist, Pendlebury aforesaid, and continuing thence first north-eastward then south-eastward, and then again north-eastward along such last mentioned boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the township of Worsley from the township of Clifton aforesaid."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate at Pendlebury, in the particular district of Saint John the Evangelist, Pendlebury, in the county of Lancaster, be accordingly formed; and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation, with respect to the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and that the said right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church shall belong to and be exercised by the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of Manchester, and his successors, bishops of the same see for ever; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Manchester.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint George, situate at Pain's-lane, in the parish of Lilleshall, in the county of Salop and diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Lilleshall and of the parishes of Wrockwardine Wood and Shiffnal, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parishes of Lilleshall, Wrockwardine Wood, and Shiffnal, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint George, situate at Pain's-lane aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lichfield; of the Most Noble George Granville William, Duke of Sutherland, the patron of the vicarage of the parish of Lilleshall aforesaid; of the Right Honourable Richard, Baron Westbury, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the patron on behalf of the Crown of the vicarage of the parish of Wrockwardine Wood aforesaid; and of the Reverend John Brooke, of Haughton, in the said county of Salop,

Clerk, the patron of the vicarage of the parish of Shiffnal aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parishes of Lilleshall, Wrockwardine Wood, and Shiffnal, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint George, situate at Pain's-lane aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint George, Pain's-lane.'

"And we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said George Granville William, Duke of Sutherland, Richard Baron Westbury, and John Brooke (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint George, Pain's-lane, shall belong to and be exercised by the said George Granville William, Duke of Sutherland, his heirs and assigns.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint George, Pain's-lane, being:—

"All those several portions of the parish of Lilleshall, in the county of Salop, and in the diocese of Lichfield, of the parish of Wrockwardine Wood, in the same county and diocese, and of the parish of Shiffnal, in the same county and diocese, wherein the respective incumbents of such parishes now possess the exclusive cure of souls, which are comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing at a point in the Watling-street-road, opposite to the middle of the northern end of Woodhouse-lane, and extending thence eastward along the middle of such road as far as a point opposite to the boundary dividing the said parish of Lilleshall from the parish of Sheriff Hales, in the counties of Salop and Stafford, and in the said diocese of Lichfield, at the southern extremity of the road leading from the Watling-street-road aforesaid, past Woodhouse Farm to Lilleshall, and extending thence first north-westward to and along the last-mentioned boundary, and then north-eastward along the same boundary, as far as a point in the middle of the eastern end of the wall which divides the dwelling-house of Woodhouse Farm from the outbuildings of the same farm, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such wall to a point in the middle of the before-mentioned road leading past Woodhouse Farm to Lilleshall, opposite to the western end of the said wall, and extending thence in the last-mentioned direction along the middle of the same road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of an accommodation road known as 'The Woodhouse-road,' and extending thence in the same direction to and along the middle of such accommodation road to the middle of the Lodge Wood-road, and extending thence first north-westward and then south-westward along the middle of the last-named road (crossing the Grange-road) to a point on the boundary dividing the said parish of Lilleshall from the new parish of Saint Matthew, Donnington Wood, near the Old Lodge Furnaces, and extending thence first southward and then westward along the last-mentioned boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the said parish of Lilleshall from the said parish of Wrockwardine Wood, and extending thence south-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary as far as a point in the middle of the Private Mineral Railway belonging to the Lilleshall Mining Company, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of such railway to a point in the middle of the arch which carries the said railway over a private road belonging to the mining company aforesaid, and leading from Donnington to Oakengates, and extending thence in a direction generally south-westward along the middle of such private road to the boundary dividing the said parish of Wrockwardine Wood from the said parish of Shiffnal, and extending thence south-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary as far as a point in the middle of the Watling-street-road aforesaid near the Gate Inn, and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of a public cart-road leading to Snedshill, and extending thence in a direction generally south-eastward to and along the middle of such cart-road for a distance of two hundred and eighty yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the western end of a footpath leading past the northern side of the block of two dwelling-houses, formerly Snedshill schools, to a road leading from Prior's Lee to Donnington, and extending thence eastward to and along the middle of such footpath to its extremity, and extending thence in the last-mentioned direction across the road leading from Prior's Lee to Doddington aforesaid to the middle of the western end of a public road communicating with another footpath leading past the southern side of the inclosure numbered 309 on the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of Shiffnal and on the map hereunto annexed, and extending thence in the same direction along the middle of the said public road, and continuing in the same direction along the middle of the last-mentioned footpath to the junction of such footpath with another footpath leading in a southerly direction from the Watling-street-road aforesaid to an old road dividing the inclosures numbered respectively 307 and 306 on the said maps from the inclosures numbered respectively 330, 331, and 332, on the same maps, and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-mentioned footpath and continuing along the middle of the old road aforesaid to a point in the middle of the branch railway belonging to the Lilleshall Mining Company aforesaid, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of such branch railway for a distance of six hundred yards or thereabouts to the middle of Woodhouse-lane aforesaid, and extending thence in a direction generally north-eastward along the middle of such lane to the point in the Watling-street-road aforesaid where the said imaginary line commenced."

"Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof; and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church of Saint George, situate at Pain's-lane, in the parish of Lilleshall, in the county of Salop, be accordingly formed; and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation with respect to the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and that the said right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church shall belong to and be exercised by the Most Noble George Granville William, Duke of Sutherland, his heirs and assigns; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Stephen, situate at Higham Green, in the parish of Gazeley, in the county of Suffolk, and in the diocese of Ely.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Stephen, situate at Higham Green aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas, Bishop of Ely, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Gazeley, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Stephen, Higham Green.'

"And with the like consent of the said Thomas, Bishop of Ely, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Stephen, Higham Green, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Gazeley, in the county of Suffolk, and in the diocese of Ely, which is comprised within the hamlet of Higham Green."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Stephen, situate at Higham Green, in the parish of Gazeley, in the county of Suffolk, to be called "The District Chapelry of Saint Stephen, Higham Green," be accordingly made; and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ely.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; duly prepared and laid before

No. 22556.

Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls within the limits of the perpetual curacy of Christ Church, Fenton, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

“ Whereas the incumbency of the said perpetual curacy of Christ Church, Fenton, is in the patronage of the Bishop of Lichfield, for the time being.

“ And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the church of the said perpetual curacy is at present poorly endowed, and that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the limits of the said perpetual curacy.

“ And whereas William Baker, of Fenton aforesaid, Esquire, one of your Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said county of Stafford, has paid over to us the sum of one thousand pounds sterling, upon condition that the patronage of such perpetual curacy should be transferred, and the income of the cure augmented, in manner herein-after recommended and proposed.

“ Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Honourable and most Reverend John Bird, Archbishop of Canterbury, and of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lichfield (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that the whole right and patronage of the said perpetual curacy of Christ Church, Fenton, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto and to the church thereof, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, transferred from the said John, Bishop of Lichfield, and his successors, bishops of the same see, and be assigned to, and absolutely vested in, the said William Baker, his heirs and assigns for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose that in consideration of the payment of the said sum of one thousand pounds as aforesaid, there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy, the fixed annual sum of thirty-three pounds by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November, in each year, and that the first of such payments, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of November next.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the said mentioned Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament, and especially the substitution for such annual payment as aforesaid, or for any portion thereof of any equivalent lands, tithes, or hereditaments which may appear to us to be suitable for the endowment of the said perpetual curacy.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said

Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for compensating the Reverend Evan Owen Hughes, Rector or Incumbent of the Rectory of the parish of Llanddeniolen, in the county of Carnarvon, and diocese of Bangor, for the loss of certain emoluments occasioned by reason of proceedings under the said Acts.

"Whereas under and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the thirty-first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and duly published in the London Gazette on the thirteenth day of August in the same year, a portion of the said parish of Llanddeniolen has been duly constituted a new parish by the name of 'The New Parish of Llandinorwig,' and the Incumbent of such new parish has become entitled to receive certain fees, dues, and other emoluments arising within such new parish.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the fees, dues, or other emoluments of the said Evan Owen Hughes, as such Rector or Incumbent of Llanddeniolen as aforesaid, have been diminished by reason of the constitution of the said new parish, and that the assignment to the said Evan Owen Hughes of the sum hereinafter mentioned would be a just and reasonable compensation for such diminution.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us to the said Evan Owen Hughes, Rector or Incumbent of the Rectory of the parish of Llanddeniolen aforesaid, so long as he shall remain such Rector or Incumbent, and no longer the annual sum of three pounds by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May, and the first day of November in each year, by way of compensation for the loss of fees, dues, or other emoluments sustained by him as such Rector or Incumbent, by reason of the formation of the new parish of Llandinorwig as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matter aforesaid in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Bangor.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for augmenting the income of the Archdeaconry of Stafford, in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas it was by the said recited Act enacted, that so soon as conveniently might be, and by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same) any Archdeaconry might, subject to the consent of the Bishop, be endowed, amongst other modes, by augmentation out of the common fund in the same Act mentioned, but not so as to raise the average annual income thereof to an amount exceeding two hundred pounds, with a proviso that no Archdeacon should be entitled to hold any endowment or augmentation, or other emolument as such Archdeacon under the provisions of the same Act, unless resident for the space of eight months in every year within the diocese in which his Archdeaconry should be situate, but subject to the same provisions as to licences for non-residence, which are enacted with respect to Incumbents of Benefices by the Act relating to pluralities and residence in the same Act mentioned.

“And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the fourth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and duly gazetted in the London Gazette of the eleventh day of the same month of April, it was provided that an annual sum of one hundred and ten pounds should be paid by us to the Archdeacon of Stafford for the time being.

“And whereas the amount of the said grant of one hundred and ten pounds per annum was fixed on the assumption that the average annual income of the said Archdeaconry arising from procurations and fees amounted to ninety pounds, and it has been made to appear to us that by reason of the Bishop's Parochial Visitation the Archdeacon of Stafford is deprived in every fourth year of such procurations and of certain fees amounting together to ninety pounds.

“And whereas the present year is the fourth year of the cycle, and is that of the Bishop's Visitation, and the said Archdeacon will, therefore, in the present year, be deprived of the said sum of ninety pounds.

“We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lichfield, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that in addition to the sum of one hundred and ten pounds in the said first recited Order mentioned, there shall be paid by us, on the first day of January next, out of the common fund in the said Act mentioned, to the said Archdeacon of Stafford a sum of ninety pounds in respect of the present year, and on the first day of January in every future year a sum of twenty-two pounds, so as to make up the average annual income of the Archdeaconry to two hundred pounds per annum, as contemplated by the said hereinbefore recited Act; every such payment as aforesaid to be made by us only on the production to us of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of Lichfield for the time being, that the Archdeacon claiming the same has duly resided within the diocese of Lichfield, according to the provisions of the said recited Act, or has been legally exempt from such residence.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said Archdeaconry, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section sixty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, section twelve, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section sixty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, section twelve, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

“We humbly recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us out of the common fund in the said Act mentioned, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices or churches described in the first schedule hereunto annexed, the annual sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice or church in the last column of the same schedule, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day May, and the first day of November in each year.

“And we further recommend and propose that the lands and premises, the rent-charges, and other hereditaments, particularly described in the second and four following schedules hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances, now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the several spiritual persons hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: that the messuages, lands, hereditaments and premises described in the second schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parish of Felpham, in the county of Sussex, and diocese of Chichester, part of which formerly belonged to the sinecure rectory of Felpham, in the same county and diocese, and is now vested in us, and the remainder was conveyed to us by a deed, bearing date the seventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Felpham, that the yearly rent-charge or sum described in the third schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the parish of Flamborough, in the county and diocese of York, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Flamborough; that the messuage, lands, hereditaments and premises described in the fourth schedule hereunto annexed, situate at Packwood, in the county of Warwick, and diocese of Worcester, which were conveyed to us, by a deed bearing date the eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Packwood aforesaid, that the messuages, lands, hereditaments and premises described in the fifth schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parish of Withington, in the county and diocese of Hereford, formerly belonging to the prebends of Nonnington and Church Withington, in the cathedral church of Hereford, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Withington, that all our estate and interest in the messuages, lands, hereditaments and premises described in the sixth schedule hereunto annexed, situate at Oldland, in the parish of Bitton, in the county of Gloucester, and diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Saint Anne, Oldland aforesaid.

“ And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend James Francis Ellis, clerk, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Pocklington, with the chapelry of Yapham-cum-Meltonby and Ousethorpe annexed, in the county and diocese of York, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes described in the seventh schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the townships of Yapham and Meltonby, in the said parish with their appurtenances, formerly belonging to the deanery of the cathedral and metropolitan church of Saint Peter, at York, and now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein shall in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Pocklington, with the said chapelry of Yapham-cum-Meltonby and Ousethorpe annexed: Provided always, that the same tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, to be so vested as last-mentioned shall be and be held to be in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of ten pounds, now payable by us to the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Pocklington, with the chapelry of Yapham-cum-Meltonby and Ousethorpe annexed, in respect of the estates within the said townships of Yapham and Meltonby formerly belonging to the said deanery of York, and also of the annual sum or stipend of three pounds and ten shillings, now payable to the said vicar or incumbent in respect of the estates within the township of Ousethorpe, in the said parish of Pocklington, and within the township of Grimthorpe, in the adjoining parish of Great Givendale, in the same county and diocese, also formerly belonging to the said deanery.

“ And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend Frederick John Taverner, clerk, the present perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Skegby, in the county of Nottingham, and diocese of Lincoln, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes described in the eighth schedule hereunto annexed, and therein numbered I, arising out of or upon lands situate within the said parish of Skegby, with their appurtenances, and also the lands and hereditaments described in the same schedule, and therein numbered II, situate within the said parish of Skegby, with their appurtenances, all which formerly belonged to the deanery of the cathedral church of Lincoln, and are now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall in like manner, and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Skegby: provided always, that the same lands, tithes, or rent-charges, in lieu of tithes and hereditaments, to be so vested as last-mentioned, shall be and be held to be in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of thirteen pounds six shillings and eight-pence, now payable by us to the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Skegby, in respect of the estates formerly belonging to the deanery of the cathedral church of Lincoln aforesaid, and also of the annual sum or stipend of five pounds, now payable by us to the same perpetual curate or incumbent, under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the tenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

“ And we further recommend and propose with the consent of the Reverend John Thomas Walters, clerk, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Spaldwick, in the county of Huntingdon, and diocese of Ely, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the lands and hereditaments described in the ninth schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parish of Barham, in the same county and diocese, with their appurtenances, formerly belonging to the prebend of Sanctæ Crucis, in the cathedral church of Lincoln, and now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall in like manner, and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to, and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Spaldwick: Provided always, that the said lands and hereditaments, to be so vested as last-mentioned, shall be and be held to be in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of twelve pounds, now payable by us to the said vicar or incumbent, under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent the further augmentation by us of any of the said benefices or churches, if it shall be deemed fit, and that if it shall appear to us to be expedient, at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the incumbent of any of the said benefices or churches or instead of any part of such annual sum, a gross sum equivalent thereto should be substituted, or any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed to such benefice or church in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained, shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution, or from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ NINTH SCHEDULE.

“ All that plot or parcel of land or ground, situate, lying, and being in Barham, in the county of Huntingdon, containing by admeasurement eleven acres, three roods, and twenty-five perches, allotted, set out, and awarded to the

Reverend Richard Ward, then prebendary of the prebend of Spaldwick, alias Sanctæ Crucis, and his lessee, by the Commissioners named in an Act of Parliament, passed in the twentieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for enclosing the open and common fields, meadows, and commons within the parish and liberty of Barham, in the county of Huntingdon, bounded on the south and part of the west by the lordship of Spaldwick, on the remaining part of the west and on part of the north by the first copyhold allotment to William Watson, on the remaining part of the north by the allotment to the constable of Spaldwick, for the time being, and on the east by an allotment to Michael Evans."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the several dioceses of Canterbury, York, London, Durham, Winchester, Saint Asaph, Bath and Wells, Carlisle, Chester, Chichester, Saint David's, Ely, Exeter, Gloucester and Bristol, Hereford, Lichfield, Lincoln, Llandaff, Manchester, Norwich, Oxford, Peterborough, Ripon, Rochester, Salisbury, and Worcester.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes, out of the district chapelry of Saint Mary, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, and diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said district chapelry of Saint Mary, Lambeth, hereinafter mentioned and described, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas, by a deed bearing date the twentieth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and made between John Charles Williams, of Number 3, Lancaster-place, Strand, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, of the first part; the Reverend Robert Gregory, of Prince's-road, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, Clerk; Richard Foster, of Manor-road, Stoke Newington, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire; and Robert Brett, of Stoke Newington aforesaid, Surgeon, of the second part;

and us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the third part; which deed has been duly enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery at Westminster, certain land, with a messuage and premises thereon, situate on the north side of Kennington-lane, otherwise New Bridge-street, in the said county of Surrey, and of the estimated annual value of fifty pounds and upwards, has been granted and conveyed to us with a view to the transfer and appropriation thereof, which are hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas by another deed, bearing date the twenty-third day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and made between the said John Charles Williams, of the one part, and us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part, which said last-mentioned deed has also been enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery at Westminster, certain lands with the buildings and premises thereon, situate at Vauxhall, in the said county of Surrey, and demised upon certain leases for years, subject to rents amounting together to fifty pounds per annum, have also been granted and conveyed to us, with a view to the transfer and appropriation thereof which are hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas certain land, of the estimated value of two thousand pounds, suitable for the site of a church for the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, has been granted and conveyed to us by the said John Charles Williams.

"And whereas it is proposed that one-half part at least of the sittings in the said intended church shall be free and unappropriated, and that the remainder of the said sittings shall be let at annual rents after a rate or scale to be fixed and determined by us in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, and that the proceeds of the said rents not otherwise appropriated by law shall be applied towards the support of and as and for a stipend for the minister of the said district; and so soon as such district shall have become under the provisions of the herein firstly mentioned Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, then of the perpetual curate thereof, and to such other purposes as may be hereafter ordered and declared by us by an instrument in writing under our common seal, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese pursuant to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act.

"And whereas we are of opinion that there is reason to expect that from and after the approval and consecration of the said intended church, as aforesaid, an income equivalent at the least to a permanent endowment of fifty pounds per annum, will be derivable by the minister or perpetual curate of the church of such district or new parish, from the rents of pews to be let and rented as aforesaid.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us by the said John Charles Williams, and it appears to us to be expedient, that in consideration of such grant of a site for a church as aforesaid, the whole right of patronage of the said district or new parish, and of the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereto, should be vested in and exercised by the five several persons hereinafter named.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Richard, Bishop of Winchester, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the said district chapelry of Saint Mary, Lambeth, described in the schédule hereunto annexed (all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed), shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette, of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this schémé, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named "The District of Saint Peter, Vauxhall."

"And we further recommend and propose that the lands, messuages, and premises so granted and conveyed to us by the two several deeds hereinbefore mentioned, and dated respectively the twentieth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and the twenty-third day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this schémé, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to and become and be absolutely vested in the minister of the said district so recommended to be constituted, so soon as one shall be appointed and licensed thereto, and so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid, then in the perpetual curate thereof and his successors.

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district or new parish, and of the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof shall, without any assurance in the law other than this schémé and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same; and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised jointly by the Honourable Sir William Page Wood, of Great George-street, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, Knight, Robert Brett, of Stoke Newington, in the county of Middlesex aforesaid, Surgeon, Richard Foster, of Manor Road, Stoke Newington aforesaid, Wine Merchant, John Charles Williams, of Number 3, Lancaster Place, Strand aforesaid; Esquire; and the Reverend Robert Gregory, Incumbent of the said district chapelry of Saint Mary, Lambeth, their heirs and assigns.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"SCHEDULE.

"The District of SAINT PETER, VAUXHALL, being :—

"All that part of the district chapelry of Saint Mary, Lambeth (heretofore part of the original parish of Saint Mary, Lambeth), in the county of Surrey and diocese of Winchester, which is situated to the west of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary dividing such district chapelry from the district parish of Saint Mark, Kennington (also heretofore part of the said original parish of Saint Mary, Lambeth), in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of Upper Kennington-lane, opposite to the middle of the southern end of Vauxhall-street, and extending thence in a direction generally northward to and along the middle of such street, and along the middle of Barrett-street as far as a point in the last-named street opposite to the middle of the eastern end of Jonathan-street; and which said part of the district chapelry of Saint Mary, Lambeth, is situate to the south of another imaginary line commencing at the last-mentioned point in the middle of Barrett-street aforesaid, and extending thence westward to and along the middle of Jonathan-street and across Vauxhall-walk and along the middle of Anderson's-walk (passing underneath the London and South-Western Railway), to a point in the middle of Prince's-street, and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of twenty yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of White Bear-alley, and extending thence westward to and along the middle of the said alley to its extremity, and extending thence south-westward across Upper Fore-street for a distance of seven yards or thereabouts, to a point in the middle of the eastern end of a certain passage leading from Upper Fore-street to the River Thames; and extending thence westward along the middle of the said passage to its extremity, and continuing thence in the last-named direction, and in a straight line, to the boundary of the said district chapelry of Saint Mary, Lambeth, in the middle of the said river."

And whereas a draft of the said schémé has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore firstly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the said district chapelry of Saint Mary, Lambeth (out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken), and such incumbent and patron have respectively signified their assent to the said schémé:

And whereas the said schémé has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said schémé, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Winchester.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a schémé, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following schémé for substituting a money payment to the Canon of the Third Canonry, in the Cathedral Church of Durham, for certain property belonging to him as such Canon.

"Whereas by and under the provisions of the said Acts, the whole of the separate estates and endowments belonging to the said third canonry (excepting any right of Ecclesiastical patronage) will upon the first avoidance of the said canonry become absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the said Acts.

"And whereas it was by the same Acts enacted that, by the authority therein provided, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions thereof, any arrangement might from time to time be made with the consent in writing under the hand of any canon of any cathedral church for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in the possession or enjoyment of such canon, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments.

"And whereas it has been agreed between us and the Reverend Henry Jenkyns, Clerk, Doctor in Divinity, the present holder of the said canonry, that with a view to sooner carrying into effect the purposes of the said recited Acts the following arrangement should be recommended by us to your Majesty in Council.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Henry Jenkyns, testified by his having signed this scheme, we humbly recommend, and propose that immediately upon the gazetting of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, all the ands, tenements, and hereditaments commonly called or known as 'The Howlcroft's Estate,' situate in the township of Crossgate, in the parish of Saint Margaret, Durham, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, which said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, now form part of the endowment of the said third canonry, together with all the estate, right, title, and interest therein of the said Henry Jenkyns, as such canon as aforesaid, shall, for the consideration hereinafter mentioned, be, and be held to be transferred and conveyed by and from the said Henry Jenkyns to us, and shall then and thereupon become and be absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the said Acts, and that we shall be entitled to the rents and profits thereof, as from the twenty-fifth day of March last, and that in consideration of, and for such transfer and conveyance there shall be paid by us to the said Henry Jenkyns, or to his representatives, in each and every year, so long as he shall continue to hold the said canonry, and until the end of the capitular year in which he shall cease to hold the same, the annual sum of seventy-nine pounds, by equal half-yearly payments on the twenty-fifth day of March, and the twenty-ninth day of September in every year, and that the first of such half-yearly payments shall be made on the twenty-ninth day of September next.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of
October, 1861.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of another Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of another Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, "the Fourth Report of the Commissioners of "Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to explain and amend "two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical "Commissioners for England;" and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to alter and amend the law "relating to ecclesiastical houses of residence," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for substituting a money payment for certain property belonging to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Salisbury.

"Whereas it was by the said recited Acts enacted and declared that by the authority of a scheme prepared by us and ratified by an Order of your Majesty in Council, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions of the said first recited Act any sum of money which should have been invested in the public funds, or in other security or securities, in trust for any Ecclesiastical Body corporate, aggregate or sole, might, upon application in writing to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, under the hand and seal of such body corporate, and in the case of any chapter, with the consent of the visitor thereof, be directed to be sold, and the same should be sold accordingly, and that the produce of such sale should be applied to such purpose and in such manner as should appear most conducive to the permanent benefit of such body corporate; and also that for any like purpose any arrangement might be made with the consent in writing, under the corporate seal of any chapter, for the sale, transfer, or exchange, of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such chapter, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, and that the aforesaid provisions relating to the sale and application of any sum of money invested in trust for any ecclesiastical body corporate, did and should include and apply to all monies and securities for money, and to all stock in the Government Funds or elsewhere standing in the name of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chaucery, or in the name or names of any other public officer, or of any individual or individuals, for, or to the credit of, or in trust for, any bishop, dean, and chapter, dean or canon, whether for the purpose of being laid out in land or otherwise.

"And whereas the said chapter consists of a dean and four canons; two canonries having been suspended under the provisions of the said first recited Act.

"And whereas the said dean and chapter are now seized in fee of divers manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments forming the endowment of the said chapter, the greater part of which have been heretofore demised or granted on leases or grants for years or lives at small annual reserved rents, and upon payment of fines; and they are also beneficially interested or otherwise entitled to certain sums of stock or cash invested or held in trust as aforesaid, more particularly specified and set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked A.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that by reason of the great antiquity of the cathedral church at Salisbury, and of the want of due reparation in times past, it has become necessary, for the sustentation thereof, to expend thereon forthwith, such a sum of money as cannot be wholly charged on the parties now entitled to the receipt and enjoyment of the divisible corporate revenues of the said dean and chapter.

"And whereas we have ascertained that the sum so required to be forthwith expended in such repairs, and in effecting improvements conducive to the security of the fabric of the said cathedral church, amounts to ten thousand pounds, or thereabouts.

"And whereas one of the purposes of the said Acts is to provide a fund for making better provision for the cure of souls, and the said dean and chapter have proposed to us, with the consent of their Visitor, that the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, stock, and cash (except as hereinafter excepted), should be dealt with in manner hereinafter mentioned; and we are of opinion that it would ultimately conduce as well to the improvement of the said fund as to the permanent benefit of the said dean and chapter, that the same should be dealt with accordingly.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Salisbury, and of the Right Reverend Walter Kerr, Bishop of Salisbury, as Visitor of the said dean and chapter, testified by their having respectively hereunto affixed their capitular and episcopal seals, we humbly recommend and propose that, in consideration of the money payments hereinafter mentioned, to be paid by us to the said dean and chapter, and of our relinquishing all our interest, right, and claim in respect of the said suspended canonries, to and in the property to be retained by the said dean and chapter, and to any participation in such money payments, and in the estates and property to be at any time hereafter assigned to the said dean and chapter as their permanent endowment, and in the rents and profits thereof, all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments which now belong, either in possession or reversion, to the said dean and chapter (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage, and the property situate in the close, or within the precincts or liberty of the close of the canons of the said cathedral church at Salisbury; and also excepting all trust estates, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and property vested in the said dean and chapter, in trust, for the choristers of the said cathedral church, or otherwise, howsoever) together with the benefit of the perpetual land-tax charged thereupon, which has been redeemed, subject, nevertheless, to the liabilities and claims upon or in respect of the same manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments to or for which the said dean and chapter are now liable, and which are specified and set forth in the schedule hereto annexed, marked B; and all the estate and interest of the said dean and chapter in the said manors, lauds, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, shall immediately upon the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than such duly published Order, become and be transferred to and vested in us and our successors, and that we and they shall thereupon become and be absolutely seized of the same in fee, and shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds thereof, as from the twenty-ninth day of September, in the year last past, and that in consideration of, and for such transfer and conveyance, we shall surrender all right, and be excluded from all participation in respect of the said suspended canonries to and in the property to be excepted from such transfer, and there shall be paid by us to the said dean and chapter, by equal half yearly payments, on the first day of April, and the first day of October in every year, until they shall have been put into possession of real estates, as hereinafter mentioned, the annual sum of four thousand and two hundred pounds (of which annual sum, or of the net yearly proceeds of the estates which may at any time hereafter be substituted for the same, the sum of two thousand and five hundred pounds shall be appropriated in providing stipends of five hundred pounds to each member of the said chapter, and the remainder thereof, together with the annual proceeds of the property to be retained by the said dean and chapter, shall be applied in and towards the sustentation of the fabric of the said cathedral church, and in the maintenance of the services thereof). And also until such re-endowment shall take place, there shall also be paid by us, on the first day of April, and the first day of October in every year, a further sum of eighty pounds (such last-mentioned sum to be by them appropriated, and paid to the Chapter Clerk for the time being, in respect of the profits which would have accrued to him on account of the management of the estates hereby proposed to be transferred to us), and that immediately upon the publication in the London Gazette, of an Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme, one of such half yearly payments respectively, shall be made in respect of the period which elapsed between the said twenty-ninth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and the first day of April now last past, and that a further payment of two thousand and seven hundred pounds shall likewise be made by us to the said dean and chapter, immediately upon such publication as aforesaid, as the consideration for their having abstained from renewing certain leases of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, hereby proposed to be transferred to us, which became renewable prior to the twenty-ninth day of September last, and that the receipt or receipts of the Communar for the time being, of the said dean and chapter, shall be a good and valid discharge to us for all or any, and every such sum or sums of money as shall therein be expressed to have been paid to him by us under the authority of this scheme, when ratified as aforesaid.

“And we further recommend and propose that as a further consideration for such transfer and conveyance, there shall be forthwith paid and expended by us in effecting such repairs of the said cathedral church, and improvements as aforesaid, under the superintendence of, and according to plans and specifications to be prepared by, the architect of the said dean and chapter, and to be approved by us, the said sum of ten thousand pounds, together with interest thereon, at the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, from the said twenty-ninth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, for which due allowance has been made in fixing the amount of the annuity to be paid to the said dean and chapter as aforesaid.

“And we further recommend and propose that none of the monies or estates to be received or acquired under the provisions of this scheme, shall be applicable to the purposes of our common fund (except only so far as it may be necessary to reimburse such fund any advances made thereout under the provisions of this scheme), until, or unless, by and under the like authority, the said dean and chapter shall have been put into possession in fee-simple of real estates sufficient to secure to the said dean and chapter a clear annual income therefrom (after deducting rates, taxes, and other outgoings, including costs of management), of four thousand and two hundred pounds, subject however to all the capitular liabilities, except the payment of one hundred and sixty pounds per annum to the chapter clerk hereinbefore referred to, and the annual sums specified in the schedule hereto annexed, marked B.

“And we further recommend and propose, with the like consent of the said dean and chapter, and of their visitor, that the said sums of stock and cash so described as aforesaid, in the said schedule, marked A; and also any other sums of stock or cash which may be now invested or held in trust for the said dean and chapter, shall as soon as conveniently may be after the ratification of this scheme, be sold out or transferred, and the same, or the proceeds thereof, together with the dividends which have accrued due thereon since the twenty-ninth day of September last be paid to our account at the Bank of England; to be applied towards the objects of this scheme; and particularly to investment in the purchase of any outstanding interest in the estates herein proposed to be transferred to us, or any or either of them; or of any other real estates.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the said Acts, or either of them; or of any other Act of Parliament.

“SCHEDULE A.

“The sum of six hundred and fifteen pounds nine shillings and three pence, three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, standing in the name of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery, to the credit of the matter exparte the London and South-Western Railway Company; the account of the Dean and Chapter of Sarum.

“And also the sum of eight hundred and seventy-nine pounds and seven pence, three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities; standing in the name of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery, to the credit of the matter exparte the Wilts, Somerset, and Weymouth Railway Company, the account of the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of the Blessed Virgin Mary of Sarum, in the county of Wilts.

“And also the sum of one hundred and ninety-two pounds six shillings and two pence, three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, standing in the name of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery, to the credit of the matter of ex parte the London and South Western Railway Company, in the matter of the London and South Western Railway Company's Basingstoke and Salisbury Extension Act, 1846, the account of the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of the Blessed Virgin Mary of Sarum, in the county of Wilts.

"And also the sum of two thousand one hundred and twenty-nine pounds eleven shillings and two pence, three pounds per centum Reduced Bank Annuities, standing in the names of the Commissioners for the reduction of the National Debt to the credit of the said Dean and Chapter, in respect of sales for redemption of land tax, under the authority of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, appointed for the purpose of regulating, directing, approving, and confirming sales, and contracts for sale, made by ecclesiastical bodies, and by all bodies politic or corporate, or companies.

" SCHEDULE B.

"The annual sum of ten pounds to the Reverend Conyngham Ellis, the incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Saint Peter, Cranborne, in the county of Berks, and to his successors, incumbents of the said perpetual curacy, whereof the first payment is to be made on the first day of October in the present year.

"And also the annual sum of ten pounds to the Reverend Henry Mordaunt Fletcher, the incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Christ Church, Derry Hill, in the county of Wilts, and to his successors, incumbents of the said perpetual curacy, whereof the first payment is to be made on the first day of October in the present year.

"And also the annual sum of ten pounds to the Reverend William Wyndham Tatum, the incumbent of the rectory of Saint Martin, in the city of Salisbury, in the said county of Wilts, and to his successors, incumbents of the said rectory, whereof the first payment is to be made on the first day of October in the present year.

"And also the annual sum of ten pounds to the Reverend Henry Smith Pollard, the incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Homington, in the said county of Wilts, and to his successors, incumbents of the said perpetual curacy, whereof the first payment is to be made on the first day of October in the present year.

"And also the annual sum of fifty pounds to the Reverend Newton Smart, the incumbent of the vicarage of Alderbury, in the said county of Wilts, and to his successors, incumbents of the said vicarage, whereof the first payment is to be made on the first day of October in the present year.

"And also the annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds to the Reverend Charles King, the incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Stratford-sub-Castle, in the said county of Wilts, and to his successors, incumbents of the said perpetual curacy, whereof the first payment is to be made on the first day of October in the present year."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint George, situate at Barrow, in the parish of Dalton in Furness, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Carlisle.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint George, situate at Barrow aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of Carlisle, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Dalton in Furness, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint George, Barrow.'

"And with the like consent of the said Samuel, Bishop of Carlisle, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint George, Barrow, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Dalton in Furness, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Carlisle, which is comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing at a point in the middle of the Furness Railway, at Roose Gates, where such railway is intersected by the highway leading from Dalton to Rampside, and extending thence in a direction generally southward along the middle of the same railway, as far as the point at which it is intersected by the highway leading from Barrow, across the sands to Roosecote, and near to Parrock Hall, and extending thence in a straight line south-westward across Roosecote Marsh and across the Roosecote Sands to a boundary stone inscribed "B. St. G. D.C., 1861, No. 1." and placed on the south-eastern extremity of the island of Headin Haw, and extending thence in a straight line south-westward (crossing Barrow Channel) to a boundary stone inscribed "B. St. G. D.C., 1861, No. 2," and placed at the southern extremity of the island of Old Barrow, Ramsey, and extending thence in a straight line due west to the middle of the Walney Channel, and continuing thence in a direction generally north-westward along the middle of the same channel as far as a point near Cocken Cross, opposite to and due west of a boundary stone inscribed "B. St. G. ## PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Corris, in the parish of Tallylyn, in the county of Merioneth, and in the diocese of Bangor.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Tallylyn, and of the parish of Llanwrin, in the county of Montgomery, and in the said diocese of Bangor, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Tallylyn and of the said parish of Llanwrin, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Corris aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Colquhoun, Bishop of Bangor, and patron in right of his see of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Tallylyn aforesaid, and of the rectory of the parish of Llanwrin aforesaid (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Tallylyn and of the said parish of Llanwrin, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Corris aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Corris,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the Right Honourable George Henry Robert Charles, Earl Vane, his heirs and assigns for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Corris, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Tallylyn, in the county of Merioneth, and in the diocese of Bangor, which is situate to the east of an imaginary line, commencing at a boundary stone inscribed "C. C. C., 1861, No. 1," and placed on the boundary which divides the said parish from the parish of Pennal, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the southern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 14 on the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of Tallylyn, and on the map hereunto annexed from the closes numbered respectively 34, 33, 40, and 41, on the same maps, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such fence to its junction with the fence which divides the close numbered 31, on the said maps from the close numbered 41 as aforesaid, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned fence, and along the middle of the fence which divides the closes numbered respectively 30, 29, and 42, on the said maps from the aforesaid close, numbered 41, to the extremity of the last-mentioned fence, and continuing thence in the last-mentioned direction along the middle of the fence, brook, and fence which severally divide the aforesaid close numbered 42 and the close numbered 44 on the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 45 and 46 on the same maps (crossing the turnpike road leading from Dolgelly to Machynlleth) to the junction of the last-mentioned fence with the fence which divides the aforesaid close numbered 44 from the close numbered 60 on the said maps, and extending thence, first north-westward along the middle of the last-mentioned fence, and then north-eastward along the middle of the fences which divide the closes numbered respectively 43, 28, 27, and 25, on the said maps from the aforesaid close numbered 60, and from the close numbered 61 on the same maps, to a boundary stone inscribed "C. C. C. 1861, No. 2," and placed on the boundary which divides the said parish of Tallylyn from the parish of Dolgelly, in the same county and diocese, at the northern extremity of the fence dividing the close numbered 25 from the close numbered 61, as aforesaid.
No. 22556.

"And also all that portion of the parish of Llanwrin, in the county of Montgomery, and in the said diocese of Bangor, which is situate to the west of an imaginary line, commencing on the boundary which divides the said parish of Llanwrin from the said parish of Tallylyn, at a point in the middle of the River Dulas, opposite to a boundary stone inscribed "C. C. C. 1861, No. 3," and placed at the northern extremity of the fence which divides the close numbered 5 on the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of Llanwrin, and on the aforesaid map hereunto annexed, from certain uninclosed mountain land, and extending thence first south-westward to and along the middle of the last-mentioned fence, and then north-westward along the middle of the same fence to the fence which divides the close numbered 4 on the last-mentioned maps from the uninclosed mountain land aforesaid, and extending thence first in the last-named direction along the middle of the last-mentioned fence to its junction with the fence which divides the close numbered 18 on the same maps from the uninclosed mountain land aforesaid, and extending thence, first southward and then eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned fence, and of the fences which divide the closes numbered respectively 19, 33, 34, 36, and 41, on the last-mentioned maps from the uninclosed mountain land aforesaid to the middle of the Glesyrch Brook, and extending thence first southward and then south-westward, down the middle of such brook to the boundary in the middle of the River Dulas aforesaid, which divides the said parish of Llanwrin from the parish of Pennal aforesaid."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Corris, in the parish of Tallylyn, in the county of Merioneth, be accordingly formed; and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation with respect to the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and that the said right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church shall belong to and be exercised by The Right Honourable George Henry Robert Charles, Earl Vane, his heirs and assigns for ever; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Bangor.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861;

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the vicarage of Radway, in the county of Warwick and diocese of Worcester, for the patronage of the rectory of Sperrall, in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas your Majesty is seised in fee, in right of the Crown, of the patronage of the said vicarage of Radway, and the value of the said benefice does not exceed twenty pounds in the Queen's books.

"And whereas the Reverend George Miller, Clerk, of Radway aforesaid, is seised in fee of the patronage of the said rectory of Sperrall.

"And whereas by the third section of the firstly above recited Act, it is enacted that the word 'person' shall include any corporation, and the master, provost, warden, or head of any college or collegiate establishment, and the master, guardian, or head of any hospital, and the governing body respectively entitled in his or their corporate capacity to any such patronage; and shall also extend to and include the Queen's Majesty, as well in respect of patronage vested or to be vested in, or exercised by, Her Majesty in right of the Crown as in right of the Duchy of Lancaster or of the Duchy of Cornwall; and in every case of exchange in right of the Crown where the benefice is above the yearly value of twenty pounds in the Queen's books, the assent of Her Majesty shall be testified by the signature of the Lord High Treasurer or First Commissioner of the Treasury for the time being; and when such yearly value shall be twenty pounds or under, such assent shall be testified by the signature of the Lord High Chancellor; and the assent of Her Majesty, when the patronage is in respect of the Duchy of Lancaster, shall be testified by the signature of the Chancellor of the Duchy; and when the patronage is in respect of the Duchy of Cornwall, such assent shall be testified by two or more of the principal officers of the said Duchy, to be appointed in manner provided for appointment of officers to grant leases, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session held in the first and second years of the reign of his late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter five, which assent they are hereby authorized and empowered to give; and in every case of exchange in right of the Duchy of Cornwall, when there is a Duke of Cornwall, the assent of the said Duke shall be testified in writing under the Privy Seal of the said Duke first had and obtained for that purpose.

"And whereas by the forty-second section of the secondly above recited Act, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for any person within the meaning of the term 'person' as the same is interpreted by the firstly above recited Act, to exchange, under the provisions of the same Act, any advowson or ecclesiastical patronage belonging to such person for any advowson or ecclesiastical patronage belonging to any ecclesiastical corporation, aggregate or sole, or any other person.

"And whereas the Right Honourable Richard Baron Westbury, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, acting on behalf of your Majesty, and the said George Miller, have signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said benefices may be exchanged as hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative values of the said benefices and patronage; and we do hereby certify to your Majesty that the values and particulars of the said benefices respectively are as set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed.

"Now, therefore, with the assent of the said Richard Baron Westbury, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, acting on behalf of your Majesty, and of the said George Miller, in testimony whereof the said Richard Baron Westbury has signed and the said George Miller has signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the patronage of, or perpetual right of nomination to, the said vicarage of Radway shall be assigned and transferred from your Majesty and your successors in right of the Crown, and shall become and be vested in, and shall and may be exercised by the said George Miller, his heirs and assigns for ever, and that in exchange for the same the patronage of, or perpetual right of nomination to, the said rectory of Sperrall shall in like manner be assigned and transferred from the said George Miller and his heirs, and shall become and be vested in, and shall and may be exercised by your Majesty and your successors in right of the Crown.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.”

“ SCHEDULE.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate at Pill, in the parish of Easton-in-Gordano, otherwise the parish of Saint George, in the county of Somerset, and in the diocese of Bath and Wells.”

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Easton-in-Gordano, otherwise Saint George, and of the parish of Portbury, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Easton-in-Gordano, otherwise Saint George, and of the said parish of Portbury, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church, situate at Pill aforesaid:

“Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Robert John, Baron Auckland, Bishop of Bath and Wells, the bishop of the diocese; of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, the patron in right of his see of the vicarage of the parish of Easton-in-Gordano, otherwise Saint George aforesaid; and of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of Worcester, the patron in right of his see of the vicarage of the parish of Portbury aforesaid, (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Easton-in-Gordano, otherwise Saint George, and of the said parish of Portbury, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church called Christ Church, situate at Pill aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Christ Church, Pill.’

“And we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, and the said Henry Bishop of Worcester, (testified as aforesaid) that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Christ Church, Pill, shall belong to and be exercised by the Reverend Thomas Henry Mirehouse, vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Easton-in-Gordano, otherwise Saint George aforesaid, and his assigns, for and during the term of his natural life, and from and after his decease shall belong to and be exercised by the Bishop of Bath and Wells and his successors, bishops of the same see for ever.

“We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The Consolidated Chapelry of Christ Church, Pill, being:—

“All that portion of the parish of Easton-in-Gordano, otherwise the parish of Saint George, in the county of Somerset, and in the diocese of Bath and Wells, which is comprised within the hamlet of Pill.

"And also all that detached portion of the parish of Portbury, in the same county and diocese, which is comprised within the tithing of Ham Green."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof; and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church called Christ Church situate at Pill, in the parish of Easton-in-Gordano, otherwise the parish of Saint George, in the county of Somerset be accordingly formed; and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation with respect to the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and that the said right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church shall belong to and be exercised by the Reverend Thomas Henry Mirehouse, vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Easton-in-Gordano, otherwise Saint George, in the county of Somerset aforesaid, and his assigns for and during the term of his natural life, and from and after his decease, shall belong to and be exercised by the Bishop of Bath and Wells and his successors, bishops of the same see for ever; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Bath and Wells.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Anslow, in the parish of Rolleston, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Rolleston and of the parish of Tutbury, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the respective churches of such parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Rolleston and of the said parish of Tutbury should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Anslow aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lichfield, and of Sir Oswald Mosley, of Rolleston Hall, in the said county of Stafford, Baronet, the patron of the rectory of the parish of Rolleston aforesaid and of the vicarage of the parish of Tutbury aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Rolleston and of the said parish of Tutbury, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Anslow aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Anslow,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry should belong to, and be exercised by, the said Sir Oswald Mosley, his heirs and assigns for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Anslow, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Rolleston, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, which is situate to the southwest of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary dividing such parish from the parish of Burton-upon-Trent, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of Long Hedge-lane, and extending thence first eastward and then northward along the middle of such lane to a point in the middle of the turnpike road, leading from Burton-upon-Trent to Tutbury; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such turnpike road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of a private occupation road leading to Rolleston Park, and extending thence westward to and along the middle of such private occupation road to the boundary dividing the said parish of Rolleston from the parish of Tutbury, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield aforesaid.

"And also all that portion of the said parish of Tutbury which is situate to the south of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary dividing the parish of Tutbury from the parish of Rolleston aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the fence forming the northern boundary of Stockley Park, and extending thence first westward, then northward, and then again westward along the middle of such fence to a point in the middle of the road leading from Belmot-green to Belmot-gate, opposite to the middle of the western extremity of the same fence, and extending thence first southward and then south-westward along the middle of the last-mentioned road to the boundary which again divides the said parish of Tutbury from the parish of Rolleston aforesaid."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed

into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Anslow, in the parish of Rolleston, in the county of Stafford, be accordingly formed; and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation, with respect to the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and that the said right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church shall belong to, and be exercised by, Sir Oswald Mosley, of Rolleston Hall, in the said county of Stafford, Baronet, his heirs and assigns for ever; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the first and second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the first and second years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, situate in the district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of All Saints, situate in the district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London; and of the Reverend John Philip Gell, the incumbent of the said district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill; testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named "The District Chapelry of All Saints, Notting Hill."

"And with the like consents of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, and John Philip Gell, testified as aforesaid, we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church; and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of All Saints, Notting Hill, being:—

"All that part of the district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, wherein the present incumbent of such district parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the east of an imaginary line commencing at a point in the middle of the Ladbroke road, where such road is intersected by the road leading from the northern end of Lansdowne-crescent to the western end of the street called Ladbroke-gardens, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said first-named road and across Lancaster-road to a boundary stone, inscribed "N.H. A.S. D.C., 1861," and placed on the northern side of the last-named road, and extending thence in the same direction and in a straight line to a point on the boundary dividing the said district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, from the consolidated chapelry of Saint John Kensall-green, in the same county and diocese, the said last-mentioned point being in the centre of the bridge which carries Portobello-lane over the Great Western Railway; and all which part of the said district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, is situate to the north of another imaginary line commencing at the before-mentioned point in the middle of the Ladbroke-road, where such road is intersected by the road leading from the northern end of Lansdowne-crescent to the western end of the street called Ladbroke-gardens as aforesaid, and extending thence eastward to and along the middle of such last-named street to the boundary dividing the said district parish from the new parish of Saint Peter, Notting Hill, in the same county and diocese, and continuing thence in the same direction along the last-mentioned boundary as far as a point in the middle of the Ledbury-road."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, situate in the district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, in the county of Middlesex, to be called "The District Chapelry of All Saints, Notting Hill," be accordingly made; and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty, of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter sixty, of the act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Michael, Stockwell, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas, under the authority of an Order in Council, made by His late Majesty King George the Fourth, on the twentieth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, and duly published in the London Gazette, on the twenty-ninth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty five, a portion of the parish of Saint Mary, Lambeth, was set out and assigned as a district parish for the consecrated church of Saint Mark, situate at Kennington, in the said parish of Saint Mary, Lambeth, under the title of the "Kennington District," but such order did not take effect until after the then next avoidance of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Mary, Lambeth.

"And whereas, under the authority of an order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the tenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, and duly published in the London Gazette of the twenty-third day of the same month, a portion of the said parish of Saint Mary, Lambeth, comprising a part of the intended district parish of Saint Mark, Kennington aforesaid, was duly assigned as a district to the church of Saint Michael, situate at Stockwell aforesaid, and was called "The Chapelry District of Saint Michael, Stockwell."

"And whereas, such chapelry district has, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, since become a new parish, such as is contemplated by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven.

"And whereas an avoidance of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Mary, Lambeth, took place in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and thereupon the said Order in Council of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, assigning the said district parish of Saint Mark, Kennington, took complete effect.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Michael, Stockwell, should be altered so as to include within such new parish a further or additional portion of the said district parish of Saint Mark, Kennington.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Charles Richard, Bishop of Winchester; of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend John Bird, Archbishop of Canterbury, the patron in right of his see of the perpetual curacy of the district parish of Saint Mark, Kennington aforesaid; of the Reverend Charlton Lane, the incumbent of the same perpetual curacy, and, as such incumbent, the patron of the perpetual curacy of the new parish of Saint Michael, Stockwell aforesaid; and of the Reverend Henry Thompson, the incumbent of the last-mentioned perpetual curacy (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Michael, Stockwell, should be altered so as to include therein all that portion of the said district parish of Saint Mark, Kennington, wherein the present incumbent thereof now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the west by an imaginary line extending along the middle of Stockwell-road, and on the south by another imaginary line extending along the middle of Love-lane, and on all other sides by the said new parish of Saint Michael, Stockwell, and all which portion is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink, and that the same portion of such district parish should become and be and form part of the new parish of Saint Michael, Stockwell aforesaid.

"And we humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed alteration of the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Michael, Stockwell, in the county of Surrey, be accordingly made and effected agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Winchester.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church or chapel called the Weald Chapel, situate at Weald, in the parish of Sevenoaks, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church or chapel situate at Weald aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend John Bird, Archbishop of Canterbury, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Sevenoaks, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Sevenoaks, Weald.'

"And with the like consent of the said John Bird, Archbishop of Canterbury, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference:

"The District Chapelry of Sevenoaks Weald, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Sevenoaks, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, which is situate to the south of an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides such parish from the parish of Chevening, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the road which leads from Ide-hill, past the southern side of the Ashgrove estate, and past the southern side of Sevenoaks Common, to the turnpike-road leading from Sevenoaks to Tunbridge, and extending thence eastward along the middle of the first-described road to the middle of the turnpike-road aforesaid, and extending thence south-eastward, along the middle of such turnpike-road, for a distance of two hundred and seventy-five yards, to a point opposite to the middle of the western end of the road which leads past the south-eastern side of Knowle Park to Fawk Common, and extending thence first eastward to and along the middle of the last-described road, and then north-eastward along the middle of the same road as far as the boundary which divides the said parish of Sevenoaks from the chapelry of Seal, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof; and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church or chapel called the Weald Chapel, situate at Weald, in the parish of Sevenoaks, in the county of Kent, to be called "The District Chapelry of Sevenoaks Weald," be accordingly made; and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners, with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Canterbury.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Llanarmon-yn-Yale, in the county of Denbigh, and in the diocese of Saint Asaph.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Llanarmon-yn-Yale, hereinafter mentioned and described, such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship, should be constituted a separate district, in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas certain tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, issuing and arising or payable out of or in respect of certain lands and hereditaments, situate within the said parish of Llanarmon-yn-Yale, and formerly belonging to the sinecure rectory of Llanarmon-yn-Yale, in the same county and diocese, have become vested in us, under the provisions of the herein-firstly named Act.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas Vowler, Bishop of Saint Asaph, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Llanarmon-yn-Yale, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Erryrys.'

"And we further recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed, according to the provisions of the said secondly mentioned Act, the sum of one hundred pounds, and that so soon as a church shall have been built within such district, and shall have been duly approved by us and consecrated as the church of such district, and for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish the further sum of fifty pounds, making together the annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the said sums of one hundred pounds and one hundred and fifty pounds shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November, in each and every year; and that the first of each of such respective payments, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or the first day of November next, after the day of the date of the license of such minister, or of the approval and consecration of such church as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or incumbency of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or perpetual curate, making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish: Provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land tithe or other hereditament of equivalent value should be conveyed or secured to such minister or perpetual curate and his successors in fee, nothing herein, or in any other scheme contained, shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

" SCHEDULE.

"The District of Erryrys, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Llanarmon-yn-Yale, in the county of Denbigh, and in the diocese of Saint Asaph, which is situate to the north of an imaginary line, commencing on the boundary dividing such parish from the parish of Llanbedr, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the turnpike road leading from Ruthyn to Llanferris, opposite to a boundary stone inscribed "E. D. 1861, No. 1," and placed on the northern side of such turnpike road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the same turnpike road, for a distance of one thousand one hundred and thirty-six yards or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the western end of a certain road leading past the southern side of Ffynnon-y-berth, to the turnpike road leading from Llanferris to Tryddin; and extending thence eastward to and along the middle of such road, leading past the southern side of Ffynnon-y-berth as aforesaid, to its junction with the last-mentioned turnpike road, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the same turnpike road, for a distance of one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one yards or thereabouts, to the point where such turnpike road is intersected by the road leading from Glanrafon, past the western side of Brynmowyion to the hillocks of Spar; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned road, for a distance of three hundred and sixty-two yards, to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed "E. D. 1861, No. 2," and placed on the eastern side of such road; and extending thence eastward in a straight line, first to the said boundary stone, and thence across the closes numbered respectively 1060, 1234, 1221, 1223, 1224, 1242, and 1239, upon the Tithe Commutation map of the said parish of Llanarmon-yn-Yale, and upon the map hereunto annexed, to another boundary stone inscribed "E. D. 1861, No. 3," and placed on the western side of the road leading from the hillocks of Spar aforesaid, past the northern side of the lands known respectively as Waen Castell, the Bog mine, and Waen Dyllog, towards Pen-y-foil; and extending thence first eastward, and then in a direction generally south-eastward along the middle of the last described road, for a distance of one thousand eight hundred and nineteen yards or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of the road leading from such last described road, past the western side of the lands known respectively as Bryn Bras and Allt Rhos, to the turnpike road leading from Llanferris to Tryddin aforesaid; and extending thence southward to and along the middle of the last described road to the middle of the last mentioned turnpike road; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the same turnpike road, to a point upon the boundary dividing the said parish of Llanarmon-yn-Yale, from the chapelry of Tryddin, in the county of Flint, and in the said diocese of Saint Asaph, opposite to a boundary stone inscribed "E. D. 1861, No. 4," and placed on the northern side of such turnpike road."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the parish out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such incumbent and patron have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Saint Asaph.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-four; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls within the parish or chapelry of Kingswear, in the county of Devon and diocese of Exeter, and within the district parish of Lower Brixham, in the parish of Brixham, in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas your Majesty, in right of the crown, is patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Brixham, and is also patron of the said district parish of Lower Brixham.

"And whereas it is necessary under the seventy-fourth section of the firstly-mentioned Act, that benefices to be relatively affected by its provisions should be in the same patronage.

"And whereas the Reverend Adolphus Frederick Carey, Clerk, the present vicar of the said vicarage of Brixham, and as such, the patron of the said perpetual curacy of Kingswear, is desirous, with a view to bringing such perpetual curacy within the provisions of the said section, that the patronage of the said perpetual curacy should be transferred to, and vested in, your Majesty in right of the crown, and your successors, as hereinafter proposed.

No. 22556.

"And whereas the endowments of the vicarage of the said parish of Brixham are of considerable amount, and comprise, inter alia, the tithes or rent-charges, in lieu of tithes, particularly described in the two schedules hereunto annexed.

"And whereas that portion of the said tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, which is described in the first of such schedules, arises within the said district parish of Lower Brixham, and that portion of the said tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes which is described in the second schedule hereunto annexed, arises within the said parish or chapelry of Kingswear.

"And whereas a desire has been expressed to us, and it appears to us be expedient that arrangements should be made for apportioning the income of the said vicarage and parish of Brixham between the vicar thereof and the incumbents of the said district parish of Lower Brixham and of the said perpetual curacy of Kingswear, in manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of The Right Honourable Henry John, Viscount Palmerston (First Lord of your Majesty's Treasury, and as such authorized to consent on behalf of the Crown, as patron of the said vicarage and parish of Brixham, and of the said district parish of Lower Brixham), of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of Exeter, and of the Reverend Adolphus Frederick Carey, Clerk, the present vicar of the said vicarage and parish of Brixham (in testimony of which consent they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme). We humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such Order, the right of patronage of the said perpetual curacy of Kingswear, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto, and to the church thereof, shall be assigned to, and shall become absolutely vested in your Majesty, in right of the Crown and your successors.

"And we further recommend and propose that the tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, which are particularly described in the first schedule hereunto annexed, shall, in like manner, and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to, and shall become absolutely vested in the incumbent of the said district parish of Lower Brixham and his successors, incumbents of the same district parish.

"And we further recommend and propose that the tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, which are particularly described in the second schedule hereunto annexed, shall, in like manner, and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to, and shall become absolutely vested in, the incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Kingswear and his successors, incumbents of the same perpetual curacy.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section sixty-seven; and of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, section twelve, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section sixty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, section twelve, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"We humbly recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us out of the common fund in the said Act mentioned, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being, of each of the benefices or churches described in the first schedule hereunto annexed, the annual sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice or church, in the last column of the same schedule, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November, in each year.

"And we further recommend and propose that the messuage, lands, hereditaments, and premises described in the second schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parish of Mexborough, in the county and diocese of York, with their appurtenances formerly belonging to the Archdeaconry of the West Riding of York, and now vested in us and all our estate and interest therein, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying the same, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Mexborough.

"And we further recommend and propose with the consent of the Reverend James Richard Quirk, clerk, the present perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Attleborough, in the county of Warwick and diocese of Worcester, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the messuages, lands, hereditaments, and premises described in the third schedule hereunto annexed, situate at Attleborough aforesaid, and now vested in us, shall, in like manner, and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Attleborough: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend of fifteen pounds, which, under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the seventeenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, was made payable by us to the said perpetual curate or incumbent, shall be reduced to an annual sum or stipend of eleven pounds.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent the further augmentation by us of any of the said benefices or churches, if it shall be deemed fit; and that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the incumbent of any of the said benefices or churches, or instead of any part of such annual sum, a gross sum equivalent thereto should be substituted, or that any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed to such benefice or church in fee, nothing herein, or in any other scheme contained, shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution, or from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

And also all those two messuages, tenements, or dwelling-houses, and outbuildings, erected and built upon the said land, or upon some part thereof, and now or late in the occupation of the said Charles Gould and Samuel Wood."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the several dioceses of York, London, Durham, Saint David's, Gloucester and Bristol, Manchester, Ripon, Salisbury, and Worcester.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-one, sections thirteen and twenty-three, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty, chapter forty-one, sections thirteen and twenty-three, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts within the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, and diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas, under the provisions of the said Act, and of the Acts therein recited, certain monies have, from time to time, been paid to us by the Dean and Canons of Manchester, and the same, together with the accumulations of interest arising therefrom, are now in our hands, and are applicable, under such provisions, to making better provision for the cure of souls in the said parish of Manchester.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us out of the monies now in our hands, subject to the provisions of the said Act, on the first day of November, and the first day of May next, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices or churches described in the schedule hereunto annexed, one moiety of the sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice or church, in the last column of the same schedule.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis;" it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, burials in any part or parts of the metropolis, or in any burial-ground or places of burial in the metropolis, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that from and after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such part or parts of the metropolis, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the parishes in which any burial-grounds or places of burial affected by such representation shall be situate, or on some other conspicuous places within the part or parts of the metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month at the least before such representation is so considered; provided always, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk of the parish hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials should be forthwith discontinued in the Quakers' Burial-ground, Hanover-street, Peckham, in the parish of Camberwell;

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twenty-fifth day of July last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the fourth day of September last, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the above recited Act;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be forthwith discontinued in the Quakers' Burial-ground, Hanover-street, Peckham, in the parish of Camberwell.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis;" it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation, shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish;

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representations, has made certain representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications;

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twenty-sixth day of June last, to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the sixth day of August last, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued, with the following modifications, as follows; viz.:

BRADFORD, YORKSHIRE.—Forthwith in the parish churchyard, and in the Salem, Eastbrook, Horton-lane Chapelyards, in Great Horton Episcopal and Primitive Methodist Chapelyards, except in now existing family vaults and graves which are free from water, can be opened without disturbance of human remains, and in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal, and entombed in an airtight manner.

DURHAM.—In the churchyard of St. Giles, on and after the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, except in graves not less than five feet deep, which can be opened without the exposure of coffins, or the disturbance of remains.

LLANELLY.—Forthwith in the Baptist Burial-ground of Felin Foel, except in such now existing family graves as can be opened not less than five feet deep, without digging up bones or exposing coffins.

ELM, ISLE OF ELY.—Forthwith in the parish church, and, from and after the first of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the churchyard of the same.

RISCA, MONMOUTHSHIRE.—Forthwith in the churchyard of Risca, in the county of Monmouth, except for the burial of widowers, widows, parents, and unmarried children of those already buried therein; no graves to be used which are not free from water and remains to the depth of five feet at the least.

That the churchyard of the parish of TATTENHALL, CHESHIRE, shall be drained so as to prevent water from accumulating in any grave or vault, and that the official regulations for new burial grounds, omitting the third, shall be observed therein.

And that the Cemetery, BRIDGEWATER, shall be so drained that water shall not accumulate in any vault or grave.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis;" it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation, shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish;

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representations, has made certain representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications;

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twenty-fifth day of July last, to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the fourth day of September last; and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any of the under mentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued, with the following modifications (except as is herein otherwise directed), as follows; viz.:

MOTTRAM IN LONGDENDALE.—Wholly in the parish church, forthwith.

WONERSH, SURREY.—Forthwith in and beneath the parish church; and from and after the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the churchyard, with the exception, of now existing family vaults and brick graves which can be opened without disturbing human remains, and in which each coffin shall be separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented.

HADDENHAM, CAMBRIDGESHIRE.—Forthwith beneath the parish church and the Baptist Chapel; and from and after the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the churchyard, with the exception of now existing vaults and brick graves which can be opened without exposing human remains, in which each coffin shall be separately en-tomed in brick or stone work properly cemented, and in which the only bodies interred shall be those of husbands, wives, parents, children, brothers, and sisters of persons already buried; in the burial grounds of the Wesleyan and Baptist Chapels, no interments to take place in ground already buried in, except in family vaults or graves, nor within nine feet of the chapels or schools.

HARBOROUGH MAGNA.—In the church and churchyard forthwith, except in now existing vaults in the churchyard, in which each coffin shall be enclosed in an air-tight manner.

Edmund Harrison.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Session of Parliament, held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to order acts to be done by or under the directions of the churchwardens or such other persons as may have the care of any vaults or places of burial, for preventing them from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health; and that every such Order in Council shall be published in the London Gazette, and that such churchwardens or other persons shall do or cause to be done all acts ordered as aforesaid, and the expenses incurred in and about the doing thereof shall be paid out of the poor rates of the parish: provided always, that no such representation shall be made until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the churchwardens or other persons, or one of the churchwardens, or other persons having the care of the vaults or places of burial to which the representation relates:

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after ten days' notice of his intention to make such representation had been duly given to the churchwardens or other persons having the care of the churchyard hereinafter mentioned, has made a representation, stating that he was of opinion that, for the purpose of preventing the said vaults and graves from becoming or continuing dangerous to the public health, an Order should be made for the adoption of the measures hereinafter set forth in respect of the same:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the churchwardens, or such other person or persons as may have the care of the vaults and graves in the under-mentioned churchyard do adopt, or cause to be adopted, the following measures in respect of such vaults and graves; viz.:

NORTH WOOTTON, SOMERSETSHIRE.—That the churchyard be drained so that no water may accumulate in any vault or grave therein.

Edmund Harrison.

No. 22556.

G

At the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in "England" it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards and burial-grounds hereinafter mentioned from the time mentioned in such Orders respectively; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed, as follows; viz.:

In the churchyard of Kirkby Stephen, Westmoreland, from the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, to the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

In the Minster Churchyard, Beverley, from the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, to the nineteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

In the parish churchyard and in the burial-grounds of the Wesleyan, Independent, and Baptist Chapels, Kettering, from the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, to the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

In the churchyard of Pittington, Durham, from the thirty-first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, to the thirtieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

Edmund Harrison.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Grey Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and that interments in the same should be discontinued with the following modifications, viz :

CROWLE, LINCOLNSHIRE.—In the church forthwith, and in the churchyard, from and after the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, except in vaults and walled graves which are free from water and can be opened without disturbance of remains, and in which each coffin shall be separately entombed in an air tight manner.

OVER DARWEN.—In Holy Trinity churchyard, and in the Independent, the Wesleyan, the Wesleyan Association, the Primitive Methodist, and the Independent Lower Chapel yards, except in family vaults and graves which were existing on the fifteenth of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, which are free from water and can be opened without disturbance of remains; every coffin buried in a vault or walled grave to be embedded in charcoal and entombed in an air tight manner, and every coffin buried in the earth to be at least four feet beneath the surface. Also interments in the new part of St. James's churchyard to be discontinued with the like exception, and except for the burial of those dying in the township of Eccleshill Gate, near Pickup Bank.

WHITBY.—In Whitby churchyard on and after the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, except in vaults and walled graves existing on the twentieth of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and in which each coffin shall be separately entombed in an air-tight manner.

LLANELLY.—In the church forthwith, and in the churchyard, except in vaults and walled graves, existing on the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, which are free from water; each coffin to be embedded in charcoal and entombed in an air-tight manner.

RAMSEY, HUNTS.—In the parish church forthwith, and also beneath the Baptist chapel, and from and after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the churchyard, with the exception of existing family vaults, family graves, and reserved grave spaces, which shall be used on the following conditions: that the vaults, family graves, and reserved grave spaces, when required, be opened without exposing remains, and in all vaults and brick graves, each coffin to be separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twenty-ninth day of November next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of or on some conspicuous places within the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said twenty-ninth day of November.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is amongst other things, enacted that in case it appear to Her Majesty in Council, upon the petition of the Local Board of Health, of any district established under the Public Health Act, or upon the petition of any Commissioners elected by the ratepayers, and acting under or by virtue of the powers of any local Act of Parliament for the improvement of any town, parish, or borough, stating that the district of such Local Board of Health, or of such Commissioners, is co-extensive with a district for which it is proposed to provide a burial-ground, and that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing all or any of the burial-grounds within the said district, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, in case Her Majesty see fit so to do, to order that such Local Board shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board, or that such Commissioners shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Commissioners, and thereupon such Local Board or such Commissioners, as the case may be, shall be a Burial Board for such district accordingly; and the powers and provisions of the Acts in the said Act before mentioned (except the provisions relating to the constitution or appointment and resignation of members of Burial Boards), and the provisions therein contained, shall extend to the district of such Board, and to such Board, or to the district of such Commissioners, and to such Commissioners, and to any burial-ground and places for the reception of the bodies of the dead previously to interment, which may be provided by such Board or by such Commissioners, in like manner as to any parish or parishes and the Burial Board thereof, and any burial-ground and any such places as aforesaid provided by such last-mentioned Board, save that no approval, sanction, or authorization of any vestry shall be requisite: Provided always, that notice of such petition, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of such Local Board or of such Commissioners, one month at least before such petition is so considered.

And whereas the Local Board of Health for the district of ACCRINGTON, in the county of Lancaster, established under a certain Act of Parliament, have, under the provisions of the said recited Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that the said district of Accrington is co-extensive with the district for which it is proposed to provide a burial-ground, that no burial board has been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing the burial-grounds therein mentioned, within the said district, subject to the exceptions or qualifications therein set forth, and praying that the said Local Board of Health may be the Burial Board for the said district of Accrington.

And whereas notice of such petition, and of the time when Her Majesty was pleased to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, has been duly published as required by the said Act :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Local Board of Health for the district of Accrington, in the county of Lancaster, shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is amongst other things enacted, that in case it appear to Her Majesty in Council, upon the petition of the Local Board of Health of any district established under the Public Health Act, or upon the petition of any Commissioners elected by the ratepayers, and acting under or by virtue of the powers of any local Act of Parliament for the improvement of any town, parish, or borough, stating that the district of such Local Board of Health, or of such Commissioners, is co-extensive with a district for which it is proposed to provide a burial-ground, and that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing all or any of the burial-grounds within the said district, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, in case Her Majesty see fit so to do, to order that such Local Board shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board, or that such Commissioners shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Commissioners, and thereupon such Local Board or such Commissioners, as the case may be, shall be a Burial Board for such district accordingly ; and the powers and provisions of the Acts in the said Act before mentioned (except the provisions relating to the constitution or appointment and resignation of members of Burial Boards), and the provisions therein contained, shall extend to the district of such Board, and to such Board, or to the district of such Commissioners, and to such Commissioners, and to any burial-ground and places for the reception of the bodies of the dead previously to interment, which may be provided by such Board or by such Commissioners, in like manner as to any parish or parishes and the Burial Board thereof, and any burial-ground and any such places as aforesaid provided by such last-mentioned Board, save that no approval, sanction, or authorization of any vestry shall be requisite : Provided always, that notice of such petition, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of such Local Board or of such Commissioners, one month at least before such petition is so considered.

And whereas the Southport Improvement Commissioners appointed under a certain Act of Parliament in that behalf for the district of Southport, in the county of Lancaster, have, under the provisions of the said recited Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that in the month of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, an Order in Council was made for closing the burial-grounds therein mentioned, within the said district of Southport, subject to the exceptions or qualifications therein set forth ; that there is difficulty and inconvenience in providing requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of the above-named district, under the powers of the Acts passed in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter eighty-five, and in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirty-four ; that the district of the said Commissioners is co-extensive with the district for which it is proposed to provide a burial-ground, and that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district ; and praying that powers may be vested in the said Southport Improvement Commissioners for providing such place or places of burial as may be requisite for the inhabitants of the said district of Southport, under the provisions of the said Acts.

And whereas notice of such petition, and of the time when Her Majesty was pleased to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, has been duly published as required by the said Act :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Southport Improvement Commissioners shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Commissioners, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 11th day of October, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appear to Her Majesty in Council, upon the petition of the Town Council of any borough, stating that an Order in Council has been made for closing all or any of the burial-grounds of one or more parishes, being wholly or partly within such borough, that there is difficulty or inconvenience in providing, under the powers of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of such parish or parishes, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that powers shall be vested in the Council of such borough, for providing such places of burial, under the provisions of the said Act; provided always, that notice of such petition, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in such borough, one month at least before such petition is so considered;

And whereas the Town Council of the borough of Beaumaris, in the county of Anglesey, have presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that an Order in Council has been issued for discontinuing burials (with certain exceptions and modifications therein mentioned) in the parish church and churchyard of Beaumaris; that the said church and churchyard are wholly situate within the parish and borough of Beaumaris; and representing that there is great difficulty and inconvenience in providing a requisite place of burial for the inhabitants of the said parish of Beaumaris, under the provisions of the above recited Act, passed in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign; and praying that powers may be vested in the said Town Council of the borough of Beaumaris for providing requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of the said parish, under the provisions of the various Acts of Parliament relating to burials.

And whereas notice of such petition, and of the time when Her Majesty was pleased to order that the same be taken into consideration by Her Privy Council, has been duly published as required by the said first-recited Act; and it appears to Her Majesty in Council that there is difficulty and inconvenience in providing, under the above-mentioned Act, passed in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of the said parish.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that powers be vested in the Town Council of the borough of Beaumaris for providing requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of the said parish, under the provisions of the said Act.

Edmund Harrison.

Whitehall, October 5, 1861.

The Queen, taking into Her Royal consideration that upon the decease of John, late Baron Elphinstone of that part of the United Kingdom, called Scotland, without issue, which happened on the 15th day of January last, the title and dignity of Baron Elphinstone devolved upon William, now Baron Elphinstone, as eldest son and heir of James Drummond Buller Fullerton-Elphinstone, late of Carbery, in the county of Midlothian, Esquire, Lieutenant-Colonel in the army, and grandson and heir of William Fullerton-Elphinstone, commonly called the Honourable William Fullerton-Elphinstone, the brother of John, Baron Elphinstone, who was the grandfather of the said

John, late Baron Elphinstone; and that, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the brothers and sisters of the said William Baron Elphinstone cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them in case their late father, the said James Drummond Buller Fullerton-Elphinstone, had survived his cousin, the said John, late Baron Elphinstone, and had thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Elphinstone, Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare that Edward Charles Buller-Elphinstone, Esquire, formerly a Captain in the 92nd Regiment of Foot, John Frederick Buller-Elphinstone, Esquire, a Lieutenant and Captain in the Regiment of Scots Fusilier Guards, George James Buller-Elphinstone, a Midshipman in the Royal Navy, Gertrude, the wife of James Hope, of Belmont, in the said county of Midlothian, Esquire, Clementina Fleming, the wife of Douglas Jones, Esquire, a Major in Her Majesty's Army, Anna-Maria, the wife of Thomas Henry Montgomery, Esq., formerly a Captain in the 42nd Regiment of Foot, and Elizabeth Mary, the wife of James Francis Montgomery, of Edinburgh, in the aforesaid county of Midlothian, Clerk, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence as if their said late father had survived the said John, late Baron Elphinstone, and thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Elphinstone:

And Her Majesty hath been further pleased to command that the said Royal Order and declaration be registered in Her College of Arms.

CONTRACT FOR OXEN FOR SALT BEEF FOR HER MAJESTY'S NAVY.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, October 10, 1861.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Monday the 28th instant, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Yard at Deptford, all such as shall from time to time be demanded between the 4th November next and the 31st March, 1862, both days inclusive.

OXON FOR SALT BEEF

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose and which may be obtained on application at the said Office.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of the contract, which may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after half-past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Oxen," and must also be delivered at Somerset-house, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500 for the due performance of the contract.

Chartered Bank of India, Australia, and China.

No. 20, Threadneedle-Street, London,
October 9, 1861.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an Extraordinary General Meeting will be held at the London Tavern on Wednesday, the 30th day of October instant, at one o'clock precisely, for the purpose of declaring an interim dividend for the half year, ended on the 29th day of June last.

The transfer books will be closed from Wednesday the 23rd to Thursday the 31st instant, both inclusive.

By order of the Court,

J. C. Stewart, Secretary.
