NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 37.)—SOUTH PACIFIC OCEAN.
Pelorus Reef.

INFORMATION has been received at the Admiralty, that H.M.S. Pelorus, when navigating between New Zealand and the Fiji islands, on the 12th July, 1861, passed within a third of a mile of a reef, which appeared to be about a quarter of a mile in length, and to have not more than one or two fathoms water on its western end, at the extremity of which breakers were visible. Its position is in lat. $22^{\circ} 52\frac{1}{2}'$ S., long. $176^{\circ} 27' 50''$ West from Greenwich. Pylstaart island was in sight, and bore N. by E. distant 37 miles.

Also, that after dark on the evening of the same day when steering N.W. under reduced sail, soundings were obtained with the hand lead in 7 fathoms, followed by two casts in $6\frac{1}{2}$ and 7 fathoms respectively. The vessel was immediately brought to the wind and tacked, and the deep sea lead hove, but no soundings were obtained within 63 fathoms. This bank, if it exists, is in lat. $21^{\circ} 43'$ S., long. $176^{\circ} 42'$ W.

Caution.—As these shoals lie directly in the track of vessels bound from New Zealand to the windward islands of the Fiji group, the mariner is cautioned to pay great attention to the lead, and to keep a good look out for discoloured water when in this neighbourhood.

The natives of the Friendly islands, who maintain much intercourse with the Fiji group by means of their large canoes, state that they are aware of the existence of many shoals between Tongatábu and the Ono islands to the south of the Fiji group, but are unable to define their position. The only bank of which there is any reliable information, is one of some extent, having 22 fathoms water on it. It was discovered in August, 1860, by three American whalers in company, and the mean of their observations place in lat. $22^{\circ} 43' 176^{\circ} 11' W.$

[The bearings are Magnetic. Variation $10^{\circ} 20'$ E. in 1861.]

By command of their Lordships,
John Washington, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
8th October, 1861.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts, on which these dangers are marked:—Pacific Ocean, General Chart, No. 2683; and Pacific Ocean, Sheet 6, No. 2464.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 40.)—AUSTRALIA—BASS STRAIT.

Fixed Light on Cape Wickham.

THE Marine Board at Hobart Town, Tasmania, has given Notice, that on and after the 1st day of November, 1861, a light will be exhibited from the lighthouse recently erected on the hill near Cape Wickham, at the north end of King Island, in Bass Strait, south coast of Australia.

The light will be a fixed white light, and will be visible from the deck of a vessel when bearing from N.N.E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E., round by the east, to W.N.W. It is placed at an elevation of 280 feet above the mean level of the sea, and should be seen in clear weather from a distance of 24 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is catadioptric, or by lenses, of the first order.

The lighthouse is a circular stone tower, 145 feet high, and painted white. From it the west extreme of Harbinger reef bears W. by N. $\frac{3}{4}$ N., distant $4\frac{1}{2}$ miles, and the east extreme N.W. by W., 4 miles; Navarino shoal N.E. by N., $2\frac{1}{4}$ miles; and south extreme of New Year islands S.W. $\frac{1}{4}$ S., 9 miles, and north extreme S.W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W., 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ miles. The position of the lighthouse is about lat. $39^{\circ} 35'$ S., and long. $143^{\circ} 57'$ East of Greenwich.

Caution.—The attention of Mariners is called to the following extract from the Report of the Lighthouse Commissioners appointed by the Governments of New South Wales, Victoria, South Australia, and Tasmania:—

“In advising the erection of a lighthouse on King island, the Commissioners wish to guard themselves from affording the public any reasonable supposition that this light can be at all considered in the position of a great highway light for the navigation of Bass Strait. The south coast of New Holland, at the western entrance of the Strait, being free from danger, affords, in their opinion, the safest shore for the prudent mariner to approach, and they conceive that the light of King island is only to be regarded as a Beacon for warning navigators of danger, rather than as a leading light to a great thoroughfare.”

[The Bearings are Magnetic. Variation $8^{\circ} 20'$ East in 1861.]

By command of their Lordships,
John Washington, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
24th October, 1861.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Australia, General, No. 1042; Bass Strait, No. 1695; Australia, southern portion, 2759; Indian Ocean, eastern sheet, No. 748c; and Pacific Ocean, sheet 9, No. 2467. Also, Australia Lights List for 1861, No. 118.

CONTRACTS FOR RAISINS, PEPPER, WINE, WHEAT, OATS, TOBACCO, SOAP, AND VINEGAR.

Department of the Comptroller of Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-House, October 18, 1861.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Wednesday the 30th instant, at half-past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:—

Raisins, 25 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Pepper, 5 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Wine Sherry (good sound), 1,000 gallons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Wheat, 4,000 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Oats, 500 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tobacco, 50 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Soap, 200 tons; half to be delivered in one month, and the remainder in one month afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Vinegar, 15,000 gallons; half to be delivered in one month, and the remainder in one month afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The raisins, pepper, wine, and tobacco, to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where they are lying.

Samples of the vinegar (not less than a quart), which the parties tendering may purpose to supply, must accompany their tenders, as the delivery will be required to be made in accordance with the samples which may be accepted, and the vinegar tendered to be No. 20, trade denomination.

¶ The vinegar to be delivered in good, sound, strong, and substantial casks, which are to be retained as long as required by the said Commissioners or their officers without payment therefor, but are to be taken back from the said Victualling Stores (when emptied) by and at the expense of the contractor.

Samples of the Wine (in pints), from each cask, must be produced by the parties tendering, and not samples only for each import mark.

Each tender for tobacco must specify the several trade marks and numbers, and the countries or places of its growth or produce, and a fresh drawn dock sample of each cask or package must be produced by the parties tendering, and any cask or package that is found not to be of the same mark, number, or quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

Samples of the wheat and oats (not less than two quarts of each), of the soap (not less than a bar), of the pepper (not less than 2 lbs.), and of the raisins (not less than 3 lbs.), must be produced by the parties tendering.

A proportional part of the price per bushel of wheat will be paid for any weight exceeding 60 lbs. per bushel.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____" and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

CONTRACT FOR LIGNUM VITÆ.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, October 28, 1861.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 5th November next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Store at Her Majesty's Dock Yard at Portsmouth,

10 tons of WHITE BAHAMA LIGNUM VITÆ, of from 3½ inches to 4 inches in diameter.

A form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Lignum Vita," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £25 per cent. upon the value for the due performance of the contract.
