NOTICE TO MARINERS.

IRELAND—WEST COAST.

Arran Islands' South Lighthouse.

THE Port of Dublin Corporation hereby give notice that, from and after the 1st day of December next, an alteration will be made in the appearance of the Tower of this Lighthouse, which, in order to render it more readily distinguishable as a sea mark by day, will have a Broad White Belt painted on the shaft of the Tower.

Specifications given of the position and appearance of the Lighthouse by Mr. Halpin, Superintendent of Lighthouses.

Arrand Island South Lighthouse is erected on the south-western point of Inisheer, the most southern of the islands, in lat. 53° 2' 40" N., and long. 9° 31' 30" W.

The Tower is circular, of gray limestone below the projecting gallery, and is 112 feet in height from its base to the top of the dome.

In order to render the Lighthouse more readily distinguishable by day, when viewed in line with the higher background of the island, which is of the same limestone, and of the same gray color, a horizontal broad White Belt (28 feet in depth) will be painted on the shaft of the tower. No alteration will be made in the appearance of the projecting gallery, or of the Lantern above it.

The Light will continue to be shown as heretofore—a fixed Light—visible from seaward, between the bearings of S.E. $\frac{3}{4}$ S., round by the Southward to W. b. S., and having its focal plane 110 feet over the mean level of the sea.

As the painting of the White Belt may be interfered with by wet and stormy weather, the work will be commenced before the 1st day of December next.

By Order,
William Lees, Secretary.

In Parliament.—Session 1862.

Garston and Liverpool Railway.

(Abandonment of Portion of Line; Additional Lands.)

IT is intended to apply to Parliament, in the next session thereof, for leave to bring in a Bill to authorize the Garston and Liverpool Railway Committee to abandon the formation of so much of their railway as is authorized to be made between the termination thereof to the south of Parliament-street, in the extra-parochial place of Toxteth Park, in the borough of Liverpool, and the northern side of the timber-yard in Toxteth Park, now, or lately, belonging to and occupied by James Bland, Hugh Pierce, and Quintin Fleming, and numbered 479 on the deposited plans referred to in "The Garston and Liverpool Railway Act, 1861."

The Bill will also enable the said committee to purchase by compulsion or agreement, and the Great Northern Railway Company, and the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Company, either jointly or severally, to take to themselves from the owners, or to accept from any trustees in whom the same may now be vested, a conveyance and transfer of, and to hold certain lands, houses, and other property in the township of Wavertree, and parish of Childwall, in Lancashire, bounded on the east by land of Mr. John Stocks, and by Belle Vue-road; on the north and west by land belonging to the London and North-Western Railway Company, and by the London and North-Western Railway; and on the south by the Wavertree-road; and will enable the said Committee to divert, alter, or close any roads, drains, or sewers within the limits aforesaid; and to convert the said lands and property, or such parts thereof as they may deem fit, into a Railway Station; and will enable the said Great Northern, and Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Companies, or the said Garston and Liverpool Committee to convey to the London and North-Western Railway Company so much of the said lands and property as may not be required by the Committee for their own purposes, and to enable the said London and North Western Railway Company to purchase and hold the lands so conveyed to them; and the said Bill will enable the said Great Northern, and Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway Companies to take from the said London and North Western Railway Company, and to hold certain lands near to or adjoining the aforesaid lands at Wavertree, purchased or to be purchased by the said London and North Western Railway Company, which may not be required by that Company for their own purposes.

And the Bill will for these purposes incorporate with itself such parts as may be necessary of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," and "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," and "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860."

On or before the 30th November instant, duplicate plans describing the lands, houses, and other property intended to be taken in the said township of Wavertree, together with a book of reference containing the names of the owners and lessees, or reputed owners and lessees, and of the occupiers of the same, and together also with a copy of this notice, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for Lancashire, at his office in Preston: and a copy of the said plan, and book of reference, and of this notice, will also be deposited with the parish clerk of Childwall, at his residence.

The Bill will, for the purposes thereof, vary and extinguish rights and privileges, and it will amend the said "Garston and Liverpool Railway Act, 1861," and also the several Acts relating to the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire, the Great Northern, and the London and North Western Railway Companies, if and so far as those Acts are involved in the construction and maintenance of the Garston and Liverpool Railway, and the purchase and holding of the said station land.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 23rd day of December next.

Dated this 8th day of November, 1861.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to authorize the Falmouth Waterworks Company (hereinafter referred to as "the Company," to make and maintain the following reservoirs and aqueducts, with all proper gauge weirs, waste weirs, and other works and conveniences connected therewith respectively, that is to say:—

Two reservoirs to be situate above the existing reservoirs of the Company, on either side of the streams called or known by the name of the College River, for the purpose of damming up and retaining the water that now flows down such streams in such reservoirs, the first of such reservoirs to commence immediately adjoining the existing west reservoir of the Company, and to extend in a westwardly direction for the distance of 270 yards, or thereabouts, and to be situate on certain lands in the parishes of Saint Gluvias and Budock, in the respective occupations of Col. Thomas Rose Wynter, Zachariah Boaden, James Blatch Cox, and Ann Allen; and the second of such reservoirs to commence at the distance of 66 yards, or thereabouts, from the western extremity of the first intended reservoir, and extending in a westerly direction for the distance of 1000 yards, or thereabouts, and to be situate on certain lands in the said parishes of Saint Gluvias and Budock, and in the parish of Mabe, in the respective occupations of the said Ann Allen and Zachariah Boaden, and of Richard Williams, John Dunstan, John Spargo, William Rogers, Edward Hodge Rykyn, and Henry Geach.

An aqueduct or main pipe to be wholly situate in the parish of Budock, commencing from and out of the second mentioned reservoir, to be constructed under the authority of the Bill, and terminating at the said existing reservoirs of the Company, or one of them.

An aqueduct, or main pipe, commencing from and out of an existing conduit or main pipe of the Company, under the turnpike-road leading from Falmouth to Penryn, 150 yards, or thereabouts, to the west of Bowyer's Cellars, in the parish of Falmouth, and terminating at or near to the Docks at Little Falmouth, in the parish of Mylor.

All which reservoirs and aqueducts or main pipes will be situate in the parishes or townships following, or some of them; that is to say:—Saint Gluvias, Budock, Mabe, Penryn, Falmouth Parish, Falmouth Town, and Mylor, all in the county of Cornwall.

And it is proposed by the said intended Bill to authorize the Company to purchase or take on lease, by compulsion or agreement, all lands, buildings, and waters, including the water that now flows down the streams of the College River, in or near the several parishes or townships aforesaid, which they may require for the purposes of the intended works, or grants of rights or easements in, to, over, or connected with any such lands, buildings, and waters, and to stop up, alter, or divert, temporarily or permanently, all highways, streams, pipes, and works which it may be convenient to stop up, alter, or divert in the construction, or for the purposes of the intended works, and to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with any such lands, buildings, and waters, or which would interfere with the construction, maintenance, enjoyment, or use of the intended works, or the powers intended to be granted by the Bill, or any of them, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is proposed by the said intended Bill to extend the limits of the Company for the supply of water, to comprise the parish of Saint Gluvias, including the borough of Penryn, and the parish of Mylor, all in the county of Cornwall, and to authorize the Company to afford a supply to such extended limits, from the water which they are now, or may be authorized to take for supplying water within the parishes of Falmouth and Budock; and to confer upon the Company powers of breaking up streets and highways, and all other usual powers necessary or proper for the purposes of such supply; and to authorize the taking of rates, rents, and charges; to alter the existing rates, rents, and charges; and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of rates, rents, and charges.

And it is proposed by the said intended Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge some of the provisions of "The Falmouth Waterworks Act, 1847," or to repeal such Act, and grant further and other powers instead thereof, to fix and regulate the capital of the Company, to authorize the Company to raise more money by the creation of shares, with or without preference or priority, in payment of dividend or other advantages, and to raise an additional sum by way of loan or mortgage.

And it is proposed by the said intended Bill to incorporate therewith all or some of the provisions of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1815," "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860," and "The Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847," with such variations and alterations as may be necessary or expedient, also more effectually to provide for the undue waste of water belonging to the Company, and to relieve the Company from the necessity of having laid on in their pipes a constant supply of water for domestic purposes.

And notice is hereby given, that on or before the 30th November, 1861, the following deposits of documents will be made, that is to say:—

1.—With the Clerk of the Peace of the county of Cornwall, at his office at Saint Austell, a plan and section (each in duplicate), of the intended reservoirs and aqueducts, showing the line and works thereof respectively, and the lands upon which they are to be made; a book of reference to the plan, and a copy of this notice.

To purchase and take lands, houses, and other property, by compulsion or agreement, for the purposes of the said intended railways, station, and works, and to vary, repeal, or extinguish all existing rights or privileges in any manner connected with such lands, houses, and property, which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, or use of the said intended railways, station, and works, and to confer other rights and privileges, and to alter, divert, or stop up all turnpike and other roads, railways, tramways, aqueducts, bridges, weirs, canals, streams, and rivers, with which it may be necessary to interfere in the construction of the said intended railways and works.
