Whitehall, February 24, 1862.

THE following Address of Condolence on the occasion of the death of His Royal Highness the Prince Consort, which has been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been laid before the Queen by Sir George Grey, and has been received very graciously by Her Majesty :

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Deputies of the several congregations of Protestant Dissenters of the three denominations, Presbyterian, Independent, and Baptist, in and within twelve miles of London, appointed to protect their civil rights, your Majesty's most loyal subjects, firmly attached to your Majesty's Royal House, desire respectfully to express our deep sympathy with your Majesty, as our beloved Queen, under the severe bereavement with which it has pleased the Almighty Ruler to afflict yourself, and your Royal Family, and all your subjects, in calling away by death from your presence and your councils your most Illustrious Consort.

Although the early departure of His Royal Highness has prevented him from fully enjoying that measure of continually increasing public respect and approbation, which all your Majesty's subjects recognize as due to his pre-eminent virtues and merits ; yet, we doubt not, that time will but add to their lustre, and that we, and our children, shall look back on his life as having ennobled all family and social relationships—that he will be regarded as one of the highest of the great men who have left their stamp in the improvement of their age—and that future generations of your Majesty's subjects, in seeing the results of his pious example and his benevolent labours, will perpetuate on him public benediction.

We earnestly pray that your Majesty may be comforted by faith in Him who is the Resurrection and the Life, and by the blessed hope of the reunion of the faithful in Christ; and that you may long be spared to rejoice amidst the admiring congratulations of your subjects in the growth and glory of the seed sown by the hands of your departed Consort.

Signed on behalf of the Deputies,

Foreign Office, February 24, 1862.

The Queen has been pleased to approve of M. Charles Bernard de Jussieu de Senevier as Consul-General at Malta for His Majesty the Emperor of the French.

War Office, 25th February, 1862.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the decoration of the Victoria Cross on the under-mentioned Officers and Non-Commissioned Officer, whose claims to the same have been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, on account of Acts of Bravery performed by them in India, as recorded against their several names; viz.:

Regiment or Corps.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
Bombay Artillery ... (now of the Staff Corps)	Major Richard Harte Keatinge  Date of Act of Bravery, March 17th, 1858	For having rendered most efficient aid at the assault of Chundairee, in voluntarily leading the Column through the breach, which was protected by a heavy cross fire. He was one of the foremost to enter, and was severely wounded in the breach. The Column was saved from a serious loss that would probably have resulted, but for Major Keatinge's knowledge of the small path leading across the ditch, which had been examined during the night by himself and a servant, who declined, when required, to lead the Column, without his master. Having cleared the breach, he led into the Fort, where he was struck down by another dangerous wound. The Commander-in-Chief in India states that the success at Chundairee was mainly owing to this Officer, whose gallantry, really brilliant, he considers was equalled by his ability and devotion. Major Keatinge was at the time a Political Officer with the 2nd Brigade of the Central India Field Force.
2nd Bombay Light Cavalry	Captain James Blair  Date of Acts of Bravery, August 12th, and October, 23rd, 1857	For having on two occasions distinguished himself by his gallant and daring conduct. 1. On the night of the 12th of August, 1857, at Neemuch, in volunteering to apprehend 7 or 8 armed mutineers who had shut themselves up for defence in a house, the door of which he burst open. He then rushed in among them, and forced them to escape through the roof; in this encounter, he was severely wounded. In spite of his wounds he pursued the fugitives, but was unable to come up with them; in consequence of the darkness of the night. 2. On the 23rd of October, 1857, at Jeerum, in fighting his way most gallantly through a body of rebels who had literally surrounded him. After breaking the end of his sword on one of their heads, and receiving a severe sword cut on his right arm, he rejoined his troop. In this wounded condition, and with no other weapon than the hilt of his broken sword, he put himself at the head of his men, charged the rebels most effectually, and dispersed them.
Bengal Police Battalion	Lieutenant Charles George Baker  Date of Act of Bravery, September 27th, 1858	For gallant conduct on the occasion of an attack on the rebels at Suhejee, near Peroo, on the 27th September, 1858, which is thus described in this officer's own words. "The enemy" (at the time supposed to have mustered from 900 to 1000 strong in infantry, with 50 cavalry,) "advanced. Without exchanging a shot, I at once retired slowly, followed up steadily by the rebel line for 100 yards clear of village or jungle, when, suddenly wheeling about my divisions into line, with a hearty cheer, we charged into and through the centre of the enemy's line, Lieutenant Broughton, with his detachment, immediately following up the movement, with excellent effect, from his

Regiment or Corps.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
Bengal Police Battalion	Lieutenant Charles George Baker— continued	"position upon the enemy's left. The rebel "right wing, of about 300 men, broke at once, "but the centre and left, observing the great "labour of the horses in crossing the heavy "ground, stood, and receiving the charge with "repeated volleys, were cut down, or broke "only a few yards ahead of the cavalry. From "this moment, the pursuit was limited to the "strongest and best horses of the force, numbering some 60 of all ranks, who, dashing "into and swimming a deep and wide nullah, "followed the flying enemy through the village "of Russowlee, and its sugar-cane khêts, over "two miles of swamp, and 500 yards into the "thick jungles near Peroo, when, both men "and horses being completely exhausted, I "sounded the halt and assembly, and, collecting my wounded, returned to camp at Mun-jhâen about 6 p.m." The charge ended in the utter defeat of the enemy, and is referred to by Lord Clyde, as deserving of the highest "encomium, on account both of conception and "execution." It is also described as having been "as gallant as any during the war."
25th Bombay Light Infantry	Lieutenant William Francis Frederick Waller Date of Act of Bravery, June 20th, 1858.	For great gallantry at the capture by storm of the fortress of Gwalior, on the 20th June, 1858. He and Lieutenant Rose, who was killed, were the only Europeans present, and, with a mere handful of men, they attacked the fortress, climbed on the roof of a house, shot the gunners opposed to them, carried all before them, and took the fort, killing every man in it.
11th (late 70th) Bengal Native Infantry	Lieutenant John Charles Campbell Daunt Date of Acts of Bravery, October 2nd and November 2nd, 1857	Lieutenant Daunt and Serjeant Dynon are recommended for conspicuous gallantry in action, on the 2nd of October, 1857, with the Mutineers of the Ramgurni Battalion at Chota Behar, in capturing two guns, particularly the last, when they rushed at and captured it by pistoling the gunners, who were mowing the detachment down with grape, one-third of which was hors-de-combat at the time. Lieutenant Daunt is also recommended for chasing, on the 2nd of November following, the Mutineers of the 32nd Bengal Native Infantry across a plain into a rich cultivation, into which he followed them with a few of Rat-tray's Sikhs. He was dangerously wounded in the attempt to drive out a large body of these Mutineers from an enclosure, the preservation of many of his party, on this occasion, being attributed to his gallantry.
53rd Regiment	No. 2165. Serjeant Denis Dynon Date of Act of Bravery, October 2nd, 1857	Lieutenant Daunt is also recommended for chasing, on the 2nd of November following, the Mutineers of the 32nd Bengal Native Infantry across a plain into a rich cultivation, into which he followed them with a few of Rat-tray's Sikhs. He was dangerously wounded in the attempt to drive out a large body of these Mutineers from an enclosure, the preservation of many of his party, on this occasion, being attributed to his gallantry.
Ordnance Department, Bengal	Conductor James Miller Date of Act of Bravery, October 28th, 1857	For having, on the 28th of October, 1857, at great personal risk, gone to the assistance of, and carried out of action, a wounded Officer, Lieutenant Glubb, of the late 38th Regiment of Bengal Native Infantry. He was himself subsequently wounded and sent to Agra. Conductor Miller was at the time employed with heavy howitzers and Ordnance stores attached to a detachment of troops, commanded by the late Colonel Cotton, C.B., in the attack on the above-mentioned date on the rebels who had taken up their position in the Serai at Futteh-pore Sikra, near Agra.

Regiment or Corps.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
Indian Navy	... Midshipman Arthur Mayo  Date of Act of Bravery, November 22nd, 1857	For having headed the charge on the 22nd of November, 1857, in the engagement between the Indian Naval Brigade and the mutineers of the 73rd Native Infantry, and Bengal Artillery, when the former was ordered to charge 2 six-pounders which were keeping up a heavy fire. Mr. Mayo was nearly 20 yards in front of any one else during the advance.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, for the regulation of the duties of postage power, is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage, or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post, of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be made, and it is provided, that the powers thereby given should extend to any increase, or reduction, or remission of postage.

And whereas further powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the post office.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by a certain Warrant in writing under their hands duly made, and bearing date at Whitehall Treasury Chambers, the 19th day of July, 1852, did direct that certain rates of British postage therein mentioned, should be charged and taken upon the transmission of letters between the United Kingdom and any place in the German Postal Union; and between any foreign country through any part of the German Postal Union and any place in the United Kingdom, the said respective letters being conveyed between the United Kingdom and Belgium, by packet boat.

And whereas by a certain other Warrant in writing duly made and bearing date at Whitehall Treasury Chambers, the 27th day of June, 1859, after reciting the said hereinbefore recited Warrant of the 19th day of July, 1852, and that a Postal Convention had been then recently made and entered into between Her Majesty's Government and the Government of His Majesty the King of Prussia, and that it was expedient that further regulations should be made for the transmission by the post, of certain letters in manner therein mentioned, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury did direct, that certain other rates of British postage therein mentioned, should be charged and taken upon the transmission of letters between the United Kingdom and certain foreign countries therein also mentioned, if such respective letters should be prepaid; the said respective letters being conveyed between the United Kingdom and Belgium by packet boat.

And whereas a further Postal Convention has been lately made and entered into between Her Majesty's Government, and the Government of His Majesty the King of Prussia, and it has become expedient by reason thereof to extend the provisions contained in the said recited Warrant of the 29th day of June, 1859, to letters transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Hanover, now chargeable with rates of postage under the said recited Warrant of the 19th day of July, 1852, in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers vested in us in and by the said two hereinbefore recited Acts or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf do by this Warrant (under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided) order and direct, as follows:—

1. On every letter not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to any place in the Kingdom of Hanover, and on every letter not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, posted in the Kingdom of Hanover, addressed to any place in the United Kingdom (the said respective letters being conveyed between the United Kingdom and Belgium by packet boat), there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law on such letters, an uniform rate of British postage of two pence half-penny, if such respective letters be prepaid; and if such respective letters be not prepaid an uniform rate of British postage of three pence half-penny.

2. And on every letter transmitted as is hereinbefore mentioned, exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, there shall be charged and taken progressive and additional rates of postage, according to the scale of weight and number of rates following; that is to say:

On every letter so transmitted, exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage:
On every letter so transmitted, exceeding one ounce, and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage:

On every letter so transmitted, exceeding two ounces, and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of postage:

And on every letter so transmitted, exceeding three ounces, and not exceeding four ounces in weight, eight rates of postage:

And for every ounce in weight above the weight of four ounces, there shall be charged and taken upon every letter so transmitted two additional rates of postage, and every fraction of an ounce above the weight of four ounces shall be charged as an additional ounce; and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight.

3. If any letter shall be posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to the Kingdom of Hanover, or if any letter shall be posted in the Kingdom of Hanover, addressed to the United Kingdom, and the postage paid thereon, shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such letter would be liable under or by virtue of this Warrant, every such letter shall be forwarded, charged with the amount of the difference between the sum paid for postage thereon, and the rate of postage payable thereon, under or by virtue of this Warrant, as an unpaid letter, after deducting the amount of postage so paid thereon as aforesaid.

4. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to extend to any letters passing by the post between the United Kingdom and the Kingdom of Hanover, via France, nor to any letters passing by the post between the United Kingdom and the Kingdom of Hanover, via Belgium, sent otherwise than in Prussian closed mails, nor to any letters posted in, or addressed to, any part of the Kingdom of Hanover, and transmitted by the post between any part of the Kingdom of Hanover and any of Her Majesty's Colonies, or any foreign country, through the United Kingdom, nor to any letters transmitted between any foreign country, through any part of the Kingdom of Hanover and the United Kingdom, nor to any letters transmitted between any foreign country, through any part of the Kingdom of Hanover and any of Her Majesty's Colonies or any foreign country, through the United Kingdom, and conveyed between the United Kingdom and Belgium by packet boat, all which said respective letters shall be charged and chargeable with the same rates of postage as are now chargeable and payable thereon, and as if this present Warrant had not been made.

5. The terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said recited Warrant of the 19th day of July, 1852.

6. This Warrant shall come into operation on the 1st day of March, 1862.

7. The Commissioners, for the time being, of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby altered, or the regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.
