

Regiment or Corps.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
Bengal Police Battalion	Lieutenant Charles George Baker— continued	“ position upon the enemy’s left. The rebel “ right wing, of about 300 men, broke at once, “ but the centre and left, observing the great “ labour of the horses in crossing the heavy “ ground, stood, and receiving the charge with “ repeated volleys, were cut down, or broke “ only a few yards ahead of the cavalry. From “ this moment, the pursuit was limited to the “ strongest and best horses of the force, num- “ bering some 60 of all ranks, who, dashing “ into and swimming a deep and wide nullah, “ followed the flying enemy through the village “ of Russowlee, and its sugar-cane khêts, over “ two miles of swamp, and 500 yards into the “ thick jungles near Peroo, when, both men “ and horses being completely exhausted, I “ sounded the halt and assembly, and, collect- “ ing my wounded, returned to camp at Mun- “ jhâen about 6 P.M.” The charge ended in the utter defeat of the enemy, and is referred to by Lord Clyde, as deserving of the highest “ encomium, on account both of conception and “ execution.” It is also described as having been “ as gallant as any during the war.”
25th Bombay Light Infantry	Lieutenant William Francis Frederick Waller Date of Act of Bravery, June 20th, 1858.	For great gallantry at the capture by storm of the fortress of Gwalior, on the 20th June, 1858. He and Lieutenant Rose, who was killed, were the only Europeans present, and, with a mere handful of men, they attacked the fortress, climbed on the roof of a house, shot the gunners opposed to them, carried all before them, and took the fort, killing every man in it.
11th (late 70th) Bengal Native Infantry	Lieutenant John Charles Campbell Daunt Date of Acts of Bravery, October 2nd and November 2nd, 1857	Lieutenant Daunt and Serjeant Dynon are recommended for conspicuous gallantry in action, on the 2nd of October, 1857, with the Mutineers of the Ramgurn Battalion at Chota Behar, in capturing two guns, particularly the last, when they rushed at and captured it by pistoling the gunners, who were mowing the detachment down with grape, one-third of which was hors-de-combat at the time.
53rd Regiment ...	No. 2165. Serjeant Denis Dyon Date of Act of Bravery, October 2nd, 1857	Lieutenant Daunt is also recommended for chasing, on the 2nd of November following, the Mutineers of the 32nd Bengal Native Infantry across a plain into a rich cultivation, into which he followed them with a few of Rattray’s Sikhs. He was dangerously wounded in the attempt to drive out a large body of these Mutineers from an enclosure, the preservation of many of his party, on this occasion, being attributed to his gallantry.
Ordnance Department, Bengal	Conductor James Miller Date of Act of Bravery, October 28th, 1857	For having, on the 28th of October, 1857, at great personal risk, gone to the assistance of, and carried out of action, a wounded Officer, Lieutenant Glubb, of the late 38th Regiment of Bengal Native Infantry. He was himself subsequently wounded and sent to Agra. Conductor Miller was at the time employed with heavy howitzers and Ordnance stores attached to a detachment of troops, commanded by the late Colonel Cotton, C.B., in the attack on the above-mentioned date on the rebels who had taken up their position in the Serai at Futteh-pore Sikra, near Agra.
