

health, no new burial-ground should be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and that interments in the same should be discontinued, with the following modifications, viz. :—

BRISTOL.—Forthwith beneath the Lodge-street Chapel, in the parish of St. Augustine, and beneath the Castle-green Independent Chapel, in Castle Precincts, both in the city of Bristol.

PAINSWICK.—In the churchyard of Painswick (except in vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be embedded in powdered charcoal and separately entombed in an airtight manner), on and after the thirty-first December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, except of the dead of the Tithings of Edge and Spoonbed, and that interments in the church itself should be forthwith discontinued. Also that interments in the Independent Chapel at Painswick should be forthwith discontinued, and in the burial-ground on the thirty-first December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and that in the meantime no coffin should be buried in a grave less than four feet deep, which can be opened without disturbance of coffins or of human remains.

WRYHILL.—Forthwith beneath the church. That vaults and graves beneath the church be filled up with fresh earth, and be then covered with a layer of concrete, six inches thick, and that the works be superintended by a medical practitioner, and proper disinfectants be used for the protection of the workmen.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the fifth day of May next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of or on some conspicuous places within the parishes affected by such representations, one month before the said fifth day of May.
