TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, for the regulation of the duties of postage, certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed, and made chargeable and payable upon, for, and in respect of letters, newspapers, parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers, transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post, and by the same Act powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of postage therein mentioned.

And whereas further powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the post office.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers vested in them, in and by the said before mentioned Acts; and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, did, by a certain Warrant under the hands of them, the said Commissioners, bearing date at Whitehall Treasury Chambers, the 16th day of October, 1857, (amongst other things,) order and direct that all packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, posted in the United Kingdom, might be transmitted by the post within the United Kingdom, subject to the several rates of postage and to the several regulations thereinafter contained. And the said Commissioners did further order and direct that, for the purposes of that Warrant, the terms "books, publications, or works of literature or art," should mean and comprise all such articles as in their general character were either literary, or consisted of printed, written, engraved, or lithographed matter (although not strictly literary), including books (whether printed, written, or plain), publications or compilations (whether in print or in manuscript), almanacks, printed or lithographed letters, and such artistic productions as prints, maps (whether on paper, or canvas, or cloth, and whether printed or written), and photographs when not on glass or in frames containing glass, and any description of paper, parchment, or vellum (whether printed, lithographed, written upon, or plain, or any mixture of the four), together with any binding, mounting, or covering of, upon, or belonging to any such article or production, or any portion thereof, or of or belonging to any paper, parchment, or vellum, and including also any cases or rollers of prints or maps, book markers (whether of paper or otherwise), pencils, pens, or other thing usually appertaining to any such articles or productions, paper, parchment, or vellum, or necessary for its safe transmission which should be sent in the same packet with any such article or production to which they or it should belong. And the said Commissioners did, in and by the said now reciting Warrant, further order and direct that it should be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant duly made at any time thereafter, to alter or repeal any of the rates of postage thereby fixed or altered, or any of the regulations thereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates of postage, or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates of postage that might be payable were to be paid.
