FRIDAY, APRIL 11, 1862.

St. James's Palace, April 7, 1862.

IT is the Queen's wish that no celebration of Her Majesty's Birthday should take place this year.

Order regulating the use of Locomotives within the Metropolis.

WHEREAS it appears to me, the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that the use of locomotives, unless restricted as hereinafter mentioned, on any highway within the limits of the metropolis, as described and defined in and by the Stat. 18 & 19 Vic., c. 120, entitled "An Act for the better Local Management of the Metropolis," is dangerous and inconvenient to the public:— I do hereby, by virtue of the provisions of "The Locomotive Act, 1861," by this Order under my hand, prohibit the use of any kind of Locomotive whatever, propelled by steam or any other than animal power, on the highways, within the limits of the metropolis, as in and by the said Act first hereinbefore mentioned, described, and defined, at any time except between the hours of ten o'clock at night and six o'clock in the morning.

Given under my hand, at Whitehall, the eleventh day of April, 1862.

(Signed) G. GREY.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF ACT BY MARSDEN, IN HUDDERSFIELD.

WHEREAS the Local Government Act, 1858, was duly adopted, on the 15th day of March, 1862, by the township of Marsden, in the parish of Huddersfield, in the West Riding of the county of York; and notice of such adoption has been duly given, in writing, to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as required by such Act; and whereas it has now been duly certified to me that a copy of such notice has been advertized for three successive weeks in the Huddersfield Chronicle and the Huddersfield Examiner, those being two of the local newspapers published and circulated in the aforesaid township, and that copies of such notice have also been affixed to the principal doors of each church and chapel in such township to which notices are usually affixed; and the period of twenty-one days fixed by the said Act for appeal against the resolution for the adoption of the said Act by such township has now expired, and no such appeal has been made:

Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby give notice, that the Local Government Act, 1858, has been adopted within the said township of Marsden, in the parish of Huddersfield, in the county of York aforesaid, and that, in accordance with the provisions thereof, the said Act will, at the expiration of two months from the date of the passing of the aforesaid resolution, have the force of law within such township of Marsden, in Huddersfield.

Given under my hand this 9th day of April, 1862.

SALVAGE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House, April 8, 1862.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of an award for the recovery of treasure from the Peninsular and Oriental Company's Steamer Ava, between the 1st July, and 24th October, 1859, by Her Majesty's Ship Retribution.

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said salvage are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any salvor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House."

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.
