SALVAGE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House, April 8, 1862.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of an award for the recovery of treasure from the Peninsular and Oriental Company's Steamer Ava, between the 1st July, and 24th October, 1859, by Her Majesty's Ship Retribution.

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said salvage are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any salvor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House."

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

Registrar of Friendly Societies in England.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an agreement authorized by 18 and 19 Vict., c. 63, s. 13, for the dissolution of a Friendly Society, called the Methodist Friendly Society, held at the Methodist Sunday School Room, Huntingdon, was transmitted to the Registrar of Friendly Societies in England, on the 7th day of April, 1862.

John Tidd Pratt, Registrar of Friendly Societies in England.
