TUESDAY, APRIL 15, 1862.

Whitehall, April 14, 1862.

THE following Address of Condolence on the occasion of the death of His Royal Highness the Prince Consort, which has been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been laid before the Queen by Sir George Grey, and has been received very graciously by Her Majesty :

THE Presbytery of Uist having now met for the first time since the lamented death of the Prince Consort, unanimously agreed to seize the opportunity of sending a respectful and humble address to your gracious Majesty, in order to express our sincere and heartfelt sympathy with your Majesty and the other members of the Royal Family in the deep affliction which recently visit your Majesty.

The Presbytery of Uist, in common with the whole of your Majesty's subjects, are deeply sensible of the noble qualities of head and heart with which the late Prince Consort was endowed,—qualities which, though they enabled their possessor to leave the impress of his character on a grateful nation, yet in the nature of things could not be fully appreciated until he was removed hence.

It is, however, more especially as the pious parent of that Royal Family, whose godly example and influence are beneficially felt over the whole extent of your Majesty's dominions, that we, along with others, love to cherish Prince Albert's memory.

It is our fervent prayer to Almighty God that the bright prospect of a blessed hereafter, in God's House of Many Mansions, where there is neither sorrow nor sighing, and where loving friends shall meet to part no more for ever, may be a source of comfort and consolation to your gracious Majesty and the other members of the Royal Family during all the days of your earthly sojourn.

In name and by appointment of the Presbytery of Uist,

Rod. McDonald, Minister of South Uist, by Lochmaddy.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
April 15, 1862.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, the following translation of a Portuguese Royal Decree, authorizing concessions of land in the provinces of Angola and Mozambique, "for the growth of cotton and other articles."

ART. 1. The government is authorized, after hearing the ultramarine council, to concede on ground rent all uncultivated or common lands belonging to government in the provinces of Angola and Mozambique to any societies, companies, or individuals, national or foreigners, for the growth of cotton or other articles, and the respective buildings and establishments.

§ 1. The concession is to be direct, and independent of public auction and of the formalities prescribed in chapter 4 of the law of 21st August, 1856.

§ 2. The ground rent is fixed at 10 reis per hectare.

§ 3. The extent of lands which may be conceded is to be regulated in harmony with the means which the contractors may command, and with the nature and location of such lands.

ART. 2. In each of the provinces of Angola and Mozambique the respective governor general, in council, is hereby authorized to carry into effect the concessions mentioned in the preceding article, and under the terms therein prescribed; provided, however, that each concession does not exceed 1,000 hectares.

ART. 3. All lands granted under the present decree are to be made available or under culture within a period of time not to exceed five years; such period to be stipulated in the concessions.

ART. 4. Any such landholder, who, within two years shall not have under regular cultivation at least the fourth part of the lands conceded to him, shall incur the loss of the land which he shall not have made available, or shall pay from 100 to 1,000 reis (from 11 cents to 1 dollar 11 cents) for each year passed and for each hectare uncultivated, as stipulated in Article 7 of the law of the 21st August, 1856.

§ 1. Should the landholder pay the aforesaid fine, the time specified in the present article will be prorogued for one year additional. If, however, at the expiration of this prorogued period the aforesaid one-fourth part of the land be not under cultivation, the holder will be subjected to the loss of the uncultivated land, which shall then revert to the State.

§ 2. The dates stipulated in the present article are to count from the day whereon possession be taken of the conceded lands by the lessee.

ART. 5. It is hereby permitted to the lessee, during the term of ten years from the date of the concession, and subject to the fiscal competent authority, to import free of duty all materials, machines, and utensils necessary for the cultivation of said lands, for the buildings and offices to be constructed thereon, and for the carrying of the articles produced therein.

ART. 6. The government will decree the fiscal process to be observed for the measurement and delivery of all the lands to the lessees.
