AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 26th day of April, 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order, made by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council, on the twenty-first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, did order that the Right Honourable Sir Edward Ryan, John George Shaw Lefevre, Esquire (now Sir John George Shaw Lefevre, Knight Commander of the Bath), and Edward Romilly, Esquire, or such other persons as Her Majesty should from time to time approve in the stead of them, or any of them, should be Commissioners for conducting the examination of the young men proposed to be appointed to any of the junior situations in Her Majesty's Civil Establishments, and should hold their offices at the pleasure of Her Majesty, and should have power, subject to the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to appoint from time to time such Assistant Examiners and others as might be required to assist them in the performance of the duties by the said Order assigned to them.

And whereas since the date of the said Order, the said Edward Romilly and Sir John George Shaw Lefevre, have severally resigned their said offices of Commissioners to which they were so appointed as aforesaid: and whereas it is deemed expedient that the said Sir Edward Ryan should be appointed First Commissioner for the purpose aforesaid, and that the Right Honourable Sir Edmund Walker Head, Baronet, Knight Commander of the Bath, and the Honourable Edward Turner Boyd Twistleton, should be appointed Commissioners in the place and stead of the said

Sir John George Shaw Lefevre and Edward Romilly, Esquire; and further, that the said Commissioners should have power, subject to the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to appoint from time to time a Secretary and such Assistant Examiners and others, as may be required to assist them in the performance of their duties.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Sir Edward Ryan, Sir Edmund Walker Head, and the Honourable Edward Turner Boyd Twistleton, or such other persons as Her Majesty may from time to time approve in the stead of them, or any of them, shall be Commissioners, and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of Her Majesty for the purpose aforesaid—the said Sir Edward Ryan being the First Commissioner. And that the said Sir Edward Ryan, Sir Edmund Walker Head, and the Honourable Edward Turner Boyd Twistleton, shall have power, subject to the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to appoint from time to time a Secretary and such Assistant Examiners and others, as may be required to assist them in the performance of their duties; and further, shall have all powers and authorities given by the said Order.

And it is hereby further ordered, that the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury do prepare and submit to Parliament an estimate for the remuneration of the First Commissioner aforesaid.

And Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, doth confirm the said Order in all respects so far as the same is not hereby altered.

Edmund Harrison.
