

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 26th day of April, 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Anne, situate at Bucks Mills, in the parish of Woolfardisworthy, in the hundred of Hartland, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Woolfardisworthy, and of the parish of Parkham, in the said county and diocese which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Woolfardisworthy, and of the said parish of Parkham, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Anne, situate at Bucks Mills aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of Exeter; of Lucy Elizabeth Hawkes, of Abbey-road, Saint John's Wood, in the county of Middlesex, Widow, the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Woolfardisworthy; and of William Henry Stone, of Herne Hill, Dulwich, in the county of Surrey, Esquire, the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Parkham (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Woolfardisworthy, and of the said parish of Parkham, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Anne, situate at Bucks Mills aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Anne, Bucks Mills.'

"And we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said Lucy Elizabeth Hawkes and the said William Henry Stone (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry shall belong to, and be exercised by, Jane Marianne Elwes, of Walland Cary, in the said county of Devon, Widow, her heirs and assigns for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Anne, Bucks Mills, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Woolfardisworthy, in the hundred of Hartland, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, which is situate to the north of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish of Woolfardisworthy from the parish of Clovelly, in the same county and diocese, at a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'B. M. S. A. C. C. 1862, No. 1,' and placed at the middle of the western end of the fence dividing the close numbered 1740 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Woolfardisworthy, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 1752 upon the same maps, and extending thence first eastward to and along the middle of such fence, and continuing first in the same direction and then southward and then again eastward along the middle of the fences which divide the closes numbered respectively 1741 and 1737 upon the said maps from the closes numbered respectively 1752 as aforesaid, 1751, 1742 and 1736a upon the same maps, to a point in the middle of the footpath leading from Buckish Barton to Bitworthy, opposite to the middle of the eastern end of the last-described fence, dividing the close numbered 1737 from the close numbered 1736a as aforesaid; and extending thence southward along the middle of the said footpath as far as a point opposite to the middle of the western end of the fence dividing the close numbered 1735 upon the said maps from the close numbered 1736 upon the same maps, and extending thence eastward to and along the middle of the last described fence to a point in the middle of the road leading from Buckish Barton to Cranford, opposite to the middle of the eastern end of the same fence; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned road to its junction with the road leading from Cranford to Buckish Cross; and extending thence first northward and then eastward along the middle of the last-described road to a point in the middle of the road leading from Buckish Cross past the house and premises formerly used as a public-house, and known as 'The Merry Harriers,' to Higher Almstone; and extending thence in a direction generally southward along the middle of the last-mentioned road to its junction with the road leading from Cranford to Way Town; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of the fence dividing the close numbered 1626 upon the said maps, from the close numbered 1627 upon the same maps; and extending thence southward to and along the middle of the last-described fence, to its junction with the fence dividing the close numbered 1621 upon the said maps, from the close numbered 1627 as aforesaid; and extending thence first eastward and then north-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned fence and of the fences dividing the closes numbered respectively 1618 and 1617 upon the said maps from the close numbered 1627 as aforesaid, and from the closes numbered respectively 1629 and 1630 upon the same maps, to the boundary dividing the said parish of Woolfardisworthy from the parish of Parkham, in the hundred of Shebbear,
