

of Dunham with the chapelries of Darlton and Ragnall annexed, the sum of eighteen pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that on the first day of May next there shall, in respect of the time which has elapsed since the determination of the hereinbefore mentioned lease, be paid by us, to such vicar or incumbent, three such half-yearly payments.

"And we further recommend and propose that there shall also be paid by us, out of the common fund aforesaid, in each and every year, to the said vicar or incumbent, the sum of one hundred pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year: provided always that the said half yearly payment in respect of the last-mentioned sum of one hundred pounds shall be made only upon the production to us, on or before the first day of May and the first day of November aforesaid, of a certificate, under the hand of the Bishop of the diocese, that a Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the said parish of Dunham, or within one or other of the said chapelries of Darlton and Ragnall, during the preceding half year.

"And we further recommend and propose that if it shall appear to us to be expedient, at any future time, that instead of the annual sum of eighteen pounds, hereinbefore recommended to be paid by us to the Vicar or Incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Dunham with the chapelries of Darlton and Ragnall annexed, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditaments should be conveyed or assigned to such benefice or church in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained, shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution, or from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in Law immediately from and after the time when this order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 26th day of April, 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property now vested in us.

"Whereas under and by virtue of a certain indenture, bearing date the twenty-third day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and made or expressed to be made between the Reverend William Clement Bowen, Perpetual Curate of the perpetual curacy of Llanstinan, in the county of Pembroke, and in the diocese of Saint David's, of the first part; the Reverend James Propert Williams, Clerk, Subchanter of the cathedral church of Saint David's, Patron of the said perpetual curacy, of the second part; the Right Reverend Connop, Lord Bishop of Saint David's, Ordinary of the said perpetual curacy, of the third part; and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the fourth part; certain lands and hereditaments, situate in the parish of Llanarth, in the county of Cardigan, and in the parish of Fishguard, in the county of Pembroke, and particularly described in the schedule hereto annexed, became, and are now, vested in us, in fee simple for the purposes, and subject to the provisions, applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands and hereditaments aforesaid, are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in possession, but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof, as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law from time to time, to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and enquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."
