

curacy of the parish of Saint Giles, in the city of Durham aforesaid, so long as he shall remain such incumbent and no longer, the annual sum of ten pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, by way of compensation for the loss of fees, dues, or other emoluments, sustained by him by reason of the formation of the district of Belmont, which has since become a new parish, as before mentioned.

“And we further recommend and propose, that payment of the said annual sum of ten pounds shall be held to commence as from the fifteenth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, being the day upon which a church, provided for the said new parish of Belmont, was consecrated, and from which day the incumbent of the same new parish became empowered to perform in the church thereof, various offices which had theretofore been performed at the church of the said parish of Saint Giles, Durham, and also became entitled to retain for his own benefit the fees accruing therefrom.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures, relating to the matters aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Durham.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 26th day of April, 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England: in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property now vested in us.

“Whereas under and by virtue of a certain indenture bearing date the seventh day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and made or expressed to be made between Sir William Foster, of the city of Norwich, Baronet, of the first part; Frederick Squire, of No. 3, Cromwell-place, South Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, of the second part;

John Augustus Beaumont, of Wimbledon-park, in the county of Surrey, Esq., of the third part; and us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the fourth part; the piece or parcel of land situate in the parish of Wimbledon, in the county of Surrey, and described in the Schedule hereto annexed, became, and is now vested in us in fee simple, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

“And whereas the said piece or parcel of land is not subject to any outstanding lease or grant, but is now in possession; but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

“And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said piece or parcel of land, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such piece or parcel of land, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

“Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument, or instruments, in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell and dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any part of the said piece or parcel of land so vested in us as aforesaid, with its appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

SCHEDULE.

“All that piece or parcel of land situate in the parish of Wimbledon, in the county of Surrey, containing by admeasurement two acres two roods and five perches, more or less, which said piece or parcel of land is bounded on the north-west in part by the public highway leading from Wimbledon to Putney, and in part by a road leading from the same public highway to lands belonging to the said John Augustus Beaumont, on the north-east in part by lands belonging to the said John Augustus Beaumont, and in part by a piece of land belonging to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, on the south-east in part by Wimbledon Churchyard, and on other part and on the south-west by a parish road leading from the above-mentioned highway to Wimbledon Church.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct, that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this
