AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 26th day of April, 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James the Less, situate in Upper Garden-street, in the district chapelry of Saint Mary, Tothill-fields (heretofore part of the parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Westminster), in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint James the Less, situate in Upper Garden-street aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said district chapelry of Saint Mary, Tothill-fields, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint James the Less, Upper Garden-street, Westminster.'

"And with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being. Provided always that so long as the Reverend John Jennings, the present rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Westminster, shall remain such rector or incumbent, all the fees which shall be payable in respect of the solemnization or performance of marriages at the said church of Saint James the Less, shall be paid by the said minister thereof to the said John Jennings.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint James the Less, Upper Garden-street, Westminster, being:—

All that part of the district chapelry of Saint Mary, Tothill-fields (heretofore part of the parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Westminster), in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, which is situate to the south-west of an imaginary line, extending along the middle of Vauxhall-bridge-road."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof; and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James the Less, situate in Upper Garden-street, in the district chapelry of Saint Mary, Tothill-fields, in the county of Middlesex, to be called "The District Chapelry of Saint James the Less, Upper Garden-street, Westminster," be accordingly made; and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners, with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, bap-
