NOTIFICATION.

Foreign Office, June 17, 1862.

IT is hereby notified that the Right Honourable the Earl Russell, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has received from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Paris a Despatch, inclosing a copy of a Note from M. Thouvenel, dated the 7th instant, transmitting a copy of a Notification inserted in the "Moniteur" of that day, declaring the Ports of Tampico and Alvarado, in the Gulf of Mexico, to be blockaded by the French Forces; of which Notification the following is a Copy and Translation:

NOTIFICATION relative au Blocus des Ports de Tampico et d'Alvarado, dans le Golfe du Mexique.

Département de la Marine et des Colonies.

Il est notifié, par les présentes, que S. Exc. le ministre de la marine et des colonies a été informé par le vice-amiral commandant en chef les forces navales françaises dans le golfe du Mexique que le 1er mai dernier, et à partir dudit jour, il a été établi, par les forces navales placées sous son commandement, un blocus effectif des ports de Tampico et d'Alvarado.

Il est, en outre, notifié par les présentes, que toutes les mesures autorisées par le droit des gens, et les traités respectifs existant entre Sa Majesté et les différentes puissances neutres, seront adoptées et exécutées par rapport à tous les navires qui tenteraient de violer le dit blocus.

[The following Order in Council is substituted for that which appeared in the Gazette of the 10th instant.]

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of June, 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 44th section of the Harbours and Passing Tolls, &c. Act, 1861, it is enacted that "The Dover Harbour Board may for the purpose of maintaining and improving the said harbour, with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, impose rates on vessels using the harbour, and on goods landed or shipped in the harbour not exceeding the rates

"specified in Schedule A, annexed to the Burgh Harbours (Scotland) Act, 1853."

And whereas the Dover Harbour Board have prepared and submitted for Her Majesty's approval a schedule of rates (a copy of which is subjoined), as the rates to be levied by them; and whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the said rates do not exceed the rates specified in the schedule A of the Burgh Harbours (Scotland) Act, 1853, and that the same are reasonable and proper.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in her, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve, and doth hereby approve and signify her consent to the said schedule of rates so submitted as aforesaid by the Dover Harbour Board.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF ACT BY THE TOWNSHIP OF HOLYWELL, FLINTSHIRE.

WHEREAS the Local Government Act, 1858, was duly adopted by the township of Holywell, in the parish of Holywell, in the county of Flint, on the 21st day of May, 1862; and notice of such adoption has been duly given in writing to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as required by such Act; and whereas it has now been duly certified to me that a copy of such notice has been advertized for three successive weeks in the Flintshire Observer and Carnarvon Herald, that being one of the local newspapers published and circulated in the aforesaid township, and that copies of such notice have also been affixed to the principal doors of each church and chapel in such township to which notices are usually affixed, and the period of twenty-one days fixed by the said Act for appeal against the resolution for the adoption of the said Act by such township has now expired, and no such appeal has been made.

Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby give notice, that the Local Government Act, 1858, has been duly adopted within the said township of Holywell, in the parish of Holywell, Flintshire, and that, in accordance with the provisions thereof, the said Act will, at the expiration of two months from the date of the passing of the aforesaid resolution, have the force of law within such township.

Given under my hand this 14th day of June, 1862.

(Signed) G. Grey.

CONTRACT for the Supply of PARCHMENTS and VELLUMS, England, for one year, from 1st July, 1862, to the 30th June, 1863.

Her Majesty's Stationery Office,
June, 1862.

THE Comptroller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office is ready to receive tenders for various descriptions of required for the Public Service in England.

Particulars of contract may be obtained, and samples of the parchments may be seen, at the Stationery Office, between the hours of ten and four.

Tenders to be addressed to the Comptroller of the Stationery Office, Storey's Gate, Westminster, to be marked on the cover "Tender for Parchment," and to be delivered by twelve o'clock on Wednesday, the 18th day of June, 1862, after which day and hour no tender can or will be received.

CONTRACTS FOR RUM, VINEGAR, PEPPER, AND SPLIT PEAS.

Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Somerset House,
June 9, 1862.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Monday the 23rd instant, at half-past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:

Rum, 50,000 gallons; to be delivered in three weeks from the date of contract, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Vinegar, 15,000 gallons; half to be delivered in one calendar month, and the remainder in one calendar month afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Pepper, 5 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Split Peas, 600 qrs.; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power for selection.

Payment for the rum will be made for the proof gallons to one-tenth of a gallon, the liquid contents being ascertained to the half gallon.

The rum and pepper to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where they are lying.

Samples of the rum to be sent in pints for each Import Mark, and the average strength of each Mark Ex to be stated, and not an average of different marks or strengths of several imports; and any parcel of rum that is found not to be of the same quality, mark, or average strength of the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the officers.

Samples of the vinegar (not less than a quart), which the parties tendering may purpose to supply, must accompany their tenders, as the delivery will be required to be made in accordance with the samples which may be accepted, and the vinegar tendered to be No. 20, trade denomination.

The vinegar to be delivered in good, sound, strong, and substantial casks, which are to be retained as long as required by the said Commissioners or their officers without payment therefor, but are to be taken back from the said Victualling Stores (when emptied) by and at the expense of the contractor.

Samples of the pepper (not less than 2 lbs.), and of the split peas (not less than 2 quarts), must be produced by the parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the recent modifications of the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

CONTRACT FOR TINSMITHS' TOOLS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset - House,
June 11, 1862.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday, the 3rd July next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Gosport, and Plymouth, all such quantities of as may from time to time be demanded, under a contract for twelve months certain, and further until the expiration of three months' warning.

Patterns of the articles may be seen, and a form of the tender, a schedule of the articles, and the conditions of the contract may be obtained at this office, and at the Victualling Yards at Deptford, Gosport, and Plymouth.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose.

No tender will be received after half-past one o'clock, on the day of treaty; and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Tinsmiths' Tools," and must also be delivered at Somerset House, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £500 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR CASKS FOR SALT MEAT.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-House, June 13, 1862.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday, the 3rd July next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford:

6,000 TIERCES,
6,000 BARRELS,

to be delivered within fifteen weeks from date of contract, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering; viz.: not less than 400 Tierces and 400 Barrels in each week.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the Casks.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any.

A sample of the tierces and of the barrels may be seen at Her Majesty's Victualling Yard at Deptford.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

Particular attention is called to the recent modification of the conditions of the contract, which may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Casks," and must also be delivered at Somerset-house.

SALE OF HER MAJESTY'S SHIP TEAZER.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, June 11, 1862.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday, the 19th instant, between the hours of twelve and two o'clock, they will be ready to receive sealed tenders for the purchase of

Her Majesty's Steam Ship TEAZER, 296 tons burthen, 40 horse-power, lying at Deptford, with engines on board.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Her Majesty's ship Teazer," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place.

Persons wishing to view the ship must apply to the Superintendent of Her Majesty's Dock Yard at Deptford for notes of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here and at the yard.

NOTICE is hereby given, pursuant to the Statute 22nd and 23rd Victoria, chapter 35, that all persons having any claims or demands upon the estate of Christopher Thomas Mason, deceased, late of Chelmsford, in the county of Essex, Gentleman (who died on the 31st day of January, 1862, and whose Will was proved by his nephews, Thomas Cockshott Mason and John Matthew Mason, the executors therein named in the Principal Registry of Her Majesty's Court of Probate, on the 12th day of May, 1862), are requested to send in their claims to us, on behalf of the said executors, at our office, in Chelmsford aforesaid, on or before the 5th day of September next. And notice is hereby further given, that after that day the said executors will proceed to distribute the assets of the said testator among the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to such claims as the said executors shall then have notice; and the said executors will not be liable for the assets so distributed to any person of whose claims they shall not have had notice at the time of distribution.—Dated this 12th day of June, 1862.

GEPP and VELEY, Solicitors, Chelmsford.

THOMAS FARROR, Printer, Deceased.

Pursuant to the Statute 22nd and 23rd Victoria, cap. 35, intitled "An Act to further amend the Law of Property, and to relieve Trustees."

NOTICE is hereby given, that all creditors and other persons having any claim or demand against the estate of Thomas Farror, late of the town of Monmouth, in the county of Monmouth, Printer (who died on the 30th day of May, 1861, and whose Will was proved in the Principal Registry of Her Majesty's Court of Probate by Thomas Prosser, of the town of Monmouth, in the county of Monmouth, Surgeon, and John Leach Nicholas, of the same town, Gentleman, the executors therein named, on the 25th day of October, 1861), are hereby required to send particulars of such claim or demand, in writing, to me, the said John Leach Nicholas, on or before the 12th day of July, 1862, after which day the said executors will proceed to distribute the whole of the assets of the said deceased among the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to the debts, claims, or demands of which they shall then have had notice; and the said executors will not be liable for the assets, or any part thereof, so distributed to any person or persons of whose claim or demand they shall not have had notice at the time of such distribution.—Dated this 10th day of June, 1862.

JOHN L. NICHOLAS, Solicitor, Monmouth.

ANN LLEWELLIN, Deceased, formerly Ann Watson, Widow.

Pursuant to an Act of Parliament, passed in the 22nd and 23rd years of the reign of Her present Majesty, cap. 35, intitled "An Act to further amend the Law of Property, and to relieve Trustees."

NOTICE is hereby given, that creditors and other persons having any claims or demands against or upon the estate of Ann Llewellyn, formerly of No. 8, Grove-lane, Camberwell, and late of No. 5, Camberwell-grove, in the county of Surrey, Widow, deceased (who died on or about the 5th day of September, 1861, and whose Will was proved on or about the 27th day of December, 1861, in the Principal Registry of Her Majesty's Court of Probate, by Thomas Benton, of Terrington, and by James Alphonsus Jones, of No. 6, Surrey-villas, Camberwell New-road, in the county of Surrey, Silversmith, the executors named in the said will), are to send in the particulars, in writing, of their debts, claims, or demands to the said executors above-named, or one of them, at their aforesaid residences, on or before the 18th day of August, 1862, at the expiration of which time the said executors will distribute the assets of the said testatrix among the parties entitled thereto, having regard to the claims only of which the said executors shall then have had notice; and that the said executors will not be liable for the assets, or any part thereof, so distributed to any person of whose debt, claim, or demand such executors shall not at the time of distribution of the said assets, or a part thereof, have had notice. And whereas the said testatrix, by her said will, after giving the specific and pecuniary legacies therein mentioned, gave all the residue of her estate and effects whatsoever to her executors in trust for all her nephews and nieces that might be living at her death, the children of her brothers and sisters (except her niece, Sarah Cheshire), and a great niece therein-named as therein-mentioned. Notice is hereby also given, that all such nephews and nieces of the said testatrix (except the said Sarah Cheshire), are to send in their names and addresses to the said executors above-named, or one of them, at their aforesaid residences, on or before the said 18th day of August, 1862, in order that the said executors may be accurately informed of all the persons who claim to be such nephews and nieces (except as aforesaid), and that the said executors will not be liable for any part or parts of the said residue which may be claimed by any such nephew or niece, nephews or nieces of the said testatrix of whom they may be uninformed at the time of their paying or distributing of the said residue, but that such payment or distribution will be made with regard to the claims only of such of the said nephews and nieces of the said testatrix of whom the said executors shall have notice at the time of making such payment or distribution as last aforesaid.—Dated this 16th day of June, 1862.

For my Co-Executor and myself, JAMES A. JONES. WOOLLASTON and DAVISON, No. 77, Basinghall-street, London, Solicitors.

BRITISH HONDURAS.

I SAMUEL SWIRE PLUES, Esq., the Keeper of the Public Records of British Honduras, and Registrar under the Act for simplifying the Title to Lands in British Honduras, in pursuance of the said Act, hereby give notice to all whom it may concern, that the undernamed persons have applied to me, according to the said Act, to register their title to the undermentioned lands; and further that I am, by warrant of the Acting Attorney-General, authorized to proceed thereon; and further, that this is the sole publication of this notice in the London Gazette; and further, that all persons, other than the applicants claiming any estate interest, power or right in or affecting those lands, or any part thereof, and whether or not resident within British Honduras, and whether or not under any disability, must deliver or transmit, by themselves, their guardians, next friends, or committees, or their agents, to the Registrar under the Act aforesaid, at his office in Belize, notice in writing, specifying the estate, interest, power, or right, which they so claim, and the evidence in support thereof, and also that every claim to any such estate, interest, power or right not so made, will, at the expiration of two years after the third publication of the notice, in the Honduras Gazette, and for ever thereafter, be barred, extinguished, and null and void as against all aliens for valuable consideration of those lands, and will at the expiration of ten years after the third publication of this notice, and for ever thereafter, be absolutely barred, extinguished, and null and void to all intents and purposes.

List of Applicants and Lands.

William Harrison, James Young, and Frederick Robert Bevan, respectively, of the city of London, in England, and Philip Toledo and Malcolm Glassford, respectively, of Belize, in British Honduras, carrying on business together in Belize aforesaid, under the firm of Young, Toledo, and Co., apply to be registered as entitled to an estate in fee simple, in the following lands in British Honduras:—

1. The lands or mahogany work situate between Blue Creek and Rio Bravo, commencing at the confluence of Blue Creek and Booth's River, and extending along Booth's River and Rio Bravo as far as Victoria Creek or lower mark of Doctor Francis Young, on said Rio Bravo, and along Blue Creek, and left or northern branch thereof, as far as the lower mark of a work on said creek or branch thereof, the property of the applicants, and numbered 2 in this application, said lower mark being the point of intersection with Blue Creek, or its said branch of the upper or south-western boundary line of the present work, which starts from Victoria Creek aforesaid, on Rio Bravo, and continues on a course of N. 56° W. across to Blue Creek, as per diagram annexed to the application.

2. That piece or parcel of land originally three mahogany works, situate on the right bank of Blue Creek or northern branch thereof, and extending along thereon in a straight line upwards for a distance of twelve miles from the upper boundary mark of the work No. 1 in the application; both side lines on a course of S. 56° E., extending to the back line of the Rio Bravo Works at a distance of eight miles from that river.

3. The lands or mahogany work commonly known as Ten Pound Kay Work, situate on the right bank of the Rio Hondo, and extending along thereon upwards in a straight line from a point 44 yards below Ten Pound Kay, for about three and a half miles or to the lower mark of a work called Ramonal, in said river, both side lines on a course of S. 58° E., running aback, the lower half way to the sea, and the upper half way to Four Mile Lagoon, in New River, the back line being on a course of S. 39° W., as per diagram annexed to the application.

4. The lands or mahogany work known as Bark Log Work, situate on New River, and extending along both banks hereof for a distance of five-eighths of a mile or thereabouts, in a straight line, the upper side line on a course of S. 71° E., being the division line with Indian Hill Work, the property of the applicants; and the lower line on a course of S. 58° E., being the division line with the respective works of Don Florencio Vega and Don Crisanto Carillo, and extending aback on the left bank half way to the Rio Hondo, the back line on that bank being on a course of S. 37° 30' W., and on the right bank for about 2½ miles, or till it intersects the lower side line of Indian Hill Work, as per diagram annexed to the application.

5. The lands or mahogany work known as Wilson's, situate on the left or western bank of New River, and extending up along thereon from the upper mark of Guinea Grass Work, at a point immediately above a creek leading to Guinea Grass Bank for about 1½ miles in a straight line, or to the lower mark of Narrow's Work, both side lines on a course of N. 78° W., extending half way across to Rio Hondo, as per diagram annexed to the application.

6. The lands or mahogany work known as Narrows, situate on the left or western bank of New River, and extending up along thereon from the upper mark of Wilson's Work for about 2½ miles in a straight line, or to the lower mark of Ship's Yard Work; the lower and upper side lines on courses respectively of N. 78° W., and N. 82° W., extending half way across to Rio Hondo, as per diagram annexed to the application.

7. The lands or mahogany work known as Ship's Yard, situate on the left or western bank of New River, and extending up along thereon from the upper mark of Narrow's Work for about 1½ miles in a straight line, or to the lower mark of Eight mile Creek Work, the property of the applicants, both lower and upper side lines on courses respectively of N. 82° W., and S. 68° W., extending half way across to Rio Hondo, as per diagram annexed to the application.

8. The lands or mahogany work known as Pineridge, situate on the right or eastern bank of New River, and extending up along thereon from the upper mark of Guinea Grass Work for about 3½ miles in a straight line, or to the upper mark of said Pineridge Work at Doctor or Wagner's Creek; the lower and upper side lines on courses respectively of S. 78° E., and S. 83° E., extending the usual distance aback, as per diagram annexed to the application.

9. That piece or parcel of land or mahogany work, originally located by Steven Stain, on the right or eastern branch of Muscle Creek, and extending along thereon downwards, from Silk Grass Creek, which forms its upper boundary mark for a distance of 2½ miles, or to the upper mark of a work known as Evans's, the upper and lower side lines on a course of S. 48° 30' E., extending the usual distance aback, and the back line being on a course of N. 7° E., as per diagram annexed to the application.

10. The lands or mahogany work known as Monkey Run Work, situate on the right or southern bank of the Belize River, and extending up along thereon from the upper mark of a work called Erindale at the Great Falls for about 3½ miles in a straight line, or to the lower mark of a work called Cockrico at about two hundreds below Labouring Creek, on the opposite side of the river; the lower side line on a course of S. 55° E., and the upper side line on a course of S. 78° E., both extending aback half way to the River Sibun, as per diagram annexed to the application.

11. The lands or mahogany works severally known as More To Morrow—Rock Dondo—Graham's No. 1, and Graham's No. 2—situate on the Old or Belize River, and on Beaver Dam Creek, and extending in one continuous block along the right or southern bank of said river, from Beaver Dam Creek, upwards, for about 6½ miles in a straight line, or to the lower mark of a work called Never Delay, and along the left or western bank of said Creek from the River, upwards for about eight miles in a straight line, or to the point of intersection of the back line with the said Creek, the upper side line being the division line with Never Delay Work, extends aback on a course of S. 82° E., till it meets the lower line of Mount Pleasant Work, and the back line beginning here, extends along such lower line on a course of S. 56° E., till it meets the lower line of Orange Walk Work, and thence along that line on a course of S. 86° E., till it reaches Beaver Dam Creek or eastern boundary of the said lands, as per diagram annexed to the application.

12. The lands or mahogany works severally known as Society Hall Mount Hope, and August's, and numbered respectively 7, 6, and 30, on Du Vernay's general plan of the Settlement, situate on the Belize River and on Barton Creek, and extending on the north along the right or southern bank of said river, from the lower boundary mark of Society Hall Work, at Monkey Falls, up to Barton Creek—a distance of 5½ miles or thereabouts—on the west along the right or eastern bank of said creek, from the river upwards, for a distance of eight miles in a straight line; thence on the south on a course for first half the distance of N. 79° E., and of S. 82° E., for the other half across to Roaring Creek, and thence on the east along the left or western bank of said creek (downwards), and along the lower side line of Society Hall to the river, said lower side line of Society Hall, starting from Monkey Falls and continuing on a course of S. 86° 30' E., across to said creek, as per diagram annexed to the application.

13. All that piece or parcel of land comprising the mahogany works severally known as More Force, Cool Shade, M. Hickeys, Alexander's, Martins, Black Rock, Bullet Tree, Tiger Run, Hermitage, Hill Bank, and Stony Hill, all contiguous to one another, and forming a continuous block of land extending, on the north, along the right or southern bank of the River Belize, upwards from Barton Creek, to the eastern branch of the said river, and thence on the west along the right or eastern bank of the said branch up to the Spanish Column or upper boundary mark of Stony Hill Work, on the south, on a course of S. 79° E., from said upper mark of Stony Hill Work, across to Barton Creek, and thence on the east, along the left or western bank of said creek, to its mouth, as per diagram annexed to the application.

14. That piece or parcel of land, situate at Usher's Point, in the town of Belize, together with all buildings thereon, extending along the southern bank of the River Belize from the canal upwards, a distance of 272 feet, bounded on the north by said River Belize; on the west by the lot late the property of Mrs. W. Usher and children, and now of the applicants; on the south by the lots of E. Neal and others; and on the east by the canal, all as more particularly delineated on the diagram thereof annexed to the application.

15. That piece or parcel of land originally two mahogany works, severally known as Mount Hope and Retaliation, situate on the River Sibun, and extending downwards, along the left or northern bank thereof, from Colonel English Creek, or lower mark of a work called Orange Work, for a distance of six miles in a straight line, the upper line on a course of N. 49° W., and the lower on the same course till it meets the centre or division line, and thereon on a course of N. 20° W., both extending the usual distance aback, as per diagram annexed to the application.

16. That piece or parcel of land originally two mahogany works, severally known as Frank's Eddy and Thrace, situate on the River Sibun and the western branch thereof, and extending along the left or western bank of same upwards from the mouth of Nancy Porter's Creek, or upper mark of a work called Monkey Bay, as far as the second cave in the said branch (a supposed distance of seven to eight miles in a straight line), the lower side line extending on a course of N. 56° W., to the back line of the Beaver Dam Creek Works, at half distance across to said creek, then following such back line, on a course of S. 10° W., till it meets the upper side line of said Beaver Dam Creek Works, and thence along such upper side line, on a course of due west to Beaver Dam Creek, and the upper side line on a course of N. 87° W., extending aback half way to Roaring Creek, the back line beginning where the lower side line strikes Beaver Dam Creek, follows the course of said creek to its head, and thence continues on a south-westerly course, dividing distance equally with the Roaring Creek Works, as per diagram annexed to the application.

17. All that piece or parcel of land situate on the River Sibun and its western branch, and originally two mahogany works numbered 81 and 82 on Duvernay's general plan of the settlement, beginning at the confluence of the said river and branch, and extending on the east and west along their respective banks as far up as the lower side line of St. Hermain's work, which said side line on a course of N. 79° W. forms the southern boundary of said piece or parcel of land, as per diagram annexed to the application.

18. The lands or mahogany work marked No. 1 on the diagram accompanying the application, situate on the right or eastern bank of the River Sibun, and extending along thereon in a straight line from the upper mark of W. Maskall's work on said river, at a point six miles below Runaway Creek, for a distance of three miles or to the lower mark of the work No. 2 on said diagram, both side lines on a course of S. 45° E., extending the usual distance aback.

19. The lands or mahogany work marked No. 2 on the diagram accompanying the application, situate on the right or eastern bank of the River Sibun, and extending along thereon, in a straight line from the upper mark of work No. 1 on said diagram, a distance of three miles or to the lower mark of work No. 3 on said diagram at Runaway Creek, both side lines on a course of S. 45° E., extending the usual distance aback.

20. The lands or mahogany work marked No. 3 on the diagram accompanying the application, situate on the right or eastern bank of the River Sibun, and extending along thereon, in a straight line from Runaway Creek, or upper mark of work No. 2 on said diagram, a distance of three miles or to the lower mark of Work No. 4 on said diagram, both side lines on a course of S. 45° E., extending the usual distance aback.

21. The lands or mahogany work marked No. 4 on the diagram accompanying the application, situate on the right or eastern bank of the River Sibun, and extending along thereon in a straight line from the upper mark of work No. 3 on said diagram, a distance of three miles or to the upper boundary mark at Venture Creek, both side lines on a course of S. 45° E., extending the usual distance aback.

22. The lands or mahogany works severally known as Uncle Sam and Plenty, situate on the right or southern bank of the River Settee, and extending along thereon in a straight line downwards from the lower mark of W. J. Peebles' work, at a point immediately above Dancing Pool Kay, for a distance of six miles or to the lower boundary of said lands or mahogany works, indicated by the mark C. W. F., there set up—both side lines on a course of due south running the usual distance aback, as per diagram annexed to the application.

23. That piece or parcel of land or mahogany work originally granted to Joseph E. Swasey, deceased, and known as the Red Bank, situate on the left or north bank of the first right branch ascending of Monkey River, and extending along thereon in a straight line, from a point immediately below Tiger Kay, a distance of nearly four miles upwards, bounded on the east and west by crown lands, and on the south by the river, both side lines on a course of due north, extending the usual distance aback, as per diagram annexed to the application.

24. That piece or parcel of land or mahogany work originally granted to J. H. Petzold, deceased, situate on the north and south banks of the river Temash, and extending along both banks thereof in a straight line downwards, from the upper marks at or near Warm Water Creek, for a distance of three miles, or to the upper marks of Elizabeth Petzold's grant—the side lines on a due north and south course, extending on both banks the usual distance aback, as per diagram annexed to the application.

25. That piece or parcel of land or mahogany work originally granted to Elizabeth Petzold, situate on the north and south banks of the river Temash, and extending along both banks thereof in a straight line, from the lower marks of J. H. Petzold's grant downwards, for a distance of three miles, the side lines on a due north and south course, extending on both banks the usual distance aback, as per diagram annexed to the application.

The said William Harrison, James Young, and Frederick Robert Bevan, respectively, of the city of London aforesaid, and the said Philip Toledo and Malcolm Glassford, of Belize aforesaid, carrying on business together in Belize aforesaid, under the firm of Young, Toledo, and Co., apply to be registered, as entitled to an estate of freehold for the natural life of Mrs. Ann Usher, Widow, of and in the following lands in British Honduras:—

26. That piece or parcel of land known as the Hanging Rock or Kay Work, situate and beginning at the confluence of the eastern and western branches of the Old or Belize River, and extending on the east, north, and west, along the respective banks thereof, up to the back or southern boundary line of said Kay Work, which commences at Hanging Rock, on the eastern branch, and extends across to the western branch, on a course of S. 82° W. according to the diagram annexed to the application.

John Hodge and James Barlett Hyde, surviving Copartners of the late firm of James Hyde and Co., Merchants and Mahogany Cutters, of Belize, claim to be entitled to an estate in fee simple, in the following lands in British Honduras:—

Master of the Rolls.—Between David Hill Young and Frederick Dealtry Lewin, Plaintiffs, and Samuel Neill, William J. Gilbert, Ambrose Boyson, and Francis Taggart, Defendants.

TAKE notice that this Honourable Court will be moved before the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, on the 3rd day of July next ensuing, or so soon after as Counsel can be heard, by Mr. Welford, of Counsel for the plaintiffs, that the bill of complaint, filed in this cause on the 8th day of February, 1861, and amended on the 22nd day of February, 1861, may be ordered to be taken, pro confesso, against the defendant, William J. Gilbert, pursuant to the general orders of this Honourable Court.—Dated this 2nd day of June, 1862.

Yours, &c.,

WILLIAM SMITH, Plaintiffs' Solicitor, No. 15,
Wilmington-square.

To Mr. William J. Gilbert, of Shediac, in the province of New Brunswick, North America, one of the above-named Defendants.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of the Act passed in the 19th and 20th years of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates," and in the Matter of certain hereditaments devised by the will of Robert Gunter, Esq., deceased; that is to say: (1.) All those two pieces of land, containing 12A. 2R. 32P., formerly Whitbreads, now in the occupations of Messrs. Atwoods and Gibbs, situate in Walham Green, in the parish of Fulham, in the county of Middlesex. (2.) A small strip of land, situate at Earl's-court, in the parish of St. Mary Abbott's, Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, fronting the Richmond-road, and now forming part of a field called Coleherne Field. (3.) All that messuage, situate at Earl's-court aforesaid, with the hereditaments thereto adjoining, now in the occupation of Miss Burney, Mr. Williams, and Michael Fenton. (4.) All that piece of land at North End, in the said parish of Fulham, formerly Thorpe's, now in the occupation of Messrs. Atwood. (5.) All those the copyhold messuages and hereditaments, situate at North End aforesaid, formerly Rice's, now in the occupation of Messrs. Atwood.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Petition in the above-mentioned Matter was, on the 27th day of May, 1862, presented to the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, by Robert Gunter, of Wetherby Grange, in the county of York, Esquire, a Captain in Her Majesty's 4th Regiment of Dragoon Guards, James Gunter, of Earl's-court-lodge, in the parish of Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, a Captain in Her Majesty's 1st Regiment of Dragoon Guards, and William Edward Maude, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Esquire, praying that a contract of the 10th January, 1862, entered into with the West London Extension Railway Company, so far as the same relates to hereditaments devised by the will of the said testator, Robert Gunter, and a contract of the 1st May, 1862, entered into with the Petitioner, Robert Gunter, might be respectively completed, and that the purchase moneys on the second contract, and the apportioned purchase money on the first contract, might be paid to the petitioners, William Edward Maude and James Gunter, as trustees of the will of the said Robert Gunter, deceased, that general powers of leasing such of the hereditaments mentioned in the title of the said petition as were not comprised in either of the said contracts might be vested in the petitioners, William Edward Maude and James Gunter, or the survivor of them, and other the trustees for the time being of the will of the said testator, Robert Gunter, with the consent of the tenant for life for the time being, and to the approbation of the said Court, and that the costs of the petitioners of the said application and the aforesaid sales might be taxed and paid out of the moneys to be so paid to the petitioners, William Edward Maude and James Gunter; and notice is hereby also given, that the petitioners may be served with any order of the Court, or notice relating to the subject of the said petition, at the office of their solicitors, Messrs. Robison and Tomlin, No. 48, Conduit-street, Regent-street, London.—Dated this 6th day of June, 1862.
