*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
July 3, 1862.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Washington, enclosing a copy of the following circular addressed by Mr. Seward to the United States Consuls, respecting the restrictions imposed upon Trade with certain Ports in North Carolina, South Carolina, and Louisiana.

Circular.—No. 13.

*Department of State,
Washington, May 30, 1862.*

To the

Consul of the United States

Sir,—Referring to Circular Letter of this Department, No. 12, dated May 12, transmitting the Proclamation of the President relaxing the blockade of certain ports of the United States, together with the Regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury in regard to trade with the ports thus opened by Proclamation, and prescribing your duties in the premises, I have now to transmit for your further information and guidance additional instructions upon the same subject.

The Secretary of the Treasury has communicated to this Department a copy of his letter of the 20th instant to Collectors of Customs at ports in the loyal States, prohibiting the shipment of certain articles, contraband of war, to the ports of Beaufort, in the State of North Carolina, Port Royal, in the State of South Carolina, and New Orleans, in the State of Louisiana.

All vessels having on board the articles which are thus indicated by the Secretary of the Treasury as contraband will be refused clearances for the ports above-mentioned, or either of them.

These articles are the following :

Cannons, Mortars, Fire-arms, Pistols, Bombs, Grenades, Firelocks, Flints, Matches, Powder, Saltpetre, Balls, Bullets, Pikes, Swords, Sulphur, Helmet or Boarding Caps, Sword Belts, Saddles and Bridles (always excepting the quantity of the said articles which may be necessary for the defence of the ship and of those who compose the crew), Cartridge Bag material, Percussion and other Caps, Clothing adapted for uniforms, Resin, Sail Cloth of all kinds, Hemp and Cordage, Masts, Ship-timber, Tar and Pitch, Ardent Spirits, Military persons in the service of the enemy, Despatches of the enemy and articles of like character with those specially enumerated.

You are also informed that Collectors of Customs of the United States have been also instructed to require bonds, with sufficient sureties, conditioned for the faithful fulfilment of all the conditions imposed by law or Departmental Regulations from shippers of the following articles to the ports opened, or to any other ports from which they may easily be, and are probably intended to be, reshipped in aid of the existing insurrection, namely :

Liquors of all kinds, Coals, Iron, Lead, Copper, Tin, Brass, Telegraphic Instruments, Wire, Porous Cups, Platina, Sulphuric Acid, Zinc, and all other telegraphic materials, Marine Engines, Screw Propellers, Paddle-wheels, Cylinders, Cranks, Shafts, Boilers, Tubes for Boilers, Fire-bars, and every article or any other component part of an engine or boiler, or any article whatever which is, can, or may become applicable for the manufacture of Marine Machinery or for the Armour of Vessels.

In accordance with the spirit of these instructions to Collectors of Customs, by which stringent restrictions are imposed upon vessels of the United States, you are specially instructed to refuse licenses to all vessels which, whatever the ostensible destination, are believed by you, on satisfactory grounds, to be intended for ports or places in possession or under control of insurgents against the United States, or from whence there is imminent danger that the goods, wares, or merchandise, of whatever description, laden on such vessels, will fall into the possession or under the control of such insurgents; and in all cases where, in your judgment, there is ground for apprehension that any goods, wares, or merchandise shipped at your port, will be used, in any way, for the aid of the insurgents or the insurrection; or be transported to any place under insurrectionary control, and used to give aid or comfort to such insurgents.

In short you are specially instructed to refuse every application for a license for any vessel having on board as part of her cargo any of the articles designated in either of the lists furnished by the Secretary of the Treasury.

You will perceive that these lists have been prescribed under the powers conferred by law on the Secretary of the Treasury to regulate our domestic trade, and security by bond is required from all American shippers of goods to the designated ports against any abuse of the privilege, and you will readily understand that foreign shippers cannot be placed on a more favourable footing than American merchants in the loyal ports of the United States.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

HIS Excellency the Governor-in-Chief directs the publication of the following notice, relative to Port Stephens' Lighthouse, from which a light will be exhibited from sunset to sunrise, on and after the 1st May next.

E. C. Weekes.

PORT STEPHENS' LIGHT.

The lighthouse is a circular white tower, built of stone, is 60 feet high to the centre of the lantern; and built upon a knoll 66 feet above the level of the sea; the light will consequently be 126 feet above that level, and will be seen in clear weather from a ship's deck, at a distance of about 17 miles, shewing a flash white and red light alternately every minute.

The lighthouse is situate in lat 32° 44' 37" south, long. 152° 13' east, and from which Morna Point bears south 50° west; eastern extremity of Broughton Isles N. 37° E.; Little Island N. 28° E.; Bondelbah (highest peak) N. 22° E.; centre of Cabbagetree Island N. 12° E.; Yacaaba Head Peak N. 8° W.; South Head Peak or Toomerec N. 29° W.

The light, with the exception of being slightly interrupted by the Islands, will be visible seaward from all points of an arc of 193°.

The knoll on which the lighthouse is erected should not be approached within one mile when rounding the light.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Mills Hill Chapel, situated at Mills Hill, in the township of Chadderton, in the county of Lancaster, in the district of Oldham, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 1st day of July, 1862, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm.
